Town's Trash Removal Fees May Rise in Next Few Years

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

At the Monday, Aug. 15, Londonderry Town Council meeting one of the agenda items was in regards to the Waste Management contract.

Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, explained the company was looking for an increase in what they are getting paid by the town due to the economic conditions.

"Costs are going up and that's the case for all our vendors and for us at home as well," said Malaguti.

Malaguti stated that in February they received a letter that was requesting a 10 percent extraordinary increase continued on page 17

Lithia Springs Land Purchase Moved to Aug. 29 Meeting

BY ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

After having a public hearing during the previous meeting, the Londonderry Town Council once again heard the proposal for the Conservation Commission to purchase the Lithia Springs property.

One of the big questions asked from the previous meeting was in regards to what can be developed on the property.

"In other words how threatened is this particular piece of property by development," said Town Manager, Mike Malaguti.

Malaguti said the property is a total of 54 acres of land with 14 acres being wet and 17 acres being usable.

It was pointed out the appraised value is over $2 million, which is $500,000 more than the proposed sale price of $1.5 million.

Malaguti said they can go forward with it and it would be a very good deal for the town.

Town Council Chairman, John Farrell, pointed out they currently don't have the funds in place to purchase the property.

"We don't have the money," said Farrell.

He also pointed out his concern that the Town Councilors didn't have a copy of the appraisal report.

Malaguti said there are various ways they are looking for the money. He said he thinks they have a good case for some of the grants they applied for.

One of the key things in the proposed agreement Malaguti pointed to is they have the ability to drop out of the contract if they aren't able to get the funds for it by the end of the year.

School Board Discusses District's Facilities Needs

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Aug. 18 Londonderry School Board meeting one of the updates that the Board received was in regards to the facilities master plan.

Interim Superintendent, Dan Black, explained they condensed the reports from the Trident group for the different schools and he tried to map out what he thinks will come up first for different needs and wants.

Black said that he feels that Moose Hill is their number one priority for a number of different reasons.

"We are out of permanent space. Classrooms will need to be added. The question will be do we add the classrooms we need for LEEP and our Kindergarten program that currently exists, or do we add classrooms that can accommodate LEEP and a Full Day Kindergarten program," Black said in a memo to the School Board. "The Kindergarten Committee will make their first public presentation on September 20th and start to gather feedback from the community this fall."

After that Black stated the high school is a major priority.

If the school district didn't focus on individual schools; Black argued the number one issue are the different mechanical problems.

"If we step away from focusing on one building first approach, I believe

Town Responds to Confederate Flag Displayed in Parade

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

After being made aware of a confederate flag being displayed on a vehicle in the 123rd Old Home Day parade over the weekend, Town Councilor, John Farrell, and Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, released this message to residents: "Londonderry held its annual Old Home Day Parade on August 20, 2022. It featured bands, civic groups, community businesses, first responders, politicians and others who came to Londonderry to participate in a family and community-oriented event that celebrates Londonderry's history, culture, and civic life. Almost everyone who participated in the parade exemplified these values.

"The Town is aware that a vehicle participating in the parade displayed a small Confederate flag. Parade organizers had no advance notice and only learned of this as the parade was starting, too late to intervene without disrupting the parade.

"The Town condemns the Confederate flag in the strongest possible terms. Supporters of this symbol of racism, hate, and treason will find no refuge in Londonderry, and the Town will do everything it can to prevent such a disgraceful display in the future."

Photos of the vehicle released on social media show that the small confederate flag were on the rear drivers side of an antique WWII Jeep which also displayed a Don Bolduc yard sign.

After contacting Bolduc's campaign the following statement was given: "Neither the individual nor the vehicle was registered by the Bolduc campaign to participate in the Londonderry parade."

"By the time the General became aware of the flag, the parade was over. The General had a personal discussion with the gentleman about the flag and asked him to remove his campaign sign and he immediately complied.

"As someone who spent 33 plus years serving his country and 10 tours in Afghanistan fighting for freedom and liberating the oppressed, General Bolduc deplores any and all discrimination based on race, gender or anything else."

Town Council Gets Update on Forest Hills Abatements

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

After a member of the community brought up concerns about their tax payment check not being processed right away during their previous meeting, the Londonderry Town Council received a presentation from Finance Director, Justin Campo, during their Aug. 15 meeting.

Campo explained they issue about 10,600 tax bills in June, which are due in July. He explained to the Town Council because of everyone having to pay in a short time period it means the office receives hundreds of payments a day. He stated that because of that it's hard to process all the payments right away.

"Obviously there's going to be a little delay," said Campo.

To make things even more difficult Campo pointed out they had a staff member leave during that time period, which meant they were short staff.

Campo explained because of the delays in the mail, it could take them three or four days before they receive payments in the mail.

It was also pointed out banks generally put a hold on checks that are made out for a certain amount, which can also cause delays in the processing of the tax payments.

Londonderry Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, pointed out they go by the postmark date so if a check wasn't processed right away people won't be penalized.

"None of the taxpayers are penalized for the delay," said Malaguti.

Campo stated after 30 days if their check didn't clear yet then they should call town hall because they may not have gotten the check.

Also during the meeting, the Town Council received an update regarding the tax abatements for Forest Hill.

It was explained by Assessor, Steve Hamilton, that concerns were raised regarding the tax assessments for properties in the development. He said 21 out of the 39 properties applied for abatements.

One of the main arguments made was that the values were assessed as high based on what the sales were.

"We proceeded to inspect as many units as we could," said Hamilton.

Hamilton added that they looked at some of the other units and then determined there were some errors made and that the vast majority of the abatements were approved. He said the values for 2022 were also adjusted.

It was pointed out by Hamilton that the largest change was a 30% reduction, but the median change was 5%.

Additionally, Hamilton added that his department now has a more accurate descriptions of all the units there now.

School District Looks For "Normalcy" in Upcoming Year

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry Interim Superintendent Dan Black, said that the school district staff and himself are "desperate to go back to normalcy," after navigating school during the Covid-19 pandemic.

During the Aug. 18 Londonderry School Board meeting the district took a step forward towards a more normal school year after the School Board approved the new COVID-19 plan.

Black pointed out the biggest changes that are in the proposed revised plan is not requiring masks, not making decisions based on vaccine status and if someone is healthy for them to be in school.

"If they're not healthy they can't be in school," said Black.

As part of the plan for 2022-2023 the school district has two main goals.

The first goal is to "run as normal a school year as is humanly possible."

The second goal is to "reduce the conflict around COVID-19 and allow a normal school culture to exist for students, parents, and the community."

"We are proposing these goals because cases have continued to remain mild in our school population, hospitalizations are very low in New Hampshire, and the amount of immunity gained over the last three years is very high," the COVID-19 plan reads.

For masks, the language in the plan now reads "Wearing of Cloth Face Masks will be a choice made by parents, students, and staff."

"If a student or staff member have been infected with COVID-19, and they do not present any symptoms in days 6 to 10 after the onset of symptoms, they will not be required to wear a face mask as is currently recommended by NH DHHS," the plan reads.

The plan also addresses when a student tests positive for COVID-19 in the revised plan.

"If a student or staff member does become infected with COVID-19 they should isolate away from school for 5 days," the plan reads. "We will continue to monitor advice from public health agencies on this timeline and make updates and adjustments as needed and bring them to the school board for approval."

In terms of vaccine status, new language in the plan reads "the district will not use updated vaccine status as a reason for isolating students and staff that have a positive household contact."

"If a student or staff does not have symptoms, and are healthy, they should be in school," the plan reads. "The district will use it's policy JICH as a guideline for families and staff to be in school or not based on health."

The school district also plans on returning to normal operations for visitors during the 2022-2023 school year.

The School Board had no objections to the language in the revised COVID-19 plan.

Think First

It's very easy in this political season to speak or post before thinking.

In past years comments on some candidates have been so outrageous that they make it polarizing for people. This causes individuals to get all riled up, and it's can cause us to want to blurt out something as equally inappropriate.

The same holds true as we read and watch most news stories about the latest act of mass violence against police or gatherings of people. It's too easy to react with generalizations, rumors and actuations that in calmer times we would never utter a second thought, but add a polarized election and it can get really ugly.

Looking at the anger and outrage of an us vs. them mentality can make it even more important to recognize the power of what free speech carries. Free speech is a serious responsibility. We need to understand the potential result of demonizing religions, nationalities, or political parties.

It's not just the Presidential election that brings out the worst in people, it happens with all kinds of tragedies such as; mass shootings, attacks on individuals, or discriminations against each other, just about anything. People look to divide us more instead of making things better in a calm manner. People take matters to a violent manor using fear. We all need to learn how to listen to each other even though we may think differently or may not have the same perspective, we must learn to agree to disagree and find common ground in a civil manor.

Calling for violence against each other is just wrong, whether it's in the heat of a political race or in reaction to a horrendous act, it does no one any good and is very hard to justify. The idea of thinking before speaking needs a huge boost right about now. Continual impulsive calls to violence can result in more death.

In this age of social media, the Internet, and what people write, individuals send and post without even a second reading or a thought as to what consequence their words may have. We're used to immediate gratification when we get all wound up about a cause, politician, or injustice and an almost immediate reaction. But we're dealing with real lives. If people hear something enough times about someone or something with no truth to it, just allegations, violence is definitely a possible response that no one really wants.

Think before you speak.

It is in human nature to care, and want to do something, as we should, but just leave out the nastiness and the violence to get your message across. Categorize things and label them as a shorthand way to talk about them. The labeling we do as individuals about other people needs to stop, we are all people. Labeling just divides us more than we already are and the more we draw attention to the differences the less we see what is how we are all the same.

In the great words of John Lennon "You may say I'm a dreamer. But I'm not the only one, I hope some day you'll join us, and the world will be as one."

Support Karoline Leavitt

To the editor,

I was honored to attend and support Karoline Leavitt at the First Congressional District Candidates' Forum hosted by the NH Journal at the NH Institute of Politics. Karoline demonstrated why she is clearly the best candidate to take on Chris Pappas in November. In this climate, we need a tenacious fighter who will shake up Washington D.C. While the candidates running for this seat are fine individuals, none possess Karoline's charisma and grit to message our conservative NH values to voters across this district. In her answers to the questions posed by the panel, Karoline proved she most understands the challenges we face, from rising inflation to an unprecedented invasion at our southern border, to America's increasing reliance on foreign oil. When elected to Congress, Karoline will fight for an America First energy policy that makes us, once again, energy independent. She will fight to finish the border wall to stop the invasion of illegal immigrants swarming the southern border. And, most importantly, Karoline will be a powerful next-generation leader who will champion our conservative values to a generation brainwashed by leftist "educators." If you want a candidate who will fight for our Granite State values, I strongly encourage you to vote for Karoline Leavitt for Congress in the Republican Primary on Sept. 13th.

Londonderry Needs Change in Concord

To the editor,

I am writing this letter in support of Kristine Perez who is running for State Representative. Kristine is knowledgeable about the issues that Londonderry faces, and has the drive and ambition to get things done.

Kristine's major concerns for this town and state are: Election Integrity, Parental Rights, Second Amendment Rights, Environmental Safety, NH Border Safety, and an honest and transparent government.

Kristine is not afraid to ask the tough questions and I know she would work harder than anyone I know to make a difference for Londonderry. She is always at the school board meetings, which is more than I can say for most of the current representatives.

I would encourage people to look at the incumbents and their voting records for matters that are of concern to you. You might be surprised to learn that they have not voted as you would think, given the party they represent. This country is at a crossroads and voting is more important than ever. Please educate yourselves on the candidates, where they stand and make an informed choice.

I have lived in this town for about 15 years now and I have not seen a candidate or incumbent representative ask what concerns YOU have, until Kristine came along. She wants to know what your biggest concerns are and she would bring those concerns to Concord.

Kristine is the new blood that we all need to represent us in Concord. I would encourage you to find her on Facebook (Kristine Perez for NH State Rep) and reach out to her with any ques-

Conservation Commission Rejects Parking Lot Renovations

PAUL CONYERS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

At the Aug. 9 Londonderry Conservation Commission meeting, a plan came before members to upgrade the parking lot of Pittore Brothers Paving at 15 Rockingham Road.

Eric Mitchell presented a case on behalf of Pittore Brothers, looking to revive an old 2008 plan on a land parcel near Beaver Brook and Shields Brook. The paving company is looking to repave a parking lot while removing a concrete wall currently on the land. Pittore needs a final approval of the Zoning Board to make property changes, and Mitchell was hoping for a recommendation from the Conservation Commission.

"We are taking pavement out that is [in the parking lot] now," Mitchell stated. "We're also doing a detention pond, which was not there, and that will take care of some of the surface water before it releases back into the wetland system."

The site is currently used for truck parking and storage, although the parking lot is "not a commercial site, more of a storage and parking lot for vehicles."

Several Commission members immediate concern about the possible damage an active parking area might have on the surrounding watershed.

Commission Vice Chair, Eugene Harrington, requested a condition for the lot, asking Pittore "not to use any salt" during winter to prevent runoff into the surrounding area. Federal maps show the lot in question is in an area prone to flooding.

Mitchell mentioned the parking lot isn't used much in the winter, although trucks remain onsite. He was also open to the idea of reducing or eliminating salt use. He also offered to move four parking spaces to make room for the detention pond designed to prevent toxic runoff. Mitchell also emphasized contamination is not expected to be a problem. "Something that has been done on the plan to alleviate some of that is the drainage is going to the detention pond we have now, so the water is being directed somewhere."

However, Harrington continued to express skepticism that any measure in the plan is enough to prevent dangerous runoff.

Harrington agreed the addition of a detention pond was a good idea, but saw it as an incomplete solution to water contamination from flooding. He was especially worried about Pittore's habit of leaving larger work trucks on the site with leaking fuel, oil, and hydraulic fluid as a possible hazard.

Commission members noted removing chemicals from any truck during colder months would not be practical. They rejected the idea of having Pittore "self-police" the site for leaks. Suggesting regular inspections would likely be impractical, especially in the winter. Harrington conceded that Mitchell was given an "impossible task" by Pittore. "I don't think we can recommend supporting the request...it just doesn't seem to me that it's an advisable thing to do."

Commission members voted against recommending the Pittore plan to the Zoning Board based on a high risk of water contamination.

The meeting for the Londonderry Conservation Commission is scheduled on Tuesday, Aug. 23, at 7:30 p.m., in the Moose Hill Council Chambers.

Lithia Land

mission member, Mike Speltz, stated they applied for two different grants both worth $500,000 a piece and he thinks their application is "appealing" for what they are looking for.

Speltz explained they ultimately need to get three out of four funding sources in order to have enough for the property.

During public comment, Kristine Perez said "we're in a recession," and she doesn't think they should be spending money on it at this time. She stated instead of purchasing conservation property, the town should be focused on issues like dealing with the brown and blackouts.

Councilor, Joe Green, was in favor of moving forward with the purchase of sale, saying he felt it was a good deal for the town.

Green also stated he would not be at the next Town Council meeting to vote on the purchase, but wanted his fellow Councilors to know how he felt.

Town Councilor, Deb Paul, agreed with Green after verifying with Malaguti that at any time the transaction could be halted if they find any issue with the deal.

Farrell said he was adamant about seeing the details from the appraisal before he makes a decision.

"All I want to do is see the appraisal," said Farrell.

Farrell added, "It's like buying a house without a house inspection, I know that there are people who do that, but I wouldn't."

The Council ultimately approved continuing the decision until the Aug. 29 meeting.

Malaguti said during the meeting that the Council has until Aug. 31 before they need to make a decision.

Golf and Turf Supply Warehouse Approved by Planning Board

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Aug. 10 Planning Board meeting one of the agenda items was in regards to a public hearing for a 7,200 square foot warehouse and wholesale building located at 3 Enterprise Drive.

Representing the owners was Jason Lopez who said they were looking for a conditional use permit to allow the building to be the new home of Northeast Golf and Turf Supply. He added they are currently at a different location.

"They are looking to construct a new building," said Lopez.

Lopez explained the property is originally part of a 6 lot subdivision from 1997. He added it is a 6.1 acre lot located in the commercial 2 zone.

Lopez explained one issue with the property is that they have wetlands located on it. He said they have wetlands that impose a 50-foot buffer and because of the brook that goes through it, they also have a 100-foot buffer.

For the wetlands Lopez explained a conditional use permit was submitted, which was supported by the Conservation Commission.

Lopez said they also went in front of the Heritage Commission to discuss their proposal and it was supported by the Commission. The Fire Department also approved of the proposal Lopez added. It was pointed out by Lopez that they will have town sewers.

"We're in pretty good shape," said Lopez.

It was explained by Lopez that because of the wetland setbacks they were constrained to the area they could develop. Additionally, Lopez said one of the items they need on site is a tractor trailer and they needed to get it to be able to turn around and also have a loading dock it could get to.

"We were really limited on where we could locate the building," said Lopez.

Lopez said they decided to put the loading dock on the northern part of the building and are going to have a garage door for forklifts to come in and out of.

For landscaping, Lopez explained they put it near the loading dock to try to create some screening for it. He said that because of visibility they were limited on what they could put in the front of the building for landscaping.

Planning Board member, Ann Chiampa, asked what kind of signs they would have.

Lopez responded that they were only going to have a sign for the front of the building, but wouldn't have any others.

"No ground sign," said Lopez.

Town Council Ex-Officio, Deb Paul, asked when they push the snow where it's going to go. She doesn't want the fluids from the trucks going towards the brook.

Lopez explained it wouldn't be going towards it.

No one from the public spoke on the plan during the meeting and the Planning Board unanimously approved the conditional use permit.

Planning Board Discusses Rezoning Request Near Page Road

PAUL CONYERS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Planning Board oversaw a public hearing to address the merits of a rezoning request to create a new, multi-family residence made by Page Rock LLC, on Aug. 3.

Board members welcomed Kelly Walsh, Londonderry's recently appointed Town Planner, who is attending her first Planning Board meeting.

Nashua lawyer, Bradford Westgate, and Bedford engineer, Paul Chisholm, gave the presentation with Page Rock Principal, Mike Dion, and real estate associate, Deane Navaroli, in attendance to support their project.

The proposal focuses on three properties located on 556 Mammoth Road and 205 Rockingham Road near the intersection with Page Road. The presentation is currently only in the conceptual stage, and Page Rock stressed that no formal plan exists with the town of Londonderry so far.

"It's pure concept" Board Chair, Arthur Rugg, clarified. "It might happen, it might not happen."

Westgate unveiled a map of the existing property, much of which is undeveloped land over about ten total acres. Current Londonderry zoning laws limit what can be built on the property beyond the existing open land and single-family homes.

He hopes to eventually look into "the idea of turning this into a multi-family property." With a rough outline for "two, 20-unit buildings."

Westgate also noted the land in the area is zoned as a mixed-use area and new zoning approval is necessary to build the conceptual property. Under current rules, building a multi-family complex might work, but could run into problems related to wetland buffering while requiring an additional permit. Page Rock has no intention of utilizing any of the three properties for commercial use.

Chisholm gave an overview of the environmental state of the properties. Apart from two houses, much of what is on the properties lie undeveloped, surrounded by a wooded area and wetlands. "There has been a great amount of thought that has gone into [our plan], but there's still a great deal to do."

Several Board members expressed interest in the potential for new development with the right plan.

"I like it, I think it's a good of the property, and it seems to be far enough away from the street to get a good buffer." Member, Roger Fillio, stated, that adding that line of trees can isolate new buildings from the road and that any project should be a "one use zone."

Other Board members and public attendees expressed several concerns.

Abutting resident, Stephen Kelly, worried that more traffic would lead to more accidents. "There have been no fewer than 20 accidents, big accidents at that intersection" on Page and Mammoth. "People blow through the stop sign, they get t-boned on a regular basis, vehicles go off onto all properties on a regular basis."

With ongoing traffic problems, the Board asked Page Rock to take their proposal before the Traffic Safety Committee in the near future.

The Planning Board voted in favor of recommending that the Town Council approve the rezoning request. Page Rock will give more details on traffic, stormwater, and environmental impact as the concept develops further.

Friday Night Excitement

AJ Dennis was overjoyed and jumping in front of the stage during the Friday Night Concert before the Old Home Day fireworks display last week.

Over a dozen Food Trucks were available for attendees within Food Truck Alley behind the Londonderry High School and a concert by the Scott Spradling Band had folks enjoying classics from the 70's to present day at the LHS Track before the fireworks.

School Board Votes to Retain $1 Million in Fund Balance

ALEX MAM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

One of the decisions the Londonderry School Board needed to make during their Aug. 18 School Board meeting was in regards to how much they wanted to retain in their fund balance.

It was explained by Business Office Assistant, Lisa Muse, that the District was able to retain up to 5 percent of the net assessment, which was a total of $3.3 million. Last year the school board decided to retain $1.25 million.

After various expenses were factored in including warrant articles approved by voters it left the school district with about $1.258 million left in the unassigned fund balance.

During the Aug. 2 school board meeting, the Board approved using $125,000 to pay for retention bonuses for support staff. It left the school district with $1,133,605.16.

"This amount is available for the Board to decide how much to retain and how much to return as revenue to offset the December property tax rate for educational efforts this Fall," said Muse. "If the Board voted to retain $1,000,000 that would leave $133,605.16 being utilized to offset the tax rate and still leave the District with Unassigned Fund Balance."

One of the things Muse pointed to for why the fund balance is important is when it comes to the bond rating, it can affect their bond rate. She said they may need to go out for bonds in the near future.

"We recognize the current economic environment, however, we know that retained fund balance is one of the important factors the rating agencies use when calculating the District's bond rating," added Muse. If the School District were considering a bond article in the near future, it would be good financial practice to keep the Unassigned Fund Balance at or above the $1,000,000 threshold. It is also fiscally sound to retain enough to be available for unplanned expenditures."

School Board member, Bob Slater, pointed out the Town committed to spend around $250,000 that wasn't budgeted in order to expand the Veterans tax credit and he said by being able to give back about $133,000 it is around half the amount the town needs to find to pay for it.

"We always like to do more," said Slater.

School Board Chair,

Amy Finamore, pointed out that if they went with giving back around $133,000 it would be right in the middle for what they have given back in recent years.

The board ultimately voted to retain $1 million for the unreserved fund balance.

Derry First Responders Top Home Team in Softball Contest

Londonderry and Derry First Responder Softball teams met during Old Home Day week for the third time, and this year, the Derry squad was able to walk away with a comfortable 17-13 victory.

The teams met at Matthew Thornton Elementary School and despite the home team taking an early 6-3 lead, the Derry contingent tallied a big seven-run fourth inning, and Londonderry was never able catch them.

This was the third year the cross-town teams have met and the series is now in favor of the visitors, winning two of three of the games.

Kathryn Martin was the ladies winner competing against three other contestants.

there is an argument to be made that district wide we have a lot of low ratings when it comes to 'mechanical,' said Black.

"I would recommend that we gather more specific information on all of our HVAC systems to figure out if anything needs to be replaced in the next couple of years so that we get ahead of a system failure in any building. The architects and the Trident Group confirmed that if we did need to replace a boiler as an example in any school, we could still use that new boiler in any larger update to that building. If getting ahead of our most pressing "mechanical" issues does become one of our first priorities, I believe we should see if there are further grants and subsidies we could tap into related to energy efficiency."

Black told the School Board that the architects would be attending the building tours on Aug. 24 and Aug. 25 and they would be able to answer any questions the School Board or members of the public have.

School Board Vice Chair, Sara Loughlin, stated the main thing moving forward is kindergarten and thinks that is something they need to determine before they move forward with different projects.

"I'd like to see where we're going forward with that first," said Loughlin.

School Board member, Bob Slater, added that they need to look at phase 1 at Moose Hill, which would add classrooms if they are even going to think about having kindergarten.

It was also pointed out by Slater that because of the 100s wing of the high school there isn't anything they can do about adding more classrooms or space to the high school.

Slater explained he wants to lay out where they want to be and have their priorities of what they should do and then have a forum to get some public feedback.

The rest of the School Board ultimately agreed and decided to possibly have a committee to study or just go with their suggestion and then see what the public thinks.

Supporting Moira Ryan for State Rep

To the editor,
Winston Churchill once said, "Courage is what it takes to stand up and speak, courage is also what it takes to sit down and listen." On Sept. 13, 2022, when Londonderry Voters head to the polls I would like to shine a positive light and offer my support to Moira Ryan who is running for State Representative. I had the pleasure of meeting Moira last fall at the Legislative Building speaking on important Special Education bills and I have been following her accomplishments ever since. Moira is ready to sit down and listen to NH voters.

Moira is an army veteran, a mother, an advocate, and a strong capable woman who has great potential to bring effective change to the NH Legislature.

Moira fearlessly spends much of her time researching and constantly advocating for the people of NH. Moira is well equipped with experience, leadership skills and community involvement through volunteerism. More importantly she brings hope, energy, and a strong spirit to the table which will no doubt prove to be essential in the upcoming legislative year.

Moira has her pulse on what is needed to aid and support the veterans in NH.

She also has a strong commitment to Public Education for all students. She knows the importance of education to all NH students; especially the kids who have special education needs. She pledges to work hard on legislation that promotes Educational goals for all students that enable them to be prepared for the work force along with life skills to ensure they have what they need to be successful. Moira is always willing to listen and truly hear people when they discuss what is important to them as NH residents and she will certainly strive to have those voices heard.

Moira is committed to the betterment of NH and all its citizens. There is no doubt she will take her position in as Londonderry State Rep with a great deal of pride and fulfill her duties with reliability and integrity. Please strongly consider your support for Moira Ryan State Rep Londonderry, NH.

extraordinary increase for the contract. He explained in the letter they cite that it would need compensation from the town to keep pace with what the operational costs are.

Currently the contract runs through 2026 and the contract dues include inflation increases that are capped at 3 percent and are based on the CIP.

Malaguti added there is also a clause in the contract that allows relief from the contract if one of the parties is losing money on the deal.

"The letter makes specific reference to the language in the contract," said Malaguti.

Malaguti added they asked for the data and for Waste Management to explain why the contract is costing them more money now due to inflation.

Malaguti said some of the issues include supply chain issues and increases for labor costs. Malaguti stated one of the concerns is Waste Management may be able to win the legal argument that they can leave the contract.

"On the legal side, both sides have an argument," said Malaguti.

Malaguti explained the suggestion was to come to an agreement so they can continue to keep the level of service they have.

"The trash has to get picked up," said Malaguti.

It was pointed out by Malaguti that he felt they would see a significant increase in cost if they were to go with a different company at this point.

Malaguti stated the proposal is to have the increases be at the end of the contract with a .5 percent increase for next year then 6.5 percent increase in 2024, two percent in 2025, and one percent in 2026. Malaguti added the increase would cost about $596,000.

"We believe the council should consider this strongly," said Malaguti.

Town Councilor, Joe Green, argued that they should look at what other companies can offer them since Waste Management is trying to force them into agreeing to a significant increase.

Town Councilor, Deb Paul, said she was also in favor of looking for other vendors.

"I agree that we need to look at other companies," said Paul.

The Council agreed to seek different deals before making a final decision.

"Let's go find out what the best deal is," said Town Council Chairman, John Farrell.

Laura for Londonderry

To the editor,
Just want you to know Laura El-Azem the way I do. Laura is running for a Representative here in Londonderry.

Moved to Londonderry nine years ago. I love it. Laura and her amazing husband and beautiful/large family were happily taking up a pew in Church. She smiled and waved, I knew all would be well here in LD. Since then I have been with Laura at many political events and the High School when voting. Lauren is the sweetest person. Sweet but tough. She is a Patriot, and A Christian. Loves our her family, our Country and our Town. She is not afraid to fight for them. A true conservative, devoted daughter, wife, Mom and friend.

My times with Laura gives me hope for the future. Sometimes, I feel like we are loosing our precious Country, but then I meet up with Laura and my Faith is restored in God, Country and humanity itself.

Please give her your vote for Representative she is one amazing women.

Thank you.

Kristine Perez for State Representative

To the Editor,
I am writing in support of Kristine Perez for State Rep. I have known Kristine for 10 years, living in a 55+ community in Londonderry. Our community has a BOD and Kristine has worked tirelessly to keep abreast of town issues that affect our community. She also researches information on warrant articles that can have a financial impact on our community. She provides the directors and the residents with current information that they can act upon if needed.

On a personal level Kristine is a strong advocate for the children being a voice for the parents of the town at school board meetings. She is in a comedy troupe (Off Our Rockers) that provides entertainment to senior communities throughout the region. She is a strong supporter of the Second Amendment, co-founding the Londonderry 2A Preservation Coalition in 2021. This group was successful in spreading the word on several pro gun bills in the state.

Kristin is fiscally responsible and always transparent in her dealings with others.

She deserves your support this election cycle.

Know Who You're Voting For

To the editor,
I've lived in NH for forty years now. In my life, I have mostly voted as a Democrat. I have sometimes voted for Republicans when particular people or circumstances seemed to warrant it. Over the years, I have had many good friends and neighbors who were (and are) Republicans. My understanding of the NH version of conservatism is that it is primarily concerned with low taxes, small government and personal freedom. Most NH folks seem to have little interest in legislating what happens in bedrooms or doctor's offices.

It may be a cliché, but there's a lot of truth in describing NH Republicans as fiscally conservative, but socially liberal. If you believe that this describes you accurately, I have an urgent request for you. Please look beyond the (R) on the ballot. There are people running for office as Republicans (at all levels of government) who would strip women of their right to decide what to do with their bodies. (Kevin Smith, our former town manager and Senate candidate is proudly in this camp.)

Some people running for office make no secret of their wish to dismantle public schools. Under Governor Sununu, Frank Edelblut, a man with no experience in education and who seems to actually oppose public education, is serving as the Commissioner of Education. I am proud of the schools my children attended here in Londonderry and I hope that those same schools are available to my grandchildren.

Please. Just ask those two questions of the people running for office. Where do they stand on choice? Where do they stand on support for public schools? If the answers do not line up with your values, don't give them your vote. We have all been busy or distracted with life and cast a vote based just on the (R) or (D) after a candidate's name. There is too much at stake in this primary to do that. Know who you are voting for.

Estey Lumber Hosts Meeting with Don Bolduc and Stu Scheller

Tom Estey hosted a Meet and Greet with the front-running Republican U.S. Senate candidate, General Don Bolduc at his families Lumber Mill in Londonderry on Wednesday, Aug. 17.

Bolduc was accompanied by former U.S. Marine Corps Lt. Col. Stu Schellar, at right.

Schellar served in the military for 17-years until he was discharged after posting a video criticizing the U.S. military withdrawal from Afghanistan.

Schellar, who is from Ohio, currently has the goal of spreading a message of moral courage and accountability.

He recently released a book entitled, "Crisis of Command: How we Lost Trust and Confidence in America's Generals and Politicians."

At the meeting, he stated he was impressed with what Bolduc stands for and is endorsing the General in the upcoming election.

A recent poll by the New Hampshire Institute of Politics, Saint Anselm College showed Bolduc leading in the primary race by about a 16 percent margin. the poll shows Bolduc with 32 percent; Chuck Morse in second with 16 percent and former Town Manager Kevin Smith at four percent.

Voters' Fair on the Town Common Sunday, Aug. 28

On the Town Common's Sunday, Aug. 28, 2022, from noon to 2 p.m. there will be a Meet the Candidates Voters' Fair to allow voters to personally talk one-on-one with several of the 86 candidates who are running for office in the Primary Election on Sept. 13, 2022.

Candidates attending are running for offices of Governor, Senate, Representative in Congress, Executive Councilor, State Representative, Sheriff, County Attorney, Country Treasurer, Register of Probate, and Republican Delegates to the State Convention Rockingham County, Districts 16 and 35.

There are 67 candidates competing for 18 elected offices not counting the eight positions and 19 candidates running for Republican Delegates to the State Convention. For most voters there are far too many candidates to spend the needed time to find informed friends and associates to discuss each candidate, to research all the candidates on the web, and or to watch and discern from political advertisements of the select few candidates who have them.

To put things further into perspective, our Town has almost 17,000 registered voters. Voter turnout for non-presidential elections can be less than 3,000 voters. Our last local election saw 4,040 voters – and not all voters voted for every position and/or article on the ballot. Yet, this was the second highest voter turnout in our town's history for such an election. Regardless, this voter turnout was less than 24 percent of Londonderry's registered voters. Why the low voter turnout in most elections? Often voters don't know the candidates, don't know their qualifications, and abilities to represent what is important to them. Thus, Meet the Candidates on the Commons-Voter's Fair is a voter's best opportunity to meet and talk one-on-one with candidates who are on the Town's ballots for the Sept. 13, 2022 election. The Town predicated that both parties be allowed to attend because party distinction only comes to the forefront during election time for most people. We are all friends, neighbors, and co-workers. Hence, by voters talking with candidates they will be able to personally discern who will best represent them. Additionally, since this event is being held 16 days before the Primary Election, there is time for voters to do some focused research on particular candidates in order to make their final choices.

There will be an Old Home Day/Fair atmosphere to the event with food trucks available for participants to enjoy lunch on the Commons for a reasonable purchase price, e.g., hot dogs, ice cream, lemonade, popcorn.

Candidates interested in attending are required to pre-register as the Commons will have designated/marked off spaces similar to the Old Home Days, i.e., a pre-designated 10 x 10-foot space for each pre-registered candidate.

To cover the cost of advertising and administration, a $20 donation would be appreciated by the participating candidates. Besides various forms of media advertising, signs will be placed around town bringing voters attention to this event. Contact Janet Huttula at huttula7@comcast.net, telephone 603-432-7368, or go online at: secure.ane-dot.com/londonderry-republican-committee/caa9f76f153b1fd21cd7d.

The event is being presented and paid for by Londonderry Republican Committee, 5 Stony Point Drive, Londonderry, NH.

Schools Get a LEEP Donation

Londonderry Grand Knight Bob Oliver recently presented a check for $974.87 to Kimberly Speers, a Pre-School Coordinator for the Londonderry Early Education Program (LEEP). The funds were raised by Saint Mark's Knights of Columbus at their annual Tootsie Roll Drive benefiting Special Olympics.

Food Drive

Derry Village Rotary helps support ending 68 hours of hunger which supplies weekend food bags for our Derry children to take home so they have meals over the weekend. Most of these students partake of the reduced cost breakfast/lunch program but have no other means for food while not in attendance at the schools. Rotary helps the Ending 68 Hours of Hunger program in town by distributing the food bags to the schools. Courtney Cashman and a group of volunteers bag the food that is needed. What's needed: Non-Perishables for all meals, including snacks, protein bars Their food supply is getting low and if you would like to help go to Ending 68 Hours of Hunger website: Derry-End68HoursOfHunger.org www.end68hoursofhunger.org/find-your-community/new-hampshire/derry/

NHDES Announces PFAS Removal Rebate Program for Private Wells

New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services Announces the PFAS Removal Rebate Program for Private Wells is now accepting applications. The program provides rebates to private well users for up to $5,000 for the installation of PFAS treatment or up to $10,000 for a service connection to a public water system.

Eligible private well users would be able to document an exceedance of a regulated PFAS compound(s) with no offer of alternate water from a third party. An exceedance would be a result above NH's Ambient Groundwater Quality Standards (AGQS) for four PFAS compounds, which are: 12 parts-per-trillion (ppt) for perfluorooctanoic acid (PFOA); 15 ppt for perfluorooctane sulfonic acid (PFOS); 18 ppt for perfluorohexane sulfonic acid (PFHxS); and 11 ppt for perfluorononanoic acid (PFNA).

If NHDES sampled your well, an email or letter will be sent out to you indicating that the program is accepting applications. If you sampled your well yourself or hired someone else to sample your well, please email pfasrebateprogram@des.nh.gov. Eligible applicants can be reimbursed for the installation of treatment or a service connection back to Sept. 30, 2019.
