

Hampstead Selectmen Discuss Updating Some Town Signage

HENRY GREENBAUM
NUTFIELD NEWS

HAMPSTEAD - The Hampstead Board of Selectmen met on Monday, Jan. 25, and members were presented with a number of issues.

The meeting started with some new business as Julie Wiggin, who is the director of client services at the Haven Center, made a presentation to the board. Haven is a sexual assault, domestic violence, human trafficking, and stalking service provider and they are looking for the same level funding that the town of Hampstead has always provided to them.

The amount that Haven has received over the years was $3,070 and the Board of Selectmen will deliberate in a future meeting about their decision.

Some more new business included the signage presentation made by Steve Ireland of Macfarland-Johnson, Inc. The company wants to make the town an Excel spreadsheet of what road signs there are in Hampstead. The spreadsheet would also show new signs and signs that need to be replaced and it gives exact locations where the signs should be placed.

“Right now, the MUTCD, which is the federal standard for signs, there are certain signs that they require to be replaced and updated by December of 2019,” said Ireland. “There are a lot of places around the country that are behind on that. The state of New Hampshire, the state itself, is not. They are caught up now.”

All the curve signs across the country, which identify that there is a curve in the road ahead, were supposed to be replaced and/or updated by the end of 2019. The state of New Hampshire itself is fine but Hampstead still has signs that are outdated and need to be corrected. This can also include stop signs and speed limit signs that do not meet the federal standards of retro reflectivity, surfaces that reflect light back to its source.

The Board of Selectmen decided to have the Safety Committee do more research on these new

Chester Selectman Set Town Meeting Dates for Mid-May

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

CHESTER - The Chester Board of Selectmen agreed to move the dates of the annual Town Elections and Town Meeting to May 11 and May 15 during their Thursday night, Jan. 28 meeting.

The discussion began with Town Moderator, Michael Scott giving an overview of his findings on the subject of postponing the two meetings by two months.

Scott said that from he has found that the easiest way to deal with the issues created by the COVID-19 social distancing mandates by postponing it to the second week of May. He also mentioned that he hopes the COVID mandates are clear out by then.

Selectman Chuck Myette was concerned about the candidates that have signed up for open positions in town and wondered whether the dates needed to be extended with the postponement.

Town Clerk/Tax Collector Liz Lufkin assured Myette that the town had filled the town’s requirement in that regard.

Assistant Town Moderator, Andrew Hadik agreed with Scott, saying he felt that there are a large number election workers that would fall under the “high risk” category, and the postponement would make things safer for them. Hadik said, “It’s not worth one person’s life, there is no reason to rush ahead and hold the election in March. Just push them both out.”

Scott also mentioned that if COVID restrictions

Derry Conservation Commission Moves to Pass Subdivision Plan

KAITLIN BEDELL
NUTFIELD NEWS

DERRY - The Derry Conservation Commission came together for their Jan. 25 meeting to discuss a plan previously reviewed regarding a subdivision project on Daniel Road.

The plan intends to create 12 new residential lots on the land nearing Forrest Street, Daniel Road, and Datillo Road.

The commission walked the site on Saturday, Jan. 16 to evaluate the proposal and note any concerns each member has.

After viewing the site for the first time, the commission had some concerns regarding the blasting for the project and the impact it would have on the water quality of the nearby Shields Brook.

Tim Peloquin from Granite Engineers said that he understands the concerns regarding the blasting but that he is very confident in the engineer, Mark Leroux.

"The AOT monitors all the blasting and I'm sure that Mark Leroux and the engineer for the drainage have all that down to a T," Peloquin said. "That's why we hire those engineers."

Peloquin said that although the concerns stated are valid, the two things the board has going for them is a very good developer with a "good track record" and Mark Leroux.

"Mark is your eyes and ears as far as a developer goes," Peloquin said. "He is so by the book and he is great for this town."

In addition to the blasting concerns that several board members expressed, there was also some worries about the preservation of the surrounding land.

In reaction to the board member's concerns, Peloquin made a suggestion to make a note in the plan to add a line that clearly highlights a "no cut buffer" between the project and the houses which mandates that the surrounding areas are marked by the town of Derry as a conservation area.

In addition to the division between the project and the tree line, Peloquin also suggested that the "no cut buffer" extends to the two vernal pools which lie on the property. One vernal pool sits at Dotillo and the other is way up on the hill in the back ledge of the area.

The board wants to create the signs prohibiting natural disturbances and would like it to account for the vernal pools as well.

Although the board had expressed a few concerns throughout the meeting, Peloquin said he was still looking for a signature with a note saying he will abide by all the changes made.

One board member said he is in agreement with signing the plan and that the project is "in good hands under Mark Leroux and as long as they can add that note he'd be satisfied."

The board set forth a motion to include the amendment to add the no cut buffer signs for both the vernal pools and the tree line.

Vice Chair Riccardo

Buzzanga moved the motion which was seconded by Member Grace Reisdorf, followed by the unanimous approval of the rest of the commission.

Peloquin's request has been granted by the board and as long as he includes the amendments that have been included then he will be allowed to move forward with the project.

Grant Gives Students Career Path in STEM Fields

New Hampshire Department of Education announced today that New Hampshire was one of four states in the country to receive a $2,943,000 federal grant through the U.S. Department of Education to help expand access to career pathway opportunities and prepare students for careers in STEM-oriented fields.

The New Hampshire Out-of-School-Time Career Pathways Initiative is collaboration between the New Hampshire Department of Education, Nita M. Lowey 21st Century Community Learning Center programs (21st CCLC) and the New Hampshire Learning Initiative (NHLI). Collaborative members will work with the Conway, Hinsdale, Laco, and Manchester school districts as well as industry partners in those areas, including Graphics, NH Aviation Museum, Eastern Slopes Aviation, Ever-source, GS Precision, and EPTAM Precision.

"This is a great example of a public-private partnership in which we align the interests of government, non-profit and business communities to benefit New Hampshire students," said Frank Edelblut, commissioner of education. "These are the types of creative and innovative opportunities that will provide students and teachers alike the opportunity to grow and expand their horizons."

Over the five-year program period, the initiative will build the capacity of the four districts to deliver on supporting students to complete an industry-recognized credential for remote work, supporting students to complete STEM-related industry-recognized credentials chosen from a range approved options, and supporting students to complete paid internships in an in-demand STEM-related work-based learning opportunity with a local employer. Additionally, students in grades 6 - 8 in each district will have opportunities in a developmentally appropriate career learning opportunity and all districts will work to implement a career assessment process to be administered to all students at least twice during their K-12 learning journey.

Sandown Planning Board Allows Subdivision Despite Resident Concerns

JOHN SEIDENBERG
NUTFIELD NEWS

SANDOWN - The Sandown Planning Board conditionally approved an application to subdivide an existing parcel in town for new home construction.

At a public hearing Jan. 19 the board voted unanimously in support of the application by Montana Realty Trust for a subdivision of land at 68 Montana Drive, identified on Sandown Tax Map 14 as Lot 19-50.

The property is 8.7 acres and will be divided into two lots slightly over 4 acres a piece. Each one will have an onsite septic system, well and driveway, and single family house, Kevin Hatch, a land surveyor and owner of Cornerstone Survey Associates in Chester, told the board.

The lot faces the front of what will eventually be an extension of Riverbend Drive when it is continued beyond where the street now ends.

Among remaining steps in the application process are having the state Department of Environmental Services approval number included on the plan, and certifying that the lot corners have been set. The only state agency permit requirement is subdivision approval for both lots.

New boundary monuments will need to be installed upon approval by the licensed land surveyor of record who would provide certification when that is done.

A subdivision resident, Jeff Blake of 69 Montana Drive, addressed the board on behalf of some local families to express their cumulative concerns about this change to the neighborhood.

"Making it two lots does change the aesthetics," he said of the project. Another expected impact is in the average spacing between homes and possibly in assessed housing values.

Blake added the area already has seen some degradation from utility installations cutting across the road to install wires. If blasting is needed, he worries about the effect on the foundation and on wells with old building materials not being cleared away.

He also cited gaps in guard rails removed for excess excavation from the lot under construction and open pits dug on the property.

Blake told the board cleanup should have been a prerequisite to the application's approval. Having two homes on the subdivided lot would seem to benefit no one else in the subdivision, he said, or the town from a tax revenue standpoint.

Town Engineer Steve Keach responded this was an oversize lot created with Riverbend Estates similar to other such lots. Two additional lots on Montana Drive were divided in this manner, he said.

"The zoning ordinance has not changed in a favorable way that would make what is being proposed at this time something that couldn't have been done at the outset."

The landowner is exercising an option that's always been available to bifurcate the parcel as if it originally had been configured this way, Keach added.

Montana Realty obtained a permit to do work on the road. It can be patched in the spring at the same time the home driveway is paved, he said.

Blake further was concerned about runoff and roadside drainage coming from the property and road.

Final grading hasn't been done with the construction still ongoing but when it's completed in the front yard of the house being built that should stop the water crossing on top of Montana Drive, Keach said.

Additional drainage would be constructed on that section of road when Riverbend Drive is extended.

After the lots are built, if Blake still has issues with drainage, or anything from the construction, if water causing a problem is coming from the way his lot was constructed, the resolution would be a civil matter, Keach said. But if water is coming from the public way, the town could then be involved.

Chester Planning Board Pushes to Amend Zoning Ordinance

KAITLIN BEDELL
NUTFIELD NEWS

CHESTER - The Chester Planning Board came together for their Jan. 27 board meeting to discuss several tasks on their agenda.

The board discussed the amendments put forth by the commission regarding several aspects of the Zoning Ordinance for the town of Chester.

Among requests, the board first discussed Article Two which defines the legal terminology behind each town code. The board expressed an issue with the definition for "internal lot" and requested there be more clarification as to what it means in this context.

The board then talked about a MBM article amendment for zoning which would allow for bed and breakfast places to be a part of Zone R1 which is for General Residential and Agricultural Districts. This would allow for some commercial use in a mostly residential area.

After much discussion, the board came to a consensus that the rule should allow for bed and breakfast business's to be a part of this district. In order to make this a reality, though, they came to the conclusion that they would have to determine if there are any laws prohibiting this at the state level.

During the meeting the board also discussed an accessory dwelling unit issue which would require an 80-unit complex to be sprinklered if dwelling itself isn't already sprinklered.

This discussion was particularly notable to the board because of the impact it would have financially if the sprinklers were required.

Vice Chairman Evan Sederquest brought up a point in discussion that compared the 80-unit complex to a house receiving an expansion. He said that if somebody were expanding their house they would need to be fully up to date with all required codes, and that there is no difference in this situation.

While according to the current code it is required to include sprinklers, the board hopes to find a way to change the code to exclude them from being implemented. Before making any decisions on the issue they will need to do more research and reevaluate the topic.

Another discussion was the intent to reduce the bonus for age restricted housing and add it to workforce housing which has pretty high income allowances.

The amendment would take 25% of the density bonus from age restricted housing and add it to the 25% bonus for workforce housing which would help the town preserve workforce housing.

Member Rick Snyder said he hasn't changed his mind from last year when they first discussed the issue and that he thinks there should be a better description of what qualifies as "workforce housing."

Since the board started talking about this issue in 2019, there have been changes in the town regarding the new State Board of Appeals which has passed new regulations affecting the issue.

After some discussion, the board set a motion to bring these zoning amendments to a public hearing for Feb. 10 where they will further discuss any concerns regarding each issue. People who wish to attend can do so virtually through the Zoom link on the town of Chester's website.

Your Town Needs You and You Need Your Town

Is the town where you live important to you? Did you grow up in the town or did you move here? Either way, you made a choice based on the quality of life issues that matter to you. Yet, without your involvement the things that you like about your town can subtly—even dramatically change. Every town needs civic minded individuals to step up, speak up, and serve to keep a town vibrant, i.e. sustain the town's core values of the community and environment while embracing those modernization improvements that will best serve the inevitable changes in the town's demographics and its population needs. When residents are not informed and allow elected officials and key top town managers to do what they think best without conversations and involvement in the decision making processes and serving on boards and committees, then a town can easily lose its identity and become a cookie cutter municipality controlled by an elite group.

The least most of us can do is be an "informed" voter. Know whom you are voting into office and keeping into elected office. Do your research talking to the officials, asking questions through your local newspaper, talking with neighbors, reviewing online. I have found most people do not even remember who they voted for and who are in office. Do you know who is on the school board, how many children are in school, what the school budget is, how it compares to other towns of like size, how the school ranks in the state? Do you know who serves on the town council, town budget committee, zoning board, and who is the town manager and what his interests and goals are for the town? If you want to be an informed voter, this newspaper can help you.

The next most important thing we can do is to participate and to serve. Attending and participating town and committee meetings is essential to ensure the Town make sound decision for all its people. Also, if you have a few hours once a month you can give to serving your community, again do a little research with the help of the town clerk and your local newspaper to learn what you might do to help your community remain vibrant.

Lastly, but as importantly, you can run for elected office. Give twenty hours plus a month to the town. Allow other long-term sitting elected officials to serve in other ways including to move on to other important positions.

Your involvement in your community at whatever level will make a huge difference.

HCS Renovations Are On The Ballot – Here's What Voters Need To Know

To the editor,

A volunteer group of 30 residents passionate about the community, schools and children have come together to form a new grassroots community group called Hampstead Hearts (you can search for them on Facebook for more info) - their first initiative is to help pass the two warrant articles pertaining to the Hampstead Central School on this year's ballot.

HCS hasn't been updated in more than 30 years – the population in Hampstead has grown by nearly 2k people (almost 30% growth) since the school's last update, which added three portables as a temporary stopgap to address space needs in the late 80s. These portables have since been decommissioned as learning spaces, as they are past their lifespan and are no longer fit to be used as classrooms. The building is nearly at max capacity – in fact, the school board has had to waive policies limiting class size for the past several years, resulting in Hampstead ranking in the bottom 20% for class size in NH (meaning that Hampstead's class sizes are larger than 80% of schools in the state). Beginning this Fall, student population is forecasted to grow by over 100 additional students by 2030, adding urgency to the timing of this project.

Article 2 adds 6 classrooms; a new library, music room, cafeteria, and secure main entrance; state of the art HVAC; new septic system (the existing one is 40 years old); an additional code-compliant elevator and bathrooms; and a fire suppression system. It costs a maximum of $9.07m, paid for with a 10-year bond at <1.5% interest – this results in a tax impact of no more than $0.75/thousand, so a home with a $400k assessed value would pay no more than $25/mo. The cost of defeating this article could be higher than the cost of voting for it - if we run out of space and have to tuition special services out of district, the cost will likely exceed the cost of renovations with no ROI reflected in the town's real estate values. Home values increase an average of 6% ($24k for a $400k home) for 12 years in neighborhoods where new schools are passed. We stand to save nearly $1m if we pass 2 & 4 together this year. There is also a possibility for 30% state reimbursement, which we have applied for. Materials costs are expected to be ~10% lower than quoted, as materials costs are already starting to decline since our quote in mid-2020. Overall, this project is expected to come in ~$1 million under budget.

Construction would begin Summer 2021, and finish by Fall 2023. Adding space could open up revenue opportunities by expanding full day Kindergarten offerings as well as tuitioning children from other districts in for special services. Hampstead's municipal tax rate, even after these articles pass, is right around 50% - meaning that its tax rate is smack in the middle compared to the rest of NH, and is lower than about half of the towns in the state.

still haven't cleared up by May, they could possible postpone the events again."

There was additional discussion about whether or not to extend the deadline for seeking candidacy.

Lufkin initially said that the town had already met the state requirement on the sign up period, but said the state would be releasing more details in that regard later in the month.

Selectmen felt that they couldn't extend the date for signing up at this point, but thought that the period could be reopened at a later date if the state was in favor of it.

The four Selectmen

that were attending the meeting ended the discussion by voting in favor of holding the Election and Town Meeting in May.

The only other question discussed was whether or not to hold the Public Hearing on the town and school budget that is scheduled for Feb. 8 and it was suggested to leave that decision up to the Budget Committee.

Sandown

thousand.

The default budget amount was the same as the town approved last year. A proposed amendment that would have reduced the operating budget by $135,745 to $4,413,414 was defeated.

The following individual appropriations were also sent to the town ballot:

- Warrant Article 3 – an increase in police salaries and benefits for the next three years of $54,372 for April 2021 to March 2022; $15,252 for April 2022 to March 2023; and $15,524 for April 2023 to March 2024. The town would additionally raise $46,380 for FY21 to meet added costs. The estimated tax impact would be $.07 per thousand.

Selectman Tom Tombarello told the Deliberative Session that Sandown was below the median pay for police and wanted to have the percentage increases start in year one. The increase in the average pay was due to officers leaving and going to other towns, he said.

While the pay scale is adjusted for officers, the steps are still 2.5%, added Selectman Jonathan Goldman.

A buyback provision is included, Tombarello noted, if police officers were to leave after Sandown has made an investment in them. If that happens, they would have to pay a percentage back to the town.

- Warrant Article 4 – if Warrant Article 3 were voted down regarding the police salaries, the town selectmen could call a special meeting to discuss cost items related to that warrant article.

- Warrant Article 5 – $162,576 for road improvement programs recommended by the Sandown Highway Department and approved by the selectmen. The sum is expected to be supplied by the New Hampshire Highway Block Grant.

- Warrant Article 6 – $375,000 for adding to the previously established Road Improvement Capital Reserve Fund, with an estimated tax impact of $.56 per thousand.

- Warrant Article 7 – $150,000 for site work and construction of a new salt shed at the Highway Grange. The estimated tax impact is $.22 per thousand.

This warrant article failed last year though the shed is still needed, said Selectman Chair Darren Hudgins. Without it, accumulated salt can leach into the Exeter River, Selectman Robert Nickerson added.

Sandown has already received state infrastructure aid for this project, Town Administrator Lynne Blaisdell noted. The amount available in state aid for the shed last year was $130,000.

- Warrant Article 8 – appropriate $75,000 for the Capital Reserve Fund for the salt shed. The estimated tax impact is $.11 per thousand. It would allow payment for the shed over two years. However, this article would be null and void if Article 7 passes on the town vote.

- Warrant Article 9 – $150,000 for the Bridge Capital Reserve Fund for bridge repair. The estimated tax impact is $.22 per thousand.

- Warrant Article 10 – $13,700 added to the Revaluation Capital Reserve Fund. The estimated tax impact is $.02 per thousand.

- Warrant Article 11 – would appropriate as amended $46,820 to control exotic aquatic species in the Phillips Pond. The article already noted this cost would be offset by a $15,000 donation from the Phillips Pond Association. The Deliberative Session was also told the cost would be further offset by $18,728 in grant funds.

- Warrant Article 12 – appropriate $10,000 to add to the Storm Water Management Capital Reserve Fund. The estimated tax impact is $.01 per thousand.

- Warrant Article 13 – $50,000 to be added to the Fire Equipment and Apparatus Capital Reserve Fund. The estimated tax impact is $.07 per thousand.

- Warrant Article 14 – adding $7,500 to the Government Building Capital Reserve Fund. The estimated tax impact is $.01 per thousand.

- Warrant Article 15 – $38,459 for per diem staffing for fire fighter and/or EMT coverage, with no benefits. The estimated tax impact would be $.06 per thousand.

This measure is intended to allow flexibility for having staffing when needed in the Fire Department. If it passes the town vote, future appropriations may be included in the operating budget. Action would be subject to raises or whatever the town chooses to do, Selectman Goldman said.

- Warrant Article 16 – adding $50,000 to the Plowing Expendable Trust Fund to help offset future costs, and

- Warrant Article 17 – $4,500 for fireworks to allow the town a decision here. The selectmen would determine the date and time. The estimated tax impact is $.01 per thousand.

The Town Election will also consider adoption of Amendment Z-1, a Planning Board proposal to amend the text of Article VII to insert Part B entitled "Stormwater Management Ordinance – Construction and Post-Construction Requirements."

This amendment would expand the zoning ordinance for Sandown to be in compliance with federal requirements on NH municipalities of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) under the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) General Permit for Stormwater Discharges from Small Municipal Separate Storm Sewer Systems (MS4).

Should this article be defeated, the default budget shall be $7,500,400, which is the same as last year, with certain adjustments required by previous action of the Town or by law; or the governing body may hold one special meeting in accordance with RSA 40:13 X and XVI, to take up the issue of a revised operating budget only.

ARTICLE 8: To see if the Town will vote to approve the cost items included in the

3-year collective bargaining agreement reached between the Hampstead

Board of Selectmen and the New England Police Benevolent Association

Local No. 37 of New Hampshire, effective April 1st, 2021, and further to raise and appropriate the sum of $27,576 for the current fiscal year, such sum representing the additional cost attributable to the increase in salaries and benefits over those of the appropriation at current staffing levels paid in the prior fiscal year.

To make mandatory that every town board post all meeting agendas to the town website, and send them via the town email list, no later than two business days prior to the board meeting - this article also seeks to disallow discussion of any items that do not appear on the agenda, and to disallow any items to be added to the agenda within two business days of the meeting. This article seeks to promote transparency, and to give all residents ample time to plan in the event that they want to attend a meeting based on the topics being discussed.

ARTICLE 15: A Petition Article. To make mandatory that every town board publicly post meeting minutes (draft minutes are acceptable) to the town website no later than five business days after each meeting (or within 72 hours for non-public meetings), and email notification once minutes are posted via the town email list. This article seeks to promote transparency, and to ensure that timely information is easy to find in one centralized location.

ARTICLE 16: A Petition Article. To remove all board recommendations from the ballot. This article seeks to ensure that each voter is heard without being swayed or influenced by board recommendations. Ballots exist to obtain voter opinions, but they should never tell a resident how to vote - board recommendations bias the ballot, and ballots should be unbiased.

ARTICLE 17: A Petition Article. To make mandatory that all town board meetings be accessible via Zoom (or a similar software that allows residents to not only remotely view the meeting live, but also interact and pose questions). While Hampstead Cable TV is a great resource, many residents do not have cable television - furthermore, the public cannot interact with televised meetings. This article seeks to assure that all residents have the ability to attend town board meetings, remotely or in person, in a way that is convenient for them.

New Hampshire Department of Education Releases Federal COVID Funds

CONCORD: The New Hampshire Department of Education released today school allocations from the $156 million in federal education funds from the U.S. Department of Education.

New Hampshire was awarded an additional $156,065,807 in ESSER II funds through the Coronavirus Response and Relief

Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021, Public Law 116-260, which provides an additional $54.3 billion for an ESSER II Fund. This new funding, in addition to the first award of $37.8 million received in the spring of 2020, is intended to help public schools in their continuing response to COVID, including safely reopening schools, assessing student learning, and other actions to mitigate the impact of COVID-19 on students and families. Since March, public schools in New Hampshire have received an additional $219 million in federal funding to assist in their response to COVID.

"COVID-19 has been the most disruptive event in the history of New Hampshire education, forcing us to adopt new methods of instruction and work even harder to meet the needs of our most vulnerable students," said New Hampshire Education Commissioner Frank Edelblut. "These funds will provide additional resources to close the gaps that this pandemic has widened."

The ESSER II funds provide broader flexibility to schools for the use of the funds, including:

- Addressing learning loss among students, including low-income students, children with disabilities, English learners, racial and ethnic minorities, students experiencing homelessness, and children and youth in foster care, of the local educational agency;
- School facility repairs and improvements to enable operation of schools to reduce risk of virus transmission and exposure to environmental health hazards, and to support student health needs;

- Other activities that are necessary to maintain the operation of and continuity of services in local educational agencies and continuing to employ existing staff of the local educational agency.

Local Educational Agencies COVID Funding: Total Federal COVID Relief for area town were:
Chester: $297,472
Derry Cooperative: $6,238,867
Hampstead: $482,755

The Semifinalists were chosen based on their leadership, academics, and dedication to their commu-

Yiyi Wang

Ultimately 150 Coca-Cola Scholars will be chosen to win $20,000 scholarships.

An Honors Diploma candidate, Wang is a member of the National Honor Society and Foreign Language Honor Society. She is the President of the International Club and active member of both FBLA and DECA.

Wang also competes in a Polo league based in Boston and enjoys a variety of forms of dance and music.

Wang will now continue on in the competition, in hopes of being named one of 250 Regional Finalists.

Clarification: The headline in the story published on page 1 of the newspaper on Thursdays, Jan. 28. read "Home Winery Gets Denied by Chester Zoning Board," may have lead readers to think the winery operation was denied. The Zoning Board denied the expansion of the winery operation. The business had previously been granted the ability to conduct business in a home in a residential zone.

updates and determine if they are worth it or not. Once more research has been done, the board will discuss it again at a future meeting.

The next order of business was a public hearing regarding the acceptance of Labrador Lane. The street has the potential of becoming a public roadway, but improvements need to be made through slope, cistern, and drainage easements.

The board decided to hold on their decision of accepting the new road, as they don't understand why the residents of Labrador Lane need to be notified of the easements.

They expressed the fact that easements are already in the site plans and they were likely told about them when they signed the deeds. Once that is clarified by the Town Council, the Board of Selectmen will make their decision on the matter in a future meeting.

The Board also continued their discussion of their opinion letter that they want to send to the New Hamp. Public Utilities Commission (PUC) concerning HAWC and their petition to increase rates. The Hampstead Area Water Company, Inc. (HAWC) petitioned to the PUC to increase the rates of their costs so that they can reach a certain revenue requirement so that they can better control the water in the area.

The board is concerned that the jump in costs may be too much. Selectmen Chad Bennett said, "The [fire] hydrant alone is a big factor with budgeting. I don't see much of an explanation of why that has gotten so high."

Chairperson Sean Murphy will work with the Water Resource Committee to write a letter that will be sent to the PUC addressing concerns that the Selectmen have such as costs. Once the letter is written, the other Selectmen will review it before it gets sent to the PUC.

Pinkerton Hopes To Return to Hybrid Model Next Week

In a letter to the students, families and staff at Pinkerton Academy, Headmaster, Dr. Timothy J. Powers suggested that the school hopes to return to the Hybrid Model for classes next Monday.

The letter reads as follows:

"This week we are reporting 10 new cases of COVID-19 in our school community. We remain hopeful that our numbers will support us returning to the hybrid model on Monday, Feb. 8.

This week we started Semester 2, and as we continue in the remote setting, we know parents and students might need additional support.

This past Wednesday our Behavior Interventionist Melissa Harrison and our Prevention Specialist

Julie Donovan held a webinar for parents to help increase student engagement in their classes. You can find the slides and recording of the webinar on our homepage in the news section.

Additionally, you can find links to several academic support systems we have in place for remote learning there as well.

During this fully remote schedule, Pinkerton Academy will begin piloting a Student Mentor Program for small groups of students. Teachers will facilitate the groups and provide support to students who are struggling with remote learning. We hope to continue the program for the remainder of the school year. The Student Mentor Program will take place Wednesdays at 12:15 p.m.

Emails have gone to some students (and guardians) who have been identified as potentially benefiting from the program. If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Colin Walker at cwalker@pinkertonacademy.org.

The course selection window for next year's classes will be open from Feb. 1 to Feb. 12. Students will make their selections in Aspen. See the homepage for more information."

OBITUARY

Janet (Wormwood) Wood

Janet (Wormwood) Wood died in her home on Jan. 28 after a long and courageous battle with cancer. She was born in Haverhill, MA on Sept. 28, 1928, a daughter of the late Frank and Charlotte (Kimball) Wormwood. She resided in Chester, NH for the past 9 years, previously residing in West Newbury, MA.

Her family was her greatest joy. She is survived by two daughters, Nancy Carlson and her husband Robert Carlson of Salisbury, NY and Judy Riccio and her husband Michael Riccio of Chester, NH. She loved her 4 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren and followed all their accomplishments in school, sports and careers.

She loved to travel, garden, paint and sew. Her many travels around the globe gave her wonderful memories and lasting friendships. Her memory lives on thru the many treasures she created whether painted, sewn or crafted.

Growing up in West Newbury she enjoyed the days spent at the family homestead where her many aunts, uncles and cousins would gather. This Carr family homestead represented 9 generations of family and was a source of history and pride for her. She kept many family heirlooms and documents, many dating back to the mid and late 1800's.

Her life was full and her blessings were many but she was no stranger to sorrow. She is predeceased by her brother, Frank Wormwood Jr, her husband, William Wood and her son Roderick Wood. While she carried these tragedies with a heavy heart she developed an inner strength that carried her thru an amazing 92 years. She was beautiful, strong and loved. She will be dearly missed.

Following cremation, a memorial service will be held at a later date. Memorial donations can be made to St Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105. The Peabody Funeral Homes and Crematorium, 15 Birch St., Derry is assisting the family with arrangements.

'Festival of Planes' at Aviation Museum of NH Extended to Sunday, Feb. 7

Walk-through exhibit features more than 1,000 model planes and toy aircraft, plus new 50-foot-long 'Wall of Planes'

Due to popular demand, the Aviation Museum's 'Festival of Aviation Toys and Model Aircraft' has been extended for two weeks, to Sunday, Feb. 7.

The walk-through exhibit, which features aviation-themed toys, models, puzzles, and promotional items from the past 100 years, has proven popular enough to outlast its seasonal origins.

It will now remain open through Sunday, Feb. 7.

"We're delighted at the interest in our exhibit, which continues to attract visitors from a wide area," said Jeff Rapsis, executive director of the Aviation Museum, located in the original 1937 passenger terminal at Manchester-Boston Regional Airport.

The exhibit opened in December as a holiday attraction designed to highlight the long-standing connection between aviation and toys. Made up of several collections as well as items from the Aviation Museum's own archive, the display covers more than a century of aviation and aerospace history. Themes range from the Wright Brothers to sci-fi favorites as Star Trek, Star Wars, and more.

Also on display are vintage toy aircraft piloted by celebrities including Bugs Bunny, Mickey Mouse, Elmo, and Barbie.

"You'll find everyone from Charles Lindbergh to Buzz Lightyear in our display," Rapsis said.

New this year is the 'Wall of Planes,' a series of nine sets of glass shelves stretching 50 feet in length that display many of the museum's high-end and collectible model aircraft.

The models in the 'Wall of Planes' are grouped according to era and purpose. A reference guide enables visitors to look up information about each aircraft on display.

"The 'Wall of Planes' is amazing just to gaze at, but you can also learn a lot about aviation, history, politics, technology, and more," Rapsis said.

The Aviation Museum follows all recommended Covid-19 public health protocols. Facial coverings are required, social distancing must be observed, visitors must follow a one-way route, and the museum has reduced its capacity to 24 people at one time.

The exhibit also includes a demonstration of vintage working toys which children are encouraged to play with, including wind-up toys, savings banks, and battery-operated models. All toys are sanitized and cleaned after each use.

The walk-through 'Festival of Planes' exhibit is designed to be an immersive experience, complete with Christmas trees, a fireplaced living room, and a starry winter sky filled with model planes flying overhead.

The 'Festival of Planes' exhibit is supported by the Top Fun Aviation Museum of Fitchburg, Mass.; Manchester-Boston Regional Airport; Aubin Hardware of Goffstown; and the Cogswell Benevolent Trust.

The main source of toys and models on display is the collection of the Top Fun Aviation Toy Museum, which totals more than 3,000 items and is on loan to the Aviation Museum of N.H.

Other sources include a fleet of hand-made model aircraft built by Howard Becker of Goffstown, N.H. and recently donated to the Aviation Museum; and a collection of pristine Pacific Aircraft collectible models donated in 2019 by Mauro Scali of Londonderry, N.H.

The 'Festival of Planes' exhibit of aviation toys and model aircraft is included with museum admission of $10 per person; $5 children under 13, seniors 65+, veterans/active military. Members and children under age 5, holiday gifts, keepsakes, and mementos.

Volunteer Wendell Berthelsen and grandson Otis check out the display of rotored aircraft, part of the 'Festival of Planes' exhibit of more than 1,000 aviation toys and model aircraft on display.

The Aviation Museum is open Fridays and Saturdays 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sundays 1 to 7 p.m.

The Aviation Museum of N.H. is located at 27 Navigator Road, Londonderry, N.H. It can be reached via Exit 1 on Interstate 293 in Manchester and heading south on South Willow Street past the Mall of New Hampshire entrance; then follow the brown "Aviation Museum" directional signs.

No toys or models in the 'Festival of Planes' are for sale, but the Aviation Museum gift shop offers a range of aviation-themed

All proceeds support the Aviation Museum of N.H., a non-profit 501(c)3 tax-exempt organization dedicated to celebrating New Hampshire's role in aviation history and inspiring tomorrow's pioneers, innovators and aerospace professionals.

The 'Festival of Planes' exhibit of aviation toys and model aircraft will be open through Sunday, Feb. 7. # February is National Children's Dental Health Month

The dedicated dental hygienists of The Children's Dental Network (CDN) and the Salem Children's Dental Network (SCDN) have provided dental health messages to students in grades K through 5 in Derry, Londonderry, Chester, Hampstead, Sandown, as well as Windham and Salem for 28 years. Students in local schools have received oral health education through dental health presentations in their classrooms, where students learn about the importance of good nutrition, healthy snacking and proper dental care habits. These programs also offer students, without access to dental care in grades Pre-K through 8, preventive dental services in school, with parent permission. Services include dental screenings, cleanings, fluoride, sealants, temporary fillings and referrals to local dentists. "Bringing care to kids" is a model that has been working in many schools across the state for decades.

February is National Children's Dental Health Month. The Children's Dental Network, this year, more than ever, wants everyone to be aware of the vital importance of good oral health. During the pandemic, with many students and families spending more time at home, snacking is a popular way to fill idle time and sometimes to relieve stress. The cabinets and refrigerator are at the ready to provide an endless supply of sweet treats and sugary drinks.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, many schools have restricted access to their buildings which caused the program offered by The Children's Dental Network to create new options for parents. For many students, a school dental visit may be their only opportunity to receive dental care. Many families do not have dental insurance, have reduced wages, are unemployed and may experience other barriers to access care. Those students most vulnerable to dental disease may miss out on the care they need.

This year the Covid-19 pandemic has greatly hindered the efforts of our program. Thinking outside the box, the Children's Dental Network is still able to offer parents free dental care for their children in a small office space in Derry.

The Salem school district allowed the program to operate in their schools this past November and December, with enhanced infection control measures in place. In total, 142 students received dental care. The hope is by spring, other towns will follow their lead and allow the dental team of the Children's Dental Network to "bring care to kids" once again.

The Children's Dental Network and the Salem Children's Dental Network are sister programs of the Greater Derry Oral Health Collaborative Corporation, which is a non-profit organization governed by a Board consisting of professionals in our community. Local dentists, school nurses, a principal, school social worker, lawyer and hygienist are a few of the members who donate their time to help improve oral health in the towns we serve. CDN is funded mainly by the Alexander Eastman Foundation. SCDN is funded by the Salem School District and community organizations.

February is National Children's Dental Health

Month and every child deserves a healthy smile!
