Local Girl Scouts Propose Storybook Trail Endeavor

At the Londonderry Heritage Commission Meeting held Thursday, May 23, the Londonderry Cadet Girl Scouts, Troop 12591 leaders presented the board members with a timeline for their project: A Storybook Trail.

This will be the Silver Award project for the cadets group and they hope to complete the work in the Kent Allen forest and present their kiosks, where their story will be told, by Aug. 18, in time for Londonderry's Old Home Day celebration.

The deadline for the completion of the Silver Award project for the group is Sep. 30 and that will be the second time frame, if the project could not be done in time for the town's special week.

Heritage Members Confused on Role for OK in Historic District

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The application, by the Democratic Party, for certificate of approval for the construction of a freestanding sign at 2 Litchfield Road will need to be readdressed in the next Heritage Commission meeting next month.

The applicants asked at the Heritage Commission to put a hunter green colored sign with gold lettering on the property during a public hearing held last Thursday, May 23.

Resident David Ellis raised a question as to whether the size of the planned sign complied with the Historic Easement placed on the property.

The Chair of the Heritage Commission, Christopher Kenney, answered, "I don't know the answer to that question. However, that is outside of the purview of this commission."

To that, Ellis responded by saying: "I would beg to differ." and Ellis presented board members with an email he had received from Town Planner Colleen Mailloux, who looked into his concerns and said the changes in the property must satisfy the requirements of both the easement and the zoning ordinance relating to the exterior of the property.

Ellis added that he sent a copy of this email to the commission members.

The Commission Vice-Chair, Art Rugg, added, "The town council will have jurisdiction on what is on the easement and by zoning ordinance. We will be responsible on what is on the exterior."

Ellis wondered if the height of the sign, eight feet, compared to the building's first floor windows.

LHS to Have Visit From New England Association of Schools

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Educators from the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC) are scheduled to visit Londonderry High School in late October or November of 2019, as a preparation for the organization's Decennial Visit, which will be taking place between September 26 and 29, 2021.

At the recent Londonderry School Board meeting, held last Tuesday (May 21) at Town Hall, the Londonderry School District Superintendent Scott Laliberte and School Board members viewed and discussed a presentation sent by Londonderry

High School principal, Jason Parent, and heard an update regarding NEASC's upcoming visits to the school.

The program sees educators who work with NEASC arrive at schools all over the US, as well as around the world, to confirm self-reflection reports that are written by the school's members.

Londonderry High School has been an accredited high school and through the years has hosted four decades of visits from educational colleagues, who verify the best practices in all areas of education. The program is conducted once every ten years, but the commission will conduct a small Collaborative Conference Visit this fall. According to the presentation, the primary purpose of this visit is to assist in the development of the school's growth plan. The primary purpose of the Decennial Visit in 2021 will be to observe teaching and learning throughout the school and assess

"Mayor Pete" Meets Local Vets, Public on Memorial Weekend

MACK LEATHURBY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

On Friday May 24, as part of his Memorial weekend of campaigning in the state, Democratic Presidential candidate, Pete Buttigieg met with local Veterans and other interested citizens at the Rockingham County Democrats Office in Londonderry.

The well attended veteran forum was set up to focus primarily on veteran's issues. "Mayor Pete" wanted to hear veteran's thoughts and discuss with them key issues about national security and military matters.

At this meeting, Buttigieg was asked his thoughts on President Donald Trump's consideration of pardoning convicted or suspected war criminals.

Buttigieg responded that he considers this move to be a "slander against veterans."

Buttigieg, a Mayor from South Bend, Indiana, was the first 2020 candidate to criticize Trump on this issue.

He said, "You've got a President who said pardoning war criminals, convicted by the military system of justice, that you and I know damn well would hold us accountable if we did something wrong — that he would pardon them because 'you know, you go out there and you fight real hard and these things happen,' which is a slander against veterans."

Buttigieg served in the Reserves for eight years, ending in 2017. He trained to become a Naval Intelligence Officer and he deployed to Afghanistan for seven months in 2014. He cited Trump getting medical deferments from serving during the Vietnam War as wrong.

Buttigieg said, "What disturbs me most is that you have a President who shows disrespect for those in the military. He showed it back then when he used his privileged status, as a child of millionaires, in order to fake a disability to avoid serving."

He said military service taught him to understand the reliance on "chain of command" and to trust those who were different, as the military consists of a very diverse group, that are united in their efforts to support our country.

"When somebody got into my vehicle, they were trusting me with their lives, with their hopes of going back home to their spouses and they could not have cared less whether I was a Democrat or a Republican. They could not have cared less whether I was going home to a girlfriend or a boyfriend, they could not have cared less what country my dad had emigrated from and whether he was documented when he did it," said Buttigieg.

Buttigieg has seen a steady growth in the polls including growing support from senior citizens, with polls showing that seniors, may be even more keen with support for Buttigieg than voters closer to the mayor's age.

Jim Green, a 75-year-old Vietnam War veteran introduced Buttigieg at the Londonderry session for veterans on Friday. Green is also a vice-chair of the Rockingham County Democratic Party in Londonderry, New Hampshire. He is following Buttigieg, as well as other Presidential candidates, coming to N.H. and Green indicated he liked what he heard. Green said he was impressed with "Mayor Pete." Green said that Buttigieg, while only 37 years old has enough good experience and temperament to become President. As a veteran, Green likes that Buttigieg has called for an end to endless war as he did on Friday.

Buttigieg covered quite a few policy issues at the meeting and said that he feels that VA can do a better job for Vets and proposed that the system should be augmented to pay for private health care visits, as well as in the VA process — that is not currently optimized for most vets.

Fred Walsh, 71, a retired sergeant in the U.S. Air Force, explained that he was crushed by a 750-pound tire from a B-52 bomber while serving overseas. Walsh told Buttigieg that he went to the VA in N.H. to get treatment for his reoccurring injury years ago. Walsh said he is not going back there as his experience was terrible and VA staff did not even really look at him even though he was in distress.

Walsh has not yet determined whom he will vote for, though he likes the idea of having someone like Biden with lots of experience. However, Walsh, a Vietnam vet, said Buttigieg's genuineness and sincerity appeals to him. "He gets right to the point and speaks to you from the heart."

ponded that the sign compares exactly to the one that was there for the previous tenants and after the question as to whether interior changes are subject to review by the Planning Board or the Heritage Commission remained unanswered, it was decided to look more into the matter and make it part of the next Heritage Commission meeting, in late July.

Regarding the barn that is located at the same address, owner Richard Flier applied for certificate of approval for renovations to the existing barn. He told the board members that the barn has been deteriorating since it got its easement, animals such as birds fly in and the weather hurts the place.

Flier said he wishes to preserve the barn but fears that until there will be an opportunity to fix it, years may pass and it will be too late. For that reason, he asked to put plywood windows on the barn, to protect it in the meantime and have local artists from the Arts council paint different farm animals on the windows.

After a discussion about the commission's request to review sketches of the artists' work before they paint the windows, Flier's request has been approved.

The board also accepted four applications for design review as they were presented: The construction of a 9,560 SF, two-story manufacturing addition, parking lot expansion and associated site improvements to an industrial facility in Ricker Ave; A site plan to construct a one story, 141,765 SF warehouse/distribution facility for Prosit, LLC, who wishes to move its business from Hooksett and Nashua to the location in Londonderry (44 Rear Pettengill Rd.); A review of a site plan for 43 elderly housing units in Old Nashua Rd.; And a review of a site plan for a 5,000 SF warehouse building, a 600 SF office and outdoor storage area in Rockingham Rd.

Invaders in Our Midst

Are your neighbors' plants making a home in your shrubbery? Are your trees getting strangled by greenery you never bought? Are leaves from unknown aquatic greens traveling on your boat to find a home in your favorite lake?

Conservation officials remind us that invasive plants are a local problem. And they're a problem in our waterways as well.

According to the state's invasive species coordinator, invasive plants impact endangered or threatened species, reduce diversity and wildlife habitat, affect water quality, damage property and lead to starvation of birds.

Japanese knotweed, bittersweet, purple loosestrife, multiflora rose, and burning bush thrive locally, and literally have a stranglehold on portions of our woodlands and roadsides.

But we don't have to leave our yards to encounter invasives. All it takes is ignoring an invasive's presence in one location, and soon it has taken over the neighborhood.

What invasives do is simple – they take over, crowding out native plants. It's a battle we may be losing, and we can't wait for someone else to take care of it – if the plants have arrived, they'll be in your yard soon.

Homeowners can help control these invaders by learning to identify them, joining in volunteer efforts to control them, and following professionals' instructions about disposing of any soil and plant matter that gets on clothes, shoes or tires during the eradication.

Meanwhile, if you think the water is safe from unwelcome visitors, think again.

State officials regularly issue warnings to boaters to pay attention to what they might be putting in the water. Summers in New Hampshire now demand a new way to look at hitchhiking and littering – boats, trailers, motors, fishing equipment, bait buckets, and diving gear can carry aquatic weeds, leaving an infested lake in their wake.

With no natural predators, the plants quickly dominate native plants, fish, and aquatic life. That translates into impaired water quality and reduced shorefront property values.

If you enjoy a kayak or canoe ride, pay attention to the plants in the water as well as to the scenery and birdlife you are paddling out to enjoy. If you've had your boat in another body of water, examine it carefully before returning to your home lake. Encourage fellow boaters to do the same.

Prevention is the name of the game, and it's the job of each one of us to preserve the quality of the lakes we love.

And back on land? Contact your local conservation commission, Extension Service or the state for advice on getting rid of invasive plants. This battle won't be won unless each of us does our share.

NH State House 200th Anniversary

To the editor,

There is another anniversary being celebrated this year besides our Nutfield 300th Anniversary. This year is the NH State House's 200th Anniversary of its construction and operation. If you've never been to the State House or haven't been in many years, the week of June 2-8 is the time to go!

We have the third largest democratic legislative body in the world (US Congress and India are larger) and NH boasts many historic events in its State House. Besides seeing the newly refurbished shiny gold dome, the week has several events to celebrate the longest continuously used legislative chambers in the country.

Beginning Sunday, June 2, opening ceremonies start 1 p.m. followed by tours and reenactments of the 1819 House of Representatives in period dress. On June 3, there is a Governor's roundtable with previous governors and previous Executive Councilors present. On June 4, the NH Supreme Court will hear Oral Arguments in Representatives Hall. Wednesday, June 5, is Cultural Heritage & Arts Day. There will be performers and demonstrations on the State House Plaza.

All past and present legislators are invited on Thursday, June 6, Legislative Old Home Day. There will be a picnic lunch after the Joint Convention of the House and Senate opening ceremonies. The next day, Friday, is NH Made Street Market from 11 a.m. – 7 p.m. Closing out the week on Saturday, June 8, is the State House Tours and Closing Ceremonies.

Tours start 10 a.m. and on the half hour, last tour starts 1:30 p.m.

I encourage Londonderry to take advantage of a great celebration event. New Hampshire played critical roles in the start of our nation; from developing the first state constitution (used as a model for the US Constitution of which Londonderry's Mathew Thornton was a signatory) to leadership in the Revolutionary War through present times and the First in the Nation Presidential Primary to list just a few. As we reflect on our own Memorial Day, it is fitting to remember it was our own General Stark who wrote the phrase: "...Live free or die - Death is not the worst of evils". I hope to see you there and invite you to take the family and tour the State House, especially the Hall of Flags, which reminds us of the great sacrifices made by so many of our residents.

CPR Awareness

To the editor,

Eight years ago, I suffered cardiac arrest in my home. My 16-year-old daughter and I were cleaning our house when I collapsed. She immediately called 9-1-1 and performed CPR on me, saving my life. The American Heart Association states about 70 percent of out of hospital cardiac arrests happen in homes. If you are called on to give CPR in an emergency, you will most likely be trying to save the life of someone you love: a child, a spouse, a parent or a friend.

June 1-7 is CPR and AED Awareness Week and I am urging all New Hampshire residents to learn Hands-Only CPR. It only takes two steps when you see an unresponsive adult. 1. Call 9-1-1 and 2. Push hard and fast in the center of the chest for 100 to 120 beats per minute. To make it easier and to stay on track, you can push to a song like "Stayin' Alive" by the Bee Gees or "Crazy in Love" by Beyoncé.

CPR, especially if performed immediately and accurately, can triple a cardiac arrest victim's chance of survival. It saved my life and everyone should be prepared to act in an emergency.

Respectfully,
Karey Packard

Re: Democrat Lunacy

To the editor,

I am glad the writer of Democrat Lunacy letter took the time to rebut my letter of Constitutional crisis. I however would have changed the title to: Republican Lunacy. What it shows is absolute division in the now called "Divided States of America". I few points, as the writer uses the word "Truth" often. The truth is the report indicated 251 contacts between Trump campaign staff and Russian operatives! Since they can't put Lying Donnie at the scene of the crime, can't say for sure. So, if you're a Republican, I am sure would say: He knew nothing about it. Yeah, right, say the rest of us.

Let's again get our facts straight. You wrote: "In truth is the investigation started in May 2017". This is false propaganda (I don't blame you, as it very much a Fox (fake) news narrative). The real truth is: In July 2016, the FBI began investigating the Russian government's attempt to influence the 2016 election, including whether Trump's campaign associates were involved in those efforts. It was in fact British Intelligence who notified the FBI about the contacts between Russian and Trump campaign officials.

Since the writer took the time to poke fun at ideas such as the Green new deal, Capitalism is bad etc., I will reciprocate. For starters; I wonder how you feel about tariffs (i.e. a tax) that's placed on all of us, i.e.: we all will have to pay. However, this president gives relief to certain business entities only. What would you call that?

As you are probably a MAGA hat wearer, as the famous line goes: "Want some more truth? Too bad".

Auto Sales: off to a horrendous start, so much so they now have changed the reporting to quarterly vs. monthly. Ford just announced 7,000 layoffs. Many more will follow! Looking very much like people used their tax refunds, now half or non-existent for this, to purchase new cars. Retail industry: has the preverbal noose around its neck, estimates are as high as 19,500 stores will go close this year. Business Tax Cuts: Yup, worked great.

Moody's reports: Corporate share BUYBACKS have now exceeded 1 Trillion dollars! Car loan defaults: up to highest rate since 2009. Debt at 22.3 Trillion, Consumer debt ~ 20 Trillion, Deficit: all the way back up to 1 Trillion. Central World banks increasing their Gold positions up to 70%. China and Russia continue to gobble up the world supply, with Russia's latest purchase of 400 tons! Insurance industry reporting RECORD profits! MAGA? Anybody? My favorite saying is: "those who do not know or understand history, are destined to repeat it." Tell'em what they've won Bob: A brand new collapsed economy!

Lastly, I did get a chuckle out of "those who scream the loudest as to their innocence always turn out to be the guiltiest". I think we all know just whom has been Screaming the LOUDEST about "HIS" innocence, don't we now.

Don't Forget Mueller

To the editor

As I was in the process of responding to a letter of two weeks ago, lo and behold, a letter by Mr. Pitre in last week's editorial section pretty much put together my intended comments. To add a few more let's not forget a Mueller dragged out report, needlessly for months, at the taxpayers' cost of $35 million.

Impeachment is fading away knowing it to be a lost cause. So what to do? Oh I know, since the words collusion, obstruction is passer let's try the word "covers up". That should be good for the time being. It's darn right comical to watch the so called news commentators all say the same thing once the word got out from their leader Ms. Pelosi, but not to say as what was covered up.

There's still hope that AG Barr, now that the handcuffs are off, will bring the culprits, who started this coup, are brought to justice.

Put Your Teeth Where Your Mouth is VA

To the editor,

For the last number of years we heard a lot of talk and appreciation of how much you respect and honor our veterans. The VA has done a lot to provide and meet the needs of US veterans. Mental health facilities have been added and expanded, outpatient of non VA hospitals and doctors are now available to veterans out of reach from their VA facilities.

The new management of the National Veterans Administration claims to be open for suggestions on improvements:

My Experience in the Leadership Londonderry Program

MARTHA SMITH
LONDONDERRY TIMES

I recently graduated from the Leadership Londonderry Program.

Local residents Pollyann Winslow and Mark Oswald, with the cooperation of the Town and the School District, originally started this independent program in 2003.

Winslow and Oswald, both live in Londonderry, and have volunteered in a great number of ways during their years in town.

The current program grew out of The Best Town's Initiative back in 2003, which was open to everyone living in Londonderry to give input into setting the priorities for the community. Leadership Londonderry was started to provide a learning tool for people living in town, but working outside of the community, so they could learn how best they could serve in our Town and/or our Schools. Winslow and Oswald had both previously been through similar programs in other states, where they had lived, and decided if would be a good idea to start program in Londonderry. The 1st Leadership Londonderry class graduated in 2004.

The program was disbanded for a several years due to lack of participants, however, this year it was reintroduced and we had a class of nineteen interested Londonderry residents.

The purpose of the program is to educate interested residents about the operation of the Town and Schools and all of the various ways someone in town can become involved. There are numerous committee's made up of volunteers, who give so much support to our community.

The program ran from September through May this year. We met each month on Thursday evenings from 4:30 p.m. - 8 p.m. There was a discussion and question and answer period during every class and dinner was provided for the group.

The first class started with a school bus tour of the town, with Kevin Smith, Town Manager, and Scott Laliberte, Superintendent of the Londonderry School District.

I was surprised by some areas of the town that I was not familiar with and learned a great deal about the new businesses that have developed along Pettingill Road.

The topics covered in continuing classes were; the Londonderry Police Department, Londonderry Fire Department, Public Safety in Londonderry, an Overview of Town Government, Elections, Finances, and Budgetary Processes, Londonderry School Board and Schools generally, Planning and Economic Development in Londonderry, Environmental issues, the Londonderry Senior Center, Quality of Life in Londonderry and Transportation in Londonderry. Each class provided a great deal of interesting information, that I probably would not have known if I had not been a part of this years program.

Among all of these interesting evenings - one stands out as the most fun. We all went to the Manchester-Boston Regional Airport and learned about the operation of the airport and we were able to get a full tour of the airport, including the back operation, that we don't normally see when traveling. This evening also included information about local and statewide infrastructure, which I found very interesting.

I truly appreciated the experience offered by this program. There are so many ways for anyone to get involved and share their expertise in various areas. Open positions for various committees and boards are posted regularly by the town on the website. If you have the time it is a good idea to get involved and serve your community. I strongly recommend the Leadership Londonderry Program to all my fellow citizens.

Preparing Students for the Future and Changes to the School Day

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

At a recent meeting of the School Board, Dan Black, Assistant Superintendent of the Londonderry School District, presented "Londonderry's Portrait of a Graduate" after 21 months of work on the project.

The project was created with collaboration from the entire Londonderry school system and articulates the system's "updated vision of what we want to produce in terms of our graduates being career and college ready." It anchors the curriculum and instructional vision for Londonderry's school district for grades K to 12, with the goal to better prepare our students for the 21st century expectations.

The program looks to go behind the standard classroom content and help students explore and understand tools that can assist them moving forward, once they leave the Londonderry school system. In July 2017, 27 staff members from the school district went to the "Competency Based Education Design Studio" to learn more about competencies and enduring learning goals, and the work done on this matter in different New Hampshire communities and across the nation.

Then, the Londonderry High School staff was asked by Black's team to look through the competencies they articulated 10 years ago, to try and distill the most important ones that would work in the new framework. The middle school staff was also engaged and asked to give their input and on Nov. 6, a Professional Development Day took place.

Eventually, four competencies were highlighted and will anchor the Portrait of a Graduate project at the school district: The local graduates work well with others through communication and collaboration (They have clear expression and can work towards a shared goal); The local graduates think critically, with creativity and as problem solvers (They use thinking habits and can be original when necessary); The local graduates focus on themselves through self-direction (Are self-reflective while finding perseverance, ownership and practice in their learning); The local graduates focus on their communities as engaged citizens (They participate and contribute to their local, national, global and digital communities).

Also at the School Board meeting, the changes for next year (2019-2020) school day and school calendar were presented. The school day will be expanded by 16 minutes (Following the Collective Bargaining Agreement which was recently signed with the district's teachers). The high school will operate next year between 7:20 a.m. and 2:14 p.m., the middle school from 8:05 a.m. to 2:51 p.m., and the elementary schools hours will be 8:42 a.m. to 3:13 p.m.; Moose Hill morning hours will be 8:37 a.m. to 11:20 a.m. and the afternoon hours will be 12:30 p.m. to 3:13 p.m. and the Londonderry Early Education Program (LEEP) would work between 8:30 and 11 a.m., and between noon and 2:30 p.m.

The added time will be scheduled into instructional blocks within the day and the idea is it can result in an increased learning time. Should there be fewer than five snow days during next school year the students will receive the benefit of additional learning time. The high school's graduation, historically set for the second Friday in June will remain on that day, thanks to the new schedule, without the need to reschedule in the event of weather related cancellations throughout the year.

Local Relay for Life Brings Communities Together Against Cancer

Each year, rain or shine walkers, runners, families, and friends gather on the Pinkerton Academy football field for the Relay For Life of Greater Derry and Londonderry in order to raise money and awareness for cancer patients and survivors. This year's event will be held Friday, June 14, at 5:30 p.m. – 12 a.m., with activities for participants to enjoy throughout the event.

The Relay event will consist of members of teams and individuals walking or running around the track or path at the school. Teams have been raising funds for months leading up to the event, with all proceeds going towards freeing the world from the pain of cancer. It begins with the gathering under the purple and white balloons arch and the reading of the names of the survivors, as they do a lap, then the caregivers, step on the track and do a lap finally everyone takes part in the laps. As always, there will be uniquely themed laps, during which participants can dress up in costumes as they walk around. Amphora, a Greek restaurant in Derry, will once again be catering a dinner for survivors at the Relay as he has done for many years. Honored guests will receive a signature purple survivor t-shirt, along with entertainment and drawings just for them. All survivors are encouraged to attend, even if they are not part of a team, and let Relay for Life celebrate their victory.

The disease has affected many people in many ways, including the owner of this paper Deb Paul for one, who has fought cancer twice.

Paul said "that she enjoys attending the event with cancer survivors at the Relay for Life. She feels like it puts life into perspective."

Survivors, people currently battling cancer, and loved ones who lost their battles will be honored with a silent lap and the lighting of the Luminaria.

The dedication that they show to the celebration of survivors is absolutely stunning. It's wonderful.

This is the second year the event will not go overnight as it did in the past.

Whatever the reason, the hope is to reach out to those who have come and gone over the past two decades to rejoin the fight. "Sometimes it takes those small steps to make big differences." Paul explained that she's had a number of friends, family members and those she did not even know personally, that have been affected by cancer, and the amount seems to keep multiplying".

"Every time I think I can step away, someone gets diagnosed, or dies..." Paul said.

"A goal is a goal until it's reached, and then it is time to set a new goal." Paul stated. "My goal is to do what I can do eradicate cancer, and you can't put a dollar amount on that. I do what I can, and every dollar is a dollar more than we have today...but it's never enough until cancer is gone."

It's not just a walk. You really get to enjoy everybody's company for a long period of time. With campsites and things like that, this event is more about people getting to know each other and enjoying the camaraderie.

There are many ways to get involved and participate in Relay For Life year round. The American Cancer Society is always looking for new planning committee members to help organize these events and volunteer on the day of. Even just coming to the Relay and signing up to participate, as a team is an awesome way to get involved. People can come to the event to enjoy and see what it's all about, and then go forward and start volunteering.

For more information about volunteering, donating, starting your own team, or the event in general, Relayforlife.org/derryandlondonderry, or call the American Cancer Society at (603) 471-4112 or (800) 227-2345. ## OBITUARY

Albert Carpentier

Albert A. Carpentier, 71, of Londonderry, NH, passed away Wednesday May 22, 2019, surrounded by his loving family in the Lahey Clinic, Burlington, MA. He was born in Brockton, MA on December 24, 1947, a son of the late Roland and Dorothy (Epsey) Carpentier. Albert was a graduate of Lowell High School, Lowell, MA, Class of 1966.

Al enjoyed watching the birds in the front yard, watching football and cheering on the Patriots. He also enjoyed cooking, especially making his famous meatballs which everyone loved. Al loved his three-legged rescue cat, Try-Paw and enjoyed his Saturday "rides to nowhere" with his wife, Catherine. Most of all, Al was a devoted family man, who loved his family with all his heart. He always made time to help with anything that they needed. When Catherine would leave for work in the morning, Al would always text to tell her that he loved her followed by many heart and flower emojis. He took great joy in telling anyone who would listen how proud he was of his children and grandson, Dillon. He and Dillon were partners in crime, spending time together often and especially liked going out for lunch.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 48 years, Catherine R. (Shaw) Carpentier, his son, Al Carpentier, and daughter Michelle Carpentier, all of Londonderry, his grandson, Dillon Carpentier, one sister, Mary Carpentier of Casa Grande, AZ and two nephews, Gregory and Geoffrey Gagnon. He was predeceased by one sister, Margaret Gagnon.

Calling hours were held on Tuesday, May 28, with a Mass of Christian Burial on Wednesday, May 29, in St. Jude Parish, 435 Mammoth Rd., Londonderry. The burial will follow in the Pillsbury Cemetery, Hovey Rd., Londonderry. To send a condolence or for more information, please visit, www.peabodyfuneralhome.com.

Schools

progress toward self-selected goals.

In the previous visit, ten years ago, seven standards for accreditation were identified by the commission and set; Core values, beliefs, and learning expectations; Curriculum; Instruction; Assessment of and for student learning; School culture and leadership; School resources for learning; Community resources for learning.

Since then, the process was shifted and for 2021, there are five standards of accreditation: Learning culture (Promotes shared values and responsibility for achieving the school's vision), Student learning (Maximize the impact of learning for each student), Professional practices (Ensure that practices and structures are in place to support and improve student learning), Learning support (Ensures that the school has appropriate systems to support student learning and well-being), Learning resources (ensure that the school has the resources necessary to meet the learning needs of all students). Over 70 local teachers have volunteered to participate in faculty discussions about alignment to the standards.

The participating schools are asked to report on their progress in each standard from last fall to the spring of 2022, starting with the completion of the self-reflections and ending with updates and answers to the question "What does the school want to develop in the next years". The presentation also said that the emphasis of NEASC is on self-initiated reflection and growth plan rather than a "report card" of commendations and recommendations.

Senior Resources Committee Holds its Monthly Meeting

JOHN GOGLIA
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Larry Casey, Chairman of the Londonderry Arts Council (LAC) made a presentation to the Senior Resources Committee recently.

Casey stated that the purpose of the LAC is to enrich the quality of town life through the arts. He noted the major events hosted by the LAC as follows: the Arts Café held in the fall at the Senior Center where artists, craftsman and musicians welcome all community members and not just seniors; Art In Action held recently in May at Mack's Apples where artists interact with the public and the Concerts On The Common series of concerts held at the Town Common which start Monday, June 3, with the High School Jazz ensemble and then continue every Wednesday night throughout the summer. The LAC is also considering another Arts Café in the fall. The LAC in coordination with other town groups will be discussing ways to encourage more seniors to attend these concerts, which had over 2,000 visitors last season, to include shuttle service to and from a designated senior and handicap parking area. Go to concertsonthecommon.com for dates and events.

A discussion about the high school possibly organizing a "Seniors Prom" was tabled for now to explore the idea with the Director of the Senior Center.

Jen Ganem, of the School Board, has been appointed as liaison to the group and has received approval to research some type of technology training to be offered to the town's seniors by tech savvy high school seniors. Ganem is also researching possible fraud scam avoidance training for seniors.

Committee members discussed following up on a previous letter sent to a local supermarket regarding their policies on home delivery serves. There was a brief discussion about focusing attention on better ways of coordinating events and information to seniors and it was suggested that the issue be given further consideration at a future meeting. Finally, there was a brief discussion about considering a review and a possible updating of the committee's mission statement at a future meeting.

entation, at the moment the plan is to place 12 kiosks within the town's Kent Allen Forest, near the Londonderry Town Commons. The story's subject is "Leave no Trace" and it is completed, but the group is still trying to cut down the number of kiosks, while also working on illustration. The idea is for the visitors of the forest to walk from one kiosk to the next, read the story and learn about the forest, all in a reasonable time.

The group also plans to add a map in front of the trail, next to an introduction that will help visitors get to know the girls that were leading this project. There is also a plan to publish an actual book, telling the Storybook Trail story and the girls scouts are still looking for sponsors who wish to contribute to this project.

Gwen St. Germain, one of the two girl scouts leaders (With Sarah Fegan), talked to the commission members about future plans regarding the preservation of the project once it is ready and placed in the forest: "There was a question about who is going to upkeep the signs. Many of this girls are eighth graders and want to be involved with girl scouts until their senior year, so we have more time to make sure that this is kept up for 15 or 20 years. We have been working to make sure that everything that is going in is approved by forest managers, Kent and Meredith Allen."

The story was developed in collaboration with Ms. Allen and is about animals that live in the area and their forest environment. The girl scouts hope to use the story and teach the visitors about treating the forest respectfully and about the things that

LHS Softball Enters Playoffs With a Three-Game Win Streak

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry High School's Varsity Softball team lost its first three games of the season, then they went on to win the next eight. And then lost the next four. So there was no better way to end the regular season for the Lady Lancers than another winning streak, and one of those games ended with a dramatic walk-off win on Friday, May 24, the team improved to an 11-7 record and winding up in ninth-place in the Division I standings. The good news is, that the Lancer Squad will enter the playoff this Wednesday, May 29, with a full head of steam.

Londonderry's week began with a big 15-8 win over their rivals at Pinkerton Academy who finished the season at 12-7. At the Tuesday, May 21, game, which had been moved from the beginning of the month due to rain, and counted toward the Beeman Trophy standings (Londonderry's second point in this competition). The Lady Lancers enjoyed two big innings, scoring six runs in the third and five in the sixth. Gia Komst had a two-run home run and a total of four RBIs. Alyssa Vaillancourt drove in three runs and both Nina Perry and Alivia Proulx finished with two RBIs each. Vaillancourt, Proulx and Miranda Galan all had home runs in the game.

At Manchester against Memorial (4-14) on Wednesday, May 22, the Lancers scored five times in the opening inning and four more runs in the second and won 16-9. Proulx had a three-run homer in the second and Delaney McGurn hit a two-run home run in the final inning.

The regular season ended on Friday with a walk-off 7-6 win over Goffstown (9-8) in eight innings. The visitors scored twice with a two-out single to take the lead in the top of the seventh inning, but a single by Komst drove in the tying run in the bottom of the inning to keep the game alive. In the eighth, Komst recorded the winning RBI. Miranda Galan had a busy night at second base and smacked a homerun early in the game.

The final game of the regular season served as the team's Senior Night. The Lancer's recognized the four seniors they will be losing to graduation, Senior Miranda Galan had homeruns against Pinkerton Academy on the road and Goffstown at home last week.

Proulx, Vaillancourt, Galan and McGurn played on the home field for the last time.

The Lady Lancers were scheduled to travel to Merrimack for a first round game, after the Londonderry Times went to print, and will play the number one seeded Exeter on Saturday June 1 if they win that game.

Lancer Boys Lacrosse Team Will Play PA to Start Playoffs

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry High School's Boys' Varsity Lacrosse team finished its regular season last Friday, May 24, with a tough 8-7 home loss to a very strong Hanover High School opponent who finished with a 11-4 record.

That loss meant that the Lancers will now enter this year's playoffs as the seventh seed, and will have them playing on the newly resurfaced field at their rivals Pinkerton Academy on Saturday, June 1, in the first round of the Division I playoffs.

In the team's final game of the regular season against Hanover High, the first quarter ended in a 1-1 tie, before the visitors build themselves a two-goal lead to head into the halftime break (4-2).

Londonderry answered with a good a strong third quarter and the teams entered the final 12 minutes tied at six.

The Lancers then scored a quick goal, just 49 second into the fourth quarter, but Hanover came back, scoring twice and keeping the one goal lead until the buzzer was heard.

Cole Keegan had a four-goal game for Londonderry. Isaac McCune, Anthony Federico and Aidan Dennis scored once. Connor Gramstroff made four saves, Ross Carroll had two.

Before that game, the Lancers celebrated Senior Night, by honoring 11 seniors that will be lost to graduation.

Coach Roger Sampson said after the game, "The boys are going to have to raise to the occasion and dominant the possession.

Senior Cole Keegan scored four goals in his final home game as a lancer last week.

We have to live with our mistakes. Pinkerton is playing really good going into the playoffs and we are not and we have to fix that. We had critical turnovers and too many penalties and you can't win game doing that stuff. We had some injuries, but everyone has." We were looking to be the two or three seed and thought we can do that.

LHS Baseball Team Finishes Strong Enters Playoffs as Four Seed

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

It has been a great regular season for the Londonderry High School Varsity Baseball team but now, it is time for the playoffs, and the Lancers can still remember what happened last year, when they were on the wrong side of the first round upset.

Londonderry will enter this year's playoffs, scheduled to begin on Thursday, May 30, as the number four seed and with a fantastic 15-4 record, but also with a bittersweet feeling after a frustrating loss in the regular season's final game. The Lancers will host Spaulding on Thursday, May 30, at 4 p.m. and if they advance, will face either Pinkerton or Windham in the next round, on Saturday, June 1.

The Lancers had a very close 13-12 win over the 0-18 Salem High Blue Devils on Tuesday, May 21. The visitors nearly shocked the Lancers to try and get their first win of the season.

The first inning ended with Londonderry leading 4-2 and after two, it was 6-5. The Lancers scored five times in the third inning and seemed on their way to a comfortable win, but Salem tied the game with a six-run sixth inning and took the lead in the seventh.

The wild game ended with Recce Manor hitting for the walk-off winner, scoring Brandon Fish in the bottom of the seventh inning. Ryan Killelea pitched the final two innings and recorded the win. Manor had six RBI thanks to three hits.

Londonderry's senior night on Wednesday, May 22, and had the team get a 6-2 win over Manchester Memorial (10-8).

The Lancers scored twice in the first inning and after Memorial tied the game in the top of the fourth, scored a run in the bottom of that inning, one more in the fifth and two in the sixth to get another win. Sean Cavanaugh had a good game, going three-for-three (all singles) and driving in three runs. Manor pitched a complete game, striking out six.

The Lancers had a chance to tie Concord at first place, with 16 wins, but lost their final game of the season at Goffstown who finished at 10-8. The loss came as a 1-0 shutout after the Grizzlies scored the game's only run on a walk-off walk with bases loaded in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Nolan Lincoln had a solid game for the Lancers, and allowed only two hits over seven innings and had four strikeouts.

Cast Away to the Islands

The Matthew Thornton Drama Club held a cast party recently, and during the party presented a check showing the $1,370 check that was donated to the Antilles School in the United States Virgin Island. The Caribbean Islands had been devastated by natural disasters in recent years, and the schools on the island were hit particularly bad. After the local students performed the play 'Once On This Island' they felt that donating to the area that the play was about, was an appropriate way to show their appreciation.

LHS Girls Lacrosse Ends Regular Season With .500 Record

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Six wins in their final nine games, including two in three games last week, helped the Londonderry High School Girls' Varsity Lacrosse team recover from a rough start to the season and finish with a 9-9 record and the eighth seed in the Division I playoffs that started this week.

The Lady Lancers had two big home wins over

Exeter High School on Tuesday, May 21, and then against Hanover High School on Thursday, May 23.

Against the Blue Hawks, Londonderry scored five times in the first half and six more in the second, securing a tough 11-9 win with goals by Lauren Doherty with 2:03 minutes and then with 4.9 seconds left to play. Doherty finished with four goals, Grace Chicko had three and two assists.

Hannah McCutcheon, Jenna Stowell, Sarah Duarte and Ciara Amerena scored once and goalie Morgan Brutus had six saves.

The Hanover game was an even closer contest, and the Lancers wound up winning 10-9, thanks to a goal by Duarte, with 43 seconds left before the end of regulation. That was her third goal of the game, with Chicko leading the team and scoring five times. McCutcheon and Stowell scored once each, Brutus had three saves.

The last home game also served as the team's Senior Night. The Lancers will be losing Duarte, McCutcheon, Morgan Brutus and Samantha LeClair to graduation.

The final game of the regular season sent the team across the river to Merrimack High School where they ended the season with a disappointing loss on Friday, May 24, 14-7. The Lancers scored three goals in the first half and four more in the next 25 minutes. Seven saves by Brutus were not enough to stop the Tomahawks. Chicko and McCutcheon scored twice each, Doherty, Holland and Caroline Leone had one goal.

The Lady Lancers were scheduled to play the number one seeded Pinkerton Academy in the tournament's quarterfinals on Wednesday, May 29, after the Londonderry Times went to print.

Kyle Proulx

Proulx, a strong junior defenseman has been consistent for the team all year. His solid defensive play against Timberlane produced a win. He also kept the Lancers in the game in a tough one goal loss vs. Hanover.

LHS Ends Volleyball Season With Two Losses

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

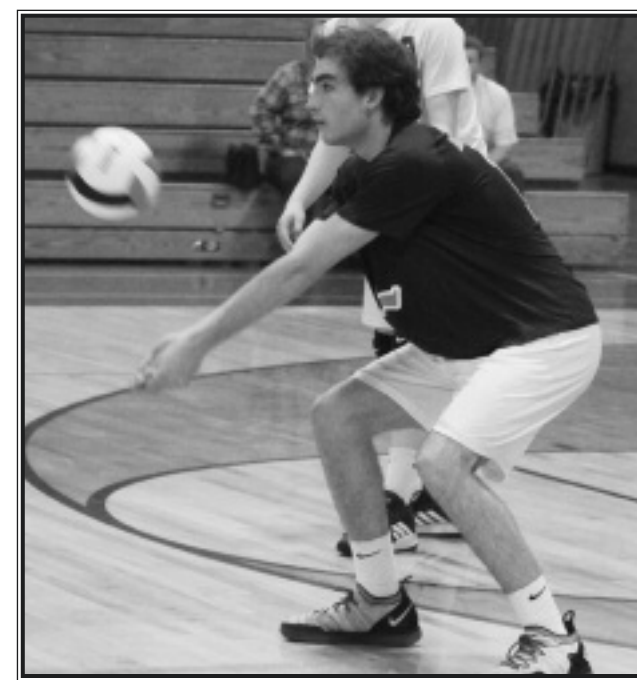

In what has been a tough season for the Londonderry High School Varsity Volleyball team, it ended on Friday, May 24, and the team wound up finishing with a 3-13 record and in 13th place out of 16 teams in Division I.

The Lancers lost in straight sets, 3-0, in the team's final two games of the season unfortunately.

During their last road game, on Wednesday, May 22, they played at Hollis-Brookline High School to a strong 11-4 squad and lost to the Cavaliers 25-11, 25-6, 25-11.

Then at the team's final home game, and after the Lancer's celebrated the departure of their seniors, Londonderry faced Souhegan High School (8-7) on Friday, May 24 and the Sabers jumped into an easy 2-0 lead, winning 25-9 in the first set and 25-11 in the second. Senior James Buttafuoco was injured on a play during the second set, but fought his way back into the game and the Lancers played better in the final set, before losing 25-19.

Senior James Buttafuoco and his fellow Lancers saw their season come to an end last week.

Seniors that will be lost to graduation include 12 of the team's 16 players, meaning the team will have to be built up from very few veteran players.

Local High Schools Rowing Club Looking to Build Awareness

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Manchester Rowing Alliance, a rowing club that brings together students from Londonderry High School, Pinkerton Academy and other schools in the area, will be part of the Step-Up Day next Tuesday, June 4, at the Londonderry High School, an annual event for eighth graders and hopes to use this event to build more awareness to the team throughout the area's towns and encourage more students to join the crew team.

Rowing is not a sport sanctioned by the New Hampshire Interscholastic Athletic Association (NHIAA), as the association has its own set of rules and demands for sports that wish to become part of it. As most of the crew teams coaches around the state prefer to compete under their own set of rules, this situation is unlikely to change anytime soon. Most of the Manchester Rowing Alliance competitions are against private high schools from all parts of New Hampshire (A smaller amount of the competitions are against public schools), with a total of almost 60 schools with competing teams.

Londonderry High School and Pinkerton Academy shared a rowing team for many years under both school's names, but the women who is running the team, Brenda Balenger, believed a more neutral name will help bring in high school kids from other schools and expand the team, and so the name was changed to the Manchester Rowing Alliance.

The crew team competes in two different seasons. Fall season begins in early August, a few weeks before school and runs until the end of October. During the month of October, there are five Regattas, including the New Hampshire Championship. In the winter, kids can participate in indoor training and the spring season begins in mid-March (Or after the snow melts) and ends in June, after four more Regattas.

The Manchester Rowing Alliance has approximately 40 kids today on the team, half of them boys and half girls, more or less. There are no co-ed competitions (Boys compete only against other boys, girls against girls) and a big advantage is the level playing field, as none of the rowers begins practicing before he becomes a member of a high school club. Unlike many other sports, there is neither the need nor the possibility to begin your time with the club with previous experience in rowing.

At the Step-Up Day, the Manchester Rowing Alliance plans to have an erg machine in its booth, allowing smaller kids to test their skills against the club's members. The team hopes this will help kids learn more about the club and join it in the future. The team is also hoping to use this event, and other similar events, for fundraising as the cost of the boats and the equipment is high.

Ex-Lancer Ryan Griffin Released by Houston Texans

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Less than a month after he was arrested during NFL Draft weekend in Nashville, Tenn., Ryan Griffin was released from the Houston Texans on Friday, May 17.

The former Londonderry High School athletic star, and Texans tight end was arrested by the Nashville Police around midnight on Friday, April 26, after officers responded to a call of disorderly person.

Griffin is accused of punching and breaking a front window of a downtown hotel in Nashville while intoxicated.

The hotel's security personnel followed Griffin to the street after the incident and stayed with him until police arrived at the scene. Griffin was bleeding from his left hand and fingers, as a result of his punch. He was then arrested for his and others safety and charged with vandalism and public intoxication, after stumbling on the sidewalk and almost going into the road and the traffic on the road. A friend of the player claimed he was over served at a bar.

Griffin spent one night in jail and has a court date is set for May 31, but the Texans decided not to wait, and expectedly, released him after being with the team for six seasons.

Rumors were quick to connect him with the New England Patriots, since he grew up in the area and the NFL champions need a veteran tight end with Rob Gronkowski announcing his retirement earlier in the year.

READERS ARE CAUTIONED that we occasionally run ads that require an initial investment or money in advance. We urge our readers to "do their homework" before responding to any ad, check out the advertiser thoroughly and verify their claims to your total satisfaction.
