In an effort to get up to speed with some real world emergency training, the Londonderry Fire and Police Departments took place in a joint venture with the Boston Federal Bureau of Intelligence (FBI) Bomb Squad, Federal Department of Homeland Security to detect and control radiological threats at the Manchester-Boston Regional Airport.

Recreation Commission Look at Community Pool Committee

Fall may be very close, but that does not mean that the Londonderry Recreation Commission is off the hook, as they had plenty to discuss during their latest meeting on September 10.

One of the topics discussed by the commission was on the subject of the Town Council's latest proposition to build a community swimming pool in Londonderry.

The council has established a committee to explore the idea that would require one representative from the Recreation Commission.

However, commission members were quick to point out that there has been a very negative reception towards the idea; with residents questioning the need for a pool in the past. It is believed a very rough estimate for such a project would cost around $3.5 million dollars. This cost would include construction and cover employment of a maintenance crew and life guards.

Commission member Chantal Schreiner mentioned, "Facebook chatter on the subject is very negative."

Overall, it didn't seem like there was much support from the commission for the pool, and members wondered where the idea sprang from.

Glen Douglas volunteered to represent the commission.

Members also suggested that a question be put on the ballot for the next town election, to let the public vote on whether or not they would want to see this project go forward.

Another topic discussed was the suggestion to set up an official women's flag football team and an official competitive jump rope team

Londonderry High School Adds a Dozen More to Hall of Fame

CHRIS PANTAZIS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

It was the tail-end of an extremely busy 24 hours at Londonderry High School when, last Saturday night, Sept. 22, the school inducted another 12 deserving individuals into its hall of fame.

After having been all but forgotten for several decades after being established and maintained from 1986-96, the LHS Hall of Fame was revived by some extremely spirited, focused, and determined folks in 2016, and it now creates the kind of excitement which a school's hall of fame should create.

The evening's event was a worthy nightcap to a day of Mack Plaque games between LHS fall varsity sports squads and their arch-rivals from Pinkerton Academy which drew many hundreds of fans from both schools.

Hosted by Londonderry Town Manager Kevin Smith, and Londonderry High School principal, and hall of fame member, Jason Parent, the evening featured dinner in the LHS cafeteria followed by the induction ceremonies.

The inductees - many of whom are deeply woven into the sports history of Londonderry High in one way or another - included former principal Jim Elefante, 2013 grad

Children started the event by singing an apple picking song, then picked their first apple, followed by the first bite. Airport Exercise shire Bomb Squad at the airport with actual radioactive isotopes.

In one scenario, the isotopes were hidden in one of the parking areas at the airport, where police and fire personnel were sent out to detect and contain the material.

According to Londonderry Fire Department Captain Jim Roger, "Up until this exercise, all of the department's training has been in the classroom. This exercise allowed us to use the equipment we have in a 'real life' scenario."

Roger also explained that in recent years, with the threat of terrorists, and the expansion of industry in Londonderry, the idea that personnel in his department would have to learn how to deal with radiological issues is becoming more and more a fact of life.

Home Land Security officials consider the scenario to be a "Low Frequency but High Risk" issue. Meaning that although these issues won't be seen in town very often, when they do, they will create a very real danger to the community.

Most recently, according to Roger, the Londonderry Fire Department responded to an accident on I-93 where a van containing radiological material was involved in a rollover. Even though the material was never damaged, the issue of how to handle it was very real.

"The three-hour exercise served as a great learning experience," according to Roger.

Londonderry ALERT members took part in some training on Saturday in fire extinguishing and search and rescue. The group were at Central Fire Station for classroom and field training, and later brushed up on search and rescue. ALERT's mission is to maintain a trained, dedicated group of volunteers to assist the community and its public safety departments in times of need, serve as a source for education about emergency preparedness and prevention and to provide a valuable resource for the community through the continuous training and involvement of our members. The group enjoys friendships and camaraderie, while preparing for and offering services to their neighbors. If you are interested in joining the team, visit one of their bi-monthly meetings every other month at the Londonderry Police Station Community Room at 7 p.m. Visit londonderryalert.org for more information.

Orange Is The Color For This Season

The color orange comes to mind. Pumpkins and turning leaves, of course, but that special hunter orange that becomes part of our attire in the out of doors at this time of year is particularly important.

It's hunting season in the Granite State again, and that means those pristine woods in back of your home or along your favorite path are likely to resound with more than bird song.

The sounds of gunshots will soon be heard along with the leaf blowers, and that means exercising extra caution when you're in or near the woods whether you're aiming the gun or sipping coffee on the back porch.

Don't take chances. For hunters, always be sure of your target that what you see is really what you're hunting. In other words, identify your target before you fire. Always. Make sure you take seriously what you learned in hunter education. Know your weapon. The life you save may be your own or your neighbor's. And be certain you're not trespassing in pursuit of your hobby. Be respectful of the land where you hunt, and the neighbors around you.

Know the rules. If the land is posted "No Hunting" and you don't have personal permission to hunt there, go somewhere else. Just as important is leaving the land as you found it or maybe better.

Each year, both private and town-owned land is trashed and vandalized. Whether it's someone's idea of a private shooting range, complete with spent cartridges and beer cans, trees cut down without permission, or ATV damage to trails, the "rotten apple" spoils it for everyone else, hunter or non hunter. Clean up after yourself.

For the rest of us, this is the season when we don't want to be crashing around in the brush. Make it easy for the hunters and for yourself. Wear hunter orange when you're in an area where hunting is likely and make sure your faithful canine companion is sporting an orange scarf as well. If you enjoy wearing camouflage, it's time to change your fashion choices.

Fall is a beautiful time to be in the woods as long as we take literally the old adage that it's better to be safe than sorry.

We know the vast majority of hunters use common sense in the pursuit of their game, but in southern New Hampshire, woods and homes are close neighbors. On a clear fall morning, the sound of gunshots is a good clue that you're not alone.

Take care, and enjoy a beautiful fall.

Defending Trump

To the editor,

After seeing the hate and vitriol from some members of our community, I felt compelled to respond. The Russia Collusion is nothing but a hoax perpetrated on the American people by those seeking to cling to their globalist power via Hillary Clinton. The hate, violence and vitriol coming from the left is unprecedented. Trump Derangement Syndrome is real. If Trump colluded with Putin to get the following results, then maybe Obama should have colluded with Putin instead of Iran.

Under President Trump's leadership, American workers are experiencing more opportunities, confidence is soaring, and business is booming. American leadership on the world stage, secured vital investments in our military, and stood up against threats to our national security. POTUS has put the American people first, 3 million jobs have been created, 304,000 manufacturing jobs, 337,000 construction jobs. The unemployment rate has dropped to 3.8, the lowest rate since 2000, 67 percent of Americans believe now is a good time to find a quality job, job training and workforce development to empower workers, expanded apprenticeship opportunities. Consumer confidence in current conditions has reached a 17-year high, signed the historic Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. American families received $3.2 trillion in gross tax cuts and saw the child tax credit double, corporate tax rate was lowered from 35 percent to 21 percent so American businesses could be more competitive. 22 deregulatory actions for every new regulatory action. Renegotiating NAFTA. Advanced free, fair, and reciprocal trade deals that protect American workers. Withdrew from Trans-Pacific Partnership. Protecting American intellectual property from China's unfair practices. Moved the U.S. Embassy in Israel to Jerusalem. Ended the horrible Iran deal. Peaceful denuclearization of the Korean peninsula. Our Korean war dead have been returned. Rocket man isn't firing off missiles anymore. Rebuilding our military with $700 billion in defense spending. Decimated ISIS in the first year. Enforcing current immigration laws, 110,568 arrests of illegal aliens. Border Patrol has seized 284 pounds of fentanyl in FY 2018, already surpassing the total of 181 pounds seized in FY 2017. Launched a nationwide effort to fight the opioid crisis. Signed the Department of Veterans Affairs Accountability and Whistleblower Protection Act of 2017, improving processes for addressing VA misconduct, signed the VA Choice and Quality Employment Act into law, authorized $2.1 billion in additional funds for the Veterans Choice Program. Eliminated the penalty for Obamacare's burdensome individual mandate. Released a blueprint to lower drug prices, Right to Try Law. Executive order for small business to band together for 401ks. NATO countries paying their fair share. President Trump and his family work for free, he donates his salary every quarter to charity. What's to hate?

All the while the left and the MEDIA is drumming up nonsense to distract and ignore President Trump's accomplishments, the Russians and the Chinese are joining forces for war games. Let that sink in! Sadly I think the left is rooting for Russia and China, not America. Stop the hate #WalkAway.

Response to Homsey Letter

To the editor;

In a letter by Mr. Steve Homsey to the Londonderry Times, he denigrated a letter I wrote titled "Trump Haters". My practice is to not mention by name individuals I differ on political issues. I will take exception here. Yes Mr. Homsey, I watch Fox News as well as other networks to get a balanced view of political issues. Perhaps you should do so to understand how Democrats want to take America down a path to socialism at the expense of hard-working Americans, institute big government to run our lives, weaken our military to pay for welfare programs and reverse Trump's economic boom that has put money into your 401K and IRA assuming you have them. Perhaps you should look up definition of socialism. Hillary did enrich herself through illegal "Pay to Play" racketeering as Secretary of State. If only Sessions would get off his butt. Then there's the 1978 Whitewater scandal to build a resort with donated money that disappeared when Bill was Arkansas governor. The following weblink details a time-line of the scandal (<https://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-srv/politics/special/whitewater/timeline.htm>). In short, files of Hillary's money transactions as attorney who developed the resort package disappeared just prior to court proceedings. Hillary's associates in the scandal were convicted of various charges, but teflon Hillary escaped charges. Interestingly, the files that were to be used against her resurfaced two years later outside the Clinton's White House bedroom when Bill was President. Then Bill collected $500,000 for a 2010 speech to a Russian bank shortly before Congress proposed the Global Magnitsky Act that would sanction Russians tied to the bank for human-rights abuses. For the bill to get Congress-sional vote, Hillary's State Dept had to approve the sanctions. She didn't and the sanctions didn't go through. Putin called Hillary and personally thanked her. So much for Democrat's claim Putin has the goods on Trump. No Trump associates have been convicted of crimes associated with Trump's trumped up charges of Russian collusion to fix the 2016 election. Trump has been convicted by major networks through innuendo, with no facts. It appears you have swallowed the cool-aid. There's a saying in Texas; "dream on Cowboy". Relative to who sponsored Sequestration that reduced the military defense budget in 2013, Bob Woodward of recent fame of the Washington Post stated that Obama proposed Sequestration. Both Parties favored budget reductions (Sequestration), but Republicans did not favor reducing the military budget. Instead Republicans wanted to reduce discretionary spending; whereas Democrats wanted to decrease the military budget and increase discretionary spending for welfare programs. Obama subsequently signed the Sequestration Bill that reduced the military budget. Sir, get your facts straight before you disparage someone who's MBA is in economics & finance with an intimate knowledge of how our military keeps our enemies at bay. Finally, our Electoral College system of electing "our" President is the law founded in "our" Constitution. If you don't like the system, run for Congress or vote for someone who will change it. When Democrats don't like someone or issue, they attack, belittle, defame, vilify, discredit, denigrate and condemn. It's free speech, but Sir, do so civilly without name calling as defamation is cause. . .

Historic Opportunity in Londonderry

To the editor;

In case you missed it, in last week's Londonderry Times "Around Town" section, the Londonderry Republican Committee announced their monthly meeting. However, this was not your typical meeting announcement with date, time, and venue. Contained in this announcement was an all-hands-on-deck style editorial describing the Primary Election results in dire hyperbolic terms. You see, for the first time in contemporary memory, the local Republican monopoly on the seven State Representative seats appears to be in some jeopardy. Three local Democrats, Anne Warner, Luisa Piette, and Robin Skudlarek cracked the top seven in Primary votes. The author of the Republican Meeting ad rightly pointed out that State Rep seats would have been lost to Democrats had this been the General Election.

I've lived in Londonderry for over 18 years. During those years, Democrats have held only one State Representative position for a single two-year term. To put this in starker terms, only one Londonderry Democrat in over 100 years has held a State Representative seat in Concord. Republicans have had a stranglehold on all seven seats and, judging from their LT meeting announcement/editorial, their individual voting records, and the chronic voting absenteeism of some members of the local contingent, feel entitled to the seats as if it's their birthright.

There are over 18,000 registered voters in Londonderry. The split between registered Republicans, registered Democrats, and those who are Undeclared is fairly even. Two Tuesday's ago, 17% of the registered Londonderry voters cast ballots. Of the 18,522 votes cast for State Reps, 49% were cast for Democratic candidates and 51% for Republican candidates, with Undeclareds pulling a significantly higher percentage of Democratic ballots. The turnout for Republicans, contrary to the statement in the Republican Meeting announcement, was about average for a Primary. On the other hand, votes for Democratic candidates were up dramatically from previous Primaries indicating an enthusiasm for Democratic candidates, a boiling repudiation of Trumpism in all its forms, and a desire for a functioning and decent state government that is responsive to the needs of the voters.

On November 7th, Londonderry voters have an historic opportunity to finally gain a voice in Concord and wrest the political monopoly away from the divisive and ugly politics of Al Baldasaro and those who support him. State Representatives will cast critical votes in Concord this year on topics including affordable healthcare, women's health and reproductive rights, gun safety, voting rights, affordable higher education, infrastructure and economic development, labor rights, and environmental protection. It's vital that all Londonderry citizens are represented in Concord with Representatives who are fully accountable and that they are proud to support.

I ask that you help in this effort by stopping by the office on Mammoth Road, canvassing, talking to your neighbors, making phone calls, and volunteering in other ways that will support Democratic candidates during these last days leading up to the November election. And, most importantly, that you vote on November 6th.

Paul Skudlarek
Candidate (along with wife Robin) for Londonderry State Representative and multi-sport coach John Vaughn, 2003 grad Matt Young, and longtime school district employee Chuck Zappala.

All but two of the latest inductees were able to attend the ceremony. Jim Elefante and John Vaughn were unable to make it, and Vaughn supplied a video of his thank to the group.

Doherty was the 2013 class valedictorian and a true scholar/athlete who ran cross-country and track and swam as well. He collected a slew of academic awards and went on to the U.S. Naval Academy.

Elefante was the third principal in LHS history, and he remained in that role from 2004-08. He first came to the district way back in 1982.

Former LHS multi-sport star and local business owner Fawcett - whose wife Sharon Franks-Fawcett was also a fine Londonderry High athlete in a number of sports - has been deeply involved in the LHS Athletic Alumni Association since its inception.

Decamp-Gosztyla also starred in multiple sports at Londonderry High before going on to more athletic and academic success at the University of New Hampshire. She is presently a cross-country coach at Yale.

LHS gymnastics star Tuden-Lennon was a member of a state championship team at the school and years later led the Lady Lancers to a state crown as their head coach.

Benson-Small has gone from being a teacher and an assistant principal at her alma-mater to the principal of Matthew Thornton Elementary, and she has played an important role with adult-education at LHS.

Former Lancer lacrosse stalwart Stuart went on to Norwich University and then the Marine Corps, and he has been deeply involved in the school's athletic alumni association and with Lancer student-athletes in his present role as Londonderry American Legion Post 27 commander.

Tallo has been teaching math at LHS since 1986 and is among the most passionate sports fans at the local school. He works behind the scenes at Londonderry High football and basketball games as well.

Former track and field star Lynch-Unger was the first, beloved "baton girl" at LHS who went on to success at Syracuse University, becoming an elementary school teacher after graduation from there.

Vaughn was a tremendously popular teacher of many subjects at LHS for some 35 years who coached volleyball, softball, and basketball at multiple levels.

Young was the valedictorian of his LHS graduating class who competed in multiple sports and went on to great academic success at Harvard and Columbia Law School.

District Director of Buildings and Grounds Zappala has been working for the school district since 1987 and was pivotal in the expansion of the LHS athletic fields.

Each of the inductees attending took a few minutes to thank the school for the honor and tell people how much being a part of "Lancer Nation" has meant to them.

Recreation

in Londonderry.

The first suggestion was inspired by a women's flag football tournament that has been going on for a number of years, but was recently supposed to take place in Derry, but was cancelled.

This resulted with the leaders of the team inquiring about Londonderry's possible involvement in the future.

The idea for a jump rope team was brought up by the L-Town Turners; an all girls' team here in Londonderry. The group's leader, Christina Baez, hopes to gain support from the commission and wanted to advertise for new members through the commissions website.

The commission agreed that they would support these ideas, if the demand is high enough.

In other news, it was announced that the new maintenance building; used to store equipment for the various fields in Londonderry, was completed just prior to Labor Day. There had been some initial conflict with the Town Council over the cost of the project. The commission seemed quite pleased with the state of the new structure; which now includes energy efficient lighting, fans, and four new windows. The commission is also in the process of replacing the lighting on Nelson Field, with the parts for the replacements due to arrive Sept. 24. They are hoping to eliminate the old poles. Replacement of existing fixtures is planned, which are considered hazardous waste. The vendors who are replacing the lighting offered to take care of the poles and fixtures for an additional $3,000.

Finally, there has been confusion over a sign outside of soccer fields in Londonderry that forbids golf practice on the fields. The sign was placed due to individuals using the fields for golf practice, but some residents have been led to believe that the signs actually forbade soccer practice.

The commission wishes to reiterate the sign only forbids golf practice.

What's In Your Electric Bill – Energy Portion

DOUG THOMAS
STATE REPRESENTATIVE,
CLERK, SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND ENERGY COMMITTEE

Our electric bills are too high. That's no surprise to anyone, especially our businesses and industries. As a member on the House Science, Technology and Energy Committee, I work hard to find ways to give true relief to ratepayers. Unfortunately, it's not that simple. We ask what can be done to make a difference policy-wise in a way that doesn't put more of a burden on the ratepayers? But in attempting to explain some "whys", perhaps it would be helpful to understand what makes up your total bill. This article will start with the energy portion of your bill as it relates to residential rates. It is a very simplified description on how energy cost is derived.

On average approximately 50 - 60% of your total bill is energy cost. So it makes sense to look at this first. Because NH passed a law to require the utilities to divest of their generation plants, the electric companies now must purchase the power for customers who do not choose to purchase the energy elsewhere from the market. The market dictates the costs so the utilities are not responsible for the cost of energy any longer. They now buy it from the least expensive private provider at six-month intervals. There are cases where they are forced to pay more, but that's covered in another article. The price paid to generate electricity is determined by auction bids managed by the grid operator, Independent Systems Operator (ISO) of New England (NE). Natural Gas (NG), Nuclear, Coal, Oil, and Hydro bid prices based on how many Megawatts (MW) they can provide until the required capacity, as determined by ISO-NE, is reached. The final bid price that reaches this capacity is what is paid to all generators, regardless of what they bid. At certain times of the year, NG is not used to power generating plants because it is being used to heat homes and businesses, so other more expensive forms of generation are used and set at a higher price. This creates volatility in the rates, which is not acceptable to ratepayers.

The primary responsibility of ISO-NE is to "keep the lights on". Yet they have no authority to make a developer build a power plant when needed. Since 2013, nearly 5000MW of generation has retired or announced plans to retire in the coming year. These are the resources that have played a critical role in recent winters when NG is being diverted to heat homes and businesses. The grid operator has warned that the demand is getting close to outpacing supply. As macroeconomics teaches us, this creates high-energy rates. As if that isn't enough, to keep the lights on, they have resorted to paying premiums to some older plants to try to keep them from shutting down until solutions can be built. New England and NH ratepayers foot the bill for this.

Between 2000 and 2017, natural gas went from providing 15% of the energy generation in the region to 48%. The lack of NG in the winter is a critical problem. If more NG is needed to produce electricity, the price can be much more, causing price spikes. In the meantime, renewables (includes solar, wind and hydro) only increased by 3% in those same 17 years (8% to 11%). So we have to be realistic about what can actually help us keep the lights on. Renewable energy cannot be relied upon 24/7 since you can't store sun and wind, regardless of how much more we can get on the system (ISO-NE has an app [ISO to Go] with real time statistics on energy use and fuel mix).

So the major cost drivers to the cost of energy are the retirement of some older power plants, over reliance on NG to fuel power plants (causing big problems during the cold winter months) and paying some older plants to continue to run to keep the lights on. But this is not by far the only cost driver in your electric bill. Distribution costs, albeit a distant second, play an important role and will be covered in the next article.

Pinkerton Keeps Coveted Mack Plaque For Another Year

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

There are certain norms which are maintained each September when the Pinkerton Academy and Londonderry High School fall varsity sports teams face off in the exciting Mack Plaque games.

Folks from both sides get excited about and turn out for many of the games, with the football contests often drawing as many as 5,000 people and the other games drawing plenty of spirited spectators as well. The Mack games also provide the competing teams with a playoff-type atmosphere which challenge them to their very limits. And, lastly and unfortunately for one side, the larger school located in Derry usually winds up with bragging rights and the plaque in its possession.

All of those facets were in place for the most recent Mack battles, most of which took place last week on Londonderry High Lancer soil. And as has been the case for 17 consecutive years now, Pinkerton Academy ended up keeping the plaque in Derry.

The schools sat tied up at 1-1 in 2018 Mack action when play for the week of Sept. 17 began due to the fact that the PA and LHS cross-country teams split in three-team meets at LHS several weeks earlier.

The next Mack contest was the golf match between the Astros and Lancers on Londonderry's home links at the Passaconaway Country Club in Litchfield last Wednesday the 19th. And the academy squad wound up bagging that victory by finishing eight strokes ahead of the LHS contingent at 196-204.

Now leading 2-1 in Mack play, everybody's attention turned to the Friday, Sept. 21 battle between the two undefeated football squads which, at least on paper, looked to be a virtual toss-up. In reality, on the LHS gridiron in front of an estimated crowd of more than 5,000 fans, Pinkerton collected a pretty convincing 34-14 win to claim a 3-1 Mack Plaque lead.

Most of the four slated matches at Londonderry High on Saturday were seen as toss-ups, but the Derry school won all but one with a 3-0 shutout in girls' volleyball, a pretty stunning 2-1 overtime win in girls' soccer, and a 3-1 victory in field hockey before the LHS boys' soccer team managed a 2-1 win in the day's final contest that afternoon.

Hence, the final tally had Pinkerton keeping the Mack Plaque based on a 5-2 record in seven match-ups. Had it been necessary, the state spirit championships in November would have served as the tie-breaker.

LONDONDERRY SPORTS

Lancer Football Suffers First 2018 Defeat in Mack Plaque Battle

CHRIS PANTAZIS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Going into what was expected by many to be a tight contest, the undefeated Pinkerton Academy football squad had a game plan to throw the ball, throw the ball a bit more, and then perhaps toss it a tad more in an effort to beat the previously unbeaten host Londonderry High Lancers in the annual Mack Plaque game at LHS last Friday night, Sept. 21.

But as an estimated crowd of 5,000-plus fans witnessed, Astro squad from Derry wasn't able to move the ball through the air as planned early on. So the now 4-0 Astros elected to alter their game plan and try to advance the ball via their powerful running game. And that strategy paid off handsomely as Pinkerton sprinted the ball for some 340 total rushing yards and five touchdowns on the way to a 34-14 defeat of their hosts.

The academy side powered its way out to a 21-0 lead in the first half and then saw the Lancers make a concerted effort to come back in the second half. But that effort ultimately fell flat despite the fact that the now 3-1 Londonderry contingent outscored its tough opponent during half number two in attempting to bounce all the way back.

PA coach Brian O'Reilly - who made it plain to members of the media that he used the "no respect" argument with his players in preparing them for the Mack Plaque game some news outlets picked Londonderry to win the big game - saw senior running back Gannon Fast run for 146 of his squad's yards and two touchdowns including a late 46-yarder which in essence put the game away.

"Our running game was good, but the game plan was to come in and throw the ball down their throats," said O'Reilly. "We made quite a few mistakes, but there was intensity. And this is a great rivalry."

The Lancers, who last defeated a Pinkerton squad in the 2001 Mack Plaque game, showed intestinal fortitude and mental toughness as well as skill in throwing the ball successfully in the second half during their comeback attempt. But they'd never get any closer than two scores down. And once the game was over, young LHS coach Jimmy Lauzon had significant praise for PA mentor

O'Reilly, who has been one of the top football men in the Granite State for most of his 40-plus years at Pinkerton.

"The guy's a great coach," said Lauzon. "He's won so many games for a reason, and he makes all of us better."

Londonderry finished with a total of 341 offensive yards to Pinkerton's 379, with LHS senior quarterback Evan Cormier throwing for 219 yards on 22-for-32 passing with two scores.

The Astros' three first half scores came on a 32-yard run by Gennaro Marra at the end of Pinkerton's first offensive series, followed by an 8-yard jaunt to the end zone by Fast with 1:02 left in the first period, and then a 1-yard push to pay-dirt by quarterback Aiden Goujon with just 10 seconds remaining in the half.

The Lancers turned the ball over on an interception and a fumble during the first quarter as they worked to keep pace with PA.

PA lefty signal-caller Goujon threw six straight incomplete passes before finally completing one, and he ended the night 2-for-12 passing for just 39 yards. But in the big picture it didn't really matter.

PA already had 246 offensive yards - 207 on the ground - at the half-time break and that commanding 21-0 lead.

Londonderry showed distinct signs of making a comeback to start the third quarter when it reeled off a 12-play drive which concluded with a 15-yard scoring connection from Cormier to Jeff Wiedenfeld.

"Give them credit. They came out in the second half and went right down and scored," said PA leader O'Reilly.

Now trailing 21-7, the LHS defense then forced the opposing offense into a three-plays-and-out punting situation on Pinkerton's next offensive series, but the Lancers weren't ever able to trim their lead down any lower than 14 points.

The Astros bumped their lead up to 28-7 on a 3-yard scoring sprint by speedy back Avery Battle on the first play of the fourth period, and the visitors pushed their advantage up to 34-7 midway through that quarter on Fast's 45-yard touchdown run.

Londonderry closed out the scoring on a 45-yard touchdown pass from Cormier to Alex Tssetsilas with 4:03 showing on the game clock.

Tssetsilas finished the eventful evening with six receptions for 70 yards and the one touchdown, and quarterback Cormier completed five passes to Wiedenfeld and four to Jake Holland.

Along with Gannon Fast's big running night, the victorious academy side received 84 yards on 10 carries from Marra and 81 yards on nine carries from Battle.

When asked if his squad's line play was acceptable, LHS coach Lauzon stated that he needed to take a good look at the game film to determine if there had been weaknesses there. But he did state, "I don't think we got pushed around the way we have in past years (against Pinkerton). But they just make plays at such a high level its hard to stop them on a consistent basis."

The Lancers will be back on their home field for a rare Saturday afternoon game on Sept. 29 against Windham High School. Windham, which does not have lights on its field, requested the day game. That contingent enters Saturday play with a 2-2 record.

Lancer Boys' Soccer Ends Losing Skid With Mack Plaque Win

CHRIS PANTAZIS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

In the wake of its humbling shutout loss to the Bedford High Bulldogs on that opponent's home field early last week, the Londonderry High School boys' soccer squad found itself in the midst of a three-game losing skid which had dragged its record down below the .500 mark to 3-4.

And those facts made coach Todd Ellis' team's big annual Mack Plaque match against the arch-rival Pinkerton Academy Astros at LHS over the weekend even more important than it normally is.

The Lancers absorbed their third defeat in a row - all shutouts - with a 6-0 loss at the hands of the tough Bedford bunch on the road last Tuesday, Sept. 18.

The hosts netted two goals in the first half and then added four more in the second in handing the Lancers - who had won three games in a row before beginning their three-game losing skein - a pasting.

LHS goalie Alex Hufford (four saves) and Colby DiMaggio (seven) combined to turn away nearly a dozen Bedford shots and faced a total of 17 blasts between them. Londonderry put just four kicks on the Bulldogs' cage.

"We were competitive with Bedford in the first half, and they just took over in the second," said LHS coach Ellis. "Central and Bedford showed us where the bar is in Division I, and what we have to work toward. We now have a stretch of competitive games in front of us, and the challenge is what are we going to do with them."

In facing off with 1983 LHS graduate Kerry Boles' struggling and injury-addled Pinkerton contingent in the aforementioned Mack match in Londonderry on the afternoon of Saturday the 22nd, coach Ellis' crew was in real need of a win which would place it back on track.

The Lancers accomplished that with a tough and hard-fought 2-1 victory, but the match was not without controversy.

PA leader Boles felt his Astros were pretty mistake-prone in that loss, but what drew Boles' ire most was the game officials who he felt lost control of the game to the academy squad's detriment.

Pinkerton was forced to play without standout Hunter Rathburn due to an injury, so the Astros didn't enjoy much roster depth. And when the game was in its final minutes and the academy side was seeking the elusive tying goal, it didn't have the strength to net that equalizer.

"I expected physical (play) but I didn't expect dirty," said Boles. "We don't have a lot of depth right now, and playing 13 against 11 isn't something we could do. During the last 10 minutes Londonderry took over because we were gassed."

The Lancers netted the only goal of the first half with 8:41 to go when Keith Fletcher sailed a shot from about 30 yards out into the upper-right corner of the Pinkerton net, just over the leap of PA goalie Max Fairbank.

That advantage stood up until a little less than five minutes were gone in the second half when Astro Alex Rust was set up by teammate Henry Andrews for the tying tally.

And the match score remained at 1-1 for about seven minutes before the Lancers potted what wound up being the winning goal when Tyler VanAvery scored a down-right strange marker.

The Lancer took a direct kick from the right wing in the Pinkerton zone, with the ball hitting PA goalie Fairbank in the knee, clanging off the right post of his net, and bounding back and hitting his body before rolling into the net.

That would be it on the scoring, but the play became more aggressive and unruly with the officials threatening to react to physical play but not really doing so.

There were 15 shots on net in the second half, with the victorious Lancers bashing eight and PA notching seven. All in all, Fairbank finished with 11 total saves and Londonderry's Hufford notching 10.

Following the match, Lancer mentor Ellis had numerous reasons to be pleased with the intestinal fortitude and hard work his athletes had shown in ending their losing streak.

"It was a hard-fought game on both sides. Both teams had points where they controlled play, but neither side controlled play all the way," said Ellis. "We did what we had to to win the match today.

Every game is going to be a dog-fight the rest of the way, and we managed to win it today."

With that success still close by in its rear-view mirror, the Londonderry crew looked at a Monday road match against Nashua South (5-3) in the Gate City.

And those two contingents battled their way to a scoreless tie in that contest.

Overtime Goal Pushes PA Girls' Soccer to Dramatic Mack Win

CHRIS PANTAZIS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

When a soccer game goes to overtime, a timely bounce or roll or fall can make the difference between victory and defeat to the opposing contingents.

And with plenty on the line last Saturday morning and early afternoon during the Mack Plaque match pitting the undefeated Londonderry High Lady Lancers and the Pinkerton Academy Lady Astros at LHS, it took a couple of overtimes for the visiting academy crew to hand its hosts their first defeat of the 2018 campaign.

A key to that effort - that wound up being a 2-1 double-overtime comeback victory for Pinkerton - was the work of versatile Astro sophomore Macy Graves, who wound up scoring the winning goal seven minutes into that second OT.

"We came back from a 1-0 deficit to defeat an undefeated, strong Londonderry side," said Pinkerton's second-year coach Danielle St. Pierre. "Macy Graves came up big, moving from defense up to center-midfield to develop both goals."

The Lancers stepped into that match with a perfect 6-0 record in tough Division I while the visitors were seated at 4-2. Their dramatic success in the match was the Astros' third win in a row.

Londonderry bagged a 1-0 lead in just the third minute of play when Alyssa Anderson was set up for a pretty goal by veteran standout Darby Dupuis, who would end the day battered and bruised but still upright.

Dupuis dealt the ball to Anderson who booted a hard, low shot toward the left post of the Pinkerton cage. PA star goalie Reagan Kolinski made a dive at the ball but couldn't get it as the hosts went up 1-0.

The hosts would pelt another dozen shots on Kolinski but not put another by her in absorbing their first loss of the campaign and moving to 6-1 overall.

After going to halftime with Londonderry leading 1-0 and both sides having put four shots on net, Pinkerton got the equalizer with 8:51 remaining in regulation time when Katie Ziniti blasted a shot from the high slot in front of the LHS cage and into the upper-right corner of the net. Enya Vanasse tallied the assist.

The score remained deadlocked right there at 1-1 through one 10-minute overtime and into the second, with Graves - who had clanged a shot off of the crossbar of the LHS net just as the clock hit the two-minute mark in the second half - getting a breakaway opportunity and finishing it seven minutes into the second OT to send the Lady Astros into full celebration mode. Mattie Sullivan collected the assist.

Both PA goalie Kolinski and LHS keeper Jasmine Richards finished with a Baker's Dozen of 13 saves.

The Lancers got right back into action - aiming to put the stunning loss into their rear-view mirror - at home against Bedford this past Monday.

And the LHS side succeeded in making lemonade out of lemons by walloping that tough Bedford bunch by a 5-1 score in a match which featured a big second half outburst by the hosts after the score was knotted up at 1-1 at halftime.

Anderson potted the game's first goal in minute 17, but Bedford (now 6-1) tied things up three minutes later.

However, the Lancers were dominant in the second half with Anderson scoring twice more (on assists from Gillian Vilela and Olivia Stowell) and Ashley Manor and Stowell netting the other two goals. Sammy LeClair and Anderson assisted on those latter two markers.

The hosts hammered some 18 shots on the Bedford net while LHS keeper Richards contributed eight saves to her team's success.

The now 7-1 Londonderry crew then enjoyed a couple of days away from competition before re-

Lancer Field Hockey Squad Falls in Mack Plaque Match

CHRIS PANTAZIS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Heading into its Mack Plaque match with Pinkerton last weekend, the Londonderry High field hockey squad had won four of its five most recent matches in advancing its Division I record to a strong 6-2.

However, the Pinkerton Astros were coming off of their lone loss of the 2018 campaign and were hell-bent on not letting that one loss turn into a losing streak with a Mack Plaque defeat. And it didn't.

In a 3-2 nipping of Windham on that opponent's home field Wednesday, Sept. 19, the Lancers raced out to a 3-0 lead in the first half but then had to hang on tight for the victory.

First half markers from Lauren Mullen at the 16:30 mark of the opening half (assisted by Lauren Doherty), Courtney Shay 11 minutes later (from Grace Chicko), and Chicko herself with just 35 seconds left in the period (from Alivia Proulx) gave the locals their seemingly commanding lead stepping into half-time. LHS goalie Morgan Brutus came up big a bunch of times during that half by making some seven saves.

The Windham crew trimmed its deficit down to 3-2 in the second period with tallies in the second and 24th minutes of play. But Brutus, who made another seven stops in period two, and her defense were able to squeak out the somewhat harrowing success.

However, coach Nichole Treadway's Lancers didn't have the full-game effort it took to get past that Pinkerton crew at LHS in Mack play on Saturday the 22nd.

The Astros shoved their Division I record up to an excellent 6-1 with the 3-1 defeat of its host.

Pinkerton second-year coach Katie Van Nostrand - herself a former PA field hockey star - saw her team snag a 1-0 lead a little less than nine minutes into the Mack contest when Kate Bennett was set up by Lauren Lisauskas.

But the host Lady Lancers knotted the score at 1-1 with 11:28 to go in that opening stanza when Lauren Doherty set up teammate Courtney Shay for the equalizer. And 1-1 was where the game tally sat at the halftime break.

The Astros scored what would prove to be the winning goal a little less than six minutes into the second half when Hailey Peredna was set up by Lisauskas and Abby Jowett. And the academy side added an insurance marker late on a Julia Samiotes marker on which Jowett assisted.

The victorious Lady Astros received five saves from all-state goalie Khaliyah Ellis while Londonderry got three stops from its skilled keeper Brutus.

For her part, Londonderry's coach Nichole Treadway was left lamenting the fact that her charges didn't put forth a more complete performance in their big Mack match.

"We played them well in the first, then we had an opportunity to take the lead and their goalie had an amazing save which resulted in a (penalty) stroke. Unfortunately we couldn't capitalize on that. We lost steam after that point," said Treadway. "Some of my key players were off and that made a big difference, but we also made costly little mistakes. They are the best overall team we've seen with great passing and excellent double-teams. We just couldn't keep up in the second."

Both talented teams came into this week looking at Wednesday, Sept. 26 matches - after Nutfield Publishing press time - with Pinkerton at home against Winnacunnet of Hampton and Londonderry at Bedford.

LHS Harriers Do Well at Annual Manchester Invite

CHRIS PANTAZIS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry High School's boys' and girls' cross-country squads tested their skills and gained more important experience by taking part in the 44th Manchester Invitational in Derryfield Park Saturday, Sept. 22.

The annual races draw skilled teams and runners from across the New England region, and the 2018 events were no different.

Coach Matt Smith's Lancer males finished an excellent fourth out of some 31 teams in the boys' freshman race and a strong 10th out of 40 contingents in the large school varsity race.

In the frosh event, the Lancers had two young men place among the top 15 line-crossers thanks to the fine work of Jack Marshall (12th in 12 minutes and 14 seconds) and Will Plante (14th, 12:20).

In the varsity event, Londonderry had Eric Nowak (48th, 17:06) and Matt Griffin (50th, 17:07) go top 50 in a race in which some 276 harriers made it from start to finish.

In girls' action, the Lady Lancer freshmen finished a strong sixth out of 16 teams with Grace McDonough winding up a superb third (13:49) among the individuals. Her teammate Alea Mills also went top 20 by placing 17th in 15:34.

In the large school race, Londonderry wound up 34th out of 37 total squads with skilled veteran harrier Caitlin Boufford placing 79th (21:23) out of a crowd of some 253 finishers.

Londonderry Golfers Fall to Astros in Mack Plaque Match

CHRIS PANTAZIS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Looking at 2018 scoring and results, it was pretty predictable that the Pinkerton Academy varsity golf squad would be able to best the rival Londonderry High Lancers in the Mack Plaque match played between those squads on the Lancers' home links at the Passaconaway Country Club in Litchfield last Wednesday, Sept. 19. And that's just what happened.

The Lancers and Astros teed it up with the Bishop Guertin Cardinals from Nashua in a three-team battle on that Litchfield course, with Pinkerton winning with a team score of 196, host Londonderry finishing second with a 204, and Guertin finished at 210.

4 season record, coach Dan Grant's Lancers with a 5-8 mark, and the BG bunch at 6-8 overall. And quite importantly to both the PA and LHS contingents, those results left Pinkerton with a 2-1 lead in Mack Plaque contests going into Friday night's much-anticipated football game at LHS.

The academy golfers were led by Cam Leppert with his score of 35 while Matt MacDougall notched a 38, Jacob Tinker tallied a 39, P.J. Daniele landed on a 40, and Nick Tufts was good for a 44.

Londonderry received a career-best round of 34 from senior standout Brian Boyle while freshman James Griffin and junior Sam Seibert each fired a 41. Additionally, Josh Traynham and Thomas Marcantonio both managed a 44.

The Astros then rolled toward their final regular season matches of the 2018 campaign this week with a visit to Souhegan Woods in Amherst against Merrimack and Dover on Wednesday the 26th - after Nutfield News press time - followed by their closer at home at Hoodcroft against Bedford and Merrimack on Friday.

The Londonderry High contingent winds down its 2018 schedule against Salem and Hanover at beautiful Campbell's Scottish Highlands in Salem on Sept. 26 - after Londonderry Times press time - followed by a home match against Winnacunnet of Hampton and Exeter the next day. The Lancers will close out their regular campaign with one October match.

LHS Volleyball Crew Blanked Three Times

CHRIS PANTAZIS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Coach Matt Leonard and his intense and developing young Londonderry High girls' volleyball squad saw their season record slide back to the .500 mark at 4-4 last week with shutout losses to the undefeated Spaulding squad and the tough but scuffling Pinkerton contingent in Mack Plaque play.

The Lancers took a 3-0 shutout loss on the chin from the tough and undefeated Spaulding High Red Raiders in Rochester Wednesday, Sept. 19, in moving to 4-3 on the Division I campaign.

Londonderry came out of the gates strong in the match before their hosts powered up and advanced to 6-0 on the campaign with individual set victories of 25-21, 25-21, and 25-12.

Then it was on to the Mack Plaque game against a Pinkerton crew which had recently lost two decisions in falling for the first times this season.

In that match on Saturday Sept. 22 in the LHS gym, Pinkerton was able to fend off a fighting Londonderry crew in a shutout to advance to 6-2 on the season.

The academy side claimed a 25-19 win in a first game which featured a handful of ties, a 25-21 success in a second set which was tied some seven times, and a 26-24 comeback win in game three which looked like a sure Londonderry victory before PA put the proverbial pedal to the metal with an impressive late flurry.

In the first set, the score was tied at 10-10 before the Astros outscored their hosts 15-9 the rest of the way to go up 1-0 in games.

The tie-packed second set finished with PA tallying three of the final four points to put it away, and PA managed to overcome a 22-14 deficit - just when it looked like LHS was about to take the third game - thanks to the superb serving of Leya Wang and the support of her teammates.

Wang helped her side to a vital and lengthy run at the service line, contributing three aces and getting her squad back to within a point of the lead at 22-21.

A PA service fault followed by another point pushed Londonderry to within one point of the win at 24-21, but the Astros came flying back to win the game and the match with a 5-0 final run which was capped off by a loud Ella Dandrade kill.

The Lancers strode away from the match with every reason to feel that they'd given a very good opponent a truly intense battle.

"A rough ending, but a hard-fought battle," said LHS coach Leonard of his now 4-4 team. "We've played a competitive style of volleyball in every contest this season. With so many new players this season, it's exciting to see the marked improvement during every match. The team will continue to try to improve and peak as it gets toward the playoff season."

Londonderry got 12 kills, seven digs and two aces from high-flying hitter Maddie Sanborn, some 14 assists, four aces and two kills from Anna Haas, and seven kills and an ace from Kelsey Sanborn.

After a day away from competition, Londonderry was right back at it this past Monday with a road trip to Nashua North.

And the Lady Lancers wound up on the down side of another 3-0 score in that match in continuing their recent slide.

Londonderry took aim at returning to its winning ways when it faced off with the Bedford High Lady Bulldogs on their home court this Wednesday the 26th - after Londonderry Times press time - followed by a return to their own court for a battle with the Goffstown Lady Grizzlies at LHS this Friday.

Bedford went 5-1 in its first six matches while Goffstown has had an up-and-down campaign.

READERS ARE CAUTIONED that we occasionally run ads that require an initial investment or money in advance. We urge our readers to “do their homework” before responding to any ad, check out the advertiser thoroughly and verify their claims to your total satisfaction. Only then should you proceed at your own risk. We try to screen ads that require you to send money before receiving a product or service. But these efforts are no substitute for your own investigation, and we don't endorse or guarantee any claims made in any of the ads we publish. If you want more information about claims made in ads on subjects such as work at home opportunities, travel or vacation specials, purchasing land or vehicles from government surplus or below wholesale, loans or other credit opportunities (including credit repair), or weight loss and other health products and services, we urge you to contact the Office of Attorney General, Consumer Protection Bureau, 33 Capitol Street, Concord, NH 03301 (603-271-3641) or the Better Business Bureau at 603-224-1991.
