Londonderry Native Sustains Severe Injuries in Spain

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

A Londonderry High School graduate studying abroad was severely injured in a bicycling accident during a trip to Spain and is currently fighting for her life.

Lauren Rauseo, a junior at Stonehill College, is studying in France this semester when she took a trip to Spain with friends, where on March 17, she was involved in what was described as a "horrific" bicycle accident coming down an extremely steep hill. Trying to avoid a vehicle, she crashed into a wall and she is now in a medically induced coma.

Rauseo is currently undergoing treatment in a Spanish hospital for the injuries she sustained on the Island of Mallorca according to reports. Her injuries include traumatic brain injury, broken clavicle, broken hip, and a punctured lung.

Chad Franz Looks To Revise Town Council Rules of Order

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Town Council discussed potentially changing its rules for meetings at the March 18 reorganization meeting.

Newly named Town Council Chair, Chad Franz, said under a provision in the Town Charter, within 10 calendar days of people taking their oath of office following the election, they need to adopt their rules.

During the meeting, Franz had a series of proposed revisions to the rules, which he passed out at the meeting to the rest of the Town Council.

Former Town Council Chair, John Farrell, said if they were going to discuss it, then it needed to be done in public.

"If we're not gonna discuss this in public, I'm going to invoke councilor privilege," he said.

Franz said that he was looking to have a discussion on it.

He said most of the changes were similar to what they have in place.

"To ensure orderly and productive public hearings and committee sessions, the Londonderry Town Council has established the following guidelines," Franz said reading from the proposed rules. "These rules aim to facilitate constructive dialogue and are subject to enforcement of the Chair's discretion subject to overruling by the Council."

One of the suggestions raised by Town Councilor, Ron Dunn, was related to an advisory citizens petition war-

Town Council Appoint Allison Parsons as the Tax Collector

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

One of the agenda items during the March 18 Town Council meeting was to appoint the Tax Collector for the year. This year the town chose Allison Parsons.

"We annually, as the Council knows, appoint a Tax Collector that's required by statute," Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, said.

During the public comment portion of the meeting, before the Town Council discussed the matter, Richard Bielinski Jr. asked how many hours a week they work, asked about the total compensation since they get insurance and retirement, and questioned why it took so long for his check for his tax bill to be deposited.

He said for example when he dropped off his tax bill check on July 5, it didn't get deposited until July 24, saying he was concerned that the town lost out on interest from it.

"Why, why is this taking so long," Bielinski said.

Malaguti explained they have to enter into an agreement, and the agreement has "not substantially changed" to his knowledge since he has been with the town.

"The agreement is customary as far as [appointed] officials serving in these types of roles are concerned, it is an agreement that reflects the significant responsibility that appointed officials have," he said.

Malaguti said it is appropriate and customary, regarding the terms of the contract.

He also noted that they have been working on not having delays in when the checks are deposited.

Budget Committee Discuss the Warrant Article Passed

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Budget Committee reflected on the different warrant articles that were on the Town Election ballot, including a citizen petition warrant asking voters to approve a change to the Municipal Code making the Budget Committee no longer an advisory committee.

Voters at the March election approved the warrant article on a vote of 2,259 to 1,621. During the Deliberative Session in February, those in attendance had the warrant article changed to be an advisory warrant article meaning it had no binding effect.

Deb Paul, who submitted the petition, explained previously that the idea would be to make the Budget Committee responsible for creating the Default Budget, instead of the Administration proposing both the operating budget, and the Default Budget.

Budget Committee Chair, Patrick Cassidy, explained that he thinks it's something that requires more research to be done on it, before any changes could be made.

He explained that he thinks the idea came about after last budget season, since it seemed like the Budget Committee "didn't have any teeth," in being able to make changes to the proposed budget, noting that their advice wasn't taken.

"We were saying things that didn't seem to get as many responses as possible," Cassidy said.

However, Cassidy said this year's budget season went differently and they were listened to more on both the school and town side.

"I don't know if this is the right move," Cassidy said.

Budget Committee Vice Chair, Joseph Gagnon, agreed saying "they were very receptive to us."

Cassidy also noted that he didn't feel like he was in a position to be able to make the default budget, however, it was noted by members of the Committee that other towns have a similar process, where there is a "Budget Committee" proposed budget.

"I don't feel qualified to make that budget... I'm not sure if that's the right role for us," he said.

The Budget Committee Secretary, Kate Burbidge, said if they were to consider going through the process of changing the charter in order to have a non advisory Budget Committee, she said they should look into how much additional workload there is and thinks there should potentially be a stipend associated with it.

Cassidy said it was his understanding that there have been discussions in the past about having compensation, but said the argument is that if they were to get any pay then there's a case that other boards and commissions should also be paid.

Gagnon said that while things could change, this past budget season things went well, from their perspective in terms of working with the Budget Committee.

"But right now they're willing partners," Gagnon said.

Regardless, Cassidy said he would speak to Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, to find out what the warrant article passing means for the Committee if anything.

and to try and transport Rauseo back to a U.S. hospital.

As of Tuesday morning, March 22, the site had raised $192,797 of the $250,000 goal.

According to the page, "Lauren has sustained severe injuries, including a traumatic brain injury along with numerous fractures, necessitating multiple surgeries and intensive care. Currently, she is in a medically induced coma, a step taken by her medial team with the hope of stabilizing her condition enough to bring her back to the United States. The goal is to transfer her to a specialized pediatric ICU trauma unit in Boston, where she can receive the best possible care and embark on the long road to recovery."

The site also stated, "The costs associated with Lauren's medical care, including the necessary medi-flight back to the U.S., are staggering. In this hour of dire need, we turn to you, our community, friends and kind-hearted strangers, to help alleviate the financial burden on Lauren's family. By contributing to this fund, you are offering more than financial support, you are giving hope, love and the invaluable peace of mind that comes from knowing we are not alone in our fight to bring Lauren home."

OBITUARY

Helen Webster

Helen Webster, 90, of Londonderry, NH passed away peacefully on Thursday March 21, 2024 at her home surrounded by her loving family. Helen was born in Ceb, Yugoslavia on Dec. 10, 1933, a daughter of the late Nickolaus and Theresa (Huberd) Stock.

She had been a resident of Londonderry for the majority of her life and owned and operated Helen's Beauty Haven for many years. She and her husband, Arthur were longtime parishioners of St. Jude's Parish in Londonderry where they played several active roles.

Helen was a kind, generous, gentle yet strong, proud woman. Family meant everything to her. She enjoyed making many memories over the summers at her lake home with all of her family especially with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved teaching her whole family how to bake and cook her German cuisine and she loved sharing it with others. She enjoyed gardening, making fresh assorted jams and home-baked bread, as well as, crocheting afghans for family, friends, church fairs and the homeless.

She is survived by three sons, Gary Webster and his wife Sandy of East Derry, NH, David Webster of Londonderry, and Alan Webster and his wife Christine of Auburn, NH, one daughter, Melody Royer and her husband Roger of Bow, NH, six grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, one sister, Winnie Smith of Deerfield, NH, as well as several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased in 2005 by her husband of 49 years, Arthur D. Webster. She was also predeceased by her sisters, Annie Matties and Theresa Robinson.

Following cremation, a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Friday April 5, at 10 a.m., in St. Jude's Parish, 435 Mammoth Rd., Londonderry, NH. Burial will follow in Holy Cross Cemetery, Londonderry. Memorial donations may be made to the St. Jude Parish Building Fund. # Farrell Nominates Chad Franz as Town Council Chair

LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Town Council has new leadership, after John Farrell decided to step down as Chair, during the annual reorganization meeting.

In his announcement, Farrell said he has been serving the town for 25 years, beginning with the Planning Board for 10 years. For 15 years, he has been on the Town Council, where he was Chair for six years, and then was Chair for 10 out of the last 12 years.

"During my tenure, we have had four Town Managers, three police chiefs, five fire chiefs, multiple department heads, dozens and dozens of retirements, new hires and many award ceremonies," Farrell said.

He said when his wife Sherry's family arrived in Londonderry, there were approximately 5,400 residents in town, and when he got to town there were about 19,800 people.

Now the town has approximately 29,000 residents.

"The community has grown and has changed," Farrell said.

Farrell went through a number of things that have been approved by the voters during his tenure, including additional public safety positions.

"The community continues to expect excellent services from its leadership," Farrell said.

Farrell described himself as being a "transplant here, never heard of Londonderry until I met my wife, you know fell in love here, little did I know, the town was part of the deal."

He said they got married at St. Jude's, raised their family in town, and now their kids have decided to make Londonderry their home.

"It has been an honor and a privilege of a lifetime to serve and to continue to serve the community I love," Farrell said.

Farrell nominated Chad Franz, who was Farrell's Vice Chair to take over the gavel, and for Ted Combes to be Vice Chair, which was unanimously approved by the rest of the Town Council.

Franz during his prepared remarks thanked his family for allowing him to dedicate time to the community and said being picked as the new Chair is both a "deep honor and privilege for me."

"I want to express my gratitude to you for your ongoing and continued dedication and leadership," Farrell said.

"John, your guidance is invaluable and I eagerly look forward to continuing the work with you as we collectively shape the future of our community and unite in a commitment to our Town," he added.

Franz also acknowledged Jim Butler who lost his bid for re-election, and also congratulated Shawn Faber, who beat Butler.

"Jim, thank you for your service," he said.

Franz said "my commitment, my love for this community is boundless," saying that while they may not always agree, he is committed to the town and will have respect as they navigate differences.

"And always putting Londonderry first as we always have," Franz said.

Tax

"I think we have done a pretty good job at that," Malaguti said.

It was also noted by Malaguti that he has no concerns with the Tax Collector working enough hours.

"The Tax Collector is one of the hardest working people in the building," Malaguti said.

The Town Council unanimously approved Allison Parsons to be reappointed as Tax Collector with a salary of $73,916.44.

Also during the meeting, Malaguti said they needed to make an appointment for the Deputy Town Clerk, which they do periodically, similar to the tax collector position.

He explained that the appointment comes from the Town Clerk with the approval of the Town Council.

"This evening the Town Clerk has appointed Allison Parsons to be the Deputy Town Clerk," Malaguti said.

He noted they would be returning to a model they have had in the past, with Parsons as both the Deputy Town Clerk and Tax Collector.

According to the Town's website, Christie Campbell was serving in that role.

The Town Council unanimously approved making Parsons the Deputy Clerk.

rant article, which voters overwhelmingly approved during the Town Election.

The warrant article asked voters if they wanted to see a change to the Municipal code making public comment required at all official meetings at the beginning and at the end of meetings. The vote was 3,085 to 1,077 in support of the change.

"Based on the election results, would we be able to have public comment at the beginning and at the end of the meeting?" Dunn asked.

Since the warrant article was advisory only, after being changed during the Deliberative Session, it meant that it was non binding.

Farrell said they need to have more discussion about that change.

It was also explained by Farrell that he was not aware about anything in the Town Charter that requires that they adopt their rules annually.

Additionally, Farrell said he felt that they needed to get legal advice from their Town Counsel to find out if the proposed rules would be legal for them to adopt, and whether or not they are required to adopt the rules each year.

Other Town councilors agreed with Farrell.

"See what the new lawyer says," Farrell said.

Finally Here

The first day of spring was March 18th, and so far spring really is living up to its age-old theme of rebirth this year.

It's hard to have negative feelings when the peepers start calling, the leaves start to show, the early flowers are in bloom, the birds are back, baseball is on the radio or TV, and the sky is a brilliant blue.

We've had a good run so far this year with a mild and short winter, a spring without floods, and it would be a good bet that many of our readers spent in their yards and gardens on those warmer days.

We've been more fortunate than others across the country, even here in the state, where floods have impacted major cities, snowstorms have been heavy, and schools have been cancelled routinely for bad weather. It's not just in our country that the weather patterns can be cruel. It seems like the last 2 years we have had a strange weather patterns, not good or bad, just different.

In that spirit, it's a good time of year to turn over the proverbial new leaf, and pursue something you haven't tried before. This could range from a new vegetable or flower to grow, to a decision like volunteering in your community by serving on a committee or helping out a nonprofit. Perhaps learn a new sport, or visit someplace different. Many of us think nothing of traveling far away to see the sights, but there are plenty of places to visit close to home that invite us to learn more about the place we have chosen to live.

Consider the Londonderry and Hudson Historical Societies, the Rail Trails and Towns Conservation lands that open up natural areas that often are literally in our own backyard, or the historical museums that each of our towns offer that help explain the past.

Look at spring and its welcoming weather that invites us outdoors as a doorway to all kinds of things new as well as an excuse to sit on a lawn chair and relax in the sun.

The winter may not have been long but it was cold, and we are more than ready for the warmth of this new season.

Council, Londonderry Is Speaking. Are You Listening? Part 1 of 2

To the editor,

Unrest and discord permeate the Town Council meetings while dissatisfaction and untrust pervade Londonderry's government. For quite some time, Londonderry Town Council has resisted and even at times opposed the will of its citizens for its request for a more fair, transparent and open form of government that operates with decency and respect for the common good and most importantly for its citizens. The last several years have reeked of poor management, lack of decency, control, and proper etiquette – all of which have no place within Londonderry's government.

Rewind to the 2019 Town Council election where Deb Paul was elected. Right from the get-go, some Town Councilors stopped at nothing to bully, harass and intimidate Councilor Paul during her tenure, to the point where Council members angrily yelled and accosted her during council meetings.

As of late, Town Council Chairman Farrell has reminded the Town to "be kind" during council meetings, but where were these words when you allowed other council members to shout and scream at Councilor Paul. Were you not affording kindness at that time? Or were only certain people entitled to kindness?

Shortly thereafter, one of those Town Council members, Joe Green, a longtime incumbent, who voted for and in support of Malaguti's behavior was up for re-election. He lost. Londonderry Town Council, Londonderry is speaking. Are you listening?

Shortly after that, Town Manager Malaguti filed a frivolous sexual harassment lawsuit against Deb Paul. Despite repeated requests to obtain a copy of a document shown to her outlining these frivolous allegations, Paul was denied and forced to file suit in Rockingham County Superior Court to obtain the document. After months of waiting and resistance by the Town, the Court agrees with Paul, issues a scathing order against Malaguti calling out his conduct as frivolous, and awards Paul her attorney's fees. No kindness there, and once again no accountability for Town Manager Malaguti.

During multiple town council meetings, the residents of Londonderry have come out and expressed their dissatisfaction with the town's government only to be dismissed, ignored or not recognized. Concerns over lack of transparency, public participation, and accountability were all thrown by the wayside with comments that this small majority does not represent Londonderry.

Fast forward to the Town's deliberative session. TM Malaguti gives his state of the town address. This address was disgusting, disrespectful, unprofessional and inappropriate. At no time did any of the Town Councilors stop or interject during the address to provide decency, kindness and decorum to the meeting, to let Malaguti know that speaking ill of any resident or business owner is not how Londonderry operates and that his behavior has no place in Londonderry.

Londonderry Town Council, Londonderry is speaking...are you listening?

Cassidy Continues as Budget Committee Chairman

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Following the Town Elections that took place earlier in the month, the Budget Committee held its annual reorganization meeting on March 21.

One of the agenda items was to pick the different officer positions for the Committee.

Selected as Chair for the second year in a row was Patrick Cassidy, and re-elected as Vice Chair was Joseph Gagnon, and selected as Secretary was Kate Burbidge.

In addition to picking the officer positions, the Budget Committee also discussed its plans for the spring and summer before they begin having budget hearings later this year.

Cassidy said last year they did tours of the fire department, police department, the DPW, and the schools, during the summer.

He noted that they also met with Finance Director, Justin Campo, and with School District Business Administrator, Lisa McKenney, to discuss the budget process since they had six new members. They also had a presentation by Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, about 91A rules and regulations.

"That was a lot," Cassidy said.

Cassidy asked if they needed to do those presentations and tours again.

"I think it's beneficial, I really do," Gagnon said.

Gagnon said it is important to see what has changed since when they did the tours they are able to hear from the different departments about what they are planning proposing in the budget or for warrant articles.

"We can see those things that they're talking about," Gagnon said.

Gagnon also said they will also be able to answer questions for residents in town as well if they get more information in advance.

"I think it's important," he said.

In addition to the Police Department, DPW, Fire Department, and school tours, Cassidy suggested that they add the library to the tour.

"That's the tour we didn't do," he said.

In addition, it was suggested that they also tour Lions Hall, potentially doing it during the DPW tour, and also doing a tour of the SAU.

Budget Committee member, Jason Goldman, said one thing he wants to see throughout the year is how departments are looking to be innovative with their budgets for the upcoming year, including providing a better service within the budget, reducing the budget, or somehow offsetting department budgets with more revenue.

Cassidy said they could respond to the questions they ask the departments during the liaison reports in order to provide that information periodically to the rest of the Budget Committee.

Patrick said he doesn't think they need to have Campo and McKenney come and talk to them about the budget process this year since everyone, but Dave Plaza was around last year unless they think they need to talk to them.

The next Budget Committee meeting is slated to take place on April 18 at 7 p.m.

Utilities Committee to Look at Community Solar Project

PAUL CONYERS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Utilities Committee at their March meeting with a new idea on how to best utilize solar power in Londonderry.

"The town of Jaffrey is contacting Revision Energy to create what is called a community solar farm," said Committee Member, Mike Speltz. "The idea is they'll set this farm up, and if you're a renter and can't put a setup or have a house in a shaded area, this would be an opportunity to have the benefit of a solar array without having to have one on your house. You would just buy a share."

Speltz floated the possibility of doing something similar in Londonderry with the Auburn Road site. He suggested more research into the matter to see how feasible such a project might be.

"It reduces the upfront capital cost because the shareholders are providing the capital," he added.

Nobody was sure how or if federal block grant funds might be used for shareholders in a community project and the Committee voted to gather more information.

Committee members considered reconfiguring their sewer and water subcommittees to work closer together.

"It's all kind of in the same vein, it's a couple of different components of water and I don't know if it would be worth our while to break up pieces of that discussion," said Alternate member, Joy Muller.

The Committee had also been discussing an in-depth look at the Master Plan to see where the planned expansion of the town water system would fit into their responsibilities.

Member, Anne Fenn, noted that water is "a huge issue" in Londonderry and raised the possibility of asking the town to hire an environmental expert.

"You could have a graduate student working part-time, or you could have an internship. I just think these water issues are big enough and complicated enough that we need some expertise," argued Fenn. "I think we should think about ways to encourage the town to move in that direction."

She conceded that any new position would need to find some way to pay for their expert, but saw it as worthwhile. Most of the Committee thought it was a good idea.

"I think there'd be interest. You'll need to formulate it and get it in a warrant article to get it approved," said state presentative liaison, Ron Dunn. "I think if you want to do this, you have nine months to work on it and get it developed so you can present it next January. If you're going to pay a graduate student, you're going to need funding."

Finding graduates through research grant funding was another possible option. Fenn promised to find out what was available and to come up with a one-page summary of what expertise the town might need.

The Utilities Committee is scheduled to meet again on Tuesday, April 2, at 7 p.m. on the first floor of the Moose Hill Council Chambers.

partment heads, dozens and dozens of retirements, new hires, and award ceremonies. The voters supported a new Town Hall, Police station, and 3 Fire Stations.

When my wife's family arrived in Londonderry, the population was approximately 5,400 people, upon my arrival, it was 19,800 people and we now sit at almost 27,000 with 8,000 + dwellings. The community has grown and changed. As an original member of the Open Space Task Force, we developed a plan, that the voters approved, to preserve open space in town. The town now controls more than 1,500 acres of land that will remain undeveloped. This reduced our build out capacity from 43,000 to less than 32,500.

The Town Council has presented many increases in services, approved by the voters, and several new hires, specifically additional first respondents. We increased staffing levels for Police, including adding 4 additional SROs in our schools since 2010, increased staffing for our fire personnel, and increased Public Works staffing to maintain our over 170 miles of roads. We are lucky to have an excellent team of first responders. The Town has also secured millions of dollars in infrastructure funding from the federal government.

The goal remains the same protect this community at all costs. We have five items that matter every day in town government: (1) Police are well trained, have the equipment/resources needed to respond; (2) Fire is well trained, have the equipment/resources needed to respond; (3) the roads are plowed and well maintained; (4) most importantly, protecting the children in our schools; and (5) pick up the trash/recycling. We now need to introduce a 6th item as the top priority. With the approval of the Water Article, the goal is to bring clean safe drinking water to all of Londonderry.

It has been the honor and a privilege of a lifetime to serve and continue to serve the community I love. I am a transplant here; I had never heard of Londonderry until I met my wife and fell in love. Little did I know, the town was part of the deal. We were married in town, raised our family here, and now our children have made Londonderry their home.

This is my home. We have many things to be proud of. We always look forward; we don't dwell on the past. Our town leaders put service above self and love our community.

At our Town Council meeting on March 18, I nominated Chad Franz to serve as our new chair and Ted Combes to serve as our new Vice Chair. Chad and Ted care greatly for our community. I am excited for the town's next chapter.

Biden's Failed Presidency

To the editor,
Biden's a laughing-stock to our allies and enemies due to foreign policy weakness, senility and inability to hold coherent conversations. China's become a major player in the mid-East where America was once dominant. Saudi Arabia insulted by Biden and once a staunch ally gave Biden the finger when Biden asked for more oil to offset his cuts to American oil production. European countries are again looking to Russia to supply oil and natural gas as Biden shut down LNG exports in pursuit of his unpopular and costly clean energy initiatives.

The Ukraine war, China's aggression against Taiwan, Iran's support of its proxy attacks on American forces and North Korea's threats result from Biden's mental and physical weakness, naivety and Afghanistan withdrawal debacle. Biden spends billions on renewable energy contributing only 13% of America's energy while China opens a coal-fired power plant every week for the next 10 years. Biden allowed the Monroe Doctrine to no longer be sacrosanct written in 1823 to deter enemies such as China gaining influence and naval ports in South America.

China is pushing countries to replace the US Dollar with their trading currencies devaluing the Dollar and strengthening China's push for world dominance. Trump's 4-year average inflation declined 43% ending his term at 1.4%; whereas Biden's 3-year inflation through December 2023 was 3.7% solely because of the Federal Reserve's bank rate loan policies.

The Fed's work of controlling inflation was and is exasperated by Biden's spending billions through executive orders such as forgiving those who worked their way through college or didn't go to college but are paying for others college education. Bailed out a truckers' union pension fund with $36B via executive order using taxpayer taxes to assure union votes. Biden's clean energy policy subsidizes up to $7,500 per vehicle via executive order with taxpayer money for over 4 million EV sales when America is majorly against EVs with automakers cutting EV production due to lack of demand and production losses.

Billions to cover housing/food/clothing/transportation/cell phones/credit cards for illegals by concealing use of COVID relief funds and other taxpayer taxes. Biden's open borders have subjected Americans to murderers/rapists/child sex trafficking/robberies/drug trafficking and over 75K fentanyl deaths in 2023 alone. Biden and his handlers don't care, it's future Democrat votes. With Biden's reelection looking shaky, Biden put forth a so-called border security bill that only pays more attorneys and judges to process illegal entrants and no money to actually secure the border. For political purposes, Biden knew Republicans would veto this charade.

The implementation of DEI, CRT and other woke policies have divided America majorly against such policies.

Weaponization of DOJ against anyone who disagrees with Biden's policies including Trump to keep him from reelection. 68% of Americans think Biden is corrupt or committed unethical acts in coordination with son Hunter. 76% think America is headed in wrong direction under Biden and his socialist handlers. By all accounts, Biden's presidency is a failure.

Aristocats Kids Hit the Ovation Stage This Weekend

Ovation Theatre Company's production of The Aristocats Kids hits the Ovation Studios stage next weekend. This colorful musical features a talented cast of young performers. In the heart of Paris, a kind and eccentric millionairess wills her entire estate to Duchess, her high-society cat, and her three little kittens. Laughs and adventure ensue as the greedy, bumbling butler pulls off the ultimate cat-nap caper. Now it's up to the rough-and-tumble alley cat, Thomas O'Malley, and his band of swingin' jazz cats to save the day. Based on the beloved Disney film, and featuring a jazzy, upbeat score, The Aristocats Kids is a non-stop thrill ride of feline fun, complete with unbelievable twists and turns.

Charlotte Van Ledtje plays Duchess. "She's very proper – very elegant. I love playing Duchess, because she's very different from other characters (she's played). She's different from me, so she's a little bit of a stretch to play."

Crosby Curtis (Thomas O'Malley) enjoys getting to move like a cat and points out that his full name is Abraham De Lacey Giuseppe Casey Thomas O'Malley. "He's just kind of wild. That kind of fits my personality."

Charlotte Latour plays Scat Cat. "No matter what's happening, they're always going to be cool. I love 'Everybody Wants to be a Cat.' It's the iconic song of the show."

Cooper Jean describes his character, Napoleon, as a "fierce leader. I love being able to march with my friends – the dog brigade."

The Aristocats Kids is directed by Jenna Sullivan, with Music Direction by Michaela Horan and Choreography by Ryan Kaplan and great support from Stage Manager Maddy Buchanan.

The youth cast is drawn from all over southern and eastern

New Hampshire: Cooper Jean, Ella Kearns, Alice Kevorkian, Charlotte Latour, Ally Nicholas, Hailey Penta, Lily Tessier and Eden Timinski of Londonderry; Arabella Olivia Clark, Lyra Dominguez, Morgan Haverty and Mirabel Welch of Derry; Levi

Freilich, Mackenzie Ryan and Sarah Snyder of Hampstead; Gianna Benoit of Salem; Aliyah Gunawan of Manchester; Clara Curtis and Crosby Curtis of Brentwood; and Charlotte Van Ledtje of Durham.

The Aristocats Kids will be presented on Friday, March 29 at 6 and 8 p.m. and Saturday, March 30 at 1, 3 and 6 p.m. at Ovation Studios (61 Harvey Road, Londonderry). Pre-sale discounted tickets are available through 3/22 for $10 and then go to $12. Tickets are on sale at OvationTC.com.

LONDONDERRY SPORTS

Future Looking Bright for the Lady Lancers Basketball

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Girls' Basketball team has a lot of potential heading into the 2024-25 season.

The team was still very young this year, losing just one player to graduation, and the Lady Lancers still came away with receiving the third seed in Division I State Championship, making it to the semifinals.

If the team has all their players return next season, they will end up with six senior players and four juniors.

The squad certainly was head and shoulders above most of their DI rivals, winning 16 of the 18 regular season games and two of three in the playoffs, but fell to Pinkerton Academy in the semifinals.

Varsity head coach, Jon Doherty, knew getting by the Astros was going to be tough, but was impressed with the growth of the team this year.

Doherty said, "I felt this season went about as expected, very young, a lot of growth was shown, but a lot more needs to be done in order for us to get to UNH. I bring back 11 of 12 players and have a couple exciting young players coming up into the system as well. I am looking forward to getting this team as much adversity in the off-season as possible. Future is bright and I am excited to get things going."

The team's starters put up some impressive numbers, averaging about 60-points per game, but the titling-winning team from Bedford High School had nearly a 70-point average.

As far as individual stats this season, sophomore standout Samantha Sullivan led her team in scoring. In her 17 games, Sullivan had a total of 312-points, averaging 18.4 points per game and had a 31-point game for her season high.

Fellow sophomore, Brooke Eacrett, played in 18-games with a season total of 214-points, averaging 11.9 points per game. Eacrett had a 20-point season high game.

Freshman guard, Gemma Murray, scored a total of 159-points in the 18 games she played in, finishing with 7.1 points per game. Murray had a 21-point season high game.

Junior guard, Reagan Anderson, averaged 4.7 points per game in her 18 appearances, scoring a total of 85-points this season.

Junior guard, Kate Sloper, appeared in 15 games and averaged 4.7 points per game, scoring a total of 70-points.

Londonderry had three players chosen by the New Hampshire Basketball Coaches Organization for their outstanding season. Sullivan was named to the state's First Team, while Eacrett and Anderson were given Honorable Mention.

Boys Basketball Squad Continued to Build this Season

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

After getting off to a rather slow start this season, the Londonderry High School Boys' Basketball team was able to climb back into the Division I standing and make it into the State Championship.

The Lancers finished in the middle of the division pack this year, at 9-9, a three-win improvement over last year's 6-12 finish.

They entered this year's playoff tournament as the #11 seed and were quickly knocked out by Windham High School in the first round.

Senior Center, Ty Miles, was the team's high scorer this year, after sitting out his entire junior year due to an injury.

Miles tallied 13.8 points per game and played in all 18 contests. He also led in rebounds, averaging 10.4, 4.4 on offense and 5.9 on defense.

Junior guard, Mason Paquette, played in 17 games, averaging 12.5 points and averaging 5.8 rebounds per game.

Both Miles and Paquette received Honorable Mention by the New Hampshire Basketball Coaches Organization at the end of the season.

Senior forward, Ryan Williams, put up 11.1 points per game, with 3.3 rebounds per game.

Head coach, Jaryd Piccush, was positive about the team's chances moving forward.

Piccush commented, "Overall it was a successful season for the boys, improving on last year's record by going 9-9. We had a big win at Keene, at Windham (their only home loss), and on senior night against Memorial. We competed in just about every game, and had the lead in the fourth quarter against some good teams but just couldn't hold on. The boys were very close this year so it will be tough replacing the seniors, but the group that is coming back are already talking about how they can make a big impact next year."

He added, "We graduate six seniors and are slated to return nine players next year."

'Run the Rail Trail 5-Miler' Set for May 4 at the Aviation Museum

The charity run/derry Rail Trail; the walk event route deadline for early dis-

Sunday, March 31

Get outside and welcome spring with the 3rd annual 'Run the Rail Trail 5-Miler' on Saturday, May 4.

Starting and finishing at the Aviation Museum, the run/walk event will take participants on a winding route through North Londonderry, highlighted by the newest stretch of the Londonderry Rail Trail.

The race starts at 9 a.m. and is open to all runners and walkers. The event is a fundraiser to support the non-profit Aviation Museum's youth education programs, which include upcoming summer camps and three high school student plane-building projects around the state.

Registration for the 'Run the Rail Trail 5-Miler' is $25 through Sunday, March 31; for those 12 and under and 62 and above, the fee is discounted to $20. Starting Monday, April 1, the fee is $30 for all. Registration on Race Day is $35 per person. The first 100 registrants will receive an official "Run the Rail Trail 5-Miler" shirt.

Participants may register online at runsignup.com; under "Find a Race," search for "Aviation Museum." More information is also available at aviationmuseumofnh.org.

Starting at the Aviation Museum of N.H.'s historic 1937 terminal building at 27 Navigator Road, the course will first wind through lightly trafficked streets, including a nearly one-mile stretch of forest path through undeveloped land.

The route, which includes one water stop, will then take participants along the recently opened 1.2-mile section of the Londonderry Rail Trail, which passes through the remote Little Cohas Brook Reservoir area.

The route will then take runners and walkers back to the Aviation Museum and the finish line.

Because the route includes a stretch of unimproved forest trails, the event is not recommended for participants with strollers. Also, no pets are allowed.

Traffic control and security will be provided by the Londonderry Police and Fire departments.

The Aviation Museum is also seeking volunteers for Race Day. If you're interested in helping out, contact Leah Dearborn at (603) 669-4877 or at ldearborn@nhahs.org.

born@nhahs.org.

In addition, the museum is seeking business and community sponsors to help defray the costs of organizing the event. For information about sponsorships, contact Jeff Rapsis at (603) 236-9237 or at jrapis@nhahs.org.

The Aviation Museum is located at 27 Navigator Road, off Harvey Road, Londonderry.

For more information, visit aviationmuseumofnh.org or call (603) 669-4877.

OBITUARY

Lawrence F. Warhall

Lawrence F. Warhall, 87, of Londonderry died on March 14, 2024 at home, as he wished, surrounded by his loving family. The cause was congestive heart failure. A resident of Derry and Londonderry since 1970, Lawrence was born in Fall River, MA., in 1936, the son of Walter and Mary (Burke) Warhall. Larry grew up in Fall River attending Sacred Heart Grammar School and Monsignor James Coyle High School. During high school he worked at Paul Woltman's men's clothing store in Fall River. From 1955 to 1957 Larry was stationed in post WWII Berlin with the US Army as a military police officer. In 1959 Larry married his high school sweetheart, Dolores L. St. Pierre, also of Fall River, who he remained married to for 59 years. In 1961 Larry graduated from Bradford Durfee College of Technology (now SMU) with a degree in Business Administration. During college he worked at Globe Manufacturing Co. and Plymouth Printing Co. in Fall River.

From 1961 to 1970 Larry worked for Ford as an accountant and Ralston Purina Company managing egg processing plants throughout the Midwest and NY. In 1970 he and his family returned to New England where he managed the Agway egg processing plant in Derry. In 1971, while still working full-time, he began attending New England School of Law at night, graduating in 1975. After passing the bar exam, he had his first law office at Buckley's Egg Express in Derry, later joining with Edmund Boutin and Robert Fryer at the law practice of Fryer, Boutin and Warhall. In keeping with his egg processing background one of his first clients was Jack Radlo of Radlo Foods who became a lifelong friend.

Larry later sat part-time as a Judge in Derry District Court from 1981 and became the full-time Judge of Derry District Court in 1988, retiring in 2004. In retirement he continued to work with Jack Radlo and taught law courses part time.

In addition to serving as a judge, Larry served the Derry community on the board of directors for the Boys and Girls Club, the Sunshine Soup Kitchen, the Hoodkroft Country Club, Parkland Medical Center and the Domestic Violence Council of Derry.

Larry's most important ambition in life was to care for his family and serve as a judge in Derry District Court and other NH courts in a fair and impartial manner. His personal life exemplified these principles.

In his free time Larry liked to travel, wintering in Florida with his wife Dolores and family and friends, was an avid reader and lover of history, liked to golf, play cards and enjoyed a Manhattan or a gin martini.

Larry is predeceased by his wife, Dolores L. Warhall, his sister, Margaret M. Curtis and her husband, James F. Curtis. He is survived by his three sons, Lawrence F. Warhall Jr. and his wife, Amy Hughes of Ave Maria, FL, Mark Warhall and his wife, Mio Olsson of Brooklyn, NY, Joseph Warhall and his wife, Diana Warhall of Sunapee, NH, and his daughter, Lynda Warhall of Londonderry, NH and the two children that are a presence in her life, Samuel Smith and Gage Piwowarczyk. He is also survived by three grandchildren whom he cherished, his grandson, Dillon Warhall, granddaughter, Danielle Maguire and her wife Mackenzie Maguire and granddaughter, Alva Olsson. In addition to his grandchildren he leaves 6 nieces and nephews from his sister's family; James, Marybeth, Jeffery, Shelia, Margaret and Annie who he was very close to. Also, his friend and neighbor, Judy Reilly, was a constant comfort.

Dad, you will be deeply missed but never forgotten. May you rest in eternal peace, knowing you are forever loved. Until we meet again may God hold you in his hands.

Funeral service and celebration of life dates for Larry will be forthcoming. The Peabody Funeral Homes and Crematorium of Derry and Londonderry are assisting the family with arrangements. To send a condolence or for more information, please visit, www.peabodyfuneralhome.com.

Classified Advertising

READERS ARE CAUTIONED that we occasionally run ads that require an initial investment or money in advance. We urge our readers to "do their homework" before responding to any ad, check out the advertiser thoroughly and verify their claims to your total satisfaction. Only then should you proceed at your own risk. We try to screen ads that require you to send money before receiving a product or service. But these efforts are no substitute for your own investigation, and we don't endorse or guarantee any claims made in any of the ads we publish. If you want more information about claims made in ads on subjects such as work at home opportunities, travel or vacation specials, purchasing land or vehicles from government surplus or below wholesale, loans or other credit opportunities (including credit repair), or weight loss and other health products and services, we urge you to contact the Office of Attorney General, Consumer Protection Bureau, 33 Capitol Street, Concord, NH 03301 (603-271-3641) or the Better Business Bureau at 603-224-1991. Publisher is not responsible for any loss of business if an ad does not run, and we reserve the right to revoke any ad if deemed necessary. No refunds will be given for prepaid ads.
