

Voting Concerns Raised by Derry Town Council

CASEY ELDRED
NUTFIELD NEWS

DERRY - During the Derry Town Council meeting held on Tuesday, June 2, concerns were voiced about upcoming elections this fall and discussed by the Council with Cristina "Tina" Gilford, the newly elected Town Moderator.

Gilford presented a detailed list of COVID-19 related issues to be addressed before the upcoming elections in Derry scheduled for September 8, 2020, the State Primary, and November 3, 2020, the General Election.

The main issued discussed by Town Moderator

Gilford and the Council were polling locations, social distancing restrictions, personal protective equipment use by voters and ballot clerks, Gilford's main concern was the problem with the polling locations currently in place for most of Derry's citizens. Voting Districts I and IV use Gilbert H. Hood Middle School as their polling location. West Running Brook Middle School serves as the polling location for District III. The polling location for District II is Calvary Bible Church. According to the school's calendar, September 8 is a school day.

Assuming that schools open in the fall with social distancing restrictions in place, it is unlikely that it will be possible to use school gymnasiums and libraries as polling locations like the town has in past elections.

Gilford explained to the Council that "as everything sits right now, if they [students] go back to school they will most probably need the gym for classroom space." This leaves only one safe polling location for all of Derry's voters, Calvary Bible Church.

Gilford brought up the option of absentee voting to provide a safe option for

Chester Selectmen Discuss Possible Solar Panel Farm

KELSEY DERHAK
NUTFIELD NEWS

CHESTER - The Chester Board of Selectman held another virtual meeting on Monday, June with only one main agenda item for the meeting and that was hearing from Ned Raynolds, who works at Revision Energy on an upcoming project in the town.

The project would entail installing standing solar panels, which stand about ten feet off the ground and would be on a five to six acre plot of land owned by one of the Chester residents. The Strandell family, of Chester, reached out to Revision Energy to help with the project. This is not something that is new to the Town of Chester, as the Strandell's have thought about doing this project before, but have tabled it until now.

Raynolds discussed the general plan of the solar farm to see what the board would require to continue on in the process of getting the solar panels installed on the designated land. Revision Energy, the company that would be undertaking the project, has been installing solar panels for the past 17 years. The Company started in the state of Maine and is now working into New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Their recent projects include buildings in New Hampshire and the rooftop of Dover High School. It was noted that this "would be one of the first ground projects of its kind in the state of New Hampshire," said Raynolds.

The company, in part, looks for landowners who want to continue to own their own land, but put it to good use. This particular project is proposed on a piece of land that is not really used for any high commercial use and would not produce any emissions or noise. The installation of the solar panels would also not be visible from the road.

The main concern, and also the reason for the

Pinkerton 2020 Graduates Celebrated with Salute

This was certainly not the end of year celebration the Pinkerton Acadmy senior graduates were planning on, but Nutfield Publishing hopes that the future will bring great things for all members the Class of 2020.

On the day the Class of 2020 expected to hold there graduation ceremony, the school held a Salute to Seniors parade for students and staff to have an afternoon of fun in supporting the class.

Currently, because of the pandemic social distancing order, the official graduation ceremony is scheduled to take place as a Facebook Live event on on June 14 at 7 p.m. and will combine elements of the traditional baccalaureate and graduation speeches.

On Monday through Wednesday, June 15 to the 16, Diplomas will handed out at scheduled times. Students will arrive in caps and gowns and walk across a stage on campus and receive their diplomas. Families will be able to watch from their cars.

Derry Zoning Board Grants Four Variance Proposals

DAVID JOHNSON

DERRY - The first matter brought before the Zoning Board of Adjustments at their June 4 meeting was brought forward by resident Vahik Malichian, who wishes to put a detached garage next to his house, which would be only five-feet from the property line at one corner of the structure and eight feet from another corner. In his application for the variance, he stated that his neighbor did not object to his wish to build the garage. Ironically, the overload of cars in the gentleman's driveway is caused by the fact that his two collage sons are constantly at home because of their COVID-19 related absence from their school. After describing his garage location challenges, one of the board members, who's familiar with Malichian's lot, agreed with the accuracy of his evaluation of the situation. After board members deliberated the matter, they agreed unanimously, 5-0 to allow the process to move forward.

Next, Tim Poliquin, of Promised Land Survey LLC, brought an application forward to the board for a Derry couple who wish to build a new home on a vacant lot.

The potential for a variance requirement seemed to be based upon the couple's desire to put in a two family home with a small footprint in an area that already has single and multi-family homes, many of which are on smaller lots. The square footage requirements contributed to the requirement for the variance.

One abutter in support of the variance called in to raise a question regarding the potential for the loss of her right of way to access her lot, but the easements in question would not be limited by the construction of the new driveway, but the easements are specific for pedestrian use, not automobile use, negating the cause for the abutter's concern. There was no opposition to the variance. The Board's unanimous deliberation resulted in a good potential for approval for a single family house due to the small size of the empty lot, but not for a two family house.

Kevin Hatch, of Cornerstone Survey Authority, represented a couple who want to build a two-family house in an area specified for single-family houses.

Hatch explained that the presence of a two-family house would not negatively impact the characteristics of the neighborhood, as there are already multi-family, twenty-four unit condos in the immediate area.

Hatch's client explained that the lot in question is surrounded by multi-family buildings, so the proposal for a two-family building certainly would not change the characteristics of the neighborhood.

No abutters opposed the variance proposal. The results of the Board's deliberation was to grant the variance 4-1. The single dissenter voted against the variance purely on technical ground, not upon present circumstances.

Finally, David Dalton brought an application for a variance so they could build a deck on the lake side of their house, over an existing patio, less than 15 feet from the property line with the stairway creating the concern. The DES Corporation brought no opposition. The board's deliberation resulted in a 5-0 vote to grant the variance.

Hampstead Selectmen Delay Town Fireworks Display to Aug. 1

DAVID JOHNSON

HAMPSTEAD - During the Monday, June 8 Hampstead Board of Selectmen meeting, Hampstead Civic Club President Kris Eiro took up the discussion of what to do about the Fourth of July Fireworks display this year.

The Civic Club has hosted the event every year at the Town Green, along with a number of activities, but this year, due to the COVID-19 Pandemic most of that annual celebration won't be possible.

Eiro started by telling Selectmen that the group is not ready, at this point, to put on the festival that was originally scheduled for the end of June, but suggested something in a smaller form next month.

Eiro said, "I don't want to cancel the festival altogether, but I don't know what we could do if we had it this month."

Selectman Chair, Sean Murphy looked to clarify if Eiro was talking about just the fireworks or the entire festive that usually takes place all day on Saturday.

Eiro stated that the club's biggest concern was how to manage, and police, the social distancing aspect of the current state requirements.

She suggested that the fireworks display be held off another month, or until towns were given new guidelines by the state.

The board agreed by saying that having just the fireworks would be the best course of action.

There was also some discussion on what to call the celebration, since it would no longer be held during the Fourth of July time period.

Eiro was still looking for guidance from the board as to whether the fireworks display was still feasible for the end of June. Parking on the Town Green, as well as at St. Anne's and Central School was discussed.

She also wanted to try and get an idea of when Selectmen thought that the event could happen, since the Civic Club still needs to plan other events.

The general feeling from the Selectmen was that it would be best to postpone the celebration.

A tentative date of Saturday, Aug. 1, was given to Eiro so that the Civics Club could begin planning for the event and to line up a vendor, but they plan on firming up the date at their next meeting.

Eiro told the board that she would bring the idea back to her club members and solidify holding just the fireworks celebration.

Voting

voters that might feel unsafe, as well as reduce the number of voters at the polls while still encourage voter participation.

The Council supported the idea overall and discussed the current protocol surrounding absentee voting. Voters can request an absentee ballot any time from now until 5 p.m. on the day before the election, for both September and November. Gilford also noted that Governor Chris Sununu has stated that those concerned with COVID-19 are covered by the disability exemption for requesting an absentee ballot.

The Council discussed publicly promoting and encouraging absentee ballots as an option for voters in Derry in the near future.

Councilor at Large James P. Morgan called for the creation of a committee consisting of Gilford, multiple Councilmen, and other town officials that would be responsible for creating multiple plans for the various situations that could occur by the fall.

Morgan also proposed an entirely outdoor polling location at Don Ball Park with a voting tent and handicap accessible voting in the parking lot. Ultimately, Mogan expressed that this issue could not be solved in that meeting or with a singular plan.

The Council also debated requiring voters to wear masks to the polls. Councilman Joshua Bourdon advocated for mandating facemasks on both the September and November election days. He also stated that if the Council were to decide to mandate masks, they should be prepared to provide enough mask for every voter. Other members of the Council, including Councilman Richard P. Tripp and Morgan, believe that a face-mask mandate will cause backlash from a number of voters.

Gilford and the Council also shared concerns that a lack of continuity between polling locations would cause confusion among voters and possibly discourage participation.

Funding for COVID-19 related accommodations for election day were also included in the discussion. Gilford and the Council both recognize that it is still being determined how much funding the state will provide. Councilman Morgan was vocal about his belief that executing a safe and accessible election will be expensive, but that it is necessary.

Ultimately, all the Councilors agreed that as the fourth largest city in New Hampshire, Derry should aim to set an example of the most safe and effective election possible.

The Council moved forward with the decision to form a committee to address the issues and accommodations regarding the impact of COVID-19 on the upcoming Derry elections. Councilmen Wetherbee, Bourdon and Morgan will be members of the committee, along with a representative from the Derry Police or Fire Department, Moderator Gilford, and other election staff. The committee will focus on location, safety, logistics, and publicizing information to voters.

Graduation Wishes for the Class of 2020

Graduation is a moment that marks the end of the last days of "childhood". It represents a defining moment in life and a starting point toward the future. The class of 2020, the pandemic class, you are being asked to step into the future whatever it may be with even more purpose, more vision, more passion, and even more hope for the future. I wish, I could tell you, I know the path forward, I don't, and there is so much uncertainty in the world today. What I do know is that you have the strength and imagination to be amazing and this will sustain you through whatever is coming. It's the resourcefulness that you have learned, along with how to deal with the fear of stepping into the unknown. That will make this class shine above all others.

Resembling a phoenix rising from the ashes, your class has risen up to the challenges caused by this pandemic we are currently experiencing. You now have an opportunity to create and define the new normal, using your abilities and leadership, to demonstrate how you will mold your world. Take pleasure and satisfaction, for the person you have become and what you have accomplished so far in your life. Keep in mind, your family, friends, and neighbors, are proud of you as well. The pandemic may have taken away the ceremonies and the parties, but it cannot take away the pride you have in yourself and all of the great possibilities that lie ahead for each of you.

The parent's perspective of your graduation is an in-your-face reminder of the passage of time. Parents remember the trusting eyes of a newborn, the small hand held on the first day of school, the way you depended on them for help to fix and solve problems. As parents we rarely see ourselves getting older until a momentous occasion happens such as hearing the name of your child announced at graduation. It's exciting, and a little scary for both parents and students. Graduation is a rite of passage and marks the start of the student's life as a young adult making his or her own life choices and facing the consequences that accompany those choices. You only get one life, so don't waste it - make it fabulous!

To the graduates, consider where you want to go, literally and metaphorically, as well as where you've been, reflect on what has brought you to this point. Mistakes are inevitable, but don't be afraid to take that leap into your dreams. Be safe. Be bold.

Congratulations to both parents and students, the best of wishes for what lies ahead. We the older generation will deal with the immediate challenges of this pandemic, while you will help heal the wounds it brings to light. You will help define a new normal for your future on this planet. You are resilient, using the technology tools of today to create the technology of tomorrow, making a happier, healthier world for us all.

Letters

Gannon for State Senate in District 23.

To the editor,

Over the last year and a half, I have spent a great deal of time with people throughout each of the nine towns in our district. I have listened to our neighbors as a town elected official, I've listened to families as a youth athletics coach, and I've listened to seniors as a community volunteer. Through these conversations I have seen the very best of New Hampshire and its families. My conviction that New Hampshire is the best place to live, work and raise a family has never been stronger.

This November, our state will face a critical crossroads. We can choose to continue upon a liberal legislative agenda, rooted in raising taxes, restricting liberties and putting party before people. Or, we can choose to restore conservative leadership, keep taxes low, grow our economy and ensure individual rights are protected.

In recognizing the gravity of this critical crossroads, I know I must again take an active role in fighting for our great state. So, today I declare my candidacy for State Senate in District 23.

I will pick up right where I left off in the Senate, increasing access to education, passing a budget with no increases in taxes or fees, advocating for women, children, veterans, the disabled and our families.

My democratic opponent and I now both have records as Senators. Mine is a record of a principled conservatism, delivering bipartisan results. While my opponent has a record of towing the party line, voting for higher taxes, and increasing government spending.

I need your help to make change happen this November and ask for your support as I take my message throughout our district.

Onward to victory,
Bill Gannon

Thanks to Library

To the editor,

Thanks to the staff of Derry Public Library in offering multiple options to remain connected to their Community during the months-long Covid-19 isolation. Various staff members appeared nearly every weekday with streaming video, interactive social media posts, and occasionally reaching out by telephone to their patrons to arrange pickup of reserved materials safely. Not only was it comforting and reassuring to us isolating at home - it was a great chance to learn about the personalities of Librarians, their preferences and recommendations for movies, books, creative writing, genealogy, music and resources for young children, teens, adults and seniors. Great job during a stressful and uncertain time! Let's continue some of these programs to supplement in-person interaction once the Library fully reopens.

Weyler Files for State Representative

To the editor,

"I am proud to announce that I am running to once again represent Hampstead and Kingston in New Hampshire's House of Representatives," Weyler said. I am thankful for the support I have had from the voters of the two towns in the past. My aim is always to keep government accountable to you, and to increase its efficiency. As the chairman of the Executive Committee of the Rockingham County Delegation, I am proud to announce that we will recommend to the full delegation a budget reduction over the present one for next year.

Ken Weyler has represented Hampstead and Kingston in the New Hampshire House of Representatives since 2010, and in previous elections from 2002 to 2008. Ken received a BS in Chemical Engineering from MIT, he is retired as a Captain from American Airlines, and as a Colonel from the US Air Force Reserves, where he received the Distinguished Flying Cross for service in Vietnam. He has lived in Kingston for fifty years, where he and his wife Carol raised their family.

meeting was how best to connect the solar panels to the power source. Chuck Myette, Vice Chair of the Board, asked if there would be a chance that the power lines would be placed underground. The upside to having the power lines below ground would be to avoid the amount of tree cover there is between the panels and Cunningham Lane, where it would connect to Eversource power grid. This idea was brought up in previous years to make sure the power lines did not go through the conservation land. In response to Myette’s question Raynolds said, “all options are on the table at this point.” The next step for the project to go forward would be to talk with the town’s Technical Review Committee to get their input on how best to go about installing the solar panels in Chester. This would be part of their due diligence for the installation of the solar panels, in accordance with the required normal procedures of the Town of Chester. If all goes as planned they would look to start on the actual installation next summer.

Derryfest Gets “Re-Imagined” This Coming Fall Season

DERRY - At a recent Derryfest Committee meeting, it was decided to hold a “Re-Imagined” or “Virtual” Derryfest for this year due to the uncertainty of the pandemic. The Greater Derry Arts Council struggled with the moral dilemma of potentially putting our fellow citizens in harms way by holding the annual festival as usual this year. Ultimately, they made the difficult decision to cancel the live and in-person Derryfest originally planned for Saturday, Sept. 19, at MacGregor Park.

However, the good news is that the GDAC is hoping to devise a virtual community outreach event in order to keep the tradition of Derryfest alive in the minds of our citizens and, also, present a fun and entertaining alternative production for the citizens of Greater Derry. The Derryfest event is the Greater Derry Arts

Council’s biggest fundraising event of the year and the committee hopes to incorporate some kind of financial appeal to the community during the virtual event. Funds raised by the GDAC go to support the Arts in our community as well as to the operation, management and continued upkeep of the Derry Opera House located inside the historic Adams Memorial Building in downtown Derry.

Guidelines recently handed down from the State of NH Re-Opening Task force (as they related specifically to fairs and festivals) outlined significant safeguarding actions that would have been necessary to put in place in order to insure the safety of all attendees, volunteers, performers, entertainers, booth vendors and food preparers. Face masks, sanitizers, disinfectants and other safeguarding processes (like taking people’s temps) would have been required to be put in place. In an open air park with no main entrance, this would have been problematic. Most notably, only half the usual amount of booths would have been allowed to be sold as the guidelines call for “tables/booths to be spaced at least 10 feet apart”. The GDAC also felt that many of our usual sponsors may be experiencing some financial hardships due to the loss of business during the pandemic and asking them to contribute at previous sponsorship levels seemed inappropriate at this time.

So, while it is disappointing to have to cancel the live event, the GDAC hopes that the community will embrace the idea of joining a virtual Derryfest. One idea, is to actually hold the annual “Greater Derry’s Got Talent” Talent Show/Contest right online.

Contestants already upload audition files to the GDGT production team and those files could possibly be used during the virtual show.

The idea of a Virtual Derryfest was a suggestion from Owen Provencher, Derry Community Access Media Coordinator for the Town of Derry www.derrycam.org/. He presented a lot of great ideas for the virtual Derryfest event including showing highlights from previous Derryfests, live discussion “cut aways” to encourage donations, interviews with sponsors and presenting pre-recorded short performances from some of our great dance, music, voice and theater organizations that entertain us each year. The GDAC is truly thankful to DerryCam for suggesting the idea of a “Virtual” alternative and for helping develop programming ideas.

The idea is in a very preliminary stage right now and the GDAC welcomes citizens to participate or offer additional ideas to keep Derryfest alive in the minds and hearts of our community. Email the Derryfest Committee at info@derryfest.org with ideas or if you would like to participate in the effort.

Sandown Cancels Its Old Home Day Celebration Again This Year

SANDOWN – The Sandown Old Home Days Committee, recently, regretfully announced that the 2020 Old Home Days Fall Festival scheduled for Sept. 12, 2020 has been cancelled, including the parade.

The committee made the cancellation due to the social distancing restrictions that are present with the COVID-19 Pandemic, and the uncertainty of what rules will be in place in the future.

The committee stated, “We believe that the safety and the health of our participants, vendors, and our community is of the utmost importance.”

The committee will start planning for the OHD 2021 in January, and look forward to the OHD Fall Festival scheduled for Sept. 11, 2021.

Congratulations
2020 GRADUATES!

Federal Grants Will Offset Expenses Related to COVID-19

The New Hampshire Department of Education has allocated $33.9 million in federal funding provided under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act to New Hampshire schools. The Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief Fund (ESSER Fund) created under that law provides funds for expenses incurred relative to COVID-19 and remote learning backdated to March 13, 2020, the date of the declaration of emergency. The New Hampshire Department of Education applied for and received $37,641,371 in ESSER grants to help K-12 educational entities prevent, prepare for, and respond to impacts of COVID-19. Under the law, 90% of the ESSER formula funds, $33,811,234, must be allocated to school districts and public charter schools proportional to the 2019-2020 school year Title 1 Part A allocation.

"New Hampshire schools have earned nationwide praise for their transition to remote instruction this spring," said Education Commissioner Frank Edelblut. "But that shift came with significant disruption. The ESSER Fund will help New Hampshire schools meet the needs of each student as we plan for a safe and effective learning environment in the fall."

The Department of Education has allocated each district's ESSER grant into the state's grant management system (GMS). Each school district and public charter school must detail activities undertaken in response to COVID-19 and remote instruction in order to use these funds.

Due to the ongoing debate in Washington over the proper allocation of equitable services funding, the Department is asking districts to calculate equitable service funding under both Title 1 Part A and Title VIII, and to set aside the higher amount until further guidance is available. For more information, email CARE-Sact@doe.nh.gov

NHDES Freshwater Beach Monitoring for 2020 Season

As beaches at the state's freshwater lakes and ponds open back up, NHDES reminds the public to practice safe swimming and watch for potential health concerns, such as cyanobacteria. This summer, NHDES will focus on monitoring, assessing and responding to cyanobacteria blooms. The Beach Inspection Program will not be sampling freshwater beaches regularly for fecal bacteria, as it has in the past, due to lab capacity and logistical challenges posed by the pandemic.

The Beach Program will maintain an active monitoring program that will respond in cases when public health risks arise and can ramp up at areas with a history of bacterial problems. Beach owners and municipalities can still collect water samples themselves and submit samples to available labs for analysis. In addition, illness report forms are available for reporting bathing-related illnesses. The public is encouraged to submit this form to the Beach Program if someone becomes ill after swimming in one of the state's waterbodies. That will help protect all of us.

The public is strongly encouraged to keep an eye out for cyanobacteria in state waterbodies. As the water temperatures warm, some lakes and ponds may display bright green surface scums or dingy green water throughout the water. These are signs that a cyanobacteria bloom is present.

Cyanobacteria can produce toxins that are harmful to humans, pets and livestock. Toxins can cause acute health effects including irritation of skin and mucous membranes, nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea. In some cases, short term exposure can also result in nervous system interference including tingling, burning, or numbness sensations. Prolonged exposure can also lead to liver or kidney problems.

Cyanobacteria blooms are unpredictable occurring sporadically anywhere or anytime. As a precaution, the Beach Program recommends against swimming in areas of lake or ponds with a suspected cyanobacteria bloom and restricting pet or livestock access.

If you see what you believe is a cyanobacteria bloom, please report it via text or phone call to (603) 848-8094 or email to HABS@des.nh.gov. Please include a photo of the bloom. A response to a reported potential bloom will occur within 24 hours. Bloom alerts or lake advisories will be issued following confirmation of the condition and will be posted on the NHDES website www.des.nh.gov.

OBITUARY

Richard C. Farley

Richard C. Farley, age 63, of Derry, died on June 3, 2020 at Portsmouth Regional Medical Center. In recent months Richard had been recovering from ongoing medical issues but passed away suddenly after emergency surgery. Richard was born on Oct. 11, 1956 in Greenwich, CT. Richard shared the same birthday with his older sister Linda. He was the youngest child of James A. Farley and Louise Toomey Farley.

Richard grew up in Riverside, Conn. He was a 1976 graduate of Greenwich High School participating in track and was a captain on the Cardinals football team. He attended Embry Riddle Aeronautical University pursuing his passion for aeronautics after earning his private pilot license as a teenager. He was also a volunteer, along with his brothers, on the Sound Beach Fire Department. After high school he moved with his family to Lexington, MA and eventually settled in Derry, where he has lived with his wife Ann since 1996. He loved his log cabin home and spent many hours in his workshop that he called skunkworks, tinkering MacGyver-style on endless projects. He became an accomplished woodworker making special gifts and custom furniture for friends and family. Richard also enjoyed years of boating on Long Island Sound and the lakes of New Hampshire.

Over the years Richard worked for various area companies in sales and supply chain management involving high tech and robotics products. Most recently he had worked for Derry Auto Parts.

Richard is survived by his wife of 23 years the former Ann R. Tofuri and his mother-in-law Ann Gonsalves, brother-in-law Wayne Tofuri and sister-in-law Maryellen Gonsalves and her husband Robert. He is also survived by his sister Linda Farley Noone and her husband Steve and his brother James Farley, Jr. (Jay) and his wife Charlene, and his sister-in-law Ronna Powers Farley, as well as many loving nieces, nephews and cousins. Rich will be especially missed by his lifelong friends who have shared so many adventures and laughs together.

Richard was predeceased by his parents and his oldest sister Barbara Farley Gustin who died in 2017. In a tragic twist of fate Richard's oldest brother Thomas E. Farley of Salem, died unexpectedly just two hours after Richard's passing.

Arrangements are being handled by Peabody Funeral Homes and Crematorium of Derry. Due to Covid-19 Pandemic restrictions a private cremation service will be held.
