Zoning Board Has Discussion on Rehearing Gas Station Sign

KELSEY DERHAK
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Zoning Board met last month and one of the topics discussed was whether to rehear a case on a gas station sign.

The case was a resubmit for a sign that was approved with restrictions by the Zoning Board because the square footage was larger than the allowed limit. The originally requested 364+ square feet is now reduced to 165 square feet, which is approximately a 55% reduction in size. Unfortunately it is still four times the allowed square footage. Peter March of NH Signs argued the point that he is allowed to resubmit based on precedent set in 1980 in the case of Fish-

Planning Board Tries To Deal With Trucking Traffic

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Planning Board met on Wednesday, Nov. 4 with a fairly lengthy agenda, and one plan discussed involved trying to curb truck traffic coming from the airport area.

The meeting was once again held through videoconference due to space constraints associated with the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Of the large number of plan that were scheduled to be reviewed, two had requested to be continued next month.

One of those plans was for a building at 33 Londonderry Rd., were the owner is looking to expand the parking lot and make site improvements. That plan was granted a continuance by board. The applicant withdrew another plan associated with that site, which was a lot line adjustment.

Also being continued to next month was the application for formal review of a site plan for Phases 4, 5 and 6 of the Cross Farm Development, an elderly housing development at 200 Nashua Rd. Phases 4, 5 and 6 include 79 dwelling units and associated site improvements. It is now scheduled for review at the Wednesday, Dec. 2 meeting.

Under new plans, an application for formal review of a site plan for the construction of a 61,400 square foot warehouse addition, loading area and associated site improvements at 11 Ricker Ave., by Glenbervie, Inc. who is the Owner and Applicant.

To start the owner was granted a waiver on landscaping to start things off and then civil engineer, Michael Malinowski, presented the plan to the board.

He explained that the plan is located near the airport off Harvey Rd., and that his client is proposing a large warehouse addition plus

Town Sees Record Number of Residents at General Election

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

About 16,000 registered voters participated in the General Election on Tuesday, Nov. 3 and of those about 5,700 came in by way of absentee ballots.

Although most reports came in positive about how quickly voters could make their way through the Londonderry High School gymnasium, there were also periods of longer lines waiting to get through the doors at the gym and in the traffic along Mammoth Road.

After the polls closed, there was also a major snafu with one of the ballot counting machines.

According to Town Council Chairman John Farrell. Between 9:30 and 10 p.m. a memory card failed on one of the machines. After several attempts to recover the data from the card, and attempts from the machine's vendor to correct the issue, it was decided to recount the ballots starting at about 11 p.m.

Poll workers finished the recount by about 3 a.m. the following day.

The Londonderry unofficial results posted by the Town Clerk are as follows:

A Senior's Perspective On The Elderly Housing Ordinance

Submitted by

John J. Goglia

On Sept. 21, 2015 the Londonderry Town Council adopted Ordinance 2015-06 which became known as the Elderly Housing Ordinance. The Ordinance in part read: "Whereas the zoning ordinance shall permit opportunities for small work force housing developments, housing for older persons, assisted living, and elderly affordable housing that are more compatible with the character of Londonderry's existing residential neighborhoods;"

There are now 11 "Over 55 Communities" in Londonderry and at least 2 more anticipated soon. Unfortunately, these senior developments would not be considered affordable to most seniors as the base costs without upgrades are comparable to or even exceed many of the single family type homes in town. Unfortunately, the developers of these senior communities were granted certain construction variances by the town common to high density type construction that allowed for standards below what is normal for other types of housing projects. Primary among the benefits to the developers the town allowed variances in the construction of these private roads that did not meet the requirements of public roads. The construction of private roads meant that the town was not ever going to be responsible for maintenance, snowplowing, resurfacing, repairing, repaving, drainage, rental of fire hydrants or lighting for these communities as is done in other residential communities. Those are all significant costs that are passed on to the unknowing senior residents. Although seniors moving into private road residences are told about the private roads it takes a few more years until they realize the ramifications. Since these senior communities are assessed at values at or above other types of residences built on public roads our seniors are actually subsidizing the property taxes of everyone else while also paying separately for some of the services provided to public road residents. It is obvious that seniors do not have school age children but are paying their fair share to educate the next generation because that is the price of living in a nice, quiet and safe town. Many of our seniors are coming from Massachusetts or another state where property values are much higher than New Hampshire so they can easily afford to live in town under these financial conditions but some unfortunate Londonderry residents are and will be forced to move elsewhere when it comes time to downsize. The developers have generated huge profits and move on while the town continues to receive significant tax revenues from these senior developments incurring little or no liability exposure or present or future costs since everything is paid for by senior residents who are generally on a fixed income.

It should be noted that there are many other types of private roads in Londonderry and throughout New Hampshire. Many in more rural areas date back 50 to 70 years or more. Some are dirt roads, some are gravel and some are paved but most if not all require significant upgrades to meet municipal and state standards in order to become public roads. There has been at least one positive outcome from the elderly housing ordinance. Sanborn Crossing Apartments is an affordable complex in Northern Londonderry for those seniors 62 years of age and older who meet certain income criteria.

The town has stated that since New Hampshire is a Dillon Rule State as opposed to a Home Rule State the state must grant towns the authority to make property tax concessions to resolve inequities which the Concord Legislature has not done. Apparently, municipalities in Home Rule States have authority to make some of their own regulations while in Dillon Rule States the state must grant specific authority to municipalities to deviate from state regulations.

There is a state-wide nonprofit organization called the New Hampshire Private Road Taxpayers Alliance (NHPVRTA) that is pushing a bill to be filed sometime after the election to get legislation passed in Concord to form a committee to study the issues faced by all owners of property on private roads in NH and hopefully make recommendations to fix the inequities or discontinue the practice of approving private roads. Their website is www.nhpvrta.com. This writer has been a part of the NHPVRTA since late 2019 when HB 1490 to study private roads and taxation passed the House of Representatives in March, 2020 only to be permanently tabled along with many other bills during the Covid-19 Pandemic.

OBITUARY

Robert A. "Bob" Zinkevicz

Robert A. "Bob" Zinkevicz passed away unexpectedly at age 82 in September. Bob was the beloved husband of Diane Zinkevicz, who will miss him forever. They shared over 59 years of marriage. He also leaves his sons Douglas & Scott Zinkevicz (Beth Emory) & grandchildren Alex & Lindsey Zinkevicz.

Bob was born in Massachusetts & graduated from Palmer High School, Palmer, MA. He joined the Navy & was sent to the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis as a fleet candidate. He chose to finish his college studies at Brown University. Upon graduation he was commissioned a U.S. Naval officer. With his military obligation completed, he married, played semi-pro football & worked in the insurance industry. He became a State Farm Insurance Agent & began a career that continued until the day he died. He gained many accolades over his years with State Farm and his clients considered him an honest, trustworthy, & caring agent & businessman.

Bob was very active in community service. He served on the Zoning Board of Derry for over 20 years, leading the board as chairman for many of those years. He was affectionately known as "Coach Z" throughout the sporting community of Derry where he coached Little League Baseball for over 27 years. Baseball was his first love so he sponsored & coached his Zinkevicz Insurance Little League team, but he coached the flag football & basketball teams in their seasons as well as baseball through all age levels all the way to Legion ball. He was active in scouting: founding and leading a new Cub Scout Pack #405 as Cub Master. He was also an AWANA leader working with kids, helping them to learn & grow to responsible adulthood. He always found it greatly rewarding working with the youth of the community.

Bob had a love for woodworking: creating many pieces of fine furniture. He had a particular delight for driving & collecting "special" cars. Many recall him driving "Buster", the 1942 Chevy pick-up truck with Santa and/or Mrs. Claus in the back greeting everyone at the annual Christmas Parade.

More recently, he was able to relax & enjoy playing softball & tennis, boating & beaching in sunny, warm Florida avoiding snowy, cold NE winter.

Bob will be greatly missed by his family & many friends. Please visit the online guest book at BobZ@orchardnh.org to share memories, stories, etc.

There will be visiting hours at The Orchard Church, 136 Pillsbury Rd., Londonderry, from 4 - 6 p.m., on Friday, Nov. 20. A memorial service will be held also at The Orchard on Sat. Something To Be Said About A Smile Kindness. Probably not a subject I should be writing about. You see, I tend to be the type of person who lets things get under my skin. The type of person who says enough is enough and then caves in.

I guess the people who bother me the most are the ones who seem to think the world owes them something just because, well, they exist. It's as though they feel that they are the "chosen few," the only ones on earth who have a right to be where they are when they are there.

Go to any big city today, find a bench on a corner, and just sit and watch. No one seems to care about the person next to them. No one seems to even think that the other person might be going through the same things they are. It seems like no one reaches out a hand to help anyone else unless they think it's going to result in something good for them.

Being kind to a person isn't difficult. Being kind isn't a sign of weakness. No. Being kind is probably just the opposite. Being kind to your neighbor, friend, family member or a complete stranger is more a show of strength than anything else.

You see, it doesn't take much for a person to get angry. There's no self-control or discipline involved in blowing up or taking your frustrations out on someone else. In today's world, that seems to be the norm, though. In today's world, it's more about doing unto others as they did unto you than it is do unto others, as you would have them do unto you. The golden rule seems to be a thing of the past.

A strong person learns how to reverse his or her emotions. It takes courage to step out from the shadows of everyone else and do something different. It takes strength to see the world from another person's point of view.

Just because someone stepped on your foot, doesn't mean you have the right to step on someone else's. Just because someone closed the door in your face, doesn't mean you shouldn't hold it open for someone else.

Try this on a complete stranger, greet them with a smile and say hello. It is not a grand gesture but you maybe surprised. It does not take any time out of your day. Still, that act of kindness set the tone for how that person feels about their world.

Being kind isn't difficult. Being kind doesn't even have to take time away from your busy schedule. During this week, World Kindness Day is Friday the 13, and throughout the rest of your life, why not share joy instead of frustration and anger. Be kind to your neighbor. It might just become contagious.

Thank You

To the editor,
Just wanted to say thank you to all that helped me on Election Day. I am a handicapped senior who was able to vote easily that day. I would like to thank the people from traffic duty, the folks helping with parking, and everyone who helped me check in.

Everyone was very pleasant and helpful. I say Thank you all for stepping up.

Welcome President Biden!

To the editor,
America, you did it! It took a massive effort, record setting, from all walks of US Citizens to make it happen, 74 Million of you! Even the Never Trumper Republican's (referred to as RINOS) helped. For many you were told you do not matter, you are part of the Herd. Well, they found out the Herd can VOTE! For those who fought not only for the SOUL of America, but for America itself, you can hold your Heads High! Truly, the words written on the German war memorial dedicated to the resistance fighters are appropriate here: "You did not bear the shame. You resisted. You bestowed the eternally vigilant signal to turn back by sacrificing your impassioned lives (Covid & Protests) for freedom, justice, and honor". This is a victory not only for the US, but a victory for the world. I was heartened by some social media posts in support: "We in the rest of the world look forward to saying "Welcome back America, we missed you". "Germany is proud of dear Americans, thank you and let freedom ring".

Personally, I could not be happier. As the Republican party may finally understand what I have been screaming about for a decade now. This would be our Anti-quoted, Gerrymandered, Electoral College process, which now only serves to Nullify voters. Truly, we have suffered under this many times ourselves. Most recently in 2016 when the majority of voters were told: Sorry, but our process decides. To Explain: How could it be so close in so many states and all the Electoral votes go to Biden? As an example: Pennsylvania: 3,346K vs. 3,311K votes and all 20 electoral votes go to Biden? Thereby saying: the Entire State Of Pennsylvania voted for Biden? This scenario played out in many States, as it did in 2016. Would be interesting to dive into the numbers and see if a scaled division of EC votes, reflective of actual votes, would have changed the outcome? In the example above, would reflect: 11 Biden & 9 Trump EC votes.

The level of Lying, Criminality, Un-Patriotic, Un-American behavior over the next two months, will be nothing short of record setting as well. Not just regarding the election. NY AG's many sealed indictments now come into play, dozens of them. Additionally, Reuters: "Deutsche Bank plans to cut ties with Trump after the election and could seize his assets. The lender has handed over records to Manhattan's district attorney as part of a criminal investigation into Trump's businesses". Also, he can no longer protect his tax records, subpoenaed by Congress, via the courts any longer. I would not be surprised if this ends with him seeking "Asylum" in Russia, would be fitting! All the above would go a long way towards the healing process for his supporters.

Rejoice AMERICA! We are finally the United States Of America again!

Lastly, I have been waiting 4 years to say this: You're Fired!

Thank You Police & Fire

To the editor,
I have been a resident of Londonderry for 20 years and have had nothing but positive experiences with our town police and fire department professionals. I was recently in a car accident during a very busy time on route 102. It was a scary experience, I had my 12-month-old grandson in the backseat and thankfully we were all safe. I want to extend my feelings of thankfulness and gratefulness for the assistance I was given by the police department and the fire department and to the good Samaritan's who stopped to offer support. In particular I would like to recognize Officer Marvin Alfaro er v Dover, which argued that variance requests can be made once rejected if material changes in circumstances can be demonstrated. March argued that by reducing the square footage of his request by 55% this would constitute significant circumstantial change.

March went on to comment about other signs in Londonderry and also brought up the Board's concern from August about the relationship between the linear length of a building and the allowed square footage of its corresponding sign. March commented that other towns in New Hampshire do not have the same requirements and that he be treated as other businesses in town such as Game Changer and Staples.

At this point Chairman Dunn interrupted March to poll the two other available board members, Feig and Benard, as they were the only two remaining members after member's O'Brien and Brunelle recused themselves from this case. Chairman

Dunn's opinion was that just by reducing the size of the sign constitutes a demonstrative or significant change thus allowing reconsideration for the variance. Feig expressed a contrary opinion that the size reduction did in fact make the request significantly different. The sentiment expressed by Feig pertaining to the 55% reduction was, in fact, substantially different and thus qualified. Benard also believed the information provided at the meeting on this night was previously unavailable or that certain information had changed such that the Board or the applicant would not have been aware of at the time of the original application.

March then went on to cite another case in which the Zoning Board of Adjustment v. Town of Thornton, in which "subsequent application being modified to meaningfully resolve the Board's concern", alluding to the change in size, which was the Board's original concern.

Benard went on to state the previous argument was due to the large size of the build-façade requiring a large sign should be allowed. At this point March made note of the fact he was not arguing the size of the façade, but more the actual length of the building. Benard stated that the Board had indeed inquired at the last meeting if the applicant would consider a reduction in the size of the sign. However, Mr. March did not attend the last ZBA meeting.

Chairman Dunn then suggested the board consult with the Town Attorney for guidance on the matter. March did ask for clarification if this guidance pertained to the "meaningful change" referenced earlier in the article or just give guidance on the signage request. Feig then amended the request to the Town Attorney would answer the question as to meaningful change or to just provide guidance in this matter. Laura Gandia, the Associate Planner for the town, noted that the Town Attorney would provide guidance.

Benard then motioned to table the case until an answer from the Town Attorney could be obtained pertaining to both of the cases cited by March.

Planning

adding a number of parking spots. They are looking to give more breathing space to the workers at the facility and have added a large storm water runoff treatment area. They are also planning to add some landscaping around the new lot.

The Planning Department had a number of clarifications be made on the plans.

Without many questions from the board, and with nothing from the public, the board approved the plan with the conditions that staff had recommended.

The next application was for a formal review of a subdivision plan of one lot into two at 5 Aviation Park Dr. R.J. Kelly Company, Inc. is the applicant and Burndy, LLC is the Owner. The plan is also associated with the next plan of an application for formal review of a site plan for the construction of a proposed one-story 40,521 square-foot trucking terminal and a proposed one-story 50,000 square-foot warehouse building and associated site improvements.

Again, R.J. Kelly Company, Inc. is the applicant and Burndy, LLC is the Owner.

Earl Blachford, Shawn Smith and Steve Pernaw presented the plan once again since they had already presented the plan to the Planning Board at two other meetings.

Since the October meeting, Blachford said he addressed a number of concerns brought up, one of which was about traffic concerns and landscape and wetland concerns.

As far as traffic, Steve Pernaw addressed the traffic and said that the impact to the current intersection is at about 2.5 percent additional traffic.

Pernaw added that there is an existing need for a left turn pocket of about 1,000-feet on Harvey Road, but that the new development is only adding a minimal amount to that need.

David Debaie of Stan-tec spoke on behalf of the town and confirmed that there are problems with area intersections, both at Litchfield Rd., and on Harvey. He added that there are problems with the traffic counts due to the current COVID-19 conditions, saying that they are currently off because of the fewer amount of cars traveling.

Pernaw then assured the board that the traffic studies taken for the plan were done before the Pandemic.

Debaie said he wasn't suggesting doing a new study, but to take into consideration what will be coming in the future.

The major concern was that there would be more truck traffic headed south on Harvey Road and end up on Litchfield Rd., which is a residential area.

Smith responded to the concern by say that 90% of the trucks would be taking a right onto Harvey and away from the residential area.

The consensus on the traffic issue was that it was more of an enforcement issue for the town and not something the developer can deal with other than to require a right turn only sign for trucks.

There were a number of conditions on the plan requested by the Planning Department and a number of waivers requested by the developer.

The two plans and waivers were approved unanimously by the board for the project to move forward.

Thank You All

To the editor,
The exciting, stressful, exhausting, historical week we had is over. We processed almost 6,000 absentee ballots, with thanks to Christie, Allison, Cherie, Kristina and Stacie, on Monday and roughly 10,000 people voted on Tuesday. Sherry, you are the glue that kept all of this and us together. Thank you! We had a few challenges, a couple of medical emergencies, traffic delays and long lines, that moved rather quickly, but all in all it was a good day.

A HUGE thanks to all the ballot clerks and election workers who spent hours pre-processing absentee ballots on Monday and on Tuesday checking in almost 10,000 voters. Mandy, you were extremely helpful, doing whatever was asked of you and more, thank you. Kristin, Kirsten and Brian thank you! You have a lot more to prepare the election than people realize.

To Chief O'Brien, Battalion Chief Heinrich and your staff thank you for supporting everyone with PPE, saving a life and stepping in to do anything we needed.

Chief Hart, Lt. Breen and all of the officers we saw and didn't see, thank you! Your presence was very comforting to those of us that knew you were there for everyone walking through the doors.

A.L.E.R.T.; Londonderry is fortunate to have you, thank you for keeping the parking lot, full of cars and voters safe.

Now to thank the Londonderry School District, we took over the gym for 2 days and no one complained. Charlie is a miracle worker. Change after change you make them with a smile. To the custodial staff, thank you for job well done. Amanda, wow, breakfast and lunch were delicious, you make the best soups! Your staff is great. Thanks to all.

There are many more people to thank, we wish we could thank all of you.

Londonderry Rocks!

Good Job at the Polls

To the editor,
Just wanted to give a shout out to all that helped at Londonderry High School on Election Day. From the police on traffic duty, to the folks helping with parking, all the people that helped check in residents as well as the people at the ballot collection centers. Everyone was very pleasant and helpful. Tip of the hat, pat on the back, round of applause. Thank you to all.

Calling all Catholics: Now the work begins

To the editor,
I write this not knowing the outcome of the upcoming election. Even without this information, I would like to reach out to all Catholics. Regardless of who wins, Catholics need to start working to correct the ills of our society. May I offer a few suggestions?

1) Get to know your faith: Why are you a Catholic? What do Catholics believe? Do you know the Six Precepts of the Church? The Four Last Things? Do you have a Catechism book in your house (like the Baltimore or Penny Catechism?) We have a rich and vibrant faith. We can trace our Popes back to Saint Peter. Our history is filled with Saints who have lived miraculous and inspiring lives. Try reading Catholic books, even if it's only 10-15 minutes a day. Ask your parish priest for an adult doctrine class.

2) Continue to vote – with your pocketbook: Why do we continue to pay for services or support businesses that are so anti-Catholic? Do you know of a business that is pushing anti-Catholic ideals? If so, refuse to support them. Find your product or service somewhere else. Can't find any modest clothing at the mall? You can find it online. Why do we allow the trash on television to invade our Catholic homes? Many people have "unplugged" from cable television and social media. People can live without Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, etc. Our schools have an "electronic free" week – why not extend it? Reading, making puzzles, playing board games, cooking, woodworking, the list of things to do is endless. Keep your internet service and look to it for your news. Look for sites that do investigative reporting and can show you actual documents or complete speeches. Search out the truth.

3) The "Man in the Mirror": It all starts with the person you see reflected in the mirror every day – you.

Try praying the rosary every day. Go to church on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. When is the last time you went to confession? Help out at the church and your community. Speak up! If you find that the government, school, and yes, even the church are promoting organizations, rules, or laws that go against our Catholic religion, contact them and let them know. Begin to take responsibility for your finances and actions. Begin to live a "Catholic" life.

These are just a few suggestions. Remember, we are not just Catholic on Sundays. We are Catholic every day, 365 days a year. Unfortunately, we have either forgotten our faith or have allowed our daily lives to take us away from it. Our society shows the ill effects. As Catholics, let's be part of the solution, not part of the problem.

2020 Season Highlights for Londonderry 12u Baseball

NEIL WASHINGTON
SUBMISSION

The Londonderry 12u Baseball ended the summer with a total record of 9-1. While baseball team's Cooperstown trip was cancelled due to COVID, they won the Londonderry Invitational for the fourth consecutive year with five combined wins over the NH Sluggers, Litchfield, and Merrimack. What follows are some highlights from their season.

- At the Londonderry Invitational: The offense was led by Brendan Fitzgerald, Graham Killelea and Caden Guthrie, who all had multiple hits and boasted an on-base percentage near .500 each. Londonderry pitchers averaged only five hits and four runs per game over the entire tournament.

- Won the Cal Ripken 12u District Championship for the first time with a 4-0 record.

- Beat Merrimack 4-0
- Beat Windham 6-3
- Beat Swanzey 3-2
- Beat Hudson 1-0

- Londonderry pitchers combined to give up just 11 hits over 4 games/26 innings

- In the first District game against Merrimack, Jaylen Stott dominated on the mound allowing zero runs on just three hits, while striking out seven. The offense was led by Liam Killelea and Brendan Fitzgerald who both had two hits and an RBI each. Graham Killelea had the other two RBIs. Other players with hits included Jameson Seaman, Gage Licciardi, Jay Stott and Brady Fuller.

- In the 2nd District game, the pitching was dominant again as Matt Luongo started off by holding a very strong hitting Windham team to only two earned runs on three hits, while striking out nine. Gage Licciardi came in to close the game, retiring four straight batters. In this game, the hits were harder to come by with Londonderry totaling just three. Matt Luongo went 1-1 with a walk and two RBIs, Carter Washington also went 1-1 with two walks and two runs scored and Jameson Seaman went 1-3 with two RBIs. Liam Killelea also drove in a run.

- The District Winners Bracket Final was the best 12u baseball game that any of the coaches had seen played in many years coaching. Pitching was outstanding again, with Luongo and Licciardi combining to allow just two runs on four hits over eight innings, with Luongo striking out eight and walking just one batter. Brady Fuller led the offense with three of the eight Londonderry hits. Other players with hits included Jameson Seaman, Jace Ruggiero and Liam Killelea. But perhaps the two most timely hits came in the second extra inning with the game tied 2-2 when Aiden "Doc" Soucy used his speed to beat out a pinch-hit infield single with two outs in the 8th and then stole 2nd. Carter Washington then ripped an RBI double down the left field line on a 2-2 pitch, scoring Soucy, giving Londonderry a 3-2 lead. But Swanzey wouldn't go away quietly. With Licciardi pitching in the bottom of the 8th, the defense made three plays to preserve the win. The first batter of the inning popped a ball into foul territory behind 1st base. Liam Killelea raced over and jumped into the fence to make the catch. The very next batter hit a shallow fly ball to center field. Jameson Seaman had to race in and make a shoestring catch for the 2nd out. After two consecutive singles by Swanzey hitters, the batter was their #3 hitter, who hit a long home run earlier in the game. On a 1-0 count he hit another bomb out to right-center. Both baserunners were running immediately to try to score, but it wouldn't matter. Seaman made another highlight-reel catch, with his glove fully extended and sprinting to the fence, he pulled in the 3rd out, ending the game, and sending Londonderry to the Championship.

- The Championship Game two days later featured what could only be described as a classic pitchers duel. It featured the top Hudson pitcher facing off against Londonderry newcomer, Jace Ruggiero. Jace was a welcome addition to the team this year, and it showed in this game. He dominated a Hudson offense who had just put up 17 runs the night before.

Ruggiero held Hudson to just one hit and three walks, while delivering nine strikeouts in a complete-game shutout. Ruggiero also had one of three Londonderry hits on the night. Liam Killelea also had a hit. But the game would be won in walk-off fashion in the bottom of the 6th. With two outs, Gage Licciardi beat out a ground ball that couldn't be played cleanly by the 3rd baseman. He then showed off some speed and baserunning by stealing 2nd and 3rd to get himself just 70 ft., away as the winning run. Jay Stott was the next batter. He got behind in the count quickly 1-2, but someone forgot to tell Jay that. One of our most consistent hitters, not just this year, but over the past 5 years, Stott hit a bullet to right-center-field, scoring Licciardi to give Londonderry the walk-off 3-2 win.

Lancer Football's DI Title Repeat Stopped by Blue Devils

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Lancers football squad's hope to return to the NHIAA Division I finals was foiled by the Salem Blue Devil's squad on Saturday, Nov. 7 in Salem.

On what was a beautiful, Indian Summer, fall afternoon, the Lancers were unable to achieve any sort of consistent play on either side of the football leading to their early exit from the playoffs in the quarter finals.

Even though the Londonderry High School squad had a rather easy 16-point shutout of the Blue Devils when they met earlier in the season, on Oct 3 at home, playing on Salem's field, without hometown fan support, was a completely different game, and the Lancers came up one scoring drive short in a 21-13 loss.

The LHS team had quite a bit more offense than their opponent that afternoon, with 331 of total yards to Salem's 195 yards, but turnovers killed them.

Londonderry had three fumbles and three interceptions with five of those resulting in turnovers. Salem, on the other hand, only had one fumble, which they were able to recover.

The problems started early in this game for Londonderry after they fumbled the ball during their first drive, resulting in Salem gaining possession on the LHS 15-yard line. Despite a gallant effort by the LHS defense, Salem's fourth and two attempt results in the Blue Devils first points of the day.

The LHS squad quickly responded, despite another fumble, and drove the ball down to Salem's four-yard line, where junior Matthew Perron knocked through the defense for six points. Londonderry Junior, Zach Fawcett's extra point was uncharacteristically short, so the Lancers trailed 7-6.

Momentum seemed to be on the side of the Lancers to start the second, with Perron creating most of the offensive yards and getting his second touchdown of the day. That drive helped give LHS a 13-7 lead, with Fawcett's second attempt at the extra point being good.

That's where the points ended for the Lancers, and Salem came back to score two more times before the half ended leaving the Lancers at a 21-13 deficit to ponder during the break.

Salem's second touchdown was on a 68-yard run by Aiden McDonald, and the final touchdown was after a 16-yard pass completion

Lancer junior Matthew Perron accounted for both the Londonderry touchdowns against Salem.

Salem buckled down and played some tough defense along with some equally tough time killing offense in the second half to help solidify their opportunity to play in the semi-finals.

In the fourth quarter, the Lancers made a gallant effort to get into the end zone with very little time on the clock, but their efforts at the two-yard line on the final play of the game were squashed by Salem's tough goal-line defense.

Lancer senior quarterback Dylan McEach-

ern was six for 11 with 90 yards in passing.

Perron was the lead rusher for LHS with 93 yards. Hayden Austin had 87, McEachern had 60 and Robbie Derhak had two.

Fawcett caught three passes for 49 yards, while Trevor Weinmann had caught two for 31 yards.

Lancer Girls Volleyball Team Gets to Division I Semi Final

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Despite an outstanding effort by the Londonderry High School Girls Volleyball teams effort to make it to their first Division I Championship match in ten years, the local girls fell to a tough Hollis-Brookline squad 3-1 last week.

The girls' team's last attempt in the final round championship matches happened in 2010 and 2009, when Londonderry celebrated two-straight championships, and the 2020 team was hoping to regain that achievement on Wednesday, Nov. 4, when the traveled to Hollis-Brookline for a rematch from earlier in the season.

In that regular season game the Lady Lancer team lost in straight sets, but as they returned to the school in the NHIAA DI Semi-Finals, the LHS squad was up for a different outcome.

The first set ended with HBHS muscling through a 25-18 victory, even though LHS made it close several times in the game.

The second game of the evening went back and forth a majority of the time, until the Lady Lancers finally pulled away to take their first victory from Lady Cavaliers 25-19.

The third set started well for the LHS squad, but HBHS took the match lead eventually with a 25-17 win.

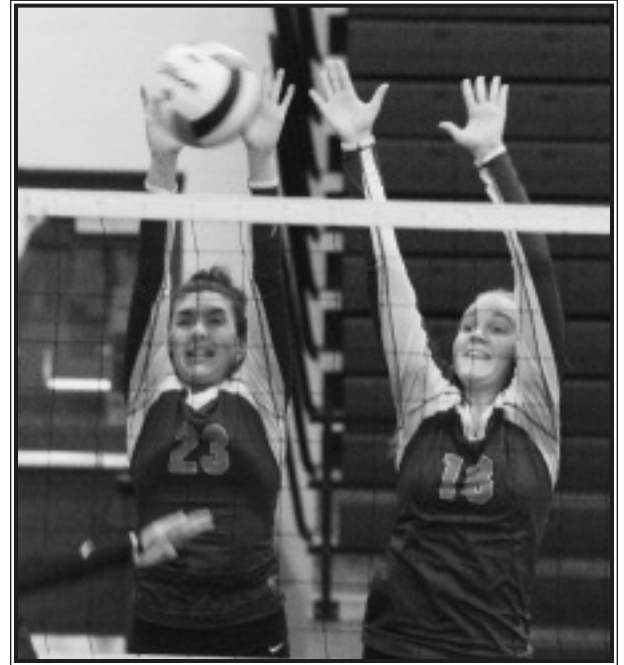

In the fourth set, despite LHS making things interesting with a late run to even things up at 21-21, the final set went the way of the Cavaliers by a score of 25-21.

That set win dashed the Lady Lancers hope for a return to the championship match.

In that match, Emma Detellis had 12 digs and two aces; Kelsey Sanborn had nine kills, five digs and two aces; Jordan Galluzzo had six digs, five kills and two aces; Sarah Joe had four kills, two aces and six blocks; Lexi Small got 19 assists and three kills; Madi Saucier had two kills, and two blocks; and Kat King managed three blocks and two kills.

The eventual Division I Championship winner was the Bedford Lady Bulldogs, who Londonderry didn't play in the regular season, they beat the Cavaliers in three straight sets.

Lady Lancer Field Hockey Payers Get State Honors

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Varsity Field Hockey team enjoyed a number of successes this season, and the New Hampshire Field Hockey Coaches Association acknowledged three of the Lady Lancers in their choices for first and second teams in the division.

Seniors Emily

Cowette and Jenna Stowell were selected by the coaches as members of the states first team, while freshman Taylor McKinnon was selected to the division's second team.

The LHS team ended the regular NHIAA Division I season with a 3-3-2 record, and went 1-1 in the playoffs. In the Lady Lancers first playoff game, at home against the Salem Blue Devil, the Lady Lancers won 2-1 to advance to the quarters. In the Quarter Final match against Windham High School, the team took a tough loss after two overtime periods to lose 1-0.

That loss ended the season for the girls, but three of the players were honored for the achievements throughout the season.

Of the achievements, head coach Nicole Treadway had this to say, "Emily has been a four-year varsity member. She also received our overall player of the year award. She is an all around consistent player and we will miss her greatly. She is looking to possibly play club next year at the DI level."

Of Stowell she added, "Jenna was a start defender for us the last two years and this year was moved to the forward line where she did not disappoint and earned herself the Offensive Player of the Year award for our team. She has some of the best stick skills I have seen. She is headed to Assumption to play lacrosse next year."

Treadway also commented on McKinnon,

"Taylor is a freshman with a very promising future with Lancer FH. She is a tremendous defender who can track a player from across the field and never gives up. I know it sounds simple, but she always has her stick on the ground and lays a completely flat tackle. I am super excited about what the future has in store for her."

LONDONDERRY SPORTS

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Lancers football squad's hope to return to the NHIAA Division I finals was foiled by the Salem Blue Devil's squad on Saturday, Nov. 7 in Salem.

On what was a beautiful, Indian Summer, fall afternoon, the Lancers were unable to achieve any sort of consistent play on either side of the football leading to their early exit from the playoffs in the quarter finals.

Even though the Londonderry High School squad had a rather easy 16-point shutout of the Blue Devils when they met earlier in the season, on Oct 3 at home, playing on Salem's field, without hometown fan support, was a completely different game, and the Lancers came up one scoring drive short in a 21-13 loss.

The LHS team had quite a bit more offense than their opponent that afternoon, with 331 of total yards to Salem's 195 yards, but turnovers killed them.

Londonderry had three fumbles and three interceptions with five of those resulting in turnovers. Salem, on the other hand, only had one fumble, which they were able to recover.

The problems started early in this game for Londonderry after they fumbled the ball during their first drive, resulting in Salem gaining possession on the LHS 15-yard line. Despite a gallant effort by the LHS defense, Salem's fourth and two attempt results in the Blue Devils first points of the day.

The LHS squad quickly responded, despite another fumble, and drove the ball down to Salem's four-yard line, where junior Matthew Perron knocked through the defense for six points. Londonderry Junior, Zach Fawcett's extra point was uncharacteristically short, so the Lancers trailed 7-6.

Momentum seemed to be on the side of the Lancers to start the second, with Perron creating most of the offensive yards and getting his second touchdown of the day. That drive helped give LHS a 13-7 lead, with Fawcett's second attempt at the extra point being good.

That's where the points ended for the Lancers, and Salem came back to score two more times before the half ended leaving the Lancers at a 21-13 deficit to ponder during the break.

Salem's second touchdown was on a 68-yard run by Aiden McDonald, and the final touchdown was after a 16-yard pass completion

Lancer junior Matthew Perron accounted for both the Londonderry touchdowns against Salem.

The Londonderry High School Cross Country teams participated in the states last race of the season over the weekend and the boys team had seven runners competing, while the girls sent just one.

by Salem's Cody Clements.

Salem buckled down and played some tough defense along with some equally tough time killing offense in the second half to help solidify their opportunity to play in the

semi-finals.

In the fourth quarter, the Lancers made a gallant effort to get into the end zone with very little time on the clock, but their efforts at the two-yard line on the final play of the game were squashed by Salem's tough goal-line defense.

Lancer senior quarterback Dylan McEach-

ern was six for 11 with 90 yards in passing.

Perron was the lead rusher for LHS with 93 yards. Hayden Austin had 87, McEachern had 60 and Robbie Derhak had two.

Fawcett caught three passes for 49 yards, while Trevor Weinmann had caught two for 31 yards.

Lancer Girls Volleyball Team Gets to Division I Semi Final

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Despite an outstanding effort by the Londonderry High School Girls Volleyball teams effort to make it to their first Division I Championship match in ten years, the local girls fell to a tough Hollis-Brookline squad 3-1 last week.

The girls' team's last attempt in the final round championship matches happened in 2010 and 2009, when Londonderry celebrated two-straight championships, and the 2020 team was hoping to regain that achievement

on Wednesday, Nov. 4, when the traveled to Hollis-Brookline for a rematch from earlier in the season.

In that regular season game the Lady Lancer team lost in straight sets, but as they returned to the school in the NHIAA DI Semi-Finals, the LHS squad was up for a different outcome.

The first set ended with HBHS muscling through a 25-18 victory, even though LHS made it close several times in the game.

The second game of the evening went back and forth a majority of the time, until the Lady Lancers finally pulled away to take their first victory from Lady Cavaliers 25-19.

The third set started well for the LHS squad, but HBHS took the match lead eventually with a 25-17 win.

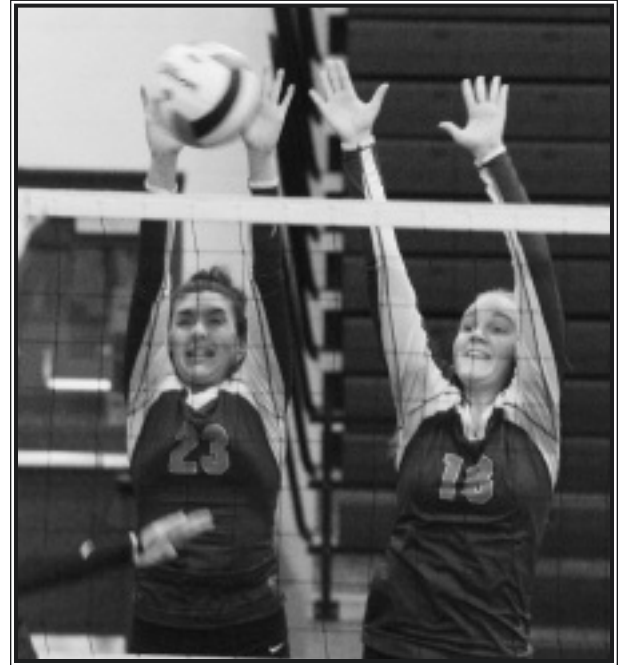

In the fourth set, despite LHS making things interesting with a late run to even things up at 21-21, the final set went the way of the Cavaliers by a score of 25-21.

That set win dashed the Lady Lancers hope for a return to the championship match.

In that match, Emma Detellis had 12 digs and

two aces; Kelsey Sanborn had nine kills, five digs and two aces; Jordan Galluzzo had six digs, five kills and two aces; Sarah Joe had four kills, two aces and six blocks; Lexi Small got 19 assists and three kills; Madi Saucier had two kills, and two blocks; and Kat King managed three blocks and two kills.

The eventual Division I Championship winner was the Bedford Lady Bulldogs, who Londonderry didn't play in the regular season, they beat the Cavaliers in three straight sets.

Lady Lancer Field Hockey Payers Get State Honors

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Varsity Field Hockey team enjoyed a number of successes this season, and the New Hampshire Field Hockey Coaches Association acknowledged three of the Lady Lancers in their choices for first and second teams in the division.

Seniors Emily

Cowette and Jenna Stowell were selected by the coaches as members of the states first team, while freshman Taylor McKinnon was selected to the division's second team.

The LHS team ended the regular NHIAA Division I season with a 3-3-2 record, and went 1-1 in the playoffs. In the Lady Lancers first playoff game, at home against the Salem Blue Devil, the Lady Lancers won 2-1 to advance to the quarters. In the Quarter Final match against Windham High School, the team took a tough loss after two overtime periods to lose 1-0.

That loss ended the season for the girls, but three of the players were honored for the achievements throughout the season.

Of the achieve-

ments, head coach Nicole Treadway had this to say, "Emily has been a four-year varsity member. She also received our overall player of the year award. She is an all around consistent player and we will miss her greatly. She is looking to possibly play club next year at the DI level."

Of Stowell she added, "Jenna was a

start defender for us the last two years and this year was moved to the forward line where she did not disappoint and earned herself the Offensive Player of the Year award for our team. She has some of the best stick skills I have seen. She is headed to Assumption to play lacrosse next year."

Treadway also commented on McKinnon,

"Taylor is a freshman with a very promising future with Lancer FH. She is a tremendous defender who can track a player from across the field and never gives up. I know it sounds simple, but she always has her stick on the ground and lays a completely flat tackle. I am super excited about what the future has in store for her."
