Town Council Get Update On the Industrial Tax Incentive Program

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Monday, Nov. 14, Town Council meeting, members got an update on the Commercial/Industrial Tax Incentive Program.

Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, explained the program essentially allows for businesses that have new property value worth $15 million or more to get tax breaks. For existing businesses, they can also get tax breaks if they have an additional $15 million in value. It was explained by Malaguti that since they implemented the program back in June, they haven't had anyone

Town-Wide Speed Limits Being Discussed Again

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The issue of speed limits was a topic of discussion during the Nov. 14 Town Council meeting.

It was explained by Londonderry Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, that a vote was taken during the Oct. 3 Traffic Safety Committee meeting to request the Town Council look at changing the speed limits for Calla, Sunflower, Sandy Brook and Acorn roads.

Malaguti said since there are no posted speed limits on those roads it is automatically the default 35 miles per hour.

Town Council Chairman, John Farrell, said the last few years there have been ballot questions about lowering speed limits in town that weren't successful.

He said people in town have not been in favor of such changes.

"They were both defeated by the voters," said Farrell.

Malaguti also noted they had a directed patrolman to enforce speeding recently on Calla.

"There were no violations that were noted at that time," said Malaguti.

Town Councilor, Chad Franz, said the proposal would be to reduce speed limits for cul-de-sacs or dead end roads, town wide.

He also noted that on Sept. 3, a girl on his street, Sunflower Lane, was hit by a car while crossing the road and while she is okay, he wants to be able to mitigate the risk of people getting hurt in the future.

Traffic Safety Committee Chairman, Bob Ramsay, said if they are going to do it for some roads with dead ends or cul-de-sacs in town then

Heritage Commission Review Large Plans Near Vista Ridge

PAUL CONYERS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Heritage Commission had a list of new issues on their agenda for their Thursday, Nov. 17, meeting.

The first was for a site plan for 130 townhouses at 171, 175, and 191 Rockingham Road. The request also included another site at 71 Perkins Road.

Jason Lopez of Keach-Nordstrom Associates attended the meeting with land owner, Jean Gagnon, to make a presentation about the two properties. The two men also had a presentation for a separate design review to subdivide the same properties.

"These properties are located in an area intended for properties with both residential and commercial use. Jean is a residential builder, not a commercial builder," said Lopez. "We talked to the Planning Board about separating commercial use."

The original plan had businesses on the first floor, although two are now looking to remove the commercial section of the site to focus mainly on the residential part of the project.

"It's all regular construction, all wood construction," said Gagnon. "I haven't gotten into colors yet; we'll try to paint it a light color." The Commission and Mr. Lopez suggested earth tones for the color.

The Commission requested more specifics, including the design and colors before the project move onto the Planning Board.

Local Survivor Gives Inspiring Speech at Middle School

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Hometown hero, Noelle Lambert, visited her former halls of Londonderry Middle School to deliver an inspiring speech to students that centered on persevering through life's adversities.

Lambert, who was a multi-sport athlete when she went to school in Londonderry, is currently on the NBC show Survivor, where she hopes to be the first amputee to win the game. As of the end of last week, she is one of eight contestants out of 12 that are still competing to win $1 million in season 43 of the show.

Noelle has also competed as a Paralympian as a runner.

She was welcomed back to the school in the gymnasium she used to play basketball by a full assembly of students and staff. Her former high school lacrosse coach, Bob Slater, also attended the speech.

She started by telling the students that she grew up in Londonderry as the only girl with three brothers and she was always drawn to being competitive. Growing up, her dream was to be a Division I lacrosse player in college and after four years playing three sports at Londonderry High School, she was signed to play lacrosse at UMASS Lowell, where she was able to realize her dream.

As a freshman in college, she started in every game and was the leading point scorer on her team.

She explained to the students how she lost her leg following the success of that season.

Lambert lost her leg, below the knee, while riding a moped with her college teammates on Martha's Vineyard. This was the first time she had driven a moped, and ended up in a horrible accident with a dump truck. Following the crash, her immediate thought was how will I ever play sports again. She wasn't sure how she would even walk again let alone run.

She attributes a man driving behind her at the accident as saving her life by applying a tourniquet before being flown to a hospital off the island.

After surgery, she started the recovery process after losing her leg and having it amputated above the knee.

Lambert refused to let the injury end her college career, she had lots of support from people around her and said "I was determined not to let this accident define the rest of her life."

During her sophomore year, she commuted to school every day while she healed and waited for her walking prosthetic leg to be made. At that time, she became a student coach.

The following summer, she worked on learning to use a running blade, which is an artificial leg used by athletes.

It took her quite a while to be able to play lax with the new leg, but by her junior year, she was able to return to the field. It was a difficult transition in her return to sports, but she able to join her teammates in a game, where she was able to actually score her first goal since her accident.

She said that in her senior year, she wanted to share her experience with others with disabilities and she started the non-profit called "The Born to Run Foundation," which helps children and young adults get prosthetics at no cost.

After graduating in 2019, Lambert was approached to run in the Paralympics, where she was able to qualify for the 2020 Paralympic Games in Tokyo by beating the reigning champion.

She attributes this to having competed with women without disabilities while she was training.

At Tokyo, she placed sixth in the world at the 100-Meter.

Following her success in the Paralympics, she then took up snowboarding where she has competed in the world championships and finished fourth.

She is currently showing the world what a survivor she is as the only "above-the-knee amputee" contestant ever on the longstanding show "Survivor."

Lambert expressed her accident didn't end things for her, it was the beginning of a new challenge in her life and made her a better person.

Lambert finished by saying, "Every person in this room is going to fail at some point, but that does not mean you should quit. It should make you work harder."

Londonderry Police Department Make Case For Budget

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Police Department Command Staff presented their proposed department budget during a joint budget workshop with the Budget Committee and Town Council on Nov. 5. One of the parts of the department budget is for services provided at the Manchester Airport. Capt. Timothy O'Donoghue explained the city of Manchester owns the airport and operates it through the department of aviation, which is an enterprise fund. It means any services the town provides they get reimbursed for.

O'Donoghue said the main obligation is for personnel.

"We are contractually obligated to provide one captain, five sergeants and 12 patrol officers," said O'Donoghue.

The proposed FY 24 budget is $2,909,026.93 with about $1.43 million coming from salaries.

With the new collective bargaining unit it's likely to change.

Other budgeted expenses include $497,500 that is estimated for medical/dental/life insurance, $18,000 for workers compensation, and $195,000 for overtime.

One question asked was if Manchester typically funds the full amount of their budget request.

O'Donoghue said they do because it is required under the contract.

O'Donoghue told the Town Council they have about three and a half years left in the agreement.

Presenting the overall budget was Police Chief, Kim Bernard.

Bernard said he was looking for what is needed.

"If you see me it's a need," said Bernard.

One of the areas

Bernard said they were looking for an increase in was for building maintenance. He said that since FY 18/19 the building maintenance line has been $18,178.

However, Bernard stated they have maintenance needs that need to be addressed.

Through their maintenance employee, Bernard said they are able to do some things themselves in order to save money and time rather than hiring an outside contractor.

Another line item that Bernard was concerned about is vehicle maintenance. Bernard said that since FY 16/17 the line item has been $4,000.

Bernard explained they have a number of expenses for their vehicles.

For example, each oil change costs about $60 and they need to do a minimum of three per year. It means they need to have $5,040 per year for oil changes.

Another major expense he pointed to is tires, which is $600 per set of tires. The entire fleet costs $16,800.

Bernard said they were proposing to put $61,145 into the budget line for next year.

"There are needs the police department does have," said Bernard.

Heritage

"I want to see exactly what we're going to get," said Town Council Liaison, Jim Butler. "Our recommendation is that those colors, all designs, and everything Mr. Gagnon presents must be part of the plans and signed by the Planning Department.

Butler praised the design, but emphasized his desire not to have any surprises during construction. The units will be for sale, although some owners may later choose to rent them out.

The Commission asked the pair to come back with color ideas, a signage plane, and lighting.

The Commission had another presentation from Michael Cavanaugh of Rhino Capital Advisors with property owner, Charles Evans. Their project hopes to build 100,000 square-foot warehouse building at 26 Jack's Bridge Road.

"We're using natural earth tones, textured concrete, and stucco to give it an industrial park feel," said Cavanaugh.

The design had a clear plan to encourage drainage and minimize the impact on the surrounding wetland. "There aren't as many intricate details as a housing design."

The design is also "solar ready" so a future client can easily add solar panels to the roof.

Members of the Commission were impressed with the proposal.

"I think this is a great addition to our tax base," said Butler.

Commission Chair, Krystopher Kenney, asked Cavanaugh to submit a separate signage plan at a later meeting to get a better idea of the result. The warehouse was approved as submitted without any objections.

In the Spirit

Every year about this time, we begin to get letters with requests for donations of warm clothes, winter accessories, food, gift cards, and new toys to help those in need. This is to help the individuals who are less fortunate get through the holidays and colder months.

This year may prove to be even more challenging, as the list of those in need seems to be getting more extensive. With the condition of the economy right now, day-to-day life can be challenging for many individuals. The increased cost of just about everything along with the high prices at the pump, electric, food, water, oil, and taxes changing are all factors that can have a major effect on someone's life.

We all hear the "bells" this time of year, whether it's a request for a monetary donation, a food item, a gift in answer to a request of an ornament on a Giving Tree, or a concert admission benefiting a certain cause. These types of fund drives are seen everywhere as the holidays approach. Even school children get lessons on helping others as they collect change or canned food for their less fortunate friends.

There are many different groups out there that will focus on nationwide issues related to the children in all kinds of situations like veterans or the elderly. Then there are the angels, people living in the community who volunteer and give back, who focus in on community with every dime and item collected going to people in our town – state.

We are lucky to live in towns with angels that appear to help in every facet weather; they are donating or working at a fundraiser. The economy surely is challenging, but they always seem to find a way to help each other through difficult times.

For those fortunate enough to have jobs or a retirement income that allows them to pay their bills and give their family some extras, we invite you to consider the requests for help that highlight the coming holiday season.

Some of the requests consist of; extra food, a pair of gloves and scarf, or a toy for a child who might not otherwise get one. These are all small sacrifices to make in light of the help and happiness they will bring.

That's truly part of the spirit during the holiday season. It is truly a gift, having the means to give and that is something to be thankful for.

We live in an affluent area, and even though it isn't often visible that people are in need, that does not mean we don't have families struggling. There are organizations like Family Promise, which provides shelter for local homeless families, or the busy food pantries in each of our towns. So, when you plan your gift giving this year, think of your neighbors as well. If you have some spare time on your hands, consider helping out at free meals, soup kitchens, or fundraisers for the holidays. It's a rewarding way to express the spirit of the coming season.

"Living is easy with eyes closed / Misunderstanding all you see" -John Lennon

Thank you Katie Sullivan

To the editor,

After two long years of waiting the Veterans breakfast took place once again. I must say that LHS Assist. Principal Katie Sullivan sure knows how to put on a breakfast.

Starting with the entry reception through a gauntlet of I believe high school cheerleaders kind of made you wish you were still of high school age.

The food selection was beyond belief along with being waited on no less when seated.

The band as usual was great and member Joey Cain's singing left me wishing he would sing a few more.

Having a photo of myself with two good friends, Bill Graser and Sam Masessa, in the paper, well that's like frosting on the cake.

Thank you Katie Sullivan.

Thank You Election Workers

To the editor,

I want to take this opportunity to thank the many good people that it took to run the Nov. 8 election, and to those who spent many days and hours in preparation leading up to the election. Your hard work was evident in the smoothness with which all facets of election day flowed, the positive attitude of the election workers, and the gratitude that so many voters showed to my poll partner and me as we checked voters in and handed them their ballots. November's election was my first as an election worker. I have been a consistent voter, I have run for local and state office, I have stood outside the polls helping other candidates, but this was my first as one of those many election workers that we encounter as we drive into the gymnasium parking lot and enter the gym to cast our ballots.

Early that morning I took my position as a poll worker along side Bob Bergendahl, a veteran Londonderry poll worker and invaluable resource to me during my maiden shift. Thank you to Bob for making my first experience seamless and so rewarding.

There are many others who are deserving of our deep appreciation including Stacie Street, John Farrell, Sherry Farrell, Mike Malagutti, Kirsten Hildonnen, Kristen Grages, LPD Chief Kim Bernard and his team, and LFD Chief Darren O'Brien and his team to name just a few. A special thanks to Jonathan Kipp whose leadership as Town Moderator and chief election official, during a period in our country's history in which election officials are often vilified and under intense scrutiny, accomplished an incredibly well-organized and drama-free election. Job very well done!

Friends, neighbors and citizens,

To the editor,

Thank you for your vote of confidence and for entrusting me with your voice. It is my greatest honor to represent you and I continue to be humbled by your confidence in me.

As I've said before, the people of NH are worth fighting for, and you have my word that I will continue to fight for you as your elected official.

Thank you Londonderry!

Wishing the Best

To the editor,

As we enter the Thanksgiving and overall Holiday Season, I want to wish my fellow citizens of Londonderry the very best in the upcoming weeks. This is a very special time of year and one for all of us to reflect.

I want to take this opportunity to say thank you for enabling me to represent our community for another two years in the NH House of Representatives. Our Town and our State are among the best places on earth and deserve the best we all have to offer. I am grateful to be a part of that effort.

It will be my honor to work for you and work with the others in our legislative delegation and our town officials.

Sincerely,
Wayne MacDonald

Thank You for Support

To the editor,

I want to thank the amazing citizens of Londonderry for coming out to vote on Nov. 8. It was so encouraging to watch the steady stream of cars coming into the high apply for it.

“To date we haven’t had an application under the existent criteria,” said Malaguti.

“Obviously, since June the economic picture has deteriorated considerably,” said Malaguti.

Malaguti stated he has heard from people on the Town Council and in the community that it is a program that has a lot of potential and promise; however, he said the thresholds may be too high.

“But we might be pricing just about everyone out of it,” said Malaguti.

Malaguti said they should examine to see if the guidelines and requirements they have right now are appropriate at this time considering the economic conditions.

As an example Malaguti explained there are three buildings in town that are worth $20 million or more, however they wouldn’t qualify unless they added more value to it.

Malaguti told the Council that based on their review there are more businesses that would be eligible to participate if they reduce the criteria.

It was noted by Malaguti that it wouldn’t be for current tax paying properties, unless they increase their value of the property by $15 million.

He said only the additional value would be eligible for the tax break.

Town Council Chairman, John Farrell, said they should discuss it at the next meeting when the full Town Council is at the meeting.

He stated he would be willing to discuss it further, but it doesn’t mean they are going to agree to make any changes.

“I’m happy to discuss anything, it doesn’t mean we’re going to do anything,” said Farrell.

Farrell asked Malaguti to provide the Town Council with some options for them to consider.

Also during the meeting, the Town Council discussed ending the Exit 4A TIF District.

Malaguti explained while there is authorization for the TIF district, there was never anything implemented there.

“It was never fully implemented,” said Malaguti.

He said it’s not a good practice to have TIF districts that aren’t actually being used and said he recommended they dissolve it and it could be revisited if there are projects presented for it.

school and see the lines of people patiently waiting to vote and express support for our Democracy. As we all know, this was an incredibly important election for our country and you cared and you respectfully showed up.

This was my first run for an elected position at the NH State House and though I did not win, I am very thankful for all the people who kindly opened their doors to talk, came to the political house parties, read our candidate write-ups in the newspapers and endured all the campaign signs all over Londonderry! I also want to thank all those family and friends who supported and helped me with all the campaign activities. Among others, these people included Martha Liff Smith, Robin and Paul Skudlarek, Carol and Tom Van Loon, Jim Green, Kristen Endyke, Susan Tsetsilas, Tom and Brian Pauli, Erin and Dan Pittinger, Tam and Tim Siekmann & the Londonderry Dems. There were also many other folks from all parties who generously provided encouragement and suggestions. I greatly appreciate their bi-partisanship and friendshi. Thank you all very very much.

they should do it for all the roads.

Ramsay also noted that by changing the speed limits it wouldn’t necessarily stop people from speeding.

Director of Engineering and Environmental Services, John Trottier, noted, “If we’re going to do this, there needs to be some engineering study put to it.”

Another argument that was made by Franz is that there were 13 people during the Traffic Safety Committee meeting that were in favor of lowering the speed limit, however, Farrell said that the ballot question failed previously.

“And the ballot measure was defeated twice by the town,” said Farrell.

Londonderry Police Chief, Kim Bernard, also said he would want it to be changed for all the same type of streets if they were going to make any changes. He stated there are many roads in town and with various speed limits already, it becomes difficult to know what roads have what speed limits.

Town Council Vice Chairman, Joe Green, said if they look at it further he wants to know what the cost will be to change the speed limits.

It was decided they would revisit the proposal during a future meeting when more information is available.

The next Town Council meeting is Dec. 5 at 7 p.m.

Troop 426 Prepares Holiday Wreaths

Boy Scouts and family members of Troop 426 gathered to help decorate, sort, and load over 700 wreaths into vehicles to be distributed this week for the holiday season. The yearly event is the largest fund raiser of the year for the troop, and helps fund many of the activities they are involved in throughout the year. If anyone is still looking to get one of the wreaths, about 100 of the wreaths will be available at the Plummer Christmas Tree Farm on Pillsbury Road until the supplies run out.

OBITUARY

Thomas E. Bisson

Thomas E. Bisson, 65, of Londonderry, NH, passed away Sunday Nov. 13, 2022, in the Southern NH Medical Center, Nashua, NH. Tom has overcome many medical problems over the last 10 years, beating cancer, a rare lung disorder, but this last illness was too much, and he was taken from us much too soon. He was born on April 16, 1957, in Hartford, CT, a son of the late Wilfred and Marguerite (Thibault) Bisson, and had been a resident of Londonderry for the past 20 years.

Tom's family moved from Bristol, CT to Derry, NH in 1969 where Tom graduated from Pinkerton Academy in 1975. He later earned an Associate Degree in Business from Rivier College. After high school, Tom worked for Treasure Masters in Derry briefly, then began a long career with Kollsman Instruments (Elbit Systems of America) as an Avionics Repair Technician. He remained there until 2017 when his illness prevented him from working any longer.

He would say he met his soulmate and love of his life, Pam in 1988. Together they raised two wonderful sons, Robert and Zachary. He was proud of both boys. He was involved with Boy Scouts as a youth and then carried on that tradition with his boys as an assistant scout leader for many years.

Tom enjoyed camping, the Green Bay Packers, vacations with family. He was able to complete his bucket list trip of going to Alaska in 2019 with Pam and his sister Patti. He was a great cook and known for his awesome meatballs.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 32 years, Pamala (Carr) Bisson of Londonderry; two sons, Robert P. Bisson of Pelham, NH and Zachary T. Bisson and his partner Ethan Conley of Manchester, NH; two brothers, Joseph M. Bisson of Pasadena, MD and Gregory J. Bisson of North Carolina; one sister, Patricia Guimond of Berwick, ME; his mother-in-law, Barbara Carr of Londonderry, as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins and his Uncle George Thibault. He was predeceased by one brother, William J. Bisson and one sister, Nancy L. Bisson.

Calling hours were held on Thursday, Nov. 17, at Peabody Funeral Homes and Crematorium. A Mass of Christian burial was celebrated on Friday, Nov. 18, at St. Jude Parish, Londonderry. Burial followed in Pillsbury Cemetery, Londonderry. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice.

Londonderry's Madelyn Murray Lands Lead in NEDE's The Nutcracker

Madelyn Murray of Londonderry, will portray the lead role of Clara in the Sunday performance of New England Dance Ensemble's (NEDE) professional production of The Nutcracker. Nov. 26 & 27 at the Seifert Performing Arts Center, Salem, NH.

Madelyn "Maddy" Murray is no stranger to the stage. And now, her upcoming appearance as Clara in NEDE production of 'The Nutcracker' casts her squarely in the spotlight. Madelyn has been dancing for over half of her life. She began her dance career at Melissa Hoffman Dance Center, and now focuses her study of ballet with Barbara Mullen at Londonderry Dance Academy (LDA).

Madelyn is a straight A high-honor student who currently balances a rigorous dance schedule with her studies and the responsibility of working as a student assistant for musician-ship. Though her main instruments include oboe, violin, and clarinet, she also teaches and plays trombone, trumpet, clarinet, and percussion. A typical schedule sees Madelyn studying at school before turning attention to over 12 hours a week of dance classes at LDA (not including Nutcracker rehearsals). Since she has been with NEDE, Maddy has performed in 7 roles in NEDE's Nutcracker including dancing the parts of Angel, Soldier, Reindeer, Russian, Harpist, Chinese Ribbon, and Party Child.

In the full-scale professional holiday production, aspiring dancers will be joined by guest artists from Philadelphia Ballet and Nashville Ballet. Sterling Baca - Principal Dancer with Philadelphia Ballet - will dance the role of Cavalier. Scarlett Güémez - company member with Philadelphia Ballet - will dance the role of Sugar Plum. Garritt McCabe - company member with Nashville Ballet - will be dance the role of Snow King and Arabian Prince. Accompaniment will be provided by The NH Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Mark Latham.

For the past 3 years, Madelyn has taken Royal Academy of Dance (RAD) exams and has achieved gold and gold with distinction standards. In addition to LDA, Maddy has attended a music camp at SYMS to further her music education in oboe, violin, and clarinet. Madelyn hopes to one day attend a summer conservatory program for dance or music.

When asked why she loves dancing, Madelyn shares, "I love dancing because you can express yourself through movements that can tell a story. Additionally, I love the intensity of striving for perfection because I am a very type A personality and high achiever. There is always something that I can improve in dance. Of course, every girl dreams of one day being a ballerina and possibly landing a lead role in any show. Although I was surprised, I was ready to take on the challenge of the very difficult role of Clara. It is an honor that I don't take lightly."

Two performances are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 26 and 27 at 4 p.m., at the Seifert Performing Arts Center, Salem, NH. Tickets may be purchased online at www.nede.org or by calling 1-800-595-4TIX. Tickets on sale now.

Ovation Theatre Company Presents Disney's Descendants

The holiday season is upon us and what better way to celebrate with your family than attending Ovation Theatre Company's presentation of Disney's Descendants.

Based on the popular Disney Channel original movies, Disney's Descendants is a new musical jam-packed with comedy, adventure, Disney characters, and hit songs from the films. Imprisoned on the Isle of the Lost - home of the most infamous villains who ever lived - the teenaged children of Maleficent, the Evil Queen, Jafar, and Cruella De Vil have never ventured off the island...until now. When the four troublemakers are sent to attend prep school alongside the children of beloved Disney heroes, they have a difficult choice to make:

should they follow in their parents' wicked footsteps or learn to be good?

Alycia Leriche (Mal) plays the character who most struggles between evil and good. "She starts off evil and she wants to be like her mother, but as she goes through Auradon, she realizes that she doesn't want to, but she kind of pushes those feelings aside, trying to make her mom proud. At the end, she must make the final decision and you'll have to come to the show to find out!" Leriche likes how Disney adapted the three movies into one musical play. "They took all of the songs from the different movies and adapted the lyrics to make sense with this show, which I thought was incredible - how they could use all the works and use (them) in a different way to make the show unique."

Some of the actors love playing the villains, including Abby Parnell (Jafar), who notes "The difference between playing a good character and an evil character is that you get to step into a role that is a really foreign thing to you. You get to learn how to present yourself as evil and learn how to embrace it and it's a super fun time!"

Carter Blanco (Doug) plays one of the good guys. "He tries to give everybody a chance." Of course even some of those opposing evil aren't always good. Hanna Carroll (Audrey) describes her character as a "mean ex-girlfriend that wants to get rid of the 'evils.' It's very fun, because you get to express yourself more and act mean."

Youngest cast member Jenisys Oliver-Joseph has really enjoyed her first Ovation experience. "I get to dance and make new friends." Her favorite number is "Break This Down." Michaela Horan (Evie) agrees. "It's just so fun to do and I think that people are going to have a lot of fun watching it."

With three shows already selling extremely well, Ovation is excited to present Disney's Descendants. The production is directed by Meg Gore, with music direction from Kevin Fisher and choreography by Miranda Winward. Emma Durand is serving as Assistant to the Director; Debrah Hernandez is Assistant Music Director; Ryan Carrigan is Assistant Choreographer; and

Lancers Football Head for Second Consecutive Title

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Football team will be looking to defend their Division I championship title after beating the Pinkerton Academy Astros 21-7 at Lancer Park in the Semifinals on Saturday, Nov. 19.

The Astros were held scoreless until the third quarter and the Lancers defense kept PA out of the endzone to maintain the win.

Londonderry was able to hold the tough Pinkerton senior running backs, Cole Yennaco and Jacob Albert, to just 63-yards to help assure the victory.

Overall, Londonderry was able to gain 179-yards of total offense in the game, while the Astros were held to just 120-yards.

Albert had an off day, and the first play from the offensive line gave a good indication of how the game would go for the PA side. Albert lost his footing in that play and started with an opening fumble.

Fortunately, he recovered the ball, but the team went three-and-out to start the game.

Londonderry had a very strong opening drive, starting at their 22-yard line after PA's first punt and was able to pound the ball down the field to get into the end-zone during a 10-minute drive.

During that drive, on fourth-and-eight at the PA 38-yard line, Londonderry quarterback, Drew Heenan, threw down the field to Anthony Amaro for a big 34-yard completion inside the ten-yard-line.

The drive ended with senior running back, Trevor Weinmann, getting the first touchdown of the game with a two-yard run. The point after by senior Jack Drabik put LHS up 7-0.

The Astros second drive of the game ended much like their first, with the Lancer defense holding them to minimal yards on the ground and forcing a three-and-out punt.

Londonderry started their second drive of the game from their side of mid-field, where Heenan made another nice pass to end the first quarter. Weinmann made a very nice juggling, sideline catch at the PA 35-yard line.

The Lancers drive ended with another fourth down attempt that was foiled by PA at the 28-yard line.

On second down, LHS senior, Nathan Pedrick, busted through the PA line and got the first sack of the game for a 6-yard loss and helping to force another punt.

During the punt, the Special Teams squad came up big with junior Cam Brutus being able to break through and block the kick and allow fellow junior Seth Doyon to grab the ball and get into the end zone for the second score of the game. Drabik then gave LHS 14-0 lead with the extra point into the wind with four-minute left in the half.

Pinkerton's third drive of the game had Yennaco under center, hoping for a different result in running the ball, but despite one passing play in that drive and a new quarterback the drive ended with another three-and-out and a punt.

The following LHS drive resulted in the Lancers first punt of the game, giving PA the ball at the 35-yard line where Londonderry forced another PA punt after three running plays.

Despite two nice passing plays during Londonderry's final drive of the half, it ended with another failed fourth down attempt.

The final PA drive of the half had the Astros getting their first, first down and also saw senior kicker, Jack Drabik, taken off the field after an injury during a tackle on a Yennaco first down run with just 10 seconds left in the half.

Pinkerton saw it's first glimmer of hope, after Lancer senior, Andrew Kullman, fumbled on his first carry of the game and the Astros Patrick Waldron recovered, putting PA just outside the LHS 30-yard line.

The PA offense had their first big passing play in the following drive, junior quarterback, Tim Hersom, had a completion to Matt Morrison on a third-and-15 play to give the Astros a first down.

The drive ended with a failed fourth-down attempt at the LHS 14-yard line, giving LHS the ball back, where they punted after three plays.

The PA momentum continued in their second drive of the third quarter, resulting in the Astros first score of the game.

PA worked their way down to the one-yard line where Yennaco put the Astros on the board with a touchdown. The point after kick by Craig Coventry put the score at 14-7 with four minutes left in the quarter.

The Astros defense held Londonderry to minimal yards in the following drive, but the Londonderry punt put PA at their three-yard line to start the fourth quarter.

The Lancers defense nearly had a sack in the end zone for the safety to start the final quarter, but settled for a punt.

During the punt, an Astros facemask penalty put LHS at the PA 13-yard line, setting up Londonderry's third touchdown of the game. Heenan ran the ball in from the 10-yard line on third down to get the game back to a two-score lead. Senior Dylan Wrisley came in for the injured Drabik for the point-after.

That score was all Londonderry needed to give them the victory over the rival Astros and give them their third trip in four seasons to the Division I finals.

Heenan was eight for 16 in pass completions for a total of 78 yards in the air. Heenan also led his team in rushing, getting 66-yards on 16 attempts on the ground.

Junior Jake Schena had 20-yards on seven carries followed by Weinmann and Andrew Soucy who both had seven-yards.

Amaro was the leading receiver with his catch of 34-yards, Weinmann had three catches for 23-yards and junior Matt Carrol had three for 20-yards.

On defense, Pedrick led in tackles with 7.5, seven of them solo and Weinmann finished with 4.5.

Londonderry will face the Bedford Bulldogs in the championship game on Saturday, Nov. 26, at Exeter High School at 1 p.m. Bedford finished the regular season at 6-3 and their last division title was a 28-14 win over Pinkerton in 2018.

Londonderry will be going for its third title in four years, getting wins in 2019 against Exeter and a 24-14 win over Winnacunnet last year.

Senior Anthony Amaro led the Lancers in receiving with a big 34-yard reception on fourth down to help set up the first touchdown.

Classified Advertising

READERS ARE CAUTIONED that we occasionally run ads that require an initial investment or money in advance. We urge our readers to "do their homework" before responding to any ad, check out the advertiser thoroughly and verify their claims to your total satisfaction. Only then should you proceed at your own risk. We try to screen ads that require you to send money before receiving a product or service. But these efforts are no substitute for your own investigation, and we don't endorse or guarantee any claims made in any of the ads we publish. If you want more information about claims made in ads on subjects such as work at home opportunities, travel or vacation specials, purchasing land or vehicles from government surplus or below wholesale, loans or other credit opportunities (including credit repair), or weight loss and other health products and services, we urge you to contact the Office of Attorney General, Consumer Protection Bureau, 33 Capitol Street, Concord, NH 03301 (603-271-3641) or the Better Business Bureau at 603-224-1991. Publisher is not responsible for any loss of business if an ad does not run, and we reserve the right to revoke any ad if deemed necessary. No refunds will be given for prepaid ads.

Holiday Handbell Performance

On Thursday, Dec. 15 at 7 p.m., come to the Leach Library for an evening of seasonal and holiday music. The Garage Bell Band will perform their "Holiday Handbells." The Garage Bell Band is the quartet version of the larger handbell ensemble known as the Granite State Ringers. They have performed at a variety of venues across New Hampshire and consist of Joan Fossum (director, bells, keyboard), Heidi Prior (bells, keyboard), Hilary Justice (bells, keyboard, bell tree), and Debbie Young (bells, vocals). Registration is required and begins on Thursday, Dec. 8. To register, please visit the main desk or call the library.

Switch It Up

Wednesday, Dec. 28, at 1 p.m. in the Leach Library Meeting Room, participants in grades 6-12 are welcome to try their hand at video games on the big screen with the library's Nintendo Switch consoles. Snacks will be available during the program. Registration is required and begins on Dec. 21. To register, please visit the main desk or call the library.

PJ Story Time

Thursday, Dec. 29 at 7 p.m. get ready for bedtime in cozy pajamas to listen to a couple of bedtime stories and sing along to a lullaby at the Leach Library. Don't forget a stuffed animal or blanket to snuggle. Registration is not required for this program and drop-ins are welcome.

Holiday Break Offerings

A variety of crafts, coloring pages, and a Guess It jar available in the Leach Library's Children's Room during Holiday Break, from Dec. 27 - Dec. 30. Enjoy some time working on them at the library or take them home for later.
