Town Council Accepts $2.7 Million in Federal Funding

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the latest meeting of the Londonderry Town Council members accepted a substantial amount of funding from a variety of sources.

During the Public Hearing portion of the meeting, Londonderry Finance Director Justin Campo, brought two grants forward for the council to vote on accepting.

The first was from the American Rescue Plan Act, for local government under the Corona Virus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds. Campo informed the council that they are anticipated to get $2.7 million from that act. He added that the deadline to towns to opt in was Aug. 18 and if the town chooses not to pursue the funds, the money continued on page 7

Reopening Task Force Meets To Finalize School Year Plan

DAVID NOYES
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry School Reopening Task Force convened on Wednesday, Aug. 18, and the group comprised of school personnel, community members, and parents discussed the various challenges facing Londonderry's efforts to safely open schools while maneuvering through the ongoing COVID-19 Pandemic.

The task force pointed their discussion towards student sick policies, masking recommendations, and various other mitigation tactics needed to keep students, school staff, and the community safe.

The task force unanimously voted to consider local data specific to Londonderry, rather than including the surrounding counties and New Hampshire as a whole, to inform the various decisions that need to be made to keep infection rates in schools down.

Superintendent Scott Laliberte emphasized the task force will be taking, "a more localized approach to reactions, to cases...We do feel like we get pretty good data although we never get enough of it. We always want more data that's specific to Londonderry."

While disagreements did unfold at points throughout the meeting, Dan Black, Assistant Superintendent, noted a common core value: "if we have multiple positive cases and do nothing, were negligent. Were

School Board Chairman Resigns as Schools Get Ready to Reopen

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

A week and three days after Jenn Ganem, the Vice Chair of the Londonderry School Board resigned, the current Chairman of the board has resigned leaving just three members to conduct meetings heading into the new school year.

School Board chair Michael Saucier announced last Friday that because of health concerns he will be stepping off the board.

According to a release sent out on Monday afternoon, Aug. 23, "On Friday afternoon, the School Board received word that Chairperson Michael Saucier had submitted his resignation from the Board, citing health concerns. The Board has accepted applicants for the other current vacancy created by the recent resignation of Vice Chairperson Jenn Ganem and has not at this point deliberated on a process or timeline for naming successors to these positions. The Board will consider both resignations in public session during their meeting tomorrow, Tuesday, August 24. The Board does retain the ability to continue to meet and carry out their duties with a 3/5 quorum."

It was also stated that the board will be conducting a reorganization at the start of the meeting on Tuesday, Aug. 24, to select a temporary chairperson that will serve until the full board can choose a chair to serve until March of 2022."

Saucier was just reelected during the March 2021 school elections and was expected to serve three years. Ganem's term was set to in charge of 4,200 people's kids' lives, we don't take that lightly."

The conversation swirling over mask recommendations zeroed in on who should be recommended to mask up in the event of a positive case. The task force debated the nuances of mask recommendations based on various degrees of exposure to Covid-19. For example, masking specific classrooms where positive cases occur versus larger spread throughout multiple classrooms where the entire school may need to dawn facemasks. Kim Capone, pupil services, clarified that "as of today, our recommendation is, in a case of a known positive in a classroom where we know for sure that children were exposed, it is our recommendation to require facemasks." Ultimately, there is hope amongst the task force that there will be guidance from the New Hampshire Department of Health, although such guidance has yet to be received.

Superintendent Laliberte made sure to highlight that the school board does not have the authority of executive order and thus needs to be cautious with their recommendations. With vaccination rates of Londonderry students between the ages of 12-19 currently below 30 percent, the recommendations put forth by the school board will be an important tool in the fight to keep positive cases down and avoid school closures throughout the year. It was noted that the school board will be using federal covid assistance to purchase 5,000 testing kits. In the event a student does test positive, these tests will be available to ensure a speedy return to the classroom.

Fred Heinrick, Public Health Enforcement Officer, underscored the entire reopening process with his remark that, "nobody expected the delta variant. I can't tell you what the next variant will be...We're in unknown territory. But the important thing is that people care. They care about themselves, they care about their friends and their communities."

During these uncertain times, the reopening task force will continue to meet throughout the school year and convene in emergency situations.

expire in March of 2022.

Saucier was contacted by the Londonderry Times and asked to comment on his departure but did not respond to the request.

On his Facebook page he released the following statement. "As many are now aware, I recently stepped down as a member of the Londonderry School Board. I gave as much as I could but I needed to step away to refocus on my personal health and my family. With that said, I wanted to share my thoughts one final time.

Over 16 years ago my wife and I moved to Londonderry to start our family because of the reputation of the Londonderry

Public Schools. With our girls now in eighth and eleventh grade, I know that it was the best decision we could have made for our family. My wife and I are both teachers each with 20 years of experience, so we have seen just about everything public education has to offer. The teachers, administrators, and staff of the Londonderry schools are second to none. The passion they have for their jobs and the love they have for the over 4,000 students in our schools is special to see.

As a board member I had the privilege of working with many of them over these years and it was truly an honor to play even a small role in the exemplary work they are doing every single day.

Over the past year and a half we have all had to deal with the Covid pandemic. Everyone has had to make adjustments to their day to day lives, but schools are the only places in the country where hundreds of people are asked to be indoors in close spaces for six or more hours a day. It is impossible to explain the amount of extra hours that our teachers and school leaders work beyond their regular jobs to keep our schools running and our students safe during a pandemic. Their efforts have been nothing short of heroic and that should never be taken for granted.

In recent months emotions have risen in town and many have been divided over how to best proceed with school. I just want to remind everyone that the one thing that unites all of us - parents, students, teachers, administrators - is that we ALL want what is best for our children and the students of Londonderry. We may not necessarily agree on what is best at times, but I hope that as we move forward we can all remember that our goal is the same - to keep our kids in school, to provide a top education, and to keep our kids safe."

The two resignations comes after a very turbulent year of dealing with the COVID-19 Pandemic and how it effects students and staff at the school.

Parents and other residents have organized over the summer with many of them being very vocal about their opposition to having masks wearing as a mandatory requirement in schools and buses.

Because of that outcry, a Reopening Task Force was established to recommend how to proceed with the 2021-22 school year.

It's that Time Back to School

It seems like it was just Memorial Day last week, but somehow we are suddenly at the final week of summer vacation. Summer is coming to a close, and Students are soon going back to school. School starts this week, and the shadows of late summer bring the unmistakable message that the season is on the wane. It may be too hot to think about winter clothing, but the time for scarves and hats and boots will be here before we know it.

But even as one season fades, the opening of the school year brings with it a sense of everything new once again. The collection of empty notebooks, sharpened pencils, new pens, and for the younger set, untouched crayons carries with it an excitement about things to come.

From pre-school to college and beyond, it is the time for fresh starts and new adventures. And for those of us long past worrying about the first day of school, we nevertheless have our memories.

It makes me think of a old song "School Days" an American popular song written in 1907 by Will Cobb and Gus Edwards. The best known part of the song is its chorus:

"School days, school days
Dear old Golden Rule days

'Reading and 'riting and 'rithmetic

Taught to the tune of the hick-'ry stick". Reminds me of being a kids a very long time ago and I marvel at how much has changed some for good and some for not so good.

The start of school not only bring back memories but it also brings a word of caution. Children will be walking along the edge of roads and in crosswalks, and drivers will need to watch the road even more carefully than usual. That means paying attention; putting down the phones, pause the texting, reducing your speeds in designated school zones, and watching for school buses signaling their stops. There is no place you could be going that is more important than a life. Now more than in the past due to added development in our towns; lets face it we have a lot more cars, trucks, and overall traffic.

For parents, the start of the school year brings feelings of nostalgia, and the reality that years which are passing can't be avoided. But there's nothing like the opening of school to remind us of all we have yet to learn, and of the excitement that knowledge of new things can bring. So pay attention and enjoy the ride.

Masks in School

To the editor,
The Londonderry School District plans to start the school year with masks optional, then wait and see whether masks need to be required.

The Raleigh School District in Mississippi tried the same thing. Student MKayla Robinson www.wlbt.com/2021/08/18/parents-8th-grader-who-died-covid-dont-believe-children-are-safe-cases-resurge will have a full page memorial in the school yearbook next spring. The girl died two days after her district saw the skyrocketing cases count and put in place a mask mandate. It was too late for her, as she had already contracted the disease in the first few days of classes. We already know, from Southerners' bitter experience, what happens when the Delta variant of covid-19 enters the schools. We don't need to "wait and see."

Our school district has a duty of care to ensure that the learning environment at all the schools is safe. If a child has an explosion of anger and pushes a desk and that desk happens to hit someone, the child has to see the guidance counselor, the principal, the parents must come in for a conference, and there can be an in-school suspension. I am proud to live in a town whose schools have demonstrated over and over again that violence, or any force that interferes with learning safely, will not be tolerated.

On Aug. 30 the school doors will open and thousands of excited students will enter the classrooms. So will the Delta variant of covid-19, twice as contagious as last year's covid. It will be on students' breath. The students will mostly not be wearing masks, since the District is betting that covid will not be in the buildings from day one. We live in a state with substantial covid-19 transmission, according to the official NH Covid-19 Response webpage www.covid19.nh.gov/dashboard/schools. Most of that transmission is in the southern part of the state, where we live. So covid-19 will be coming with the students into our schools.

A child will breathe, unencumbered by a mask. Her aerosol will mix with that of the other students. Her breath will inadvertently enter the lungs of other children, as theirs will enter hers. Some of those children will become ill with covid-19. No one will be sent to the guidance counselor or the principal, even though the students' simple acts of breathing have rendered their classroom an unsafe space. In a few days some of them will be sent home due to covid-19 symptoms.

Let's all pray no child gets sent to the hospital, or dies. Masks are the best defense against this disease, especially for the unvaccinated. For all of our precious K through fifth graders, wearing masks from day one is their only defense as they will be sitting ducks for this stronger covid-19 once schools open.

Please contact the Londonderry School District office and ask them to mandate masks from day one. It is their duty to protect the students from each other, just as they did way back when when a certain girl I know was in the fourth grade.

Thanks to Publisher

To the editor,

I just wanted to thank Deb Paul, (publisher of the Londonderry Times and also on the Londonderry Town Council) for helping our church out with our yard sale advertising, which supported our many ministries.

Deb is a credit to this town and a strong advocate for its citizens. She's always willing and able to listen to anyone who reaches out to her and takes whatever action she can to help.

Also I would like to thank the Lions Club for the senior barbecue to kick off Old Home Weekend and the Londonderry Police officers who served the many senior citizens who attended. They worked very hard cooking and serving so many grateful seniors. We have a great police force!

This is Amy Finamore and Bob Slater. We are two members of the Londonderry School Board, but speak only for ourselves in this letter.

On Wednesday, Aug. 18, we had the privilege of assisting Dining Services with curbside meal pick up, available to all children in Londonderry. From moving meal boxes to serving members of our community, Bob and I were lucky to spend a few hours with the wonderful Dining Services staff.

The summer lunch program is incredibly important to the children of Londonderry—nearly 12% of our student population is eligible for free and reduced lunch. During the school year, these children, and all our children, benefit from breakfast and lunch available at no cost to parents. For many of these children, summer is a time of uncertainty. Rather than enjoy carefree playtime, these children may worry about their next meal and whether they will have enough food to eat. Our curbside meal service helps alleviate this concern for both our parents and our children, relieving one burden facing today's families.

Bob and I would like to extend our gratitude to the entirety of Londonderry's Dining Services team. Your hard work each week has helped the children of the community and you have each made a lasting impact in the lives of our children.

The Current Situation

To the editor,
Friday, Aug. 20 the Wall Street Journal and other major media are reporting that the US government left behind billions of dollars of our military weaponry in Afghanistan without disabling it or preventing it from falling into Taliban hands. This includes hundreds of thousands of automatic rifles, M24 sniper rifles, MRAPs, Humvees, helicopters, anti-tank missiles, rockets, mortars, millions of rounds of ammunition, and much more.

In addition to the humanitarian disaster caused by this administration's incompetence and arrogance, we now also face the prospect that our armed services will be in far greater danger in future deployments, potentially facing enemies armed with modern and highly lethal US weaponry and equipment.

As the father of an active-duty enlisted armed forces member, this means that this administration's actions have placed my son - and all sons and daughters serving our nation - in greater danger for no defensible reason at all.

To be clear: I have long strongly supported the US finally exiting Afghanistan (and Iraq), whether under President Trump or President Biden. On April 18, 2021 President Biden made a statement, available on WhiteHouse.gov, in which he made it clear he approved and was proceeding with the withdrawal. His administration has had MONTHS to plan this!

If, like me, this outrages you, and you can see this as not Democrat vs. Republican, but as an issue of dangerous incompetence and aiding, arming and abetting an enemy, I urge you to do as I did and contact all three of our federal legislators to request they hold this administration accountable, step up to uncover why this was so horrendously mishandled, and look to prevent it happening again.

In particular, Sen. Jeanne Shaheen is a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee and can - should she feel like it - use her position to ask the tough questions that need to be asked, since our news media are too cowardly to do it.

It's simple. Do the right thing by our armed services and taxpayers, or defend dangerous incompetence for partisan political points.

Response to Letter

To the editor,

I am writing in response to a recent letter to the editor from Jodi Daron. At one point in her letter, she mentions how disappointed she is that so many people are spreading so much hate and negativity. And she notes that many people are making assumptions about and judging others, which is not helpful at all.

Then she asks, "How can we come together?"

Her answer to these questions is that it begins by people genuinely listening to each other, asking questions and waiting to hear the answer. And Showing compassion while trying to gain a new perspective.

I understand her frustrations with what she sees happening in our country, but there is an organization that can make a difference in our world. Brave Angels is dedicated to depolarizing our country using many of the techniques she mentions in her letter.

Alarming Development Overreach

To the editor,
I attended the July 19 Town Council meeting where a zoning change to "Multifamily Residential -III" was granted for properties located at 20 and 22 Young Rd. I was alarmed by the specifics of the development plan presented by DHB Homes and Meisner Brem Corp. (engineers).

While growth in Londonderry is expected and inevitable, what they showed was a development consisting of over 50 homes sited on small lots and interconnected with roads only 22 feet wide (which is below town code). With only a single inlet/outlet to the development, this raises serious concern about accessibility by emergency vehicles, particularly for homes located furthest in.

Their plan also calls for building homes out over the current gas company easement that runs north-south through the western portion of the proposed development.

This will, of course, all be subject to review and approval by the Planning Board, but it is my hope that the board will rein in this development overreach and place public safety ahead of profit to arrive at a more sensible plan.

Seniors Get Together

To the editor,
Londonderry's Old Home Day weekend started last night with the free annual BBQ for seniors here in town. The volunteers made it look so easy, but I am sure it was not. So many volunteers working together, backing each other up, and making sure we had what we needed to enjoy the evening.

Actually, the evening started with several games of Bingo, and 20 large gift baskets to be won; so much work went into those baskets. Purchases had to be made, items placed in the baskets, and the baskets wrapped.

The pavilion outside the Lions Hall was bursting at the seams because there was a full house of hungry seniors ready to chow down. There was so much preparation involved and I don't think anything was forgotten.

The food was purchased; potato salad made, coleslaw as well, and baked beans. All tables had centerpieces, condiments in small containers, two types of pickles in Tupperware, and chopped onions. The little "goody" bags given as we checked in contained our napkin with three slots holding a fork, knife and spoon, salt and pepper, wet wipe, a bag of Cape Cod chips, and Milano cookies; we didn't know it then, but the cookies were to go with the ice cream passed out at the end of our meals.

There were several police officers serving the seniors so that we did not have to stand in line as we have in the past. There were Lions club members manning the grills, passing out waters and sodas, the Londonderry Senior Center's Director and President, and so many other helping hands including some of Londonderry's finest, no not the policemen thou they are, but folks who keep our town running smoothly.

After all was done and clean up begun, we were also treated to a free concert at the common across the street. What a great way to celebrate our town, and our senior population. We missed it last year, but made up for it this year. Thank you, Lions Club members and all the folks who helped to pull off the Seniors night in Londonderry.

China Lab Unleashed The Pandemic

To the editor,
I agree with some of the members on the U.S. House Foreign Affairs Committee who recently reported the COVID 19 virus was leaked from the experimental virus laboratory in Wuhan China.

Communist China exported the COVID 19 virus to the US and the rest of the world, and it is primarily responsible for the millions of deaths, virus ailments, and economic hardship in the world.

A study by the National Natural Science Foundation of China, which was subsequently removed from the internet by the Chinese government, stated researchers in two laboratories in Wuhan China had been gathering bats infected with the coronavirus since 2012, and they were experimenting with bats that could spread the virus to human beings. In 2015 the Wuhan institute of Virology conducted further experiments on bats capable of infecting human beings with the coronavirus. On Nov. 18, 2019 the Wuhan Institute of Virology posted job openings for postgraduate students to study the coronavirus in bats and humans. In particular, the openings emphasized the experiments would involve letting the coronavirus lie dormant in some people for a long time without symptoms. It is noteworthy China has a history of students working in laboratories becoming infected.

Subsequently, one researcher was bitten by a bat and another worker was secreted on by a bat. The woman director of the laboratory got the COVID 19 virus and died, and this was covered up by the Chinese authorities.

ties. These laboratory workers then infected people in the surrounding population of Wuhan China and the virus took off from there.

Communist China might not have foreseen the possibility of the COVID 19 virus escaping from the Wuhan laboratories and infecting the world. However, China with its strictly controlled closed society had to know it could lockdown the country and bring the virus under control, but the open societies of most other countries, including the US, are not conducive to locking down, and are prone to spreading the virus. Furthermore, China experimented with a virus capable of mass infection and being asymptomatic in people, which weaponized the virus.

Communist China owes the world pandemic reparations payments in the many tens of billions of dollars. It, along with other countries, must conduct in-depth reviews of the safety and security procedures in virus laboratories, and implement any necessary changes to ensure viruses cannot escape from laboratories. China, in particular, must stop experimenting with viruses, because it poses an ongoing health and security threat to the world. It should be sanctioned for developing and accidentally unleashing a biological weapon of mass infection into the world.

would go back into the pool and would be disbursed to those communities who did opt in.

The town has already received roughly half of the money from the federal government.

When asked what strings might be attached to accepting the money, Campo responded, "There are a lot of strings attached to accepting the money."

He added the government is more clear with what you can't do with the money than what can be done with the funds.

He also explained, "It seems to be a lot of ... Why don't you do it and we'll tell you if it's wrong."

Town Manager, Kevin Smith, added that any plans to spend any of this money will come before the council before it is spent.

Another fund that was accepted by the council was for a second K-9 unit for the Police Department. It totaled $27,000 for the dog, training, and outfitting the cruiser.

When asked if the dog was necessary since the department already has one dog the response was that this is a successful program and by the time the current dog will be ready to retire, the new one will be already in place.

The council also accepted just over $1,700 in funding from Rae Andreano, a local scout working on his Eagle Scout project.

The project is for a 9-11 monument that will be constructed at the Central Fire Station on Mammoth Road.

Londonderry First Responders Beat Derry in Rematch

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

After Londonderry First Responders Beat their rivals from Derry 10-8 in the inaugural Old Home Day Softball Game between the two towns two years ago, the Derry squad had two years to wait to exact some revenge, but after leading for most of the game, Londonderry was able to come away with a extra-innings walk off 19-18 win this year.

Old Home Day 5K Race Draws Runners from All Over

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Enterprise Bank Boot Scootin' Boogie 5K race was held on Saturday night, Aug. 21, as one of the final events of the Old Home Day celebration and a couple from Boston were the overall men's and women's winners.

The race, which has been run in Londonderry since 2015, took the place of the long-standing Lungren 5K two years ago, was followed by a Brewfest and a country music concert, started and ended at the Londonderry Athletic Fields Association.

The Lundgren 5K race had been held on Saturday mornings for nearly four decades during Old Home Day before this race took its place.

There were 815 runners posting times at the event.

The winner of this year's race led from start to finish and came across the finish line nearly two-minutes before his nearest competitor. Josh Coakley, a 24-year-old from Boston Mass. finished the race at a blistering time of 14:53.9.

Coming in second, at 16:44.1, was Dover runner Cameron Cook, 26 years of age, followed by Corey Girard, 39, of Pembroke at 17:01.6.

The first Londonderry runners to finish were: Sean Clegg, 16, at 17:42.2 placing sixth overall; Will Plante, 17, in eighth overall at 17:43.2; and Jake Donnelly, 21, in ninth at 17:48.9.

The first-place female was also from Boston, Mass., Caitlin McGinley, 24, finished in the tenth spot overall and in first for the ladies with her time of 17:52.5.

In second for the females was Erica Szczechowski, 23, of Martinsville, IN. She finished with a time of 18:43.9.

Anna Noble, 24, of Brighton, Mass. was the third place winner for the ladies with her time of 19:55.3.

The top three female Londonderry runners were: Adriana Nadeau, 17, at 23:43.3. Nadeau was also the first place winner in her division.

Ashley Perry, 18, at 23:48.6, second in her division; and Heidi Letalien, 56, at 24:17.6. She was also first in her division.

Following the race, a brewfest with live music was held on the lower softball field at the LAFA complex Department joined forces on Friday, Aug. 20, and played their counterparts from the Derry Police Department and Fire Department, as was part of the 122nd Old Home Day celebration.

The contest, which started out as seven-inning game, ended up as a ten-inning competition after both sides wanted to stay on the softball field at Matthew Thornton Elementary School. The game lasted approximately 75 minutes and ended with the local Londonderry team winning 12-18.

Derry jumped out to a quick 4-1 lead after two innings until Londonderry took a one-run lead in the bottom of the third with four runs.

The Derry squad came back with two runs in the fourth and three in the fifth to retake the lead 9-5.

In the seventh inning, which was slated to be their last, Derry scored three times while Londonderry finished with four more, leaving the score 12-9 after seven.

The teams decided to pay on at that point, since the pace of the game moved very quickly, but as it turned out, Derry should have quit while they were ahead, because in the eighth and ninth innings Londonderry exploded for seven runs to Derry's four, sending the game into extra innings.

In the tenth, Derry scored twice while Londonderry was able to rally for the three runs needed for the second consecutive win against their rivals.

Roland Carl St. Germain, Jr., 55, of Londonderry, NH, died Thursday, Aug. 12, 2021, in Parkland Medical Center, Derry, NH. He was born in Exeter, NH on Sept. 24, 1965, son of Roland, Sr. & Jeannine (Bellavance) St. Germain. He was raised & educated in Hampton, NH, attended Winnacunnet High School & furthered his education at The University of NH & Plymouth State College where he received his Bachelor's in Business Management. Roland had been a resident of Londonderry since 2011, previously residing in Barrington, NH.

He is survived by his loving wife of 17 years, Gwen (Gifford) St. Germain; daughter, Megan Jessica St. Germain, mother, Jeannine G. (Bellavance) St. Germain of Hampton, NH; 3 brothers, Robert T. St. Germain & his wife Linda of Englewood, FL, John R. St. Germain of Kittery, ME, Donald A. St. Germain & his wife Diane of Cape Coral, FL, & sister, Marianne J. Warner and her husband Douglas of China, ME; as well as several nieces, nephews, cousins.

Roland (fondly referred to as Rolli) blazed his own path through life, without fear, both professionally & personally. He previously owned his own grand format printer consumable business, Armada Imaging & more recently was employed for over a decade by VHG Labs/LGC Standards Co., as a sales professional. He was a jet setter traveling the world for business & pleasure to destinations such as, Dubai, Venezuela, South Africa, India, Asia, & Australia. A honeymoon to Costa Rica, a trip to the Bahamas with family, a tenth anniversary to Belize with his wife, frequent trips to NYC with friends & a successful international business trip to Caracas with his brother-in-law, Doug are memories that will not soon be forgotten. He loved the outdoors, fishing, hunting, kayaking, skiing, gardening, growing mammoth pumpkins to compete in the Deerfield Fair, scuba diving, target shooting, ziplining, walking his dog, spending time at the beach, & reading. He looked forward to his annual trip in the White Mountains of NH with his long-time ski buddies.

Roland loved being active & spending time with his family, especially teaching his daughter & her friends, nieces & nephews how to fish. He loved participating in father/daughter activities with his beloved Megan & watching her participate in the Lancer Marching Band & Winter Percussion. Roland volunteered often & was someone who would do anything for his friends & his family. He was a long-term member & leader of the Southern NH Pathfinders, spending many hours fundraising & organizing a special father/daughter dance enjoyed by many. It would not be unlike Roland to donate blood to the American Red Cross, chaperone for the Londonderry MS Winter Sports Club or volunteer with his daughter's Girl Scouts Troop helping them earn their Silver Award or tide pooling with the Coastal Rompers.

His sister Mary recalls that Roland shared his tackle for every kind of fresh & saltwater fish & has fond memories of Striper fishing, boating in the Piscataqua River, with the current faster than his boat motor could take them and cruising at his lake house in Barrington where he pulled anyone around who wanted to waterski. There will be many that will miss his friendship & his infectious smile.

Following cremation, calling hours will be held on Saturday, Sept. 11, from 12 - 3 p.m., in the Peabody Funeral Homes & Crematorium, Londonderry. Catholic Prayer service will be held at 2 p.m. Memorial contributions may be donated in Roland's name to; Friends of Music www.lancermusic.org/fundraising & reference Roland St. Germain to help fund his daughter's travels with the Londonderry Lancer Marching Band.
