Opioid Crisis Forum Hosted by Londonderry Police Department

MACK LEATHURBY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Police Department hosted an Opioid Addiction Forum, "Living with an Addiction or Substance Use Disorder" on Thursday, May 16.

A small crowd of about 30 people attended the forum at the Londonderry High School cafeteria, despite the opioid crisis has touched so many in the community.

Londonderry Police Lt. Mark Morrison said the department has added new tools to their toolbelt, because the old way of dealing with drugs wasn't working. "When your only tool is a hammer, every problem becomes a nail," Morrison said.

Londonderry Police have tried to be proactive in helping to address the opioid crisis locally. They have created awareness

Londonderry Arts Council Asks Town for More Support

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Arts Council gave a presentation to the Town Council on Monday night, highlighting the annual Concerts on the Common series on the Londonderry Common, during the next three months.

The Arts Council, represented by Larry Casey, used the opportunity to ask town officials to increase the town's support from $950 a year to $4,500.

Casey told the council members that the Arts Council, which is operated by volunteers from town, used to receive $2,500 from the town every year, until a budget cut.

The Art Council's current annual budget, according to Casey, is roughly $15,000, with the majority of that sum (approximately $12,000) coming from artists' fees (Artists that wish to use the town's stage to present their arts and music) and the rest, from the different local businesses who support and sponsor the council.

Casey admitted that the arts council is working hard on finding more sponsors and raising funds these days, so it can pay everything that was agreed with the artists that will perform in this summer's Concerts on the Common.

Town Manager, Kevin Smith, answered Casey's request to up the Arts Council's funds by saying he will look into the subject and try to move some money in next year's town budget, to help the Arts Council's operations.

Casey said that the Arts Council mission is to enrich Londonderry quality of life by promoting culture and arts in the community and to make Londonderry a more attractive place to live for families, who can move into town

Conservation Reviews Wetland Permits, Discusses Opening

MIKE BYERLY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

At their May 14 meeting the Conservation Commission reviewed two wetland permit applications, discussed a new opening on the commission and met with the town's newly hired Conservation Ranger.

The first wetland permit was submitted by the developers of Baldwin Senior Living at Woodmont Commons, a group hoping to get approval to build a large senior living facility. A dredge and fill application is submitted to the State Department of Environmental Services Wetland Bureau when a project will temporarily or permanently impact a wetland.

As part of their review process, they have the local Conservation Commission review the application and provide them feedback. In this case, the only wetland impact was a small one required to allow for a driveway into the development. Given that, the Commission did not provide any objections to the state Wetlands Bureau.

A second wetland permit for 77 & 83 Nashua Road was reviewed by the Commission. This developer hopes to put two buildings on the site, one with retail office space and one with 14 condominiums.

The proposed work would impact two wetlands. One of 5,100 square feet would be filled to allow for a driveway into the property. The Commission had no objection to this as it is needed to access the rest of the property.

The Commission did, however, have problems with a second 840 square foot impact resulting from

Town Council Gets Recap on Leadership Londonderry Program

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry Assistant Town Manager, Lisa Drabik, recapped this year's Leadership Londonderry program during the Monday, May 20, Town Council meeting.

The program was brought back to life last year and the graduation ceremony for the first year's students was on May 9. During the nine months program, which ran every second Thursday of a month (beginning at 4 p.m. and running for approximately three and a half to four hours every time), between September 2018 and May 2019, speakers from different branches and offices in town came and gave talks to the participants. In total, over 40 speakers were part of this year's nine meeting during the program.

Sessions were held this year in various locations, including Town Hall, the Police Department, the Fire Department, the airport, a school building and more and a Q&A can be found on the town's website, next to an application form for those who wish to participate in the next program. Applications can be sent until Jun. 28 and there will be a 20 people limit for the next class.

Drabik told the Town Council members that the program managed to stay under the budget it was given, of $4,000. Each participant paid $25 to become part of the program and out of the town's money, $3,100 was spent, mostly on the dinners that the program provides the participants in every meeting.

Drabik said that there is a possibility to increase the participants' fee if needed. In the program's previous round, before it was cancelled, the fee was $100.

Council member Tom Dolan suggested that the fee should remain on $25 or as low as possible, to make it affordable to anyone in town who wants to be part of this program.

Dolan said he believes that the participants take the things they learn in the program and bring them, along with new energy, to the different town boards, so it is a good investment by the town, to educate as many people as possible in this non-political program about the ways the government is run and the things that are going on around the town.

In the town's website, the Leadership Londonderry program states that its mission is to educate participants about the operations, fiscal management, and issues of local government. The dynamic, fast track curriculum provides an in-depth orientation to all town government functions and interaction with current community leaders.

Zoning Board Approves Request for 20-Foot Sign to 24-Hour Business

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During its meeting on Wednesday, May 15, Londonderry's Zoning Board of Adjustment granted permission to the Black Dog Car Wash to replace the business's current sign with a higher sign.

The car wash is located on One Garden Lane, just outside of the south side of the Market Basket parking lot, next to the O'Reilly Auto Parts and VIP Tires & Service building.

The application claimed that their current sign, despite the fact that it is located midway up the hill from Nashua Road, cannot be seen well enough from either Nashua Road or the intersection of Michaels Way and Garden Lane.

After hearing and reviewing the case, the Zoning Board granted the business permission to change their 10-foot sign, the highest allowed by the current regulations in that in the area, to a 20-foot sign. The application by the car wash was allowed so that the new sign will be above the fence, that is blocking the existing sign. Currently drivers are unable to see the existing sign, until they reach the intersection of Michaels Way and Garden Lane.

The permission was granted with a vote of the board of 3 to 1. The fifth member of the Zoning Board of Adjustment was not present at the meeting that evening, and Chairman, Neil Dunn, was the lone no vote for the request.

Dunn's objection was based on the fact that the car wash operates a 24-hour business and wants the new sign to be illuminated. The business has a timer for the sign and can shut it off, but since the business operates 24-hours, the sign would be illuminated all night.

If a business has signs that flash or make noise the current regulations require the business must turn off the signs during nighttime hours. However, as long as the signs classify as "essential" for the business, there are no specified hours or rules concerning illuminated signs. Despite the fact that the car wash already has a sign on its building, the new 20-foot sign will also qualify as "essential" for the business. The owner of the Black Dog Car Wash, the applicant, did indicate during the hearing that they may be cutting their hours of operation. If that happens, the sign could be turned off at some point during the night.

The first two cases of Wednesday meeting were requests by Ernest and Doreen Evans. They were seeking a variance for a special exception concerning a home occupation on 300 Nashua Rd., pursuant to LZO 5.12.G. The variance was requested to allow for exterior storage for one additional vehicle. The applicants also requested a special exception under LZO 5.12 for a home occupation to operate a taxicab business at the same location.

Both requests were granted by the board. Chairman Dunn objected to the request for storage of an additional vehicle at the location, but the variance was ultimately granted by a vote of 3 to 1 (one member of the board was absent for this meeting). The second request to operate a taxicab business at the location was granted by a unanimous vote of the board present at the meeting.

A Day of Remembering

In the town squares and commons and historic cemeteries of New Hampshire, the statue of a Civil War soldier is a sight often taken for granted. But a vestige of that war remains part of our lives today, as we mark the occasion of Memorial Day this coming Monday.

Memorial Day was officially proclaimed and observed in 1868 by General John Logan, national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, as a time when flowers were placed on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers at Arlington National Cemetery. Evidence of an even earlier day of remembrance comes from records of the decoration of Confederate soldiers' graves by women's groups in the South before the end of the Civil War. By 1890, the day, originally called Decoration Day, was recognized by all northern states, while the South honored its dead on a separate date.

Then came World War I, and the day changed to a time of remembrance throughout the country for all who gave their lives in military service to the United States.

Many more wars have taken the lives of American servicemen and women since then, including the current war in Afghanistan. But even with the present-day fighting, it's easy to look at Memorial Day as just another chance for a three-day weekend, an extra day off from work and school, a time for barbecues and mowing the lawn and planting the flower garden.

We suggest a different focus. Those Civil War statues, and the old cemeteries where tiny American flags stand vigil by graves, are visual reminders that thousands of lives have been given in the name of their nation's service - and more are at risk today. Memorial Day is a good time to think about what those familiar objects represent.

Ceremonies in our towns will center on the cemeteries and the statues, on the flags and the wreaths.

This Memorial Day, we encourage you to take time from your busy lives and your extra day of leisure to remember, and to thank those who have made the ultimate sacrifice, as well as those who stand ready to do so today. And let us hope that sacrifice will someday no longer be necessary.

Notice Londonderry Residents Not Derry

To the editor,

This letter is about Legal Notices and where they are being published.

They are now being published in the Derry News, which does not go to every Londonderry household. They recently published a Heritage Commission Notice listing only one article for discussion for the May 23 meeting. Come to find out, there will be six items that night!

This is unacceptable to me and the 25 thousand residents that voted in the five people on the Council.

The Londonderry Times is our local paper.

This is where we expect to find local news, local sports and local meetings. These are not found in the Derry News.

Please support me in bringing back Legal Notices to the Londonderry Times.

Democrat Lunacy

Trump-hating individuals continue to believe the Democrat rant that there was Trump-Russia electoral collusion. Crushing to Democrats, DOJ Special Investigator Bob Mueller found no collusion. The facts leading to Mueller's investigation are: Hillary Clinton paid for a dossier of lies about Trump colluding with Russia to win the 2016 presidential election. Fake dossier promoted by rogue FBI agents to ask FISA court to authorize spying on Trump campaign. Fake dossier sent to FISA court marked as "verified" by FBI agents even though dossier was known to be "unverified"; an illegal action. Former British spy who concocted dossier admits to FBI prior to FISA authorization that dossier is based on Russian disinformation tied to Putin to destabilize our electoral process. This info withheld from FISA. FISA authorizes CIA to spy on Trump personnel. Media pressure and rogue FBI agents pushing their "insurance policy that Trump will never become President", DOJ appoints Muller to investigate Trump campaign for election collusion with Russia. After two years of investigation, Muller finds no collusion. The truth is the investigation began May 2017, yet Mueller knew late 2017 that dossier was fake and there was no collusion. Why did Mueller continue the investigation for two years creating divisions within America? Was it to impact the 2018 midterms? After banking on Mueller for two years that he'd find Trump-Russia collusion, Democrats were crushed by his findings. They can't drop the collusion story as they have no agenda to sell. Capitalism is bad; socialism is good like in Venezuela? Lots of free stuff; government will find a way to pay (your taxes?). Open borders; we need more drugs and crime? No gasoline run cars and planes; use electric cars and planes. Electric airplanes? Stop cows from flatulating. What? The only agenda they have is Trump impeachment. Despite the lunatic Senator who espouses "impeach, impeach, impeach", Nancy Pelosi knows impeachment would be self-defeating for Democrats in 2020. The rant that Trump caused a constitutional crisis is lunacy. Democrats should look in the mirror as it is they who created a constitutional crisis with the aforementioned facts of Democrats attempting an illegal coup d'etat of a constitutionally, duly elected president. It is said that the truth will out. The media is now starting to back off the collusion story and aforementioned government department heads are covering their butts by pointing fingers at each other as to who the guilty parties are in the attempted coup. Those who scream the loudest as to their innocence always turn out to be the guiltiest. My concern is that AG Bill Barr's investigation of those responsible for the attempted coup will remain unidentified and escape prosecution for the sake of our country. This must not happen even if it exposes those at the highest levels of government. The guilty must be accountable to prevent such actions in the future from undermining our democracy. If these people in power escape prosecution, what about the little guy who goes to jail for shop-lifting?

Russia is a Threatening Adversary

a driveway that would encircle the retail building. They sent comments to the Wetland Bureau asking that the size of the building be reduced slightly to avoid the wetland.

Chair Marge Badois informed the Commission that alternate member Ray Brown had resigned from the Commission for personal reasons. The town will be posting the opening on the town website. In the meantime, the Commission will help get the word out on its email list and Facebook page.

In other personnel news, Glenn Aprile, the towns recently hired part-time Conservation Ranger, came to the meeting to introduce himself. Sergeant Aprile is retiring from full-time work with the LPD and will start in his new role July 1.

He has already started training for the job including attending easement monitoring and map and compass courses. Among his first areas of focus will be monitoring for illegal use of motorized vehicles in the Musquash Conservation Area.

Deb Lievens shared that she had reviewed come of the Commission’s budget line items with the town finance department. She learned that there is just under $94K in a fund intended to be used to maintain the rabbit habitats in the Musquash Conservation Area.

Some of the work in the past has been funded by outside grants; however, in the future if grants are not available this fund would be used to pay for such work. The money in this fund came from the sale of timber resulting from the creation of the rabbit cuts.

The Commission also reviewed a site plan for FL Larson Trucking who are looking to construct a facility at 47 Rockingham Road. With no wetlands on the site there was little to be reviewed. The Commission did note that the plan included constructing a building on top of an existing well. They sent along comment to the planning staff to ask that protections be put in place to prevent contaminants from getting into the well.

Member Mike Noone shared an update on the improvements happening at Kendall Pond Conservation Area. A viewing platform was recently finished to go along with two recently added picnic tables.

The Commission is planning a public event on June 22 to introduce all the changes to the public. While details are being worked out, they expect it to be a summer field day, like the Musquash Field Day held during the winter.

the early 1960s Russia installed missile batteries in Cuba which threatened the U.S. We implemented a naval blockade and Russia was forced to remove the missiles.

Once again, Russia is becoming militarily involved in the Western Hemisphere. They have

We have to help the democratic forces in Venezuela oust Maduro so we can get the Russians

LHS Robotics Team Reflects on Season, Ready for Next Challenges

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The PVC Pirates, Londonderry High School's Robotics team, concluded another successful competition season last month. The team appeared, for the fifth straight year, in the FIRST (For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology) Championship, held in Detroit, MI, between Apr. 24 and Apr. 27.

For senior Kat Provost, the team's outgoing captain, this was the fourth time competing in the FIRST Championship. Speaking to the Londonderry Times, she reflected on the experience: "It was very cool. As a senior, being there for all four years is a huge and amazing accomplishment for our team, something that not many other teams were able to do."

At the championship, the Pirates were part of the Darwin Division. The teams from around the world compete in six divisions, with the winners qualifying for the finals. At the end of their competition day in their division, the Pirates held the highest result in their field, in the qualification matches. Their robot performed very well, outside of regular and minimal problems and Provost says that the whole experience was great for team bonding: "We got really close to each other during the days in Detroit."

The Pirates were also able to make connections with teams from different places. The team working next to them was from Taiwan and another came from the Netherlands. The Londonderry team also joined forces with an Israeli team. During the upcoming summer and until the next season begins in January, the Pirates hope to push forward a long distance project with Israel, while continuing to be active in the Londonderry community, as well as around New England.

The team's many activities helped them win, this year, the most prestigious award in FIRST: The District Chair-man's Award. The Pirates won this award after their second local competition this season, at the University of New Hampshire in Durham, N.H. on Mar. 29 and 31. Mackenzie Conner, a senior at LHS and the outgoing Inspiration Coordinator, was a leading figure in the team's winning this award and said, "Winning the Chairman's Award has to do with our team values and the things we do over the year, not just regarding our team, but as part of our community. The Pirates started a FIRST Lego League at the Londonderry Middle School, as part of FIRST's competitive division. We mentor the kids there and this year, we'll also have a summer camp, which is pretty exciting. In the fall we will be at the RoboExpo in Nashua, where people from all levels of FIRST, elementary to high school, arrive and everyone can see the opportunities the FIRST and STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) programs offer young people." In August, the team will also be part of Old Home Day celebration in Londonderry.

Derik Pignone, another LHS senior, who was the team's Engineering Coordinator and Lead Robot Driver, felt good about his final year with the Pirates, he said, "I saw a lot of growth in the team this year, both on a technical and a non-technical level." We had many new team members this year and I saw them developing in their new roles, the ones that will be theirs for the next few years, very quickly and with confidence. They dedicated themselves to the team."

One of the younger members, sophomore Jill Maguire, was elected on Wednesday (May 15) as the 2019-20 new Team Captain: "It's really thrilling to become part of a team who had so much success. There aren't many juniors on our team, so we, the sophomores, know that we have big responsibilities and we have to step up and take big roles to help the team. The seniors helped and mentored us and it has been a fun experience. Now, we have big shoes to fill and I am sure we can do it."

Leading the team as a mentor is Kenny Kutney. He has been around for many years and said, "Every year is different. The team did a fantastic job this year. New England is one of the two most competitive districts in the world, so qualifying for the World Championship from here is a big thing. It's very impressive and a great honor. We had kids taking roles, even if they weren't fully ready for them, and doing a great job, because that was what the team needed. This team helps kids grow up and excel in things they didn't even know they were good at. I see it every time."

After retiring in 2015, the company was purchased by his son Jeffrey, who had worked for his Dad since 1991, and Sean Cashman who also is a longtime employee. James always had a passion for sports cars, motorcycles, racing, as well as western movies, car shows, and pie. He also greatly enjoyed golfing, fishing, working in the yard, tinkering in his workshop, and playing with the grandkids. He was always ready to play with Legos, Barbies, do arts and crafts, riding scooters or watching cartoons. When he retired, he took up woodworking, making keepsakes for many family members.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 52 years Cynthia (Phelps) Alley; son Jeffrey Alley and wife Melissa; two daughters, Elizabeth LeBreton and husband Corey, and Suzanne Alley and wife Samantha Genier; 5 grandchildren, Matthew, Benjamin, Allison, Ella, and Leo; brother, John Alley; and nephews Robert, David, and Tracy, and niece Heather. James is predeceased by his father and mother-in-law, Victor and Ella Phelps, and two siblings, Gerald Alley and Judith Alley Enos.

about substance abuse with practical efforts, such as their Drug Take Back Program, which is outlined on the department's website londonderryhnpd.org. Citizens of Londonderry can drop off unused, unwanted, or expired prescription drugs, at any time, in a special collection box located at the police station. The police department will not question anyone using the bin for that purpose.

At the forum, the Londonderry Police distributed a brochure, entitled Substance Use Intervention outlining many helpful resources. For an in depth listing of substance use resources please refer to: WWW.NHRECOVERYHUB.ORG

Over the past years, Londonderry Police have organized a Substance Use Intervention Team (SUIT) to support individuals recovering from an overdose or known to be involved with drug addiction. Presently, the Londonderry SUIT group involves Lt. Mark Morrison, Chaplain Gerry Goncalo, Officer Tara Koski and community volunteers.

According to the National Institute on Drug Abuse, New Hampshire is among the top five states with the highest rate of opioid-involved deaths. In 2017, there were 424 drug overdose deaths involving opioids in New Hampshire. That is more than twice the average national rate of 14.6 deaths per 100,000 persons. A significant increase was seen in cases involving synthetic opioids — mainly fentanyl — with a rise from 30 deaths in 2013 to 374 deaths in 2017. Overdose deaths involving heroin have declined from 98 deaths in 2014 to 28 deaths in 2017.

The Londonderry Opioid Forum was set up to provide perspective and subject matter expertise on prevention, treatment and recovery, insight into available resources and as an opportunity to meet substance abuse partners from the region.

The panel included officials from the Farnum Center, Granite Pathways and New Hampshire Healthy Families, as well as Londonderry Police Capt. Patrick Cheetham, Rachel Behrens, the mother of Nick Behrens (a Londonderry High School graduate who died of an overdose in 2017 at the age of 19) and licensed clinical social worker Jim Gamache, who is part of Londonderry's critical intervention management team.

Gamache, a clinical researcher, said people with addictions are often people with mental illnesses which lead them to drug use. He said, "About 70 percent of the substance use disorder in patients I've come in contact with, meet or exceed criteria for post-traumatic stress disorder." Gamache outlined key information about addiction, including that young people who are habitual users of marijuana, tobacco or alcohol are at significantly higher risk to become opioid abusers.

Londonderry Police Lt Morrison spoke on a panel forum at Londonderry high School about the opioid crisis and resources set up for substance abusers and family members.

Rachel Behrens said that her son changed at a younger age when he started experimenting with marijuana and started hanging out with a different crowd. The panel agreed one main problem is a drug culture that drives addicts to continue substance abuse. Behrens pointed out that only a short time after losing her son to fentanyl, one of his best friends also died of a fentanyl overdose.

Panelists discussed the N.H. hub-and-spoke system for dealing with substance abuse and how Granite Pathways, in Manchester, is working as the hub or "doorway" for the Londonderry community, in tandem with Safe Stations, supported by Manchester Fire Stations.

Manchester Fire Chief,

Dan Goonan, said, "The hub-and-spoke system is still very new and they're still working on building upon it." Goonan overviewed and strongly supports the Safe Station program that has saved many lives in our area. In the program, each Manchester Fire Department (MFD) station is a designated safe environment for the individuals seeking assistance looking for treatment to start their path to recovery.

At any time a victim of a substance misuse disorder decides or gathers up the courage to ask for help, he/she can go to any MFD station and speak to the Firefighters on duty. Goonan said, "If there is cause for concern that there is something else medically wrong with the patient, transportation to an appropriate level medical facility will be arranged for and provided by Manchester's contracted 911 service AMR."

Anyone in the community who is challenged by substance abuse issues can present themselves at a Manchester Fire station or at the Granite Pathways Doorway in Manchester. They can also call for services by dialing 211. As Londonderry Police Capt. Patrick Cheetham pointed out at the forum, "The goal is Prevention, Prevention, Prevention."

Ovation Theatre Company Tackles Les Misérables: School Edition

"Ambitious" and "bold" were just two of the euphemisms expressed by many when a brand new theatre company decided to tackle Les Misérables: School Edition in its very first production. With a musical known for big moments, big sets and big casts, staging this production in the intimate space at Granite State Arts Academy in Salem also raised some eyebrows.

Meg Gore, Founder, Manager and Artistic

Direction of Ovation Theatre Company, LLC, took all of those comments in stride, with an amused grin. "When you see the tears rolling down Marius' face as Éponine lies dying in his arms, or the shimmer in Valjean's eyes as he sings "Bring Him Home," you'll agree that this is the right environment to present the raw and emotional epic that is Les Misérables," Gore says.

This presentation of Les Mis will be different in many ways, mostly because of the intimate, thrust-stage environment at GSAA. Audience members will be drawn completely into the epic tale, with characters in and amongst them, never more than a few feet away. Portraying the iconic leads and the versatile ensemble is a cast of 32 young people drawn from a wide radius, from Epping, New Hampshire to Pepperell, Mass.

Zac Barnaby of Pepperell will bring the redemption-seeking Jean Valjean to life, opposed for decades by his nemesis Javert, played by Harrison Christilles of Derry. Other principles include Elizabeth Herron (Derry) as the tragic Fantine, Michael Hughes and Ella Burroughs (both from Hampstead) as the star-crossed lovers Marius and Cosette, Morgane Grace Vigroux (Derry) as the lonely Éponine, Tony Gallo (Derry) as student leader Enjolras and the wicked Thénadiers, played by Michael Overko (Hampstead) and Madison Finocchiaro (Hampstead). The ensemble includes Londonderry students Betsy Brown, Michaela Horan, Kaitlyn Koza, and Alea Millis and provides incredible acting and vocal support, playing multiple roles throughout the epic story,

Members of the new, Ovation Theatre Company, will perform Les Misérables: School Edition at the Granite State Arts Academy on Friday, May 24 at 7 p.m., Saturday, May 25 at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m., and Sunday, May 26 at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m.

which spans the years 1815-1832.

Les Misérables is based on the iconic book by Victor Hugo and adapted, with only slight variations, from the original musical, first staged in London's West End 35 years ago. In fact, Les Mis is still running there, holding strong as the longest-running play in the history of London. Set in 19th-century France following the fall of Napoleon, Les Mis is filled with characters struggling to survive and to thrive, led by the tragic figure of Jean Valjean.

Meg Gore leads the production team as Director, partnered with Musical Director Kevin Fisher, Choreographer and Fight Choreographer Katy Gore, and Stage Manager Tim Gore. Ovation Theatre Company, LLC is the fulfillment of a long-time dream for Gore. With a background in theatre production and direction of over 30 years, Meg has been extremely active in Londonderry and Derry for the past 12 years. She founded the Matthew Thornton Drama Club in 2008 and, along with various volunteers over the years, has built one of the top school programs in the area, producing and directing dazzling productions, most recently Disney's The Lion King Jr., The Wizard of Oz YPE, Annie Jr. and Once on this Island Jr. Meg's other directing credits in recent years include the hugely successful The Music Man production and the widely-acclaimed southern New Hampshire premiere of Disney's Newsies, both teamed with her Les Mis partner Kevin Fisher as Musical Director and both with Kids Coop Theatre.

Les Misérables: School Edition will be presented at Granite State Arts Academy (33 Keewaydin Dr., Salem, NH) on Friday, May 24 at 7 p.m., Saturday, May 25 at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m., and Sunday, May 26 at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. The Sunday matinee was recently added due to the incredibly high demand for the other four shows. Tickets are available at OvationTC.com; anyone interested is encouraged to purchase the reserved-seating tickets in advance, as there may be very few available at the door.

He went on to present the different programs that the council is running, starting with the Concerts on the Common. This year will be the 18th for this program and it will begin, as usual, with performances by music groups from Londonderry High School (Jazz Lab, Rock Orchestra and Jazz Ensemble) on Monday, Jun. 3.

After that, every Wednesday at 7 p.m. (Except Jul. 3), a band will perform at the Londonderry Common. In case of rain, the show will move to the Matthew Thornton school gym. Last year, some performances attracted over 600 people.

The Arts Council also operates Art in Action, a two day program which took place last weekend at Mack's Apples and allowed local artists to show and sell their works, while also connecting with visitors and speaking about their art.

The Arts Café program started a few years ago and brings together in February crafts people, artists, musicians and visitors during the winter, in a close location. At the Leach Library there is a rotating presentation of artists from the area (Not only Londonderry) – Every month a new artist has a chance to present his or hers work and leave business cards and other information. Mr. Casey said that there is a list of artists who wish to become part of this program. Other program is the Nutfield Sessions, monthly open mic event for bands that Mr. Casey started 15 years ago. The next event will be in June.

Lancer Baseball Crew Manages Three Wins Get to 13-4

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

With just a few games left in the high school baseball regular season, first place in Division I is still up for grabs and Londonderry High School has a great chance.

The Lancers, who finished the week at 13-4, started on the road with a nice 13-4 win at Merrimack (3-13) on Wednesday (May 15), scoring four runs in the fourth and fifth innings and five more in the seventh to put the game away, after the home team led 2-0 in the first inning.

Jack Dingman had three hits and one RBI for the Lancers, who got two RBIs from Nick Cote, Sean Cavanaugh and Luke Marsh and one from Zack Luongo, Owen MacDonnell and Tyler Kayo. Marsh pitched five innings and finished with five strikeouts, Brandon Fish came in for two innings and fanned four batters.

The next game was a 9-1 home win over Trinity High School (1-16) on Friday, May 17. This time, Londonderry was the one scoring first inning runs, three of them. Later, the locals slowly added to their lead, before scoring three more runs in the sixth inning to secure the win.

Luongo, Cavanaugh and Marsh had two RBIs each, Zack Rheault drove in one more run. The winning pitcher was MacDonnell, with five innings and six strikeouts. Alex Cafaro pitched the final two innings and finished with three strikeouts.

The following day, the Lancers completed their game against Portsmouth, which was stopped after six innings five days earlier due to rain. With the score tied at eight, to start the finish, Nolan Lincoln pitched the top of the seventh inning, and in the bottom of the inning Brandon Fish sent Tyler Kayo home for the walk-off win. The game finished 9-8.

The Lancers then their only loss of the week to Lawrence Central Catholic of Massachusetts with a game at home that ended 7-3 on Monday, May 20. The game started well for Londonderry, with a 2-0 lead after one inning. The home team scored another run in the fourth, but collapsed later as the visitors used three straight errors to turn the game around and win. Reece Manor had three hits, Lincoln pitched 5 1/3 innings, striking out five batters.

Londonderry was scheduled to host Salem on Tuesday, May 21, and Manchester Memorial on Wednesday, May 22, after the Londonderry Times went to print. The team will finish the regular season at Goffstown on Friday on May 24 starting 4:30 p.m.

LHS Girls Lacrosse Team Hope to Land a Playoff

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

A loss and a win last week brought Londonderry High School's Girls' Varsity Lacrosse team's record to 7-8 and entering the final days of the season, with only three games left, the Lady Lancers are in Division I's ninth place and hope to make an appearance in this year's playoffs.

Londonderry traveled to Amherst last Wednesday, May 15, and wound up with a 14-7 loss to a very tough Souhegan High School opponent. The Lady Lancers scored four times in the first half and just three more goals in the second. Hannah McCutcheon and Grace Holland had two goals each, with the latter providing two assists as well. Grace Chicko, Maddy Walden and Sarah Duarte scored once and goalie Morgan Brutus made eight saves.

The team easily recovered the next day, beating Timberlane Regional High School on the road, 23-3. The Owls only have one win this season, and in this game, Londonderry had 15 first half goals and faced little opposition from the home team. Chicko scored five and had four assists, Walden scored five more and finished with three assists. McCutcheon had four goals, Holland and Marissa Hyder finished with two goals each and Jenna Stowell, Duarte, Tess Brown, Ciara Amerena and Molly Norton also scored.

The Lancer girls will finish the regular season with a home game against Hanover on Thursday, May 23, at 4:30 p.m. and a road game at Merrimack on Friday, May 24, at 6 p.m.

Lancer Track & Field Host Invitational Before DI Championship

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry High School hosted the Londonderry Invitational on Saturday, May 18, as the final competition of the New Hampshire High School Track and Field regular season. Now, the boys and girls who qualified for the Division I Championship will be heading up to the University of New Hampshire on Friday, May 24.

Many local athletes performed well at the home meet: In the 200-Meter Dash, Justin Cassidy finished third overall with a time of 23.07 seconds and Khalique Bagley was sixth (23.60). Damon MacLeod, who was ranked 13 in the 100-Meter Dash preliminaries (11.95 seconds), improved to fifth place in the 300-Meter Hurdles (43.11) and the 4x100 team finished fourth (Jake Holland, MacLeod, Cassidy and Bagley - 44.78).

In the 4x400, Londonderry took fifth place (Cassidy, Kerry Daley, Matthew Griffin and MacLeod - 3:35.00) and in the 4x800, the Lancers placed fourth (Daley, William Heenan, Kyle Hoglund and Ryan Young - 8:29.89). Jimmy Fitzgibbons took second place in Pole Vault (11'6") and Patrick Hagearty won the Shot Put (50'7") and finished

For the girls, Ashley Griffin took third place in the girls 100-Meter Dash (13.02 seconds) and Grace McDonough was fifth in the 800-Meter run with a time of 2:25.83. Nikki Longua qualified for the 100-Meter Hurdles with the fastest time and finished third in the finals (16.75). The 4x800 team placed fifth (Caitlin Bouford, Jasmine Brown, Kaelyn Rourke and McDonough - 10:14.88) and the Lady Lancers controlled the Pole Vault competition: Suzie Moore won (10'3"), Griffin finished third (9'6"), Madolyn Croteau came in fourth with the same result and Sophie Hagymas seventh (8'). In Discus Throw, Lauren Ponto managed a second place finish with a 95' throw and Akolam Wambu took third (94'6").

Londonderry also participated in a Tri-Meet with Pinkerton and Exeter on Tuesday, May 14, with both the boys (29 points) and girls (31) finishing in third place.

Hoglund won the boys' 1,600-Meter Run in that event with 4:41.07 minutes and Fitzgibbons won the Pole Vault with 10'. Moore won the girls' Pole Vault with 10' as well.

The Pole Vault competition was won by Londonderry's Suzie Moore in both of the teams' meets last week. Photos by Chris Paul

Londonderry Boys Lacrosse Team Hopes to Play Home Playoff Game

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Just before their season began, the Londonderry High School Boys' Varsity Lacrosse players promised to "make some noise" in Division I. With only one game left in the regular season, it seems like they kept that promise.

The Lancers were 10-6 as they entered the final week of the season, with a home game against the strong Hanover High School on Friday, May 24 and a chance to get the fourth seed and host a playoff match.

Last week, the team played back-to-back home games, dropping the first and winning the second.

In the game that Londonderry hosted Souhegan (7-5) on Wednesday (May 15) and lost 11-10. The visitors led 3-2 after the opening quarter and the game was tied at six at the half. Each team scored once in the third quarter and the drama moved to the final seconds. With 35 seconds left on the clock Cole Keegan tied the game at ten, after three Lancer goals in less than two minutes. But Souhegan had the last laugh, scoring the winning goal with only 13 seconds to play. Keegan scored four, Anthony Federico and Hunter Smith two each and Zach Fawcett and Derek Mower one. Ross Carroll made ten saves.

The next day, Londonderry won 17-10 in their match against Timber-lane (6-7). The Lancers jumped to a quick 5-1 lead and finished the half up by four goals (9-5). They scored four unanswered goals in the third quarter and were able to maintain their big lead in the final 12 minutes. Federico had a big game with seven goals and two assists. Keegan scored two and assisted for four more goals. James Cranmer and Derek Felix had two goals each. Jack Kester, Aidan Dennis, Thomas Fougere and Timothy McAlister scored once. Carroll made four saves and Connor Gramstroff three.

Londonderry Tennis Teams See Season Come to a Close

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry High School Varsity Tennis teams finished their season last week: The boys' had a 7-7 record this year and were ranked 11th in Division I and the girls had a 4-14 record and were ranked 15th. Both teams did not qualify for this year's playoffs that opened on Tuesday, May 21.

The boys' team completed their make-up game against Pinkerton Academy on Wednesday, May 14, after their meeting was cancelled earlier this month, and lost 9-0. Camden Poitras was the number one player for Londonderry and lost 8-4 and Cam Ness dropped a dramatic match, 9-8 (7-5 in the tie break). A loss and a win last Pinkerton Winners of Fifth Straight Beeman Trophy

The Beeman Trophy games, an annual spring competition between Pinkerton Academy and Londonderry High School, began on May 3, but due to weather problems, it took more than two weeks until a winner could be declared, and for the fifth straight year, it was the Astros, who took a 7-1 lead last week.

Earlier in the month, Pinkerton won both lacrosse matches and in volleyball, while Londonderry got its only point in the Baseball game that was played at PA.

Last Wednesday, May 15, after a few attempts, the boys' tennis meet was completed and the Astros won 9-0. The next day, the girls' also played tennis and once again it was Pinkerton winning all nine matches.

The Track and Field teams met, as scheduled, last Tuesday, May 14, in the Tri-Meet with Exeter and Pinkerton got two more wins over Londonderry. In the boys' events, Pinkerton had 64 points to Londonderry's 29. In the girls' events, it was 82-31 in favor of the Astros. The final meeting, in softball, was completed on Tuesday, May 21, after this newspaper went to print.

The Beeman Trophy games began almost three decades ago, along with the winter Ball Family Trophy Games, following the success of the Mack Plaque Games, a tradition that began back in 1983. The Beeman Trophy is named after Mike Beeman, who studied at Pinkerton and coached and taught at both schools.

Londonderry Volleyball Team Drops Two More Games

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Another tough season has almost come to its end for the Londonderry High School Varsity Volleyball team (3-10), after the Lancers lost two more games.

Londonderry made the short road trip to Windham High School on Wednesday, May 16, to face the Division I leader (14-1) and lost in three sets unfortunately.

The first two games of the match were completely under the home team's control, as Windham won 25-13, 25-13. In the third set however, Londonderry was able to put on a much better game, before eventually losing the last game 25-21.

Then on Monday, May 20, against another strong opponent, Goffstown High School (10-3), the Lancers faced another straight sets loss, this time at home.

The first set was completely lopsided and the Grizzlies jumped into an early lead thanks to a 25-6 game. Londonderry improved in the next set and the score was 14-14, before a Goffstown run gave the visitors 25-17 and a two set lead. In the final set, Londonderry fell behind quickly and was unable to come back, losing 25-16.

LHS Softball Rough Stretch Continues

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

After winning eight games in a row at one point this season, the Londonderry High School's Varsity Softball team is now seeing some adversity, as the team lost four straight games.

The Lady Lancers' record, starting the week, stood at 8-7, and the team desperately needs to put together some wins with their last three games before the regular season ends on Friday, May 24.

Last week, the Lancers lost at home to Merrimack High School (9-6) on Wednesday, May 15, 12-3, after surrendering six first inning runs. Senior Alivia Proulx had an outstanding defensive game and also went two-for-three at the plate, but it was far from enough for the home team. Junior Gia Komst also finished the game with two hits.

On Monday, May 20, at Salem High School, the Lady Lancers faced a Blue Devil team who holds the second best record in Division I (13-4). The Londonderry girls competed well, but came up short, losing 5-4.

Salem was able to build a quick lead, but Londonderry battled its way back into the game and tied it at four a piece in the sixth inning, with a Nina Perry two-out single, before the home team scored the winning run in the bottom of that inning. Komst had a home run in the game and Proulx got two hits. Jillian Glynn pitched another complete game. 22. The Lady Lancers will finish the season at home scheduled to play at the Pinkerton Academy on Tuesday, May 21, and at Manchester Memorial (4-12) on Wednesday, May 22. The Lady Lancers will finish the season at home with a celebration of the teams seniors, and game against Goffstown High School (7-8) on Friday, May 24, 7 p.m.).

Two LHS Students Succeed in Regional Twirling Championship

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The two Londonderry High School students known as the Lancer Twirlers, 17-year-old Morgan Torre and 16-year-old Emily Cowette competed on May 4 and 5 at the National Baton Twirling Association (NBTA)'s Northeast Regional Championship and enjoyed some great results and plenty of success.

Torre, a senior at Londonderry who has been part of the local Red Star twirling team since she was four years old, was crowned in the competition as Miss Majorette of the Northeast. She also won the three solo competitions: Advanced Regional Solo Champion, Advanced Regional Freestyle Champion and Advanced Regional 3-Baton Champion. Torre has been doing parades at Londonderry High School for the past four years, including the 2018 Rose Bowl, the Citrus Bowl and many local events, including football and basketball games, pep rallies and more. She will begin her Journalism and Public Relations studies at Suffolk University this fall, but hopes to still be able to come on the weekends and perform with the team whenever possible.

In a recent conversation, she said that she used to play basketball and baseball when she was young, but never got into those recreational sports. When she started twirling on the other hand, she was much more excited, and been at it for the past 13 years, "I love the team aspect of it. We travel around the world and perform and people learn about baton twirling this way. Everybody says it is so much fun. It takes a lot of coordination to do it right."

Torre remembers the Rose Bowl Parade, five and a half miles in Pasadena, California, "It was brutal, but that is where I learned about hard work and determination. We didn't have twirlers in our school for over 20 years, Londonderry sophomore Emily Cowette stands with the trophies she won at the National Baton Twirling Association's Northeast Regional Championship.

so it was special to travel there."

Cowette, a sophomore, is also a part of the Red Star twirling team, since she was seven years old. She has also participated many parades in her two years at Londonderry High School, and in the recent competition, she won the Junior Miss Majorette of the Northeast. The two girls also competed as a duet, winning the title of the Northeast Regional Duet.

She picked up twirling from her mother and two aunts, "My mom took me to a parade in Derry when I was seven and I saw the Red Stars and wanted to join the team." Cowette's favorite events are the school's pep rallies, football and basketball game: "I love it when the crowd is cheering. To twirl in a professional game is my dream. I know our team did it in Celtics game, but I wasn't even born then."

The Red Stars are coached by Gina Hutchinson and assistants Keriann Lynch and Ashley Tiller will be traveling to Notre Dame University in July for the Nationals.

Both Torre and Cowette agreed: "Our coaches helped us grow as people and dancers and we have to thank them for that."
