

Derry Town Council Picks Bourdon As New Chairman

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

DERRY - For the past year Jim Morgan served as the Chairman for the Derry Town Council.

After not running for re-election it meant that the Derry Town Council had to pick a new Chairman during their March 15 meeting.

Town Councilor Neil Wetherbee nominated Town Councilor Joshua Bourdon to serve as Chairman for the next year.

The Council unanimously approved making Bourdon the Chairman.

"Thank you everyone for your faith in me," said Bourdon saying that it's been a little while since he held the gavel.

"My promise or pledge to each and every person up here is that I will always listen," said Bourdon. "That I will take into account anything that you request when it comes to building the agenda with Mr. (David) Caron. I'm just really grateful and appreciative of your faith in me."

Bourdon said as Chair he will always do his best to keep a positive tone during the meeting and bring people together.

"That's going to be my goal for this year to bring this board and this community together to lead by example in doing that," said Bourdon.

The other officer position that the Town Council needed to decide on was Chair Pro-Tem. For the past year Town Councilor Brian Chirichiello served in the role.

Wetherbee nominated Town Councilor Erin Spencer.

"I'm assuming you're willing to take it," said Wetherbee.

Spencer agreed to it and was elected unanimously

Chester School District Warrant Articles Approved

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

CHESTER - The Chester School District held the annual District Meeting on March 16.

One of the articles voted on was in regards to the School District Operating Budget.

School Board Chairman Royal Richardson announced that the proposed budget was $13,858,164. It is an increase of $374,908, or 2.78% compared to this year's budget.

One thing in the budget that was pointed out by Richardson was in regards to the tuition obligation for Pinkerton Academy Regular Education Services. He said that the anticipated amount for 2022 - 2023 is $3,462,207.

He said that the rate for students next year is $14,238 per student, which is an increase of $540 per student, or 3.94%. Additionally the District has to pay $781.91 per student for transportation for a total cost of $15,019.92.

Richardson also pointed out that the cost for the 243 students that Chester sends represents over 46 percent of their proposed budget for Regular Education Programs. It is 25% of the overall budget.

It was explained by Richardson that the projected tax impact from the budget is $0.228 per thousand dollars of assessment. He said that a home assessed at $450,000 dollars would result in an impact of $102.60 per year, or $1.97 per week.

The warrant article was ultimately approved with a voice vote.

Another warrant article voted on was to approve the Collective Bargaining Agreement reached between the Chester School Board and the Chester Educational Association.

The proposed agreement was for a three year deal running from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2025.

As part of the agreement teachers salaries would increase 2.25% in year one and two and by 3% in year three.

The estimated tax impact for year one is $95.79 per year, or $1.84 per week.

"I would also like to mention that the negotiations were cordial and collaborative throughout," said Richardson. "The CEA Negotiating team and

Collecting Impact Fees Brought Up to Hampstead Selectmen

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

HAMPSTEAD - The Hampstead Board of Selectmen met on Monday, March 14 and in light of the Central School addition once again failing at the polls an alternative way of raising funds was discussed.

During the public comment period Hampstead School Board Chair David Smith brought up impact fees.

Smith asked if there has been any discussion in the past about looking at collecting impact fees in Hampstead.

"It only makes sense," Smith said about collecting impact fees.

Smith said it could help with different departments like the schools, police, and fire or could help with the water issues in Town.

Selectmen Laurie Warronock if there are other communities that have impact fees and if they could look at what they do for it.

Smith said that other communities have them

ZBA Approves Second Floor Replacement to Beaver Lake Home

HENRY GREENBAUM
NUTFIELD NEWS

DERRY - On March 3, Derry Zoning Board of Adjustments (ZBA) held a public hearing for an application involving restructuring a couple's home.

Terri and David Chapple are requesting a variance in the town of Derry's Zoning Ordinances that would allow for them to replace the second floor of their home located at 58 Beaver Lake Avenue, with a taller structure. This would, however, increase the current nonconforming setback encroachments already placed on the property.

Luke Vasconcelos presented the application on the Chapples' behalf and began to read through the necessary five criteria. "The variance will not be contrary to the public interest as we are gaining aesthetics to the neighborhood without changing the natural environment," Vasconcelos said. "In turn, through that we would be gaining the property value and as far as the natural environment is concerned, there will be no excavation site or land clearing."

Vasconcelos continued,

"The spirit of the ordinance is preserved because the request would not incur overcrowding or traffic patterns as the homeowners are just looking to obtain a second floor that is more suitable for their needs. It would not be adding additional residents to the property which in turn would not be creating anymore traffic patterns."

Vasconcelos explains through his reading of the five criteria that this variance would not have a negative effect on the neighborhood. They have made the promise that nothing would create more traffic in the neighborhood in building this new floor such as making an excavation site or adding residents to the property.

After going through all the five criteria, member Allan Virr addressed a concern he had with the variance. "According to the town records there is a co-owner of the name Vincent Dawson who is listed as a co-owner along with David and Terri Chapple," said Virr. "I don't see anything in the package that indicates that Mr. Dawson is joining this application."

"As far as my recollection goes with Mr. Dawson is that there is an ex to the relationship at this point," said Vasconcelos. Chairman Lynn Perkins asked him when the ownership was transferred from Dawson to the Chapples and Vasconcelos said that he did not have that record on hand.

Virr said, "We have the warranty deeds but [the transfer of ownership] is not one of them...if Vincent Dawson has not signed over his rights to the property, then he should engage in this application, but I see no proof of that. I think we should table this application pending further information."

It appears that the Chapples may not have complete ownership of their property. If Vincent Dawson did not transfer all his rights of ownership to them then he has to participate in the application.

After some deliberation, the ZBA voted to approve the application unanimously with a couple of conditions. Those conditions are to obtain all the proper permits for building the new second floor and to prove that Vincent Dawson's co-ownership has been annulled.

Chester School Board Approves Replacing Ice Maker

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

CHESTER - During the March 9 Chester School Board meeting one of the agenda items discussed was in regards to issues with the food service ice maker.

It was explained by SAU Business Administrator Sheryl Rich, that due to the age of the Ice-maker, which was purchased in 2004, it is unlikely that the expense of the required repairs would be worth the investment. The approximate cost would be $3,000.

Chester Academy Maintenance Director Martin McFarland said that he obtained three quotes to replace the current machine. It was also explained that the District will submit to the National School Lunch Program for an equipment grant in hopes of covering replacement cost. With that said it was noted that the District will likely not have an answer before they wish to purchase it.

The School Board ultimately voted in favor to authorize the purchase of a new ice making machine for the Food Services program, at a cost not to exceed $6,000.

Also during the meeting it was decided to table their reorganization meeting that was supposed to take place. It was decided to wait until their next meeting when Sabrina Harris, who was recently elected, will be sworn in.

Winning re-election was Jonathan Eckerman, while School Board member Valerie Weider did not. She took part in the meeting and will fulfill the rest of her term until March 18.

"The Chester School Board would like to recognize Mrs. Valerie Weider for her years of service to the Chester School District," said Chester School Board Chairman Royal Richardson. "Val has contributed much to the Board and this school district over the years, through both the good and the challenging times. She has always been there, working quietly but frequently with an opinion on a complex topic that challenged us to simply stop and think it through."

In other news Rich also gave an update for the planned STEM Room renovation project.

Also during the meeting the Town Council selected their liaison positions for the upcoming year.

Bourdon said that serving as a liaison is important, saying it is a "super important thing that we all do."

For Building and Properties Town Councilor Charlie Foote said he would stay with it.

Conservation will once again have Wetherbee as the liaison.

The Derry Housing and Redevelopment Committee had Morgan as a liaison last year.

Chirichiello said he would do it this year.

For the Derry Library Spencer said she would do it again this year.

The other liaison positions that will be staying the same include Bourdon as the liaison for the Net Zero committee, Wetherbee will be the liaison for Pinkerton Academy again and Spencer will be the liaison for the Derry School Board.

Last year Chirichiello was the liaison for the Planning Board. He said that his suggestion was to have a backup person for it as well and he would serve on the liaison. The backup person would be for the meetings he can't attend.

Foote said that he would serve as an alternate.

School Board OKs Naming of West Running Brook Outdoor Space

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

DERRY - During the March 15 Derry School Board meeting they heard a proposal to allow a future outdoor space at West Running Brook Middle School to be named after two former students who passed away.

It was explained by Jane Simard, the Business Administrator for the District, that a few years ago two teachers did a fundraiser to help create an outdoor learning space and specifically for it to be named after the two students.

It was explained by Simard that right now the area isn't being used. The space is right outside the cafeteria.

"It's just some grass and gravel," said Simard.

Simard explained that in order to help fund the rest of the project the District may want to consider using ESSER funds which are allowed to be used to support outdoor learning space.

Principal Justin Krieger said that the area can be used as a green space and be made out of sustainable materials. He said that they can have students outside for lunch and outside for classrooms.

It can also be a place for staff to go outside to get fresh air.

Krieger said that $25,000 was raised so far but the two retired teachers said that they would be willing to attempt to match that by raising another $25,000.

He said that the money is earmarked for the naming of the outdoor space after Alanna Marcotte and Lauren Grella. Krieger said that if the School Board doesn't approve the naming of it the PTSA would have to then decide on how to spend the funds.

The School Board ultimately approved moving forward with the naming of the outdoor space.

In other news the School Board held its reorganizational meeting, in order to pick new Board Officers following the latest election.

School Board member Derick Anderson nominated Erika Cohen. Cohen was Chair for the past year.

Board member Brenda Willis said that she was voting against it.

"Clearly this is what has happened in the past. There's been a discussion outside of this Board to make a decision and I don't agree with that," said Willis. "That's why I'm voting no."

For Vice Chair the Board picked Jonathan Dugan. Willis voted against it.

Anderson who served as Vice Chair under Cohen said that him not being Vice Chair has no reflection on what she has done for the past year saying that he thinks of her as a very good leader.

The Board also once again picked Jessica Ring as Secretary with Willis voting no.

Cohen in a quick speech said she was thankful for everyone who served on the Board for the past year.

"This was a very challenging year this past year and everyone up here did what was best for the students at all times," said Cohen.

Derry Town Council Approves Application Fees For Outdoor Dining

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

DERRY - The Derry Town Council heard a proposal to add an application fee for outdoor dining applications.

It was explained by Economic Development Director Bev Donovan that when the Town Council originally approved outdoor dining in June of 2020 it was agreed that they wouldn't impose a permit fee at the time because of the pandemic.

That section of the ordinance was held in reserve. It was explained that the staff recommendation was to have an annual permit fee of $50 per application.

"The Economic Development Department has developed a permit process and guidelines for restaurants in the Town of Derry to allow them to offer seasonal outdoor dining. The purpose of establishing the Ordinance is to promote economic vitality in the Town of Derry. The Governor's Emergency Order has been lifted and the Town is transitioning from the Temporary Outdoor Dining Permits to an annual permit which runs from April 1 through Oct. 15 of each year," a memo from staff read. "Permits for restaurants that wish to establish outdoor dining in the public rights of way (sidewalks) are authorized by the Town Council, with review of the permit application and oversight from Planning, Code Enforcement, Health and Fire Prevention. Restaurants wishing to establish outdoor dining on private lots will be required to follow the guidelines set out in the Ordinance, but the permits would be issued through the office of the Town Administrator."

Donnovan said that people in the community have embraced outdoor dining.

"The public really likes it," said Donovan. "I think it's a great thing."

It was pointed out by Derry Town Administrator Dave Caron that the Council already approved the ordinance and they are only making an amendment to add the application fees. He said that if they wanted to make any changes to the language of the ordinance they would have to go through the ordinance process again.

The Council voted unanimously in favor of the amendment.

In other news Caron said that the Town has received 24 applications for the open Fire Chief position. He said that the applicants came from internal and external candidates.

He said that they are in the process of reviewing the different candidates and are narrowing it down.

Caron said that they will eventually be having an interview panel and would like someone from the Town Council to be there. He said that by the next meeting they should decide who that representative will be.

Town Council Chairman Joshua Bourdon said he thinks the obvious candidate is Town Councilor Charlie Foote, however, he asked Caron if they know when they are meeting so that whoever does it knows what the time commitment is.

"We expect there's going to be a one day commitment," said Caron.

Town Councilor Neil Wetherbee said that he also thinks Foote makes the most sense to represent the Town Council on the panel.

"I think Charlie is the logical candidate," said Wetherbee.

Foote said he would be able to do it if he is picked.

the School Board shared common goals and that helped us work together to reach a successful outcome."

With a ballot vote of 79 to 23 it was approved.

The other warrant article with financial impact was to invest additional funds in the Capital Reserve Fund previously authorized by the voters.

"This article represents a request to contribute to the existing Boiler Replacement Capital Reserve Fund and to raise and appropriate the sum of $20,000 to be placed in this fund from unencumbered funds at the end of the 2021 - 2022 fiscal year," said Richardson. "This is a continuation of the building of this Capital Reserve Fund begun several years ago."

Richardson noted that there wouldn't be any additional tax impact this year if the warrant article is approved.

On a voice vote the warrant article was approved.

Spring Into Spring

As lovely as the NH snow can be, after some time most residents of the Granite State wait in anticipation for the last of the muddy snow banks to melt, making way for green grass and beautiful flowers.

However, in many cases along with these delicate signs of spring sprouts an array of faded fast food bags and cartons, ugly refuse from the previous season (sometimes referred to as “blooming garbage”).

It's often left to residents living along those sullied roads to clean up after these careless individuals, as littering seems to remain as widespread and as hard to eradicate as the common cold, despite efforts to do away with it.

In some towns, a handful of residents for years have gone above and beyond when it comes to this roadside spring cleaning. These individuals spend their weekends sprucing up spots around town, as well as the town halls and school green-space each spring.

We appreciate the volunteer efforts that these selfless few put forth so our towns look beautiful each spring. However, there is only so much a few people can do. Ultimately, it is up to each resident to pick up their property, even if they aren't the ones who left trash behind.

Furthermore, it doesn't take a huge effort to take a short walk up and down the street in front of your home, even if only the length of a house or two this way and that, and pick up the refuse thrown from car windows each winter. A little work goes a long way in keeping our neighborhoods clean and welcoming.

Moving away from the subject of blooming garbage, there may be sun and warmer temperatures in the forecast, but it can be hard to keep the bright promise of springtime at the forefront in the midst of the continuous sound of the furnace.

If nothing else helps to remedy your spring fever in the face of the lingering chill, congratulate yourself on having just about gotten through another old fashioned, northern New England winter, a feat not for the faint of heart.

As the decayed foliage left over from last fall begins to emerge at the edge of our roads, we look forward to having soggy mud to replace the treacherous ice patches in our driveways and streets and the snow on our lawns.

With the emergence of spring flowers comes the pollen necessary to help them spread. Which for many, means seasonal allergies, and several weeks of suffering from ceaseless sneezing, irritated eyes, and runny noses that no amount of antihistamines seems to cure. All for the cause, we try to remind ourselves, as we dream of the beauty at the end of the misery.

Indeed, those of us who stick it out during the ever-extending winter know that blue skies and warm weather are just around the corner, and this summer isn't far behind.

But it would be nice, of course, if we could enjoy a little bit of spring first.

He said that they would either do a percentage of the sale or have a flat fee. He said most places have a one or two percent fee.

“Usually it's not a huge fee,” said Smith.

Smith said that there aren't any negative impacts on taxpayers in town because it would only be for people purchasing new homes.

It was also noted by Smith that it would ultimately help with the tax rate.

“Everyone here knows our tax rate is up,” said Smith.

Administrative Assistant Sally Theriault said that they are working on the Master Plan and in it they are also looking at the Capital Improvement Plan.

She said that once they have it finalized they would be in a better position to look at incorporating impact fees.

“That's where the discussion would start,” said Theriault.

Hampstead Police Chief Joseph Beaudoin said that they are required to have a Master Plan in order to have impact fees.

“Without a Master Plan you can't (have) impact fees,” said Beaudoin.

He pointed to Sandown that has two impact fees for each home that is sold, one for recreation and one for the schools.

Overall he said that he is supportive of it.

“It's a great idea,” said Beaudoin.

Students in the Environmental Science branch of the CTE (Career & Technical Education) program at Pinkerton Academy had their first chance to boil down maple sap into syrup last week in the school's Sugar Shack. COVID shutdown the operation in 2020 and in-school learning wasn't available in 2021 so last week students were busy getting up to speed on the process. The maple sugaring season was much shorter this year, due to freezing conditions quickly changing over to warm weather and maple trees budding.

Sandown Board of Selectmen Pick Jonathan Goldman as New Chair

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

SANDOWN - The Sandown Board of Selectmen picked a new chairman during the March 14 Selectmen meeting.

The meeting acted as their annual reorganization meeting to pick new officer positions for the Board of Selectmen and for the liaison assignments to be decided.

While he wasn't in attendance the Board of Selectmen unanimously picked Jonathan Goldman as their Chairman for the next year.

Goldman previously served as the Vice Chair under Eric Olsen who was Chair during the 2021-2022 year.

The Selectmen also selected Tom Tombarello as the Vice Chairman for the Board of Selectmen for the next year.

Tombarello abstained from the vote.

"Tom congratulations," said Olsen.

In addition to the officer positions the Selectmen quickly decided on the liaison positions.

With the Board of Selectmen staying the same it was decided to keep the liaison positions the same this year with the exception of Tombarello serving as the Planning Board liaison instead of Olsen.

"Everything else is going to stay the same," said Tombarello.

In other news during the public comment period the Selectmen heard from Pat Kimball the Chairwoman of the Old Home Day Committee.

Kimball said she was thankful for the voters in town who approved the warrant article which provided funding for the Old Home Days.

"We're really excited about that," said Kimball.

With that said Kimball explained that they need more volunteers to help out with the event.

"We can not do it alone," said Kimball.

She said that their small committee of five people has recently dwindled down to two or three.

"We're asking the Town to please volunteer," said Kimball.

Kimball said that those interested in helping out with Old Home Days should contact the Selectmen's Office.

Also during the meeting the Selectmen briefly discussed the results from the election.

It was pointed out by Selectmen Darren Hudgins that all the warrant articles passed this year for the second year in a row.

The next Sandown Board of Selectmen meeting is slated for March 28 at 7 p.m.

Sandown Conservation Kids Fishing Derby Set For April 30

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

SANDOWN - During the March 10 Sandown Conservation Commission meeting it was announced that the 22nd annual Kids Fishing Derby is scheduled to take place on Saturday, April 30th at Sal's Pond on Main St.

The annual event is open to all kids between the ages of 2 to 15.

Administrative Assistant Colleen Olsen said that she has begun sending out donation letters for the event and recently she was informed that Storyland has donated tickets to their park.

Conservation Commission member Terry Knuutunen said that it would be a good outreach opportunity if a Fish and Game officer was able to attend the event to speak to the kids.

Set up for the event is slated to begin at 7 a.m. with fishing taking place from 7:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.

The cost for the event is $3 per child or $10 per family.

It was announced that they will have online registration once again this year.

Those who have questions about the event can contact the Fishing Derby Chair Brianna Butler, Fishing Derby Chair, at BriButler@Comcast.net.

Another agenda item during the meeting was an update in regards to the Red Barn cupola project.

Justin Silva who is working on the project attended the meeting with drawings of the cupola.

He said that he was able to raise a significant amount of money and is going to donate the remaining funds back to the Commission to help offset the cost for the raising of the cupola.

Silva said that his deadline to have the project done is April 20. He noted that the cupola is expected to be built by the end of March but likely won't be able to be raised before the deadline as the ground is thawing and is muddy.

In order to begin the project he needed a sign-off from the Conservation Commission which the Commission agreed to.

Also during the meeting Olsen told the Commission that she has been called by some residents who are eager to register for the community garden this year.

After reviewing the registration form for this year, the Commission agreed to open registration with a tentative start date being Memorial Day Weekend.

In other news Olsen noted that Conservation Commission members Nicholas Ortins and Christy Ortins www.sandown.us/node/6450 terms expire at the end of March meaning they are both up for reappointments.

There weren't any concerns with reappointing them to the Commission.

Another Conservation member, Jillian Winmill, is also up for reappointment this month however, a decision wasn't made by the Commission during the meeting because she wasn't able to attend the meeting.

Sandown Fire-Rescue Acquires State of The Art Battery Powered Rescue Tools

SANDOWN - The Sandown Fire-Rescue department spent Wednesday Evening (3/16) training on their newly acquired battery powered rescue tools. Sandown Fire-Rescue have a set of hydraulic rescue tools, by Hurst called "The Jaws of Life" that were purchased in 2007. The existing hydraulic tools utilize a gas-powered generator and are limited in distance; they can be used as the hydraulic hoses are attached to the fire engine. Due to the length of the hydraulic hoses, the tools can only be used within 100 feet of the engine. Rescue tools of this sort are often used to extricate patients from vehicles involved in accidents, or commercial/industrial machinery accidents.

The new Hurst Edraulic 2.0 tools are battery operated, and although are mounted in a piece of apparatus, they are unlimited to where they can be used as the cordless, battery-operated tools can be carried by hand to wherever they are needed. The new tools are also able to be used underwater if needed.

The Sandown Fireman's Association raises funds each year by hosting their annual Chicken BBQ, a Rabies Clinic, and receives donations at times. These funds are used to give back to the community.

Capt. Dave Farrar presented to the members of the association an opportunity to buy a "combi-tool" back in October. The Sandown Fireman's Association voted to purchase the combi tool and donate it to the Town for the Fire Departments use. A combi tool works as both a "spreader" and as a "cutter." It allows the user to cut metal and spread metal, but as a combination tool it does not offer as much strength as a purpose-built cutting tool or spreading tool would.

Fire Chief Mike Devine simultaneously made a presentation to the Board of Selectmen to replace much needed portable and mobile radios using ARPA funds. The Board of Selectman agreed to the purchase, which freed up some money in the 2021 budget that had been allocated to buy 3-4 radios. Chief Devine worked with the Fireman's Association, and their order was changed to a purpose-built cutter and the town was able to order a purpose-built spreader, allowing the Fire-Rescue Department to obtain both tools.

Fire Chief Mike Devine said, "Having these tools will help us a lot, and by working collaboratively with the Fireman's Association, and the Selectmen, Sandown Fire-Rescue has been able to purchase these tools, train on them, and put them in service in a very cost-effective manner." Sandown Fire-Rescue Captain Dave Farrar said, "I have used both the older generation hydraulic tools, and the newer generation battery operated tools, the difference in speed, efficiency, capability, and maintenance is far superior to the original hydraulic tools."

Both Devine, and Farrar said that the current Hydraulic tools are permanently mounted in Engine 2. The new rescue tools will also be mounted on Engine 2 allowing two sets of rescue tools to be used at once when needed. Captain Farrar also said "Since the new rescue tools are portable, we will be quickly able to move them to Ladder 3 when going mutual aid." Oftentimes when fire departments are sent mutual aid to cover another communities station while they handle their incident, the mutual aid department continues to run calls in that community. By moving these portable tools to the ladder, Sandown Fire-Rescue will be able to provide full extrication capabilities.

The total cost of both tools was $24,680, and this was offset by $12,700 that the Sandown Fireman's Association donated.

Hampstead Middle School's Principal Erin Milbury Will Take Over on July 1

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

HAMPSTEAD - Ever since Hampstead Middle School principal Maria Di Nola announced that she would be retiring at the end of the school year a search committee has conducted a search for their next principal. Di Nola has served in the role since 2014.

Last week, it was announced that the School District has hired their next principal.

Starting on July 1, Erin Milbury will take over as principal of Hampstead Middle School.

Milbury was originally picked as one of the two finalists from a pool of candidates by the District's screening committee of staff, parents, and community members.

She comes from the Seabrook School District where she has served as principal of Seabrook Middle School for the past five years.

Milbury has prior administrative experience after serving in the Epping School District.

Milbury graduated from the University of N.H. in Durham. She has degrees in Psychology, a Master of Social Work and an Ed.S in Educational Leadership.

Hampstead School District Superintendent Bob Thompson explained that he has known Milbury since 2002 when he was teaching seventh grade social studies at Dover Middle School and she was a school counselor there.

Erin Millbury

He said he is looking forward to working with her once again.

"We were fortunate to have such a large pool of highly qualified candidates," said Thompson.

"Erin's candidacy stood out because of her experience with school improvement planning and her commitment to placing the interest of students at the forefront of her decision-making. It's exciting to anticipate what she will bring to the table next year."

Milbury last week said that she is looking forward to joining the Hampstead School District in her new role.

"I am thrilled to be joining the Hampstead School Community," said Milbury. "I have thoroughly enjoyed meeting many students, staff, and community members and look forward to meeting many more, and getting started on the great work that represents Hampstead Middle School."

Chisholm Farm Finishes Season on Maple Weekend

The evaporator at Chisholm Farm in Hampstead was boiling one of the season's last batches of syrup during Maple Weekend on Saturday and Sunday. This was the second year of production for the owner of the farm, Andrew Chisholm, and because of the quick temperatures change the production level was much lower than expected. Pictured, Chisholm draws down a gallon of fresh syrup as helpers Jaydan Bourassa, center, bottles up quarts of hot maple syrup, while Audrey Dolloff helps to box up the finished product. Photos by Chris Paul

Avah Ingalls Chosen as 2021-22 Ms. N.H. Basketball

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

Pinkerton Academy senior forward Avah Ingalls was recently named the 2021-22 Ms. New Hampshire Basketball by the New Hampshire Basketball Coaches Organization.

The award is based on her players performance on and off the courts.

It is judged by: 50 percent Basketball Performance; - Including points, rebounds, assists steals. Teams Performances, Individual Awards and Honors, Career Awards and Honors. 25 percent Academic Performance: Grade Point Average, Class Rank, Honor Roll Status and 25 percent Sportsmanship/Citizenship.

According to her Pinkerton Academy Head Coach Lani Buskey, Ingalls was one of the best players the PA program has ever had, ending her career with a total of 798 points and earning her a spot on First Team All-State during her junior year and Player of the Year her senior year.

On top of her success on the court, she is as successful in the classroom earning a Grade Point Average PA of 95.6. With that she is also a member of the Leadership Council of Athletes and participates in various volunteer initiatives within the community. She embodies the idea of a student athlete.

Buskey said, "Avah's talent speaks for itself but it is her sacrifice and leadership that made her the true Astro she is and always will be. Avah led by example and she walked the walk. She didn't ask anything of her teammates that she wouldn't do herself. Her confidence and talent is matched only by her effort and humbleness. She has the capability to take over a game at any time, but also has the capability of making each and every one of her teammates better when they are on the court with her.

The Astros have benefited from her work ethic, drive, sportsmanship, and genuine talent and next year Assumption will get the same.

Brendan Elrick of Hopkinton High School was named Mr. Basketball, he finished his high school career scoring over 700 points in just two years. He averaged just shy of 20 points per game and over 16 rebounds his senior year.

Pinkerton Academy basketball standout Avah Ingalls finished her high school career by gaining the title of Ms New Hampshire Basketball.

Athlete of the Week

Week of March 14

Haleigh Bowler Junior, Winter Spirit

Bowler upped her game for PA at New England's by upgrading an additional tumbling pass to beef up the team's over-all impression. She has the most demanding routine for PAVC and delivered it this past weekend with grit and gumption to help the team capture our 13th N.E. Grand Championship title. She is point flyer for PAVC and never leaves the front row in any segment over the course of three minutes to help carry the scoresheet.

Pinkerton Cheerleaders Win 13th New England Championship

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

The Pinkerton Academy Winter Cheerleading team made it three wins in a row with a first place finish at the New England Cheerleading Championships held at Worcester State University.

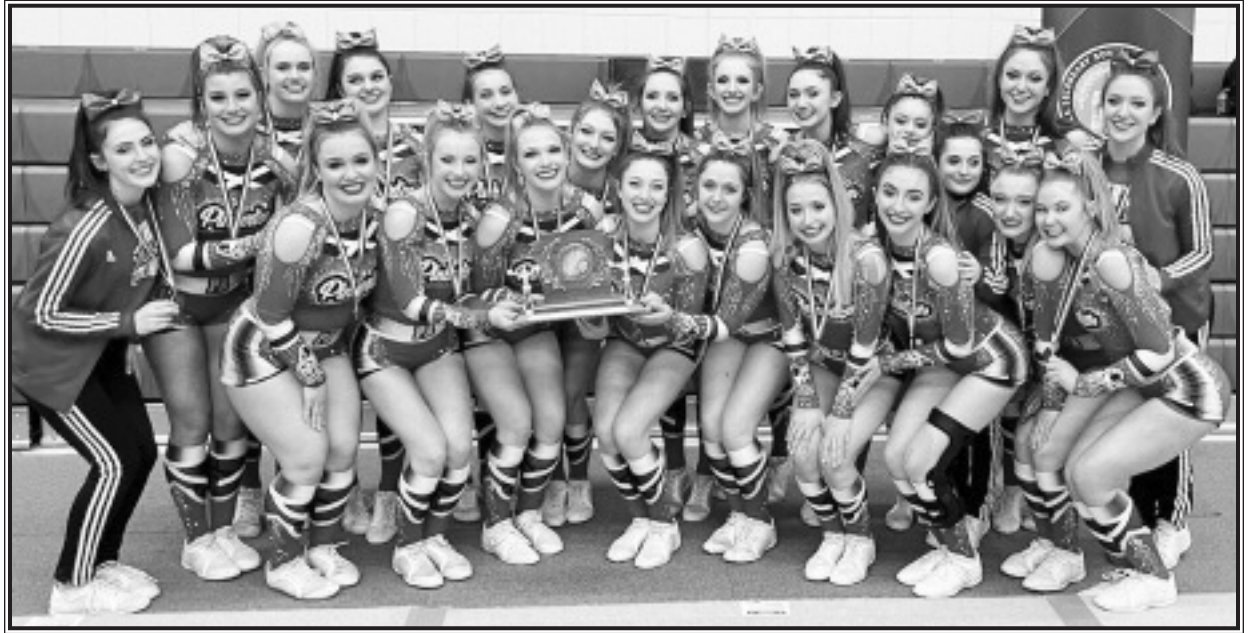

According to head coach, Michelle McCarty, the team had a very long wait from warm ups to performance the Astros put up a strong three-minute routine. She stated, "The team builds (stunts, baskets, and pyramid) were the strongest technique executed by the team the entire season according to the coaching staff. The comments from the judges at New England are truly something to look forward to. They commend our athletes on the speed of the routine, the execution start to finish and the performance value put forth. It is truly amazing to be recognized and respected by officials from all the New England states." She added that the team performance was solid and New England and Grand Championship title.

Aviation Museum's 'Run the Rail Trail 5-Miler' Set for April 30

Get outside and welcome spring with the first-ever 'Run the Rail Trail 5-Miler' on Saturday, April 30.

Starting and finishing at the Aviation Museum of N.H., the run/walk event will take participants on a winding route through bucolic North Londonderry, highlighted by the newest stretch of the Londonderry Rail Trail.

The race starts at 9 a.m. and is open to all. The event is a fund-raiser to support the non-profit Aviation Museum's youth education programs, which include the ongoing student plane-building project at the Manchester (N.H.) School of Technology.

Registration for the 'Run the Rail Trail 5-Miler' is $25 through Thursday, March 31; starting Friday, April 1, the fee is $30. Registration on Race Day is $35 per person. The first 100 registrants will receive an official "Run the Rail Trail 5-Miler" shirt.

Participants may register online at www.runsignup.com and search for "Aviation Museum." More information is also available at www.aviationmuseumofnh.org.

Starting at the Aviation Museum of N.H.'s historic 1937 terminal building at 27 Navigator Road, the course will first wind through lightly-trafficked streets, including a nearly one-mile stretch of forest path through undeveloped land.

The route will then take participants along the recently opened 1.2-mile section of the Londonderry Rail Trail, which passes through the remote Little Cohas Brook Reservoir area. Then back to the finish line at the Aviation Museum.

Because the route includes a stretch of unimproved forest trail, the event is not recommended for participants with strollers. Also, no pets are allowed.

The Aviation Museum is also seeking volunteers for Race Day. If you're interested in helping out, visit www.aviationmuseumofnh.org for information about volunteer orientation sessions in April.

The Aviation Museum, a non-profit 501(c)3 tax-exempt organization based in the 1937 art deco passenger terminal at Manchester-Boston Regional Airport, is dedicated to preserving the Granite State's rich aviation past, and also inspiring today's students to become the aviation pioneers. The Aviation Museum is located at 27 Navigator Road, off Harvey Road, in Londonderry. For more information, visit www.aviationmuseumofnh.org or call (603) 669-4877. Follow the Aviation Museum on social media at www.facebook.com/nhahs.
