

Hampstead Water Changes Their Disinfection System

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

HAMPSTEAD - During the Monday night, June 29, meeting of the Hampstead Board of Selectmen representatives from the Hampstead Area Water Company (HAWC) gave the board an update on the town's drinking water that they provide.

Charlie Lanza, the HAWC General Manager and Jeff McClure a Water Engineer from Weston & Sampson Inc. explained to the board that because of the new water line project that has been developed by the Southern New Hampshire Regional Planning Commission bringing water from Manchester, through Derry and Hampstead Atkinson, HAWC is changing its water purification process.

Currently the company disinfects their water with chlorine and they will be converting to chloramines.

Sampson went through the process with the help of a slide presentation to explain the differences in the new disinfectant process.

McClure explained that currently chlorine is added to the drinking water at each of the active well sites in both Hampstead and Atkinson.

He started by saying that as part of the Southern New Hampshire Regional Water system, chloraminated water from Salem will be entering the HAWC water system at the new Westside Drive Pump Station.

If chloramines and chlorine mix, there will be taste and odor issues will form, and to minimize these issues the secondary Disinfection system will now be changed to chloramines to match the disinfection process of the Salem water company.

He explained that the conversion will be safe, and the reason the Manchester and Salem use chloramines instead of chlorine is because they are using more surface

CHESTER - The Chester Board of Selectmen held their latest virtual meeting on Monday, June 29, 2020.

The first item on the agenda was to vote in Keegan Ricker, who will be a new full time member of the Chester Fire Department.

The board then discussed whether or not they would keep meeting twice a week. The Board of Selectmen has been meeting on both Mondays and Thursdays (normal meeting day) due to the Covid-19 Pandemic. Selectman Chuck Myette talked briefly about the Emergency Management team, putting forth the idea that currently the Board of Selectmen doesn't need to hold meetings both days.

Member Steph Landau then notified the Board that the state EOC only meets on Wednesdays currently, and the meetings have "been short and there hasn't been a lot of information coming out of the state."

Landau has been monitoring what's going on and mentioned that "if anything arises he will let them know through the proper channels."

The board agreed that the town, as a whole, has done a good job handling the pandemic and foregoing the Monday night meetings is something that can be done. They will however keep the option for those meetings open in case something arises that needs to be addressed. The Board will keep their regular Thursday night meetings.

With that decision the Board moved onto the next agenda item, which was encumbrances.

Debra Doda, Chester Town Administrator, listed off the following encumbrances for final review;

- Fire Department 2019 WA # 12 PPE- $14,144.40 from CIP Fund
- PACT 2019 WA #19

ly known as Rich Paul, of Keene, and Karen Testerman of Franklin.

Sandown Selectmen Vote on New Ordinance for Seeley Beach

SANDOWN – The Sandown Board of Selectman held their latest meeting on Monday, June 29.

As of July 6, the Town Hall will be reopened to the public. The town hall was closed due to the Covid-19 Pandemic and will now be re-opening with specific guidelines to keep everyone as safe as possible. Everyone that enters the building is encouraged to wear a mask. There will be hand sanitizer available throughout the town hall as well as by the entrance and the exit. Residents that do need to go to the Town Hall are also highly encouraged to social distance while inside the building. You can enter the Town Hall through the Main Street entryway and are asked to exit the building through the Town Clerk's Office, which faces the fire station. You can also check the Town Hall website as much business can still be done virtually and residents are encouraged to use the online services. The Town of Sandown was also reimbursed just over $6,600 for their Covid related expenses from the GOFERR grant.

The selectman heavily discussed a revision to the Seeley Beach ordinance. The ordinance would require a pass to gain access to the beach, which would be available to residents only. The Recreation Commission currently uses the outdoor area as part of its summer program. Present at the meeting was the Recreation Commission Director, Deb Brown. Brown was concerned that since the signs that state the beach is for residents only have been stolen there will be more non-residents using the beach. Due to the pandemic a lot of other beaches are also closed or crowded and there is also concern that Seeley Beach will become overcrowded as well unless a resident only policy is put in place and enforced. Seeley Beach also employs an on-duty lifeguard, which is another concern if the beach were to be too crowded.

Joe Gordon, Chief of Police for Sandown, also attended the meeting and wanted to make sure that in the event anything happens at the beach and someone challenges the fact that non-residents are not allowed on the beach, he can show there is a policy put in place by the Town to confirm Seeley Beach is for residents only. The discussion and the opposition on the vote to revise the ordinance came from Selectman Goldman and Selectman Olsen. Goldman and Olsen both agreed that it was too late in the year to make a revision. However, after heavy discussion the board voted to add "residents and their guests only" to the ordinance for Seeley Beach by a vote of 3-2. Residents must also pick up a pass in order to gain access to the beach.

Town Administrator, Lynn Blaisdell, said the passes are no different than the temporary passes used for the town dump. The new ordinance will be in effect on July 17, to be able to give the town residents enough time to plan accordingly. Residents can get the beach passes from the Town Hall office, The Recreation Department, and the police department.

The Board also decided to approve work for a replacement desk and wall in the Finance Department for Financial Director, Joann Smith. It was originally estimated for $11,000 but they are looking at another estimate. The money for that project would come out of the General Fund. The board then made a motion that they approve the encumbrances and the motion passed.

The money for the roadwork would be coming from what Financial Director, Joann Smith, says the Town would have as a result of a surplus. The exact amount of the surplus will not be finalized until about mid July and would be between $240,000 and $268,000.

The next meeting of the Chester Board of Selectmen will be Thursday, July 9.

Eversource Reminds Customers of Programs as COVID-19 Restrictions Ease

Customers can still take advantage of various payment arrangements

As the COVID-19 pandemic continues to evolve and New Hampshire slowly reopens, Eversource is reminding customers of the options and solutions available to support them during this uncertain time. The energy company continues to offer various ways to assist customers, including tips to help save money and energy, as well as a new COVID-19 Payment Program that allows customers up to 12 months to pay any past-due balances.

"As the pandemic continues to evolve and we all begin to adjust to a new normal, we're here to help any customer facing financial hardship or uncertainty," said Eversource Senior Vice President and Chief Customer Officer Penni Conner. "We recognize how challenging these times are and remain committed to supporting our customers as we navigate through this uncharted territory. Any customer who may have had a difficult time paying their energy bill because of the pandemic can take advantage of one of our flexible payment arrangements to help them pay down any balances that may have accrued over the past few months."

The COVID-19 Payment Program is available to any customer who requests financial assistance during the pandemic. While customers are not currently at risk of losing service as Eversource continues to suspend all customer disconnections, this flexible payment arrangement also provides an important option for customers whenever the current moratorium on disconnections ends.

Here's how the COVID-19 Payment Program works:

Customers can pay past-due balances in flexible payment plans for up to 12 months

No down payment, fees or interest will be charged from March 17, 2020 (when the pandemic began) to the end of the payment plan

Once an active payment arrangement has been arranged, the account will be protected from service disconnection for the duration of the payment plan - including whenever the current moratorium on disconnections ends

Customers can learn more about the COVID-19 Payment Program and enroll online at Eversource.com or by calling 800-662-7764. For more information on energy saving tips, scam awareness and other programs Eversource is offering to support customers during the pandemic, visit Eversource.com.

Eversource also recommends customers take advantage of the company's energy efficiency offerings which provides ways to save and help keep energy bills down year-round. Customers are encouraged to:

See if you qualify for Home Performance with ENERGY STAR - If you qualify, a certified technician will perform a thorough energy assessment for just $100 and you'll receive rebates and no-cost energy saving products, as well as access to 0% on-bill financing and up to 90% off insulation. Customers uncomfortable with a technician visiting their home can have a virtual assessment now and schedule any in-home services for a later date. Qualifying criteria have changed, and customers that have not qualified in the past are encouraged to try again.

Create an online energy savings plan - Customers can better understand and manage their energy usage and costs. Customers should visit Eversource.com to create an energy savings plan.

Important Weeks Ahead

When it comes to making the decisions that can change the face of the world, we hold the key. Should those decisions be based on whether we are a registered Republican or Democrat? If your answer is yes, something's wrong.

The November election is important for a lot of reasons. We can start at the top, with the President. If we all use our heads, the choice for President will be made not on party lines, not on exaggerated rhetoric, but on the candidate's priorities, background and concrete plans. A candidate's honesty and willingness to acknowledge past actions and statements are good things for voters to focus on as well.

That requires the voter to act with intelligence, to do a little research, to pay attention to what is being said and not said by the candidates. Are they answering your concerns? Do you want what they say they want? Do you care? You should.

And in our own state, we have elections of significant importance as well, starting with the Governor's and Executive Council races, extending to the Congressional seats, and continuing with State Senate and State Representative selections.

We commend the show of interest in local candidacies, and urge voters not to choose a name they've heard or someone their friends suggest, but a candidate whose views they have studied, a line with and whose views they like. We caution our readers to beware of party-line slams on opponents. Elections lately have been dirtier and nastier than before, and that style of campaigning gives us no information other than inaccuracies and downright lies on which to make an informed choice.

As for the incumbents candidates their records are an open book, one we encourage you to read. If you have a question about how someone voted, ask the candidate, not his or her opponent. If you're basing your decision on propaganda from political action groups, you're hearing only one and paid to be slanted side.

Every voter has the opportunity in the next few but very important weeks to study what each candidate has to say and to think for your self. No one should tell you how to vote. It's your checkbook and your lifestyle and your world your view that are at stake.

For all of us who like to say how much we love our country and our state, the most patriotic thing we can do is to be an informed and prepared voter this year, and cast our ballot as if the country and our way of life depend on it.

Because they do!

Southern NH Downgraded to Moderate Drought Conditions

According to the latest U.S. Drought Monitor, as of June 25, the southern half of the state has been elevated from "Abnormally Dry" to "Moderate Drought" while the remainder of the state continues to experience "Abnormally Dry" conditions.

These conditions are a result of an exceptionally low snowpack last winter and lack of precipitation, and have impacted rivers and streams, groundwater, and reservoirs.

Due to these conditions the State Drought Management Plan is being implemented. This plan ensures the State develops, coordinates and implements all possible approaches to responding to the drought. One of the first steps, based on the increasing intensity of the drought will be the initial coordination of the State Drought Management Team (DMT), a collaborative team of state, federal, municipal and regional agencies; industry and non-governmental organizations; and academia.

Ongoing actions include: assessing reservoir impacts and adjusting operations, working with drinking water systems statewide and ensuring the public is informed of the impacts and conservation measures that should be employed now to avoid serious problems later in the summer.

Last week, NHDES advised public water systems to carefully track water supplies and implement outdoor water use restrictions as needed. The state has requested systems report restrictions to NHDES to be publicized on the Drought Management webpage. Ninety-four systems have reported implementing outdoor usage restrictions.

NHDES is asking the public to abide by restrictions so essential and critical water needs of the community, residents, and businesses are met. NHDES encourages those relying on private residential wells to begin conserving now. Due to COVID-19, people are at home more often, which means a higher than usual demand on residential well supplies. To protect your well supply, it is recommended that outdoor water use be limited and water use be staggered, allowing the well time to recharge between demands.

Lake levels are starting to fall due to low inflows and evaporation. In an effort to slow the fall on the state's largest lakes, releases from the dams that impound those lakes have been reduced to the minimum needed to maintain instream flow needs downstream. As a result, many of the small hydropower projects on the state's tributary rivers are no longer able to generate power, although the hydropower projects on the main stem rivers, such as the Merrimack and Connecticut, continue to operate.

During drought conditions, it is especially important to be vigilant with wildfire prevention, especially making sure all fires are extinguished completely. Doing so can help reduce wildfire incidents and lower the potential for property loss, personal injury and even loss of life.

To view a map of drought conditions, a list of utilities restricting water use, and drought guidance for private well owners, go to the "A-Z list" at www.des.nh.gov and go to Drought Management.

area feeds as opposed to the ground water feeds that HAWC uses.

McClure further explained that the reason for using chloramines on surface water feeds, it reacts better with organic matter that is not found in well feeds.

He also said that most people drinking the water won't notice a difference, in fact they may feel that it has less of a smell.

There are concerns with the new chemical, mostly with people who have dialysis machines and with aquatic animals such as fish. The chloramines can also speed up deterioration of rubber gaskets, so there may be the need for some premature replacement on faucets and fixtures.

There is also a problem if residents fill their pools with the new water, and then add chlorine to keep it clean. The two chemicals will probably create a smell.

McClure told the board that if residents want to remove the chloramines, it can be done with the use of whole-house water filters.

There were questions raised on when the new disinfecting chemical will begin, and Sampson said they are currently working on the systems and the switch to chloramines will be a gradual one.

Two public notices will be going out in resident's water bills to let them know what is occurring.

Initially, there was a date of mid-July given on the switch, but according to the representatives, it would most likely be much later.

Residents with concerns about the change over should contact the Hamstead Area Water Company at: www.hamsteadwater.com.

NH National Guard Delivers PPE to CLM

The Center for Life Management got a special delivery of much needed Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) last week courtesy of the NH National Guard. Mental health providers may not be the first to come to mind when thinking about frontline health workers, yet CLM has remained open throughout the pandemic. While mental health services have shifted largely to telehealth, CLM providers continue to see clients face-to-face as needed for essential mental health services, community support services, and emergency services including walk-in crisis assessment and evaluations.

Derry Village Rotary Helps Local Charitable Organizations

Aiden Hazelton and his father and Rotarian Ryan Hazelton unloading food provided to the First Baptist Church food pantry. Ryan was named this year's club president at our annual "Passing of the gavel" Ceremony held Tuesday Evening June 30.

Rotarians strive to conduct their lives by the Rotary Four-Way Test of the things we should all think, say or do. Since the outbreak of Covid 19, the Derry Village Rotary club has stepped up their game with increased support to several local nonprofits and charitable organizations that have been adversely challenged by the pandemic. The club immediately replaced their normal breakfast meetings at Pinkerton Academy with weekly ZOOM meetings to maintain social distancing yet still be able to coordinate team support efforts. In addition to normal club activities the Derry Village club has made significant volunteer time and monetary contributions to the First Baptist Church Food Pantry, End 68 Hours of Hunger, the Greater Derry Salvation Army, the Sunshine Soup Kitchen, the Upper Room, and the Community Caregivers of Greater Derry/Londonderry. Since late March club members have been volunteering time to local food pantries through pick up and delivery of food from both a Government distribution center in Exeter and the NH Food Bank in Manchester. Club members have also been assisting the fine organization End 68 Hours of Hunger by delivering healthy bags of food for distribution to children who would normally rely on meals from school. The Derry Village club has also reallocated funds from other projects and made several significant cash contributions to these organizations in order to help them continue to do the great work they do to support the community. To date, Derry Village Rotary has assisted with over 12,000 pounds of food deliveries, over 75 hours of volunteer time and cash donations totaling over $6000 above and beyond contributions, which are traditionally provided. We realize this story continues to be a work in progress as the pandemic challenges have yet to subside. Service to community is paramount to all Rotary clubs and we are proud to be doing our part.

The Rotary Four-Way Test of the things we think, say, or do to fashion our lives is as follows:

1. Is it the Truth?
2. Is it Fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build Goodwill and Better Friendships?

4. Will it be Beneficial to all concerned?
If you are interested in finding out more about the Derry Village Rotary club and all we do please contact us at 603-505-7507.

Pinkerton Student-Athlete Named Gatorade Track & Field Player of the Year

In its 35th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, The Gatorade Company recently announced Conor Seleny of Pinkerton Academy as its 2019-20 Gatorade New Hampshire Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year. Seleny is the second Gatorade New Hampshire Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year to be chosen from Pinkerton Academy.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the field, distinguishes Seleny as New Hampshire's best high school boys track & field athlete. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year award to be announced in July, Seleny joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Lolo Jones (1997-98, Roosevelt High School, Iowa), Allyson Felix (2002-03, Los Angeles Baptist High School, Calif.), Robert Griffin III (2006-07, Copperas Cove High School, Texas), Grant Fisher (2013-14 & 2014-15, Grand Blanc High School, Mich.) and Candace Hill (2014-15, Rockdale County High School, Ga.).

The 5-foot-10, 160-pound senior won the 300-meter dash in 35.64 seconds at the 2020 Division I indoor state meet, while also anchoring the 4x200 relay quartet to victory this past winter. Seleny took second in the 55 hurdles in 7.57, which ranked as the nation's No. 44 performance among prep indoor competitors in 2020. He led the 4x200 relay foursome to second place at the New England Indoor Championships in a state-record time of 1:31.05. He also won both the 200 dash and the 300 hurdles outdoors at the 2019 state Meet of Champions.

Seleny has volunteered locally on behalf of food-donation drives, campus clean-up initiatives, and youth soccer and track programs. "Conor is the heart and soul of this team," said Pinkerton coach Carol Quarles. "He literally put the team on his back and carried them through to a Division 1 championship this winter. He can run just about any distance except the 1,600 and the 3,200 – but if I asked him, he would do those too. There's nothing he would not do for his team."

Seleny has maintained a B average in the classroom. He will attend Norwich University, where he will compete in track and field.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which work with top sport-specific experts and a media advisory board of accomplished, veteran prep sports journalists to determine the state winners in each sport.

Seleny joins recent Gatorade New Hampshire Boys Track & Field Athletes of the Year Jacob Winslow (2018-19, Exeter High School), Billy Powers (2017-18 & 2016-17, Winnacunnet High School), Sebastian Eaton (2015-16, Souhegan High School), Eli Moskowitz (2014-15, Souhegan High School), and John Ciofredi (2013-14, Lebanon High School) among the state's list of former award winners.

Since the program's inception, in 1985, Gatorade Player of the Year award recipients have won hundreds of professional and college championships, and many have also turned into pillars in their communities, becoming coaches, business owners and educators.

Accidental Invaders: Dusky Roaches May Be in Your Home

MELISSA BETH RUIZ
NUTFIELD NEWS

Everyone dreads coming into a room in their own home and then turning on the light to see a cockroach scurry across the floor. The sight of this particular insect invokes panic that the home has been infested by a disease-carrying pest.

It so happens that this time of year, some suburban Granite-Statens may be seeing such a sight. But before panicking, try to identify what type of cockroach it is – it might not be as bad as you think.

The Dusky cockroach (Ectobius lapponicus), sometimes referred to as the Tawny cockroach, is often mistaken for either the German, American, or Smoky Brown cockroach, infesting cousins of the dusky roach. This species of cockroach was first discovered in the New Hampshire area in 1984 and has made the woods its home since, occasionally accidentally stowing away into human homes.

In addition to the northeastern United States, the Dusky cockroach can be found in Europe, Northern Asia, and southeastern Canada.

Adult male Dusky roaches are about 9-11mm in length, and females roughly 6-8mm in length. The body of the Dusky roach is dark grey-brown, except for a dark pronotum (first of three segments in the thorax) on the male, and a dark abdomen on a female.

Dusky roach eggs are laid between June and September, which overwinter on the ground to hatch in the spring. Nymphs become adult specimens by July, and then by September or October, after the next generation has been born, the adults die.

Unlike the other aforementioned species of roaches, the Dusky cockroach prefers to reside outside. However, they can wander or get carried into homes on accident. These roaches do not breed indoors, and therefore do not cause infestations.

Dusky roaches may wander into homes through open doors, cracks between air conditioners and windows, etc. Since this species isn't light sensitive, it can be found wandering aimlessly during the day, rather trying to hide and being active mostly at night.

The wood roach's natural habitat consists of hollow trees, stumps, under loose bark, and woodpiles. Occasionally the wood roach will make a home in crevices of rural buildings located near wooded areas, and can make their way inside via firewood or even mail. They also might accumulate in rain gutters on homes.

While they are harmless, the sight of a dusky cockroach can be unsettling, as at first glance they really do resemble their more sinister counterparts. However, there are clear signs that can be looked for to determine whether there is a more serious infestation going on.

Indications of a serious more hazardous cockroach infestation include:

Droppings either similar in size and diameter to mouse droppings, or similar in appearance to pepper or coffee grounds in dim areas.

Presence of dark colored egg capsules, which are sometimes glued to a surface near food sources, but can also be found in basements, laundry rooms, kitchens, and behind appliances or underneath cabinets.

A "musty" odor in the home.

Seeing the actual insects, which will flee to dark areas if exposed to light.

If a cockroach infestation is suspected, a pest control expert should be contacted immediately. These professionals can help recommend an appropriate treatment plan and help prevent any future problems.

While Dusky cockroaches are more or less harmless, they can still be a mild nuisance. Luckily, there are easy ways to minimize and prevent their presence in the home.

Be sure to close all possible entryways into the home, and no space is too small for these creatures to squeeze through.

Be sure to examine wood, mail, and parcels before bringing them into the home.

Clean up all crumbs and food residue, and be sure not to leave any inside of sinks overnight. This will provide less incentive for the roaches to enter or stay in the home.

Utilize insect-repel-ling products near possible places where the roaches may enter. Natural alternatives can be tried, as there are a few different smells that many roaches are averse to, including that of tea tree oil, eucalyptus, lavender, cypress, and peppermint.

The sight of any type of insect in the home can be upsetting, but take comfort in knowing that not all insects are out to destroy or infest.

NHDES Freshwater Beach Monitoring for Summer 2020

As the beaches at the state's freshwater lakes and ponds are opening back up, NHDES reminds the public to practice safe swimming and to be vigilant for potential health concerns, such as cyanobacteria. This summer, NHDES will focus on monitoring, assessing and responding to cyanobacteria blooms. The Beach Inspection Program will not be sampling freshwater beaches regularly for fecal bacteria, as it has in the past, due to lab capacity and logistical challenges posed by the pandemic.

The Beach Program will, however, maintain an active monitoring program that will be able to respond in cases when public health risks arise and can ramp up at areas with a history of bacterial problems. Beach owners and municipalities can still collect water samples themselves and submit the samples to a number of available labs for analysis. In addition, illness report forms are available for reporting bathing-related illnesses. The public is encouraged to submit this form to the Beach Program if someone becomes ill after swimming in one of the state's waterbodies. That will help protect all of us.

The public is also strongly encouraged to keep an eye out for cyanobacteria in state waterbodies. As the water temperatures warm, some lakes and ponds may display bright green surface scums or dingy green water throughout the water. These are signs that a cyanobacteria bloom is present.

Cyanobacteria can produce toxins that are harmful to humans, pets and livestock. Toxins can cause acute health effects including irritation of skin and mucous membranes, nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea. In some cases, short term exposure can also result in nervous system interference including tingling, burning, or numbness sensations. Prolonged exposure can also lead to liver or kidney problems.

Cyanobacteria blooms are extremely unpredictable occurring sporadically anywhere or anytime. Therefore, as a precaution, the Beach Program recommends against swimming in areas of lake or ponds with a suspected cyanobacteria bloom and restricting pet or livestock access.

If you see what you believe is a cyanobacteria bloom, please report it via text or phone call to (603) 848-8094 or email to HABS@des.nh.gov. We also ask that you include a photo of the bloom. A response to a reported potential bloom will typically occur within 24 hours. Bloom alerts or lake advisories will be issued following confirmation of the condition and will be posted on the NHDES website

Hampstead Public Library News

Hampstead Public Library Curbside Pickup hours are now available on Saturdays! In addition to Tuesday and Thursday hours, Library users can pick up items between 9 a.m. - noon on Saturdays starting July 11. Items must be reserved in advance in one of three ways: online via the Library catalog at www.HampsteadLibrary.org; email circulation@HampsteadLibrary.org; or call 603-329-6411 for assistance. Patrons will be notified when their materials are ready. If for any reason, you are unable to get them during Curbside Pickup hours, please call and a librarian will assist you.

The Zoom Hangouts for kids on Wednesday, July 15 are about African Drumming. Grab an empty bucket, pot, giant bowl, or use the surface of a table, and gather virtually with others for a drum circle. Participants can have more than one "drum." Shake things up by adding a homemade shaker. Use an empty container, add rice, beans, or beads, and cover with a lid. The Elementary School students' Zoom Hangout is at 1 pm, and the Middle School students' meeting is at 3 pm. Please register in advance via Padlet (you get Padlet access when you register for the youth Summer Reading Programs.) If you have questions about these Zoom events or need assistance, contact Devin at dvancuren@HampsteadLibrary.org.

All ages can find their rhythm in a virtual Drum Clinic on Thursday, July 23 at 1 p.m. An instructor from Let's Play Music leads this Zoom workshop. Kids and adults are welcome to join the fun! Grab a pair of items you can use for drum sticks (chopsticks, wooden dowels, BBQ skewers, actual drumsticks, etc.) and get ready to drum. Advance registration is necessary via the link in the Library's event calendar on www.HampsteadLibrary.org.

Thanks to donors like the Civic Club, the Friends of the Library, and the Mothers' Club, the Library has membership for 17 museums. Member benefits like discounted admission, are shared with Library cardholders. Most museums have been closed due to the pandemic; however, New Hampshire facilities are starting to open to the public in July. The Library will work to provide discount passes to patrons. Always check a museum's website to plan your excursion. Their hours of operation, rules of admission and expectations for conduct have changed. Then use the Library's reservation system on www.HampsteadLibrary.org, to reserve the day you wish to use a pass. If you click on the museum name, you will see more details about the pass particulars. Please note, that as some zoos/museums reopen, there may be a delay before the Library passes can be utilized, because those facilities need to retool their library pass system. The following museums are reopening at the beginning of July, Castle in the Clouds (a new pass for Library cardholders,) Kid's World (zone play,) McAuliffe Shepard Discovery Center, Seacoast Science Center (weekends only,) and Strawberry Banke (outdoor guided tours by reservation.) America's Stonehenge outdoor museum has been and continues to be open. Museum news changes daily, and the staff is working hard to provide you with the passes in a timely manner. Advance planning and your patience are always appreciated. All passes are now paper, and do not need to be returned to the Library. Some will need to be picked up for use, and others can be emailed to patrons.

Last week the library staff and trustees held a small party to say goodbye with cupcakes and presents. We are following safety protocols and will have chairs socially distanced apart. If possible, the group will meet outside in the shade. Your grief may be from a long-ago loss, or it may be more recent--the loss of a spouse, a child, a sibling, a home, a job, or a dream.... This group will seek to be a place where each may give and receive support wherever you are on your journey of loss. Please know you are welcome. If you have any questions, please call 603-329-6985.

Storytime Online

This has been a great way for toddlers to continue to connect with Devin and add to their budding reader routines. Upcoming Storytime themes include rainbows, butterflies, bugs, and dragons.

Storybook Walk

The Hampstead Public Library has put out their Storybook Walk on the Library's front lawn. The featured book is We're Going On A Bear Hunt. It starts near the stone-wall. Thanks to the Hampstead Mothers' Club for funding this project. The page-poles are at least 8' apart and should allow space for families to take turns, if more than one should visit at the same time. The Library will try to keep the story-walk up for a couple of weeks, but the book pages may be taken down on rainy days, and put back up for sunny days. If a pole falls down, don't worry, we'll get there and fix it.

OBITUARY

Henrietta "Babe" Halde

Henrietta "Babe" Halde of Winter Haven, FL went to be with the Lord on Dec. 18, 2019 at the age of 96. She was surrounded by loving family and passed peacefully in her sleep. Babe was born on Sept. 4, 1923 in Londonderry, NH to Ferdina and Albina Cote. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husbands Donald F. Laferriere and Arthur M. Halde and her eight siblings, Adrien Cote, Jeanne Fenwick, Rene Cote, Lionel Cote, Viola Bourassa, Ernest Cote, Laura Lee and Anita Cartier.

Babe is survived by her six children, Corinne (Paul) Sawtelle, Mary (Richard) Tomaselli, Arline (Peter) Dearborn, Jane (Roger) Bosse, Paul (Terri) Laferriere, and Anne (Gary) Loyed; three step children, Elaine Bournival, Lorry (Mike) Chabot, and Denise Nevins; 14 grandchildren, six step-grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren, nine step- great grandchildren, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Babe was a longtime resident of the Londonderry area. She stayed active in St. Thomas Aquinas Church in Derry as she raised her family. She was a wonderful homemaker, and in her younger years, she worked as a factory worker at Klev-Bro Shoe Manufacturing and as a waitress. As a widow and single parent after the death of her first husband, Babe continued to raise her children while running a small business, The Shoe Box. After marrying Arthur and retiring in 1977, they lived in Winter Haven, FL for a number of years until she returned to New Hampshire later in life. Her final years were spent in Winter Haven, close to her two youngest children.

Babe leaves behind a legacy of faith in her Lord and love for her family unmatched by many who have walked this earth, and she will be missed by all. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated for Babe at St. Thomas Aquinas Church, 26 Crystal Ave., Derry on Monday July 13 at 11 a.m. The Mass will be live streamed through St. Thomas Aquinas Church media. She will be laid to rest in Holy Cross Cemetery next to her beloved first husband. Due to State of NH guidelines, all guests are required to wear masks and encouraged to social distance.
