According to Elwood, the Orchard has upwards of 15,000 guests come through the premises each Fall. One of the main attractions is its corn maze, open to the public during its operating hours, and until 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday for those in search of a challenge.

Elwood worked for 43 years as a commercial Lender before retiring and joining his brother at Elwood Orchards. Though the orchard has been in the family for much longer.

School Board Reopens Superintendent Search

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry School Board discussed their plan to search for their next superintendent during their Oct. 4 meeting.

It was explained by School Board Chair, Amy Finamore, that in April they appointed Dan Black as their interim superintendent for the 2022-2023 school year and they would look at what to do for the search when the school year starts.

"I am proposing to the School Board that we reopen our search, again using the Bryan Group, the same search firm with whom we previously contracted," Finamore wrote in a memo. "This contract contained a clause providing a second search at no additional consulting cost should the first not result in the hiring of a permanent superintendent (note that the Board will still incur expenses, such as mileage and job posting fees)."

The School Board agreed that they should reopen the search, use the same job description and to keep the HR Director as the designated liaison with the Bryan Group.

Another part of the search discussed was what the composition of search committee would be.

School Board member, Bob Slater, said he feels since the superintendent is the only position the School Board hires for, he felt the Committee should just be the School Board.

"That's my thoughts on moving forward," said Slater.

Finamore said she agreed.

"The only time we talked about it was in public open meetings,"

Planning Board Votes No on Rezoning Near Rail Trail

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Wednesday, Oct. 5, Planning Board meeting, members heard a rezoning request by Gizmo Enterprises, LLC who was looking for a favorable recommendation to the Town Council for the property at 4 Commercial Lane. The lot abuts the Londonderry Rail Trail and has material encroaching the trail currently.

It was explained by Bob Carey, who was representing the owner, that they wanted to rezone it from agriculture commercial to a commercial one lot.

He explained the owner has owned it since 2004 and uses it to store equipment, sand, and gravel for the business.

Carey explained that recently they became aware they have encroached onto the Londonderry Rail Trail, which is owned by the State and it needs to be rezoned.

He said since the state and town don't have to follow zoning regulations it wouldn't impact them.

It was explained by Carey they have made improvements to the site recently.

"It's a business he's spent a significant amount of money to improve lately," said Carey.

Carey added he thinks it's a reasonable request from a longtime business.

"He's limited in what he can do in that

Corn Maze

Continued from page 1 places that helps make Londonderry, Londonderry. Elwood's father, Wayland H. Elwood, passionately bore the responsibilities of the family farm from the age of 12 serving families until his passing in the summer of 2012.

Trends come and go, but the novelty of a good, old-fashioned tractor ride, pumpkin patch, and corn maze never seems to wear off. Elwood weighed in on why that might be the case.

"It's something that gets the whole family together," said Elwood, agreeing that shared activities like navigating a large corn maze makes for a great opportunity for family bonding.

When Elwood Orchards first opened its corn maze, it only took up about an acre of space. Now, the maze stands as a 15-acre labyrinth for guests of all ages and skill levels to try to solve.

"We have families with young kids that go with them, teenagers, senior citizens, it's something different to do," said Elwood.

15 acres may seem intimidating to some, but those concerned with getting lost need not worry. Emergency exits are available should the need arise, and Elwood said that worst case scenario guests can call the main line and staff can find anyone who needs an extra, experienced set of eyes.

The Elwood Orchards website states that the night maze is not haunted, though not for lack of trying.

Elwood explained the Orchard had made attempts to partner with the Londonderry High School drama club to hold a haunted corn maze of sorts, but the groups could never quite sync up availability.

However, should there be an organization willing to work together with the Orchard to put on such a maze, Elwood said the Orchard would be welcome to the idea of hosting a haunted maze.

In addition to its large corn maze, the orchard of Elwood Orchards grows an impressive 15 varieties of apples, and offers pumpkins, mums, gourds, cider, preserves, honey, and more. The property also houses chickens, which customers are welcome to visit, who lay eggs for the Orchard's farm store.

Though the flock loves having visitors, customers are asked not to feed any of the chickens.

Corn mazes are here to stay, to provide families and friends with an activity that will help them to build, trust, and grow closer for years to come.

Elwood Orchards is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m., and the night maze is open until 10 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult in order to participate in the corn maze, day or night.

Eversource Pole Replacement Project On Schedule

PAUL CONYERS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Conservation Commission met on Sept. 27 and discussed updates on the Eversource Replacement Project, among other issues.

Chris Menarson of Aecom Environment was at the meeting to give a presentation on behalf of Eversource. The conditional use permitting process has been ongoing for the last few months with similar, earlier presentations to the Planning Board.

"The project itself spans about two miles," Menarson said. "It crosses the Merrimack River, about a mile of the project is located here in Londonderry, and it ends up at the North Merrimack substation."

"Essentially, we're switching from wood structures to metal poles," he added. The current Replacement Project is part of a years-long effort to install longer-lasting, more weather-resistant power structures.

Contractors are looking to build or use existing roads to access the towers. The Conservation Commission has been involved thanks, in part, to the interruption building these roads will cause to Londonderry wetlands. Not only would building new roads be disruptive, but workers would need to flatten the area around each work site.

"We've tried to avoid this wetland to the extent possible, but there is a small area that will be clipped," Menarson warned the Committee. The plan includes "wetland restoration" after the work including a re-seeding effort to restore the local ecology. "Construction will be limited to crew vehicles and construction cranes.

Eversource still has another meeting in front of the Planning Board before work can progress. The company also needs to complete the permit process to comply with NH state requirements.

Despite the ongoing process for permitting, Eversource still hopes to start the project this fall. Later elements should be constructed next spring.

Already familiar with the project, members of the Conservation Committee voted to recommend a permit for the Eversource Project without much debate.

Committee Chair, Marge Badois, received a letter regarding a conservation easement for the Peterson Sugar House. A land trust for the Sugar House hopes to raise $45,000 to preserve the old maple house. No other details were available.

Londonderry mountain bikers have asked the Committee to investigate the feasibility of building the new biking trail at Musquash. It's unclear if the area under discussion is suitable for a trail, owing to steep terrain that might erode quickly.

"We're going to walk out there, evaluate the trail, hear what they have to say, and express our opinions," said Badois. The bikers plan to meet with the Conservation Committee on Oct. 8 to present their trail plan.

The Committee also received a request for quick approval of a wetlands impact permit near Exit 5, across from Enterprise Drive. Members want to examine the wetlands in question before voting on expedited approval. They hope to put the matter to a vote by the next meeting, which is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 11.

Rezone

lot because it's above the ground septic," said Carey.

Carey explained there are other businesses that also approach the corridors.

It was asked by Planning Board Chair, Arthur Rugg, that if the other businesses have expressed concerns.

"I think we are the ones that are taking on the initiative," said Carey.

Carey stated that instead of rezoning the 1.5 acres originally requested they would be willing to just rezone the front of the property where the encroachment is taking place.

Planning Board member, Jeff Penta, said that a future property owner could take advantage of it and it also opens themselves up to other businesses along the Rail Trail that want to get rezoned.

"I would not want to see that type of encroachment be impacted," said Penta.

Planning Board member, Ann Chiampa, said she doesn't think it's right to eliminate the landscaping buffering.

"People use it and they appreciate it," said Chiampa.

Londonderry Trailways President, Bob Rimol, said they have no problem with the rezoning, saying they didn't even know they were encroaching until it was brought up. He added that he expects that there are other businesses in the same situation

Rugg said he is concerned that it's not consistent with the use of the rail trail.

"People that use it like the beauty of it," said Rugg.

The Planning Board ultimately voted to make an unfavorable recommendation to the Town Council.

Finamore said about their search process last time.

She felt, however, they should include staff members including the Human Resources Director, a principal, and two other staffers along with community members.

Slater said he was okay with the set up, but felt they should have either two or four community members depending on how much interest they get in order to have an odd number of people on the search committee.

The rest of the School Board agreed to move forward with that set up for the superintendent search.

Let's Keep it Rural and Affordable

Many of us bought our homes a while ago, probably in part because of their rural location. In many cases trees kept the house from full display to the road, and the road itself was often a winding country byway. Southern New Hampshire towns have grown in population since then, and those rural byways have in many instances become alternative routes to get to the highway, or back-road speedways for drivers to avoid daily traffic jams.

The population of our towns has been increasing steadily for a few years now. With this growth comes multiple vehicles, adding up to more traffic and other growing concerns. Intersections that were once easily traversed using a stop sign now need lights, and have turn into nightmares at certain times of day. They require drivers to exercise patience and self-control.

With the renewed emphasis on economic development, residential neighborhoods traffic, safety and noise situations are only get worse.

Towns have Traffic Safety Committees to address residents' and businesses' concerns, and as we've reported, they are seeing plenty of action. Residents regularly ask for stop signs or reduced speed limits or "no parking" regulations. The towns, for example, can't regulate state roads, many of which traverse our communities they point out traffic concerns serious enough to get people off their couches and seeking help from public officials.

With towns growing, some at a much faster rate than others, we can rest assure that safety and traffic concerns will grow as well.

It may be a tad too late, but better late than never. Before more construction is in place, this is the time to start a public discussion about our roads, water, air, noise, and light population.

Can we as towns accommodate the growth at this fast paced? Are we removing a lot of farmland that yield us sustainability? Are stop signs sufficient to regulate traffic from residential neighborhoods into larger and higher speed roads? How reliable are traffic studies? Are we taking into account the questions and costs of residential and business growth in neighboring areas?

The towns need to make sure we have strong infrastructure growth plans in place for traffic, water, sewer, air, and light pollutants plans that align with the population growth in a smart way.

Town and school officials are responsible for the people of the towns to make sure the greater good is being carried out in our behalf.

I say be respectful, but question everything and get the documents to back up what is being said. Most of all have a vision of what may come and how to be prepared for it.

School Bathrooms

To the editor,

All parents deserve to know that students are allowed to use whatever gender-specific bathroom, they want to.

There is NOTHING in the handbook regarding this issue, yet admin is enforcing it.

Months ago, at a school board meeting, a parent asked when this could be discussed for transparency. We were told they would "table it," and come back to it...

MANY parents have emailed the school board and District Office for clarity, but no response has been given to anyone. File a 91a, and you will find everything to support this.

This is not how a transparent, honest, school district, and school board, should be run.

Vote Doug Thomas

To the editor,

Conventional wisdom defines insanity as doing the same thing over & over again expecting a different result. So if citizens want lower electricity bills, it's insane to send the same legislators to Concord as if everything is going just fine.

During Rep. Doug Thomas' 8 years in the State House and seat on the House Science, Technology and Energy committee, NH electricity prices have skyrocketed. They were already ranked 5th-highest in the contiguous USA before the surge of inflation. NH's reliance on fossil fuels makes us extremely vulnerable to volatile markets, as Thomas himself explained in his self-exculpatory 1/2 page article here on March 11. But while in office, Doug has engaged in delay and misinformation instead of action, as shown in your electricity bill and his own social media posts being flagged as "False Info."

Thomas cautions that a federal "rush" towards renewable energy will cause higher prices. However the 25.2% renewable energy target by 2025 didn't come from Washington - it was set by NH's own legislature in 2007. Doug's lethargy puts NH behind our own schedule and now we're paying the price of his foot-dragging: for comparison nearly all electricity produced in VT comes from renewable resources (99.8% of utility-scale net electricity generation) and their residential electricity rates are 10% lower than NH. The facts disprove Doug's claims, and he lacks any substantive accomplishments except for higher energy prices.

Thomas has practiced 8 years of contradiction. On Feb. 11 he warned our Town Council about potential brown-outs due to low energy supplies, while simultaneously opposing Net Metering legislation which would increase energy production and reduce demand from major energy consumers. He slow-walks and opposes diversifying NH's energy sources while simultaneously warning us about our reliance on fossil fuels. His apparent solution can be found in his March 11 article: "As the demand for natural gas to fuel the (electricity) plants increased, the gas pipeline network has not expanded to meet those needs." This transparent call to support new pipeline projects omits a key fact: for the last 5 years nearly 80% of the natural gas flowing through NH pipelines went to neighboring states. We don't need more pipelines to avoid an energy shortage in NH - that's just a fear tactic. Utility companies simply want to boost their profits by using NH as a transfer hub, and politicians like Doug are helping them promote it.

Doug's miserable performance managing electricity costs makes sense if you review his campaign finance records: Rep. Thomas accepted a donation from Eversource in 2020, and it remains to be seen if he accepted more in the 2022 election cycle. I challenge him to explain the ethics of the Vice-Chair of the House Science, Technology and Energy committee accepting such a donation. Only one thing is certain: sending Rep. Doug Thomas back to the State House hoping he will help bring down energy prices isn't just counter-intuitive; it fits the common-sense definition of insanity.

Change of Thought

Knowing constantly the important political decisions taking place next month and 2024, I also hear that every change in the weather is caused by using fossil fuel country wide bringing the planet to an end.

Why have we forgotten Mother Nature. A long time ago we had the Ice Age. Had Mother Nature not come along we would probably be living in Igloos and doing a lot of ice skating. Fast forward to Noah with a bunch of animals enduring forty days of rain. His wife probably said it was due to Global Warming predicting mass flooding.

Some now say to give up meat meaning more cows and we all know what cows are noted for.

Moving forward I recall a man named Gore writing a book called "The Inconvenient Truth" Predictions were a high rise in ocean waters with major flooding along our coast in ten years. It's been a lot of years since then. Even scared kids with a polar bear riding an ice float and implying the end of polar bears. Maybe it's time to write a sequel "The Inconvenient Lie".

Now it's time to pick on Hurricanes seeing as they are in the present news. It's all our fault and caused by Climate Warming (whoops) we now say Climate Change cause it sounds better. Since the beginning of time water movement starts over the warm ocean waters off the African coast building sometimes up to Tropical storms and on occasion Hurricanes so it's hard to follow that's we are to blame.

Now I'm getting nervous cause we hear dire predictions that we are doomed with the planet in serious danger unless we give up fossil fuel entirely and go electric, wind and solar panels. Just get use to blackouts due to the overloaded grid system like many third world countries. Let's not mention that China makes the Batteries, Turbines and Solar Panels and has the required minerals to do the manufacturing with plenty and continuing building of coal fired plants polluting the universe. Just think of what we will have to do in the future with dead batteries. But that's another story.

I could go on and on but I think I've annoyed and rattled enough readers for the time being.

After reading I and hearing from all the constant doom sayers, reading and listening to all the current political talk isn't so bad after all.

Support for Perez

To the editor,
I'm writing this letter in support of Kristine Perez, candidate for Londonderry State Representative. Kristine is a respected member of the Londonderry community. She shows a great passion for the community as a whole. An example of this was during the pandemic, at a time when parents and children needed a voice, Kristine was always there. For the past 2 years she showed up at almost every school board meeting to stand up and support parents, even though she has no children in this system. As a retired nurse, with 42 years of experience in healthcare and acute care nursing, she brought facts and common sense when there seemed to be very little from those making decisions for our children. As a fellow healthcare worker, I appreciated her knowledge and advocacy on behalf of our children. What was right for one family, oftentimes, wasn't right for another. Due to this, many parents felt that parental rights for our children were being ignored. Kristine stood up for parents and parent's rights. She continues to advocate for parents rights while also being supportive of public schools. We need someone who will support parents while also supporting our public schools at the same time.

I can't think of a more qualified candidate than Kristine. She wants change and transparency for the residents of Londonderry. She is for informing constituents about what bills are being sponsored by having open forums to discuss these bills. This is so important to keep community members aware of how potential bills will affect their community.

Electing Kristine as State Representative would be a great step toward positive change in strengthening the Londonderry community with sound values. She will listen to and advocate for all Londonderry community members. Kristine is the voice we need during these difficult times.

Please vote for Kristine Perez for Londonderry State Representative on November 8th.

Leigh and Jamie Tucolo, Londonderry

NH House Republican Accomplishments

To the editor,

Since gaining the majority in 2020, the number of bills passed by New Hampshire House Republicans is simply remarkable. They have delivered on their promise of lower taxes, less government control, and more freedom. tion was the state budget passed by Republicans with no Democrat support. This “transformational symphony of reforms” cut taxes, cut spending, and built the rainy-day fund to its highest level in state history. It decreased the State-Wide Education Property Tax by $100 million, providing Granite Staters with a direct property tax cut. It phased out the interest and dividends tax over 5 years, making New Hampshire one of the few states to be truly income tax-free. It provided $200 million to cities and towns - including Londonderry - for roads and bridges. House Republicans understand that small businesses are the backbone of our economy. That is why our Republican representatives cut their taxes and increased the filing threshold. This will exempt over 30 thousand small businesses from tax filings. The Republican budget made advancements in several critical policy areas. House Republicans worked hard to protect our civil liberties and prohibited federal overreach in the form of unconstitutional mandates on masking and 2nd Amendment rights. They protected the unborn by passing the Fetal Life Protection Act prohibiting health care providers performing abortions after 24 weeks with several important exceptions. They increased New Hampshire’s election integrity by requiring the Secretary of State to perform audits of ballots in the 2022 elections, and they stood up to the Unions and protected parent’s rights to choose the best educational path for their families. There are many other bills passed by House Republicans including easing property tax burdens on veterans; and many other bills too numerous to list here. It is due to smart management by House Republicans and the belief that the best form of government is one that empowers you to live free that these bills were passed. If Democrats controlled the House, these bills would not have happened. The Republican candidates who assured passage of these bills are incumbents current House Speaker Sherman Packard, Dave Lundgren, Wayne McDonald, Doug Thomas, Tom Dolan, and Julius Soti. New to the Republican ticket are our outstanding candidates Ron Dunn and Kristine Perez. Your vote, no matter your party affiliation, on November 8 for these 8 Republican candidates will assure a Republican majority in the House and the Republican agenda of no state income taxes, less government control, and more freedoms. That is the American and New Hampshire way.

Londonderry Senior Resource Committee Prepare for Expo

PAUL CONYERS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Senior Resources Committee met on Sept. 20 to continue work on preparation for their 1st Annual Senior Expo.

Committee members hoped to finalize their vendor list for the event to confirm the number of tables needed. "So far, I've got 23 total applications," said Kim Bernard, Deputy Chief of Police. The application deadline passed on Oct. 1, although Bernard indicated that he'd be willing to welcome new attendees up to the day of the event if there's enough table space, emphasizing that "we'll welcome them all!"

Current attendees include companies such as Amramp, Damsel in Defense, Platinum Travel, and CMC Pharmacy. Meals on Wheels is expected to have a representative, although this hasn't been confirmed. Bernard also announced that several local agencies are slated to be at the Expo, including members of the Londonderry School District, the Police Department, and the Fire Department.

The AARP will also have a representative at the event, although the Committee isn't sure what the organization will cover.

"When I went to the expo, down in Manchester, there was an AARP representative there, but it was an insurance representative," stated member, Jim Green. "I was looking for the home fit guy, the successful dwelling unit, livable communities, and all the rest of that stuff."

A complete vendor list is not yet finalized, although the Committee hopes to have a better idea of who will attend soon.

One goal of the Expo is to have useful resources for Londonderry seniors in one place. Green confirmed that several vendors plan to hold presentations, including one by CMC on how to purchase medication online. Other programs will include a wheelchair ramp demonstration and help to sign up for programs like Medicare.

Londonderry officials have also promised to contribute information on how to avoid fraud.

"I have the detective sergeant of the police department working on a trifold, or pamphlet on information to hand out on current senior scams," Bernard promised. "We're also looking to put up a trifold board to display some of the scams we have seen, not to scare, but to inform."

Other priorities of the Committee include event preparation and passing out information to the public about the ongoing activities of the Committee. Green outlined a quick check-in process where volunteers move people through the event. Vendors will have assigned tables.

Green proposed a "Senior Resource Committee booth" at the event. He wanted to include a questionnaire, asking attendees what they want from the Resource Committee.

Lancers Beat Undefeated Cardinals For Fifth Division Win

Senior Lancer Andrew Kullman heads to the end-zone after a reception made in the second quarter against BG. Photo by Chris Paul

LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Football squad remained undefeated in Division I by beating another undefeated foe on Friday night at Lancer Park.

Despite getting by with a slim lead by half-time and having nine penalties for 90-yards called against the Lancers in the game, the defending DI champions were able to come away with another convincing victory. This time, a 35-16 over the previously undefeated Bishop Guertin Cardinals.

Both teams got off to a slow start in the game, with a scoreless first quarter.

The Cardinals made a big interception in their end zone on a pass by senior QB, Drew Heenan, on a fourth down and one play with just under seven minutes left in the quarter.

The ensuing BG drive from the 20-yard line wound up harmless.

The Lancers next drive ended with an unsuccessful field goal.

The LHS squad was able to score the first points of the game in the second quarter, on an 18-yard pass by Heenan to Andrew Kullman who avoided being tackled and ran into the end zone from the Lancer 37-yard line for an 81-yard touchdown play. Senior kicker, Jack Drabik, made it 7-0 with the point after.

Less than a minute later, after a botched kick-off return, recovered by the Lancers. Anthony Amaro got the second Lancer TD, with an 18-yard running play for the 14-0 lead.

The Cards tightened the game 14-8 on their following drive with a touchdown and a two-point conversion.

In the third quarter, Heenan added two more

Lancers Boys' Soccer at 5-5-2 as Season Nears End

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Boys' Soccer team is headed into the final two weeks of the fall season with a 5-5-2 record after adding a win and a loss in last week's contests.

The Lancer squad began the week by hosting the Merrimack High School Tomahawks (2-8-1), where they were able to come away with a 2-1 victory.

Londonderry had two goals in the first half of the game, both were by sure-footed senior forward, Cristian Levantovski Correa.

The first goal came at 13:23 in the period, with the assist coming from sophomore Brett McKinnon.

Levantovski Correa's second goal of the contest came at 32:30 assisted by senior Sullivan Street.

Merrimack got their only goal of the game in the second half, at 42:00. Merrimack Lancer junior keeper, Ethan Munro, made six saves against Merrimack.

Head coach, Todd Ellis, commented after the game, "I really like how we possessed and played the first 20 minutes of the game. It was great to have Ethan record his first varsity win. Overall I thought we competed well given tonight's conditions."

On Friday afternoon, Oct. 7, the Lancers needed to work back from an early three-goal deficit created by a very good Hanover High School squad and were never able to catch up.

The Hanover Bear's squad came into the game with a 7-4 record and watch them pass the ball, early on, showed why they got the 4-2 victory.

All three of the first half Hanover goals came in the first 28-minutes of the game.

The Lancers had a goal disallowed early on due to an off-sides call.

LHS junior forward, Jackson Lewis, brought the game to within two-goals with his goal on a breakaway at 36:44.

In the second half of the game, sophomore Justin Dion put the game within reach with his unassisted goal at 41:30.

Hanover kept Londonderry away from the net most of the remainder of the game and scored one more time for the 4-2 win

Munro made nine saves in the Londonderry net, while the Hanover keeper needed just three stops.

Ellis didn't feel that his Lancer bunch was at their best that evening. He said, "They capitalized on mistakes and poor team defending. The goal that was taken away and the one we scored before half showed the team we can do better, and we scored early in the second half. The second half of soccer was much better to watch."

The Lancers are scheduled to play Bishop Guertin at home on Wednesday followed by a game on the sea coast against Winnacunnet on Thursday, Oct 13.

Lancers Girls' Volleyball Bounce Back from First Loss

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

After losing just their first match of the season to the Bedford Bulldogs to end the month of September, the Londonderry High School Girls' Volleyball team had a nine-day break before facing their next tough competitor.

The Lancers came back from that break to face the 12-1 Nashua North Titans and were able to up their season record up to 11-1 with a strong road win.

The LHS squad showed a bit of rust as they started their match in Nashua, dropping the first set 19-25, but then won three straight sets 25-23, 25-22 and 25-13 for the victory.

In that match, Londonderry junior Ally McGonagle had a very good night and finished with 13 kills and four digs.

Senior Lexi Small, pushed her career assists total up to 1,056 assists when she added 27 assists in the match. She also tallied four aces and two blocks.

Senior Madi Saucier

had six blocks and junior Liv DeFazio got six kills.

Headed into the final two weeks of the regular season, the Lancers will play three games in each of those weeks as they prepare for the upcoming playoffs.

In that final stretch, their toughest competitors will be Hollis-Brookline and Exeter High School. Both teams have just two losses and Londonderry will face them in their final two matches of the season.

LHS junior, Allison McGonagle, at right, has been a major asset this season.

Lancers Field Hockey Take One of Three with One Left

LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Field Hockey squad has just one game left in the regular season and currently sit in the ninth spot of the Division I standings, after losing two of three games last week.

Since beating Pinkerton in the Mack Plaque game two weeks ago, the Londonderry team has a 2-2 record, beating Salem and Nashua

North, but then dropped games to Exeter and Keene.

On Wednesday, Sept. 28 had a 2-0 win at home over the Blue Devils.

On Monday, Oct. 3 the LHS team traveled to Nashua, where they were able to come away with their seventh win of the season, beating the Nashua North Titans 3-0.

One day later, on their home turf, the Exeter Blue Hawks ended the LHS winning streak in a 1-0 outcome.

Two days later, on Friday, Oct. 7, the result was similar when they suffered a 3-0 loss at Keene High School.

The Lancers final game of the regular season is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 12, when they host the Concord Crimson Tide.

If the team remains as one of the top eleven teams of the division, their season will continue into the NHIAA Division I playoffs.

Lancers Girls' Soccer Drop Two Games to Start October

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Girls' Soccer team suffered two tough losses to start the month of October and now head into the final two weeks of the regular season with a 5-7 record.

The Lancers sixth season loss came on Tuesday, Oct. 4, when the team traveled to Merrimack High School where they were shutout 2-0 by the Lady Tomahawks (8-3-1).

Two days later, during a road game at Hanover High School, the LHS squad suffered another two-goal loss, after a 3-1 outcome by the Bears.

The Lady Lancers have just four games left over the final two weeks of the regular season and are in danger of not making the NHIAA playoffs.

They play Winnacunnet (4-7) at home on Oct. 13 followed by a game in Nashua against Bishop Guertin (10-1-1) on Monday, Oct. 17.

On Tuesday, Oct. 18, the team will travel to Windham High School (2-11) then on Thursday, Oct. 20, Londonderry will host a game with Timberlane Regional High School to finish the regular season.
