

Chester School Board Outlines its Capital Improvement Plan

PAUL CONYERS
NUTFIELD NEWS

CHESTER - The Chester School Board held a public meeting for its Oct. 11 Public Forum. The Forum was to explain the Capital Improvement Plan for Chester Academy and the budget for the upcoming year.

"For us, once the fiscal year ends on June 30, we actually start the planning for the following year," explained School Board Chair, Royal Richardson. "The first thing that we work on is the Capital Improvement Plan."

The Board used the meeting to explain how that Plan fits into the annual budgeting process. The Improvement Plan covers spending proposals over the next seven years, though it is updated every year.

Vice Chair, Jonathan Eckerman, explained the planning process. "We start with the Facilities Director taking a look at all the direct needs on campus... the Facilities Director goes and gets bids, so we have a realistic estimate of the cost. We're not just throwing numbers at it; we actually get numbers we can work with."

The Board last went through the Plan in September to plug it into the budget. They will present their findings to the Chester Planning Board on Oct. 19. The Budget Committee will look over the Improvement Plan next January. Public comments for the school budget will open in February, with possible approval in March 2023.

Capital reserve funds allow the Board to put money in every year to pay for large, expensive projects. According to Richardson, "less than three percent of the budget is related to capital improvements." The numbers are likely to increase as none of the estimates have taken inflation into account, although changing that is a priority.

"As part of recommendations from Homeland Security, our main office and entry design are in need of reconfiguration, we need to rethink how we access the building," Eckerman explained, when asked about upcoming projects.

Hampstead Selectmen Stays Firm On COLA Increases

NUTFIELD NEWS

HAMPSTEAD - During the Oct. 12 Hampstead Board of Selectmen meeting, one of the agenda items was in regards to cost of living adjustments for the upcoming year.

It was explained by Hampstead Finance Director, Tina Harrington, that there was a request by the department heads to reconsider their policy, which is an increase of 3 percent.

Selectmen Steve Morse said when they made the decision last year they looked at the 10-year rolling average for social security COLAs.

Morse added that compared to the 0 or 1 percent they got in years past they felt that the increase of three percent was a fair compromise.

"I felt this was a good compromise," said Morse.

Morse explained he felt that while they understand the employees point of view they are at least getting an increase.

"At the end of the day at least you're getting something on top of your merit unless you're maxed out," said Morse.

He said down the road, however, the bigger discussion may be looking at reevaluating their wages overall.

The Selectmen ultimately agreed not to change the policy.

Also during the meeting Hampstead Police Chief, Joseph Beaudoin, asked permission to use detail funds for the Turkey Trot so that way they don't have to use funds from their fundraising efforts, which the Board of Selectmen approved. Beaudoin said it's something they do each year.

In personnel news, Beaudoin stated they have been searching for a new full time officer to fill one of the vacancies they have.

After conducting interviews Beaudoin said they are hoping to hire a 27 year

NUTFIELD NEWS

DERRY - The community lost one of its most devoted members last week. Retired Derry Police Chief Edward B. Garone passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 11, following a lengthy illness.

This comes just a few weeks after he officially relinquished his post to current Police Chief George Feoli during a ceremony that featured a lengthy parade rolling by Garone and his family you were stationed at the Greater Derry Boys and Girls Club in East Derry.

Garone was also honored earlier in the summer with a massive retirement party held in Manchester on June 1, celebrating his 50-years of service as the Police Chief. Hundreds gathered at the event and paid tribute to his longstanding service the community.

On June 29, Garone was honored by having the Derry Police Station named the "Edward B. Garone Building."

Chief Garone served as a law enforcement officer for 58-years, beginning on Oct. 15, 1964, with the Lebanon N.H. Police Department. He began serving as the Derry Chief of Police on June 1, 1972 until his retirement on Sept. 30.

Chief Garone is survived by his wife Blanche, his son Michael and his wife Rebecca, his daughter Vicky Moran and her husband Frank, his grandchildren Aiden Garone, Alexander Garone, Maureen Marquis, and her husband Ryan, and his two foster grandchildren, Carleigh Sullivan and Ethan Sullivan Dupuis.

In a recent article published in the Nutfield News, Garone said, "I know a lot of police officers say, 'I always wanted to be a police officer.' I wasn't one of those."

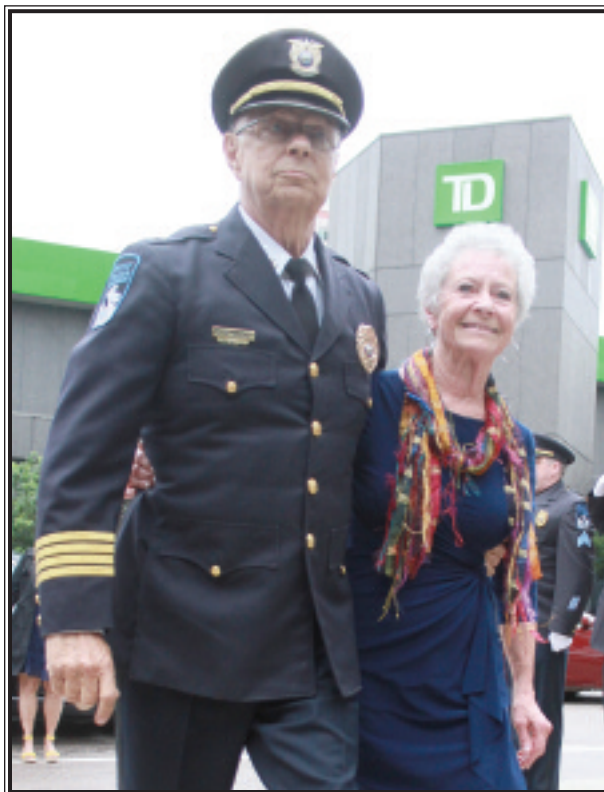

Yet, he settled into the police force and was a great asset to the Derry community for the past 50-years.

Garone's life was dedicated to public service, beginning by serving a three-year tour of duty in the United States Marine Corps from 1961-64.

After returning from the Marine Corps, he began a career in law enforcement.

He was dedicated to the Derry community and had a civic-minded devotion to many organizations. In 1984, the Derry Chamber of Commerce recognized him as its Citizen of the Year.

Girls Club Board of Directors for over 45-years. He was a President of the Club, and Chairman of the Capital Campaign to build a new Club.

Garone was also a member of the Derry Rotary Club for over 48-years, serving as President and was a Member of the Board of Directors. He received the Paul Harris Fellow recognition and was awarded Rotarian of the Year for 1987-1988 and was the longest serving Rotarian.

He was also the Director of the Derry Veteran's Assistance Fund and was one of the initial Board of Directors and served as a past President.

Garone served on the Board of Directors and as President for the Vivian Leon Memorial Foundation, which is a charitable foundation that provides funds each year to local charities.

He was on the Board of Directors for the Alexander Eastman Foundation and for the Seacoast Child Advocacy Center and the New England State Police Information Network.

In 2015, he received the New Hampshire Congressional Law Enforcement Award for Career Service for his 50 years of outstanding dedication and commitment to New Hampshire Law Enforcement.

Chief Garone also had a family home where he was born and raised in Bradford, Vermont. In 2006, he became a Commissioner for the Bradford Police Commission responsible for the oversight of the Police Department. In 2010 the Commission was renamed the Public Safety Commission, with additional oversight of the Fire Department and Rescue Squad, which he served on until the time of his death.

There were no calling hours for the chief. A graveside services concluding with military honors will be held on Thursday, Oct. 20, at 9 a.m. at the N.H. State Veteran's Cemetery, Route 3, Boscawen, NH.

Chester Road Agent Looks For 20 Percent Increase

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

CHESTER - The Chester Board of Selectmen discussed the 2023 Road Agent budget during the Oct. 13 meeting.

Road Agent, Michael Oleson, explained he was looking for a 20 percent increase across the board for their budget this year.

He explained at the last second last year the Board of Selectmen cut $40,000 to $50,000 from the budget.

Oleson pointed out this will be his last budget cycle as Road Agent as they move to a full time employee instead of having someone elected.

"It's a bottom line budget. It's going to be somebody's else's budget," said Oleson.

Oleson stated everything they need is going up including labor.

"Everything is going up like crazy," said Oleson.

It was also pointed out by Oleson that he didn't get an increase last year in the budget.

"I'm staying with the 20 percent across the board," said Oleson.

Oleson added that they are being mindful of the funds they have, but don't know how the winter will be this year.

"I don't know what the winter's going to bring," said Oleson.

He said if the price of fuel goes up the way he thinks it will then they will be seeing big increases.

Board of Selectmen Chairman, Chuck Myette, said if they are going to be running a deficit in their budget this year then it would be important to let them know.

Oleson said he probably wouldn't know until around February about where they will be in the budget. Right now they are wrapping up most of their work until they get into the plowing season.

"The biggest stuff we do all summer long is just about wrapping up," said Oleson.

Oleson said right now they have two full time people, but he works to fill the void.

He explained that if they wanted to add a full time position they would need to add about $35,000 into the salary line.

Oleson also pointed out that in the past he would fill holiday and vacation time and under the new model they will need staff to do it.

"You're going to have to have staff to cover all this vacation time," said Oleson.

Overall he said they expect there will be a number of different changes next year.

"There's going to be growing pains," said Oleson.

The consensus was they would look at adding a fourth full time employee down the road and determine if it is needed or not.

Oleson recognized the proposal would be a big increase.

"It's a big increase," said Oleson.

Hampstead School Board Discusses Snow Plowing This Winter

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

HAMPSTEAD - During the Oct. 11 Hampstead School Board meeting, one of the agenda items was in regards to snow plowing this year.

School Board Chair, David Smith, explained he and the administration have been communicating with Town officials regarding snow plowing for the upcoming winter.

He explained they have been having a hard time finding snow plow drivers.

"They're a bit understaffed," said Smith.

Smith said the discussions were about how they can get plowing done this winter while the Town is short on drivers because of it, they decided to take on the responsibility for the plowing of the parking lots and St. Anne's Church.

"We are planning on this winter plowing our own parking lots and driveways," said Smith.

Hampstead Superintendent, Bob Thompson, said he spoke to other school districts who have also been experiencing issues with their towns not being able to find drivers.

"The problem we are experiencing with a driver shortage is happening all around the state," said Thompson.

It was explained by Thompson they have an issue with parking at the Central School, which is why they have some staff and visitors park at the church.

"In exchange for using that lot we maintain it during the winter for snow plowing," said Thompson.

Thompson stated the school has constantly done snow removal with the assistance of the town and they are prepared to do it again.

"It's within our wheelhouse to maintain the lots," said Thompson.

Thompson added he is hopeful this will be a one year fix. "We hope this will be temporary," said Thompson.

It was pointed out by Smith that one of the issues that they will be faced with is the additional cost.

Smith said for next year's budget they may want to up the snow plowing line in the budget since they usually do it during overtime.

Thompson thought they will be able to handle the budget aspect of it.

"I think we can manage it," said Thompson.

District CFO, Geoffrey Dowd, said they have the personnel to do it, however, he hopes things will work out.

"We have the manpower to do it," said Dowd.

Dowd stated they will also be able to use some of the equipment that the Town owns since they don't have their own equipment for it.

Smith said he is also happy they were able to find out early from the Town they would likely need to plow on their own this year.

Losing a Legend

For a few months now, we have known that we may be losing Derry's Police Chief, Ed Garone, it began with a massive retirement party held on June 1, celebrating his 50-years of service. Hundreds gathered at the event and paid tribute to his long-standing service to the community.

On June 29, the town of Derry honored Garone by naming the Police Station as the Edward B. Garone Building.

On Sept. 30, a final tribute was conducted by the department and the town, as he officially relinquished his post to George Feoli during a parade that rolled by Garone and his family at the Greater Derry Boys and Girls Club in East Derry.

Sadly, Ed lost his battle with cancer last week and now there will be a large void in the lives of anyone that had the pleasure of knowing him.

Besides his duty as a police officer, Garone sat on countless boards as well as giving up much of his personal time to help with community committees and clubs.

He was always available for fund raising efforts by the Derry Rotary, where he was a 48-year member and past president.

He would lend a hand to the Derry Garden Club, a club his wife Blanche has had tremendous involvement in.

Over the years, we had countless interactions with Ed and we can personally name a number of occasions where Garone showed why there will never be anyone that will match his devotion to the community.

He would always greet you with a smile, a handshake, and a joke. We loved that about him. It never seemed like you were talking with the Chief of Police, he was just a guy who loved volunteering.

One moment that always stands out to me took place during the annual Derry Rotary Auction. I was looking at a roll-top desk that was sitting out in the viewing area, but noticed a draw side was missing. I asked Ed if he had seen it and he suggested we check the dumpster.

Sure enough, someone had thrown it out. It was in pieces. "You want it?" he said. I figured I could glue it back together, so I told him I'd climb in and retrieve it.

Ed stopped me, "I'll get it." He jumped over the five-foot high dumpster and retrieved every broken piece.

I'll always remember that moment and I can't imagine many others would have done the same.

Another memorable moment was when a friend told me of the time he and his father-in-law, who was a veteran, were in line at a store when Ed engaged with them, and offered them a trip to Washington through the Rotary.

He didn't know Ed, but was instantly taken by his kindness.

We will surly miss Ed Garone, he was a great man to have known and we're sure has left an impression on all those he's met in his life.

RE: Opportunity for Reasonable Representation in NH House

To the editor,

In this midterm election, Derry has a chance for some real improvement. Our State Reps have brought so much bad publicity to Derry and have created too much division in our community. Some of them have left a real stain on our town. We need representatives who will work to improve our community, bring people together, and respectably represent all of us who live here. Yes, historically we've been a solid red town when it comes to elections. Where has that gotten us? Our current reps haven't done anything for Derry at the statehouse—just ask the Town Council, the School Board, and other governing board members what they think of the current reps. It's time for a change and there's a coordinated group of candidates running against them that deserve the town's attention: Ellen Gallo, Craig Cunningham, Elizabeth Greenberg, Johnathan West and Michelle Moge' are a group called Derry Unity. Their positions are reasonable and measured. They state that they will be available and accountable to Derry residents and that they will work with the town government collaboratively to advocate for Derry at the State House. Most of them are first-timers. Almost anyone would be better than what we've had, but Derry may have hit the jackpot with this particular group of State Rep candidates. Let's shake things up around here. We can do better. Check out DerryU-nity.org and get out and vote.

Support of Democrats

To the editor,

The NH GOP cut both the Business Profits Tax (BPT) and the Business Enterprise Tax (BET) in the latest legislative session and are quite proud of it, but are you better off for it?

The GOP leadership says this helps companies "create jobs, invest in capital equipment, and take care of their employees" (Majority Leader Jason Osborne, July 13, 2022 OP-ed). The argument is that 90% of the entities paying this tax are NH based, and while that's true we need to understand that 60% of all BPT taxes collected come from out of state companies. These tax breaks help out-of-state companies like Walmart, Amazon, and even Rep. Osbornes, now defunct, out of state company Mammoth Tech Inc. If they wanted to help NH based companies, they could have changed the law to say NH based companies pay less.

These 2 business taxes accounted for almost $725 million dollars in 2019. This money will need to be made up or services will have to be reduced. Once again, when combined with other tax breaks, the NH GOP is helping the wealthiest corporations take more money from NH, meanwhile the rest of us are left with all the bills. Aren't our property taxes high enough already?

We need to elect Representatives that will look out for the average NH resident and businesses, not just wealthy individuals and large corporations. I am supporting the Democratic candidates up and down the ticket on Nov. 8 and hope you will too.

Respectful Protestors

To the editor,

Several months ago myself and several others were out in Derry protesting the overturning of Roe v. Wade. The vast majority of people drove by quietly. Some honked in support or gave us thumbs up. A few drove by and indicated disapproval of our stance but did so in a "polite" way, thumbs down. A very small number of people used inappropriate language and gestures.

Overall, I was very proud to be a Derry resident while protesting, because the vast majority of people were civil regardless of their position. It is great to live in a community that is respectful of others, and in a country where the first amendment is so cherished.

Sadly some of the individuals who showed the least respect were driving business vehicles. In one case in particular, a car beeped at us and as we looked over we saw Rep. John Potucek giving us a rather lewd hand gesture, with his campaign signs proudly displayed on his vehicle. We don't need to agree on issues, however I prefer to patronize businesses that respect their customers. I also believe politicians should demon-

Derry School Board Looking to Make Improvements With ESSER Funds

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

DERRY - At the Oct. 11 Derry School Board meeting, possible HVAC improvements were discussed.

It was explained by School Board Chair, Erika Cohen, they received ESSER funds from the federal government to help address issues from the covid-19 pandemic.

"It can also cover air improvements in schools," said Cohen.

Cohen explained one of the things they could use the funds on is to have engineering work done to come up with a proposal about what kind of projects could be done to improve things like HVAC systems, and other ventilation systems inside the schools. She said they could also use the funds to pay for some of the projects that are identified.

"They would basically be covered by funds outside of taxpayer impact," said Cohen.

The School Board heard a presentation from Jim Lucy from Honeywell, a company that Cohen said they have used for many years to help them navigate how to make their schools more energy efficient.

Lucy presented the Board with different potential upgrades they could make at the schools noting that generally they are for replacing equipment and ventilation systems and putting in new ones.

He told the School Board the estimated project development cost would be $250,000, which includes 100 percent design drawings.

Lucy said they are recommending they use the funds to perform the engineering work and get construction estimates for what could be done with ESSER funds over the next two summers.

Business Administrator, Jane Simard, said they would be allowed to use a sole source vendor since they are already existing in the buildings and they wouldn't want to have some controls through one vendor and then other schools through another vendor.

Lucy explained that some of the work for South Range school includes providing CO2 control for the gym/ multi-purpose room, upgrading the bathroom exhaust system, and making boiler room code upgrades.

He added that a lot of the scope of work is the same for South Range and Derry Village.

"This scope of work is very similar at South Range and Derry Village," said Lucy.

Lucy also noted they would recommend looking at adding a backup boiler for both those schools.

"You have no back up," said Lucy.

At Ernest P. Barka Elementary School, which is the newest school building in the District, it was pointed out by Lucy they are still heating the building with water and they are proposing to go to natural gas.

Some of the scope of work for Gilbert Hood Middle School is for replacing eight existing AC systems, and adding ventilation to the original section of the school.

As part of the timeline, the engineering work is expected to be completed this March or April and then a final proposal would be submitted in May of 2023. If the school district moves forward with having work done it would need to be completed by September of 2024 in order to use the federal funds.

The School Board ultimately voted in favor of moving forward with having the engineering work done with School Board member, Jonathan Dugan, voting against it.

Sandown Selectmen Approve New Salt Shed Purchase

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

SANDOWN - The purchase of a salt shed for the Highway Department was discussed at the Oct. 3 Sandown Selectmen meeting.

Sandown Town Administrator, Lynne Blaisdell, explained that a quote was provided from Iron Horse for $78,000 to build the building and $40,000 for the foundation for a total cost of $118,000. It was noted it didn't include the price for site work or things like permits.

She told the Board of Selectmen they would be required to pay 50% down, 30% when the materials get there, and the rest of it would be due when the salt shed is completed.

Blaisdell told the Board of Selectmen the other company's bid came in at $158,000 and weren't local, which is why they were more inclined to go with Iron Horse.

It was pointed out that during the previous meeting, Selectmen, Darren Hudgins, had some concerns, but the Selectmen determined the two quotes were essentially "apples to apples" and his concern is that it wasn't.

"It looked to be the same," said Selectmen, Eric Olsen.

Selectmen Chairman, Jonathan Goldman, said it is ultimately the same square footage.

He noted that one of the only differences is that the more expensive bid had a longer warranty.

"I'm okay going forward assuming Darren has no issues," said Goldman.

It was noted by Blais-dell the price was within the budget for it.

The Board of Selectmen ultimately approved going forward with the purchase.

Also during the meeting, the Selectmen reviewed a septage agreement with Allenstown for a hauled waste discharge permit for 2023.

It was explained by Blaisdell the agreement is for if their contracted septage waste haulers aren't able to dispose of it at their normal facilities.

Blaisdell told the Selectmen that under the RSA it is required they have a written agreement with a septage receiving facility.

The Selectmen ultimately unanimously approved having Blaisdell sign the agreement with Allenstown and to pay the $100 fee for it.

During liaison reports, Olsen, who is the liaison for the Highway Department, noted that construction began on Odell Road, Cross Road, and the intersection of Hunt Pond Road and Royal Range Road.

For the Fire Department liaison report, Goldman told the Selectmen that the ambulance returned to them that day after having repairs and the equipment they were able to pay for through a grant will be obtained by the Town soon.

For complaints Blaisdell said she didn't have anything to report on. She told the Selectmen there was an issue regarding Meadowbrook Crossing; however, the resident didn't go to meetings to discuss the issue further.

Chester School Board Approves Snow Day Policies

ALEX MALM
NUTFIELD NEWS

CHESTER - During the Oct. 5 Chester School Board meeting, one of the agenda items was in regards to how they would handle snow days as a district this year.

Superintendent, Sharon Locke, explained she wanted to give parents an overview of what they would do for no school days.

For the first snow day that happens this year they would have a regular "traditional" snow day where they wouldn't have school. They wouldn't have to make up that day at the end of the school year.

After that, for grades kindergarten to second grade, teachers will have scheduled morning meetings and office hours for check ins, which would be recommended, but not required. They would have choice boards for academics.

For the rest of the grades, they would have remote learning days in Google Classroom.

Teachers would have scheduled morning meetings/synchronous learning times and office hours.

School Board member, Sabrina Harris, asked why they were adopting the policy and for the reliance on remote learning.

It was explained by Locke it was based on feedback from the prior year when they had a more varied approach to dealing with the different inclement weather days. She added it made more sense to have a planned strategy than to notify them what would happen on snow days.

The School Board voted unanimously in favor of supporting the snow days plan.

Also during the meeting, Locke brought up moving their custodian from a part time position to a full time position, which was discussed previously.

It was explained by School Board Chair, Royal Richardson, Martin McFarland, who is the facilities director for the school district has been looking to convert the position from part time to full time for a while. He stated McFarland reached out to him, Locke and the principal discussed it should be added into the next budget.

Richardson explained

it's an issue regarding staff coverage and safety. They often have custodians working alone or by themselves in different parts of the building where something like a slip and fall could be significant.

It was explained the cost to make the conversion for the rest of the year would be $14,060 for salary, $3,954 for NH retirement and $1,076 for FICA.

The School Board ultimately unanimously approved converting the position from a part time position to a full time position for the remainder of the year for a total of $19,090.

Another future plan is a new playground for the elementary school. The Board has preliminary renderings of new play structures and open space for physical education. Members hope to make it a community project, raising money through fundraisers and sponsorships over the next few months.

The small audience only had a few questions about Capital Improvement priorities.

“I’m curious as to why the security stuff is so far out,” asked PTA member, Megan Donovan. “Recent years have shown that maybe that should be a higher priority than some other things.”

Richardson explained that the Board is waiting to see what extra funds the Board will have at the end of the year.

There are many priorities, and the Board already has a security system in place, with a possible reconfiguration as an upgrade, not an addition.

old with three years of experience.

“He would really like to go to work with us,” said Beaudoin.

Some of the pluses that Beaudoin pointed to is that the candidate lives in Hampstead, is willing to work midnight shifts and is already certified as a full time officer.

He added that they are currently doing background checks on him.

During the Department Heads reports section of the meeting, Hampstead Fire Chief, Michael Carrier, said they have an old skid unit from their forestry vehicle that they want to sell.

He explained that the value is around $750.

“We have no use for it,” said Carrier.

Carrier added that they didn’t want to go out to bid for it since it is only for specific uses and he thought it made more sense to put it on the open market.

“I was just trying to avoid the closed seal process,” said Carrier.

Instead Carrier said they wanted to put it on social media to see if there is any interest in it.

The Board of Selectmen ultimately unanimously approved posting the forestry skid unit on social media in order to sell it.

Pinkerton Academy Girls' Soccer Add to Winning Streak

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

The Pinkerton Academy Girls' Soccer team is heading into the final week of the regular season with a pair of 2-1 wins.

The two victories gave the Astros a five game winning streak as they look to put themselves in a good position on the Division I playoff bracket.

The first win last week came during a road trip to the seacoast, at Winnacunnet High School, on Tuesday, Oct. 11, where the Astros came away with the first 2-1 win of the week and increased their season record to 8-5.

All the goals in this contest were scored in the second half, with Pinkerton goals coming from senior Emily Hood and sophomore Kayla Silveira.

Assists were delivered by senior Kayla Franks and junior Kathryn Bedard.

Astros tender senior, Libby Williams, had three stops in the victory.

Two days later, on Thursday, Oct. 13, the Astros hosted the Bedford Lady Bulldogs, who had only lost one game this season.

In that contest, Pinkerton battled Bedford through 80-minutes of regulation to a 1-1 tie, but then scored in overtime for the win.

The Bulldogs took the early advantage, scoring the only goal in the first half, but PA junior Hannah Sippel tied the game in the second half.

In overtime, Sippel was able to put in the game winning goal for the team's fifth straight win.

Assists went to sophomore Verity Ungaro and Bedard.

Williams made nine saves in the game and was a big reason for the win.

Pinkerton's record moved to 9-5 with the win.

The Lady Astros will have road games against Nashua South and Hanover in the final week of the regular season and both have 7-7 records.

Astros junior Hannah Sippel had two goals against Bedford last week one was the game-winner in OT.

Exeter High School were the State Champions, shooting a combined score of 383 on the Par 72 course. Bedford High School took second (391) and Keene shot a 391 for third place.

Senior standout Julianna Megan, who placed second at the Girl's Championship, had the lowest round of the day for the Astros shooting an 81 with two birdies on the back nine. Megan also carded eight pars, six bogeys and two others.

Tyler Morin shot an 83 with one birdie, eight pars and seven bogeys.

Astros Boys' Soccer Squad Head to Final Week at 6-5-4

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

The Pinkerton Academy Boys' Soccer squad is heading into the final week of the regular season in the 13th spot of the Division I standings with just one game left in the regular season.

Astros senior Noah Sands had one of the goals against Winnacunnet last week.

The Astros team battled Winnacunnet through 80-minutes of regulation and two overtime periods for a 1-1 tie to start the week and finished the week with a tough road trip to Bedford where they fell to the Bulldogs 4-1.

In the home game against the Warriors on Tuesday, Oct. 11, the lone Pinkerton goal was scored by senior Noah Sands with an assist from fellow senior Cam McMahon.

Head coach, Kerry Boles, expected a better result, saying, "Today was a disappointing outcome after having such a great and productive week last week. Hopefully we can fix our physical and mental mis-cues as we head into our final two games."

He also mentioned that seniors Zack Viger and Gabe Konopka had very good games despite the disappointing outcome.

Three days later, at Bedford High School, the Astros suffered their fifth loss of the season, being outscored 4-1 by the Bulldogs.

Junior Zack Smith had the only goal in the loss and the Astros now head into the final week at 6-5-4.

Boles commented, "We have made great progress this season and we work really hard each day. Unfortunately, hard work doesn't always equate to success or productivity. Today is a prime example of that."

He added, "This group has the potential to do great things, but we are still trying to clean up bad habits and mistakes that we've seen this season."

The Pinkerton boys began the week in Bedford on Monday.

The final game of the team's regular season will be on Friday, Oct. 21, against Hanover High School (10-4) in a Senior Day game starting at 4 p.m.

Astros Cross Country Teams See Success in Two States

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

The Pinkerton Academy Cross Country teams had first place team finishes in both the Granite State and the Bay State over the weekend.

The boys' team traveled to Boston Mass., where they won the 61st Annual Catholic Memorial Invitational and the girls traveled to Pelham and won that school's invitational event.

The Pinkerton Academy Trailblazers competed at the Pelham Invitational at Pelham High School and the varsity squad had some outstanding performances.

The Astros varsity squad won the meet with 43-points. Oyster River took second place with 72-points and Hopkinton finished in third with a total of 75.

The PA team was led by junior captain, Tess Silva, who finished fourth, overall, with a time of 18:55. Sophomore Althea LeBlanc was also inside the top 10 with a 19 second Personal Record (PR) of 20:19. The freshmen trio of Sarah Rzasas, Gabrielle Bedard, and Kali Marzolf finished 12th (20:29), 13th (20:35), and 14th (20:42), respectively. Rzasas's time was a one-second PR. Other strong PA performances were from senior captain, Grace Jellow, with a season best 21:39 and Sophomore Sydney Sexton running at 22:39.

BOYS

Pinkerton's Long Red Line traveled to Boston on Saturday, Oct. 15, and won the 61st Annual Catholic Memorial Invitational held at Franklin Park. This was the first time since 2015 the Astros have taken home the first place trophy at that event.

Pinkerton Academy had a team score of 56 for the win. Nashua South took second place with 91 and North Andover had a 97 for third place. Winnacunnet High School was fourth with a 115.

Finishing first for the Astros, for the second week in a row, was junior Finn Christensen Kraft, who placed seventh overall with a time of 17:11. Fellow junior, Nathan Binda, placed ninth with his time of 17:15. Senior Theo Davis finished with a tremendous surge and placed 11th with a time of 17:18. Sophomore Noah Daigle placing 16th in a time of 17:28 and senior Elias Brodeur crossed the finish line in 17:45 placing 18th.

Rounding out the Astros top seven were juniors Aiden Dowd (17:59) and Cody Santomassimo (18:14) placing 25th and 33rd respectively.

PA Football Suffer Second Loss

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

The Pinkerton Academy Football squad suffered its second loss of the season in an out of conference game against Brockton High School in Massachusetts on Saturday afternoon.

The loss high-scoring 59-44 loss didn't effect their standing in the Division I Central conference. The Astros still sit at 5-1 headed into the final two weeks of the fall sports season.

They will finish the regular season up with two home games.

The first contest will be on Friday night, Oct. 21, against Manchester Central High School, who have only one win this season.

Pinkerton will end the season with a game against the Concord High School Crimson Tide.

Much like Pinkerton, the Tide's only loss came during a game against the Londonderry Lancers.

Both games have a start time of 7 p.m.

Astros Field Hockey Enter Post-Season as No. 10 Seed

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

The Pinkerton Academy Field Hockey team ended their regular season last week with a two-goal win followed by a two-goal loss and will now head into the post season as the tenth seed with its 7-9 season record.

The Astros started the final week of the regular season with a home contest against Manchester Central-West, where they were able to notch their seventh win, beating that team 4-2.

The win kept PA in the upcoming tournament and it bounced their opponent out.

It took nearly two quarters for either team to get on the board, but PA scored the first goal at 2:52 in the second period. Natalie Paradzick scored with an assist from Aili Carney to go up 1-0 before the half.

In the third, Jaelyn Crossman scored at 3:45 for the 2-0 lead.

The Manchester crew was able to tie the game with a goal to end the third, and one to begin the scoring in the fourth quarter.

Gianna Rosa put PA up for good at 13:20 in the fourth with an assist from Izzy Murphy. At 6:28, Isabelle Toupin gave the Astros a 4-2 lead and goalie, Elise LeBlanc, kept the score there to the end. LeBlanc finished with nine saves and Manchester had 12 saves.

Two days later the Astros took on a very tough Exeter High School squad on that team's home turf.

The Blue Hawks had only lost one game coming into the contest and while PA gave it a gallant effort, they fell 2-0.

LeBlanc had the game of her career in the exciting end to the regular season. Holding Exeter to just one goal for most of the game and making 19 saves.

The Exeter goalie had nine saves in the win.

PA's Gianna Rosa also put forth an outstanding effort.

Pinkerton will now face the number seven seed in the preliminary round of the NHIAA playoff.

The Lady Astros will try to extend their season in a game on the road against Bishop Guertin.

In the regular season, BG beat PA 2-1 in Derry.

Pinkerton Girls' Volleyball Team Head Into Final Week

CHRIS PAUL
NUTFIELD NEWS

The Pinkerton Academy Girls' Volleyball Squad are beginning the final week of their regular season one game below the .500 mark after a win and a loss last week.

Astros head coach, Todd Royce, and his team started last week on Wednesday night, Oct. 12, on the road at Nashua South High School, where they were able to outlast the Purple Panthers in a five set match.

Pinkerton took the first game 25-19, but dropped the following two 21-25 and 23-25. PA took the final sets 25-18 and 15-12 for the hard-fought win.

Junior captain, Sarah Bolduc, led the team in kills with 13. She also had 22 digs in the contest.

Senior captain, Sophia Pheneuf, had 28 service points and five aces.

Sophomores Calli Miller and Brooke Little also tallied five aces in the game.

Freshman Aaliyah Price-Gooden successfully rejected the Panthers at the net with five blocks.

Sophomore Kara Porter put up 24 assists in the victory.

The following night, on their home court, the Lady Astros had another five-set match, and this one went to their Portsmouth opponent by four points in the final game.

Pinkerton lost to the Lady Clippers 25-23, 17-25, 17-25, 25-23 and 11-15.

Despite the loss, PA had a number of standout performances.

Pheneuf finished with 14 kills and Bolduc had 13 kills and 21 digs.

Brooke Little managed 12 service points, four aces and 21 digs.

Price-Gooden and junior Savannah Dunne each got two blocks and Porter tallied 28 assists.

Pinkerton begins the final week of the regular season at 7-8 and are hoping for wins against three opponents.

They played at Winnacunnet (1-14) on Monday, travel to Alvirne High School (5-9) on Wednesday night, and will play their final game of the season at home on Friday night, Oct. 21, against Windham (8-7).

READERS ARE CAUTIONED that we occasionally run ads that require an initial investment or money in advance. We urge our readers to "do their homework" before responding to any ad, check out the advertiser thoroughly and verify their claims to your total satisfaction. Only then should you proceed at your own risk. We try to screen ads that require you to send money before receiving a product or service. But these efforts are no substitute for your own investigation, and we don't endorse or guarantee any claims made in any of the ads we publish. If you want more information about claims made in ads on subjects such as work at home opportunities, travel or vacation specials, purchasing land or vehicles from government surplus or below wholesale, loans or other credit opportunities (including credit repair), or weight loss and other health products and services, we urge you to contact the Office of Attorney General, Consumer Protection Bureau, 33 Capitol Street, Concord, NH 03301 (603-271-3641) or the Better Business Bureau at 603-224-1991.
